3. Finding that all right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of each and all of the persons listed in said Exhibit A, as their interests appear in said Exhibit, in and to certain monies held by the Treasurer of the County of Cook, State of Illinois, pursuant to Order Number 1628 of the Probate Court of said County and State, is property which is in the process of administration by a person (namely, John F. Cahill, administrator of the estate of Edward F. Heuner, deceased) acting under judicial supervision (namely, that of the Probate Court of the County of Cook, State of Illinois) and which is payable or deliverable to or claimed by nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

4. Determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

5. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraphs 2 and 3, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

6. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on December 4, 1942.

[Vesting Order 373]

Chemical Marketing Company, Inc.

Re: All of the capital stock of Chemical Marketing Company, Incorporated.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

(a) Finding that Dr. Ferdinand A. Kertess, New York, New York, is controlled by or acting or purporting to act directly or indirectly for or on behalf of or as a cloak for a designated enemy country (Germany) or a person within such country;

(b) Determining, therefore, that said Dr. Ferdinand A. Kertess is a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country;

(c) Finding that said Dr. Ferdinand A. Kertess is the owner of 200 shares of $100 par value common stock of Chemical Marketing Company, Incorporated, a New York corporation, New York, New York, which is a business enterprise within the United States and which 200 shares constitute all the outstanding capital stock of said corporation, and therefore determining that such business enterprise is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

(d) Determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

(e) Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the shares of stock described in subparagraph (c), to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

(f) Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy "country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION.

[Special Order ODT R-3, Revised]

International-Great Northern Railroad—Texas and New Orleans Railroad Co.

ESTABLISHMENT OF DAILY SHUTTLE TRAIN PASSENGER SERVICE BETWEEN HOUSTON AND HOUSTON SHIPBUILDING CORP. NEAR DEEPWATER, TEXAS

Pursuant to Executive Order No. 8989, issued December 18, 1941, and in order to assure the orderly and expeditious movement of men to points of need and to conserve and providently utilize manpower and existing transportation facilities and service, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. International-Great Northern Railroad and Texas and New Orleans Railroad Company, jointly, shall establish forthwith, maintain, and continue until further order of the Office of Defense Transportation, daily shuttle train scheduled passenger service between the Congress Avenue Passenger Depot of the International-Great Northern Railroad, Houston, Texas, and the plant of the Houston Shipbuilding Corporation near Deepwater, Texas, sufficient to meet the requirements for the transportation between said points of employees of said Houston Shipbuilding Corporation; such shuttle trains shall be operated in interline road service with the minimum number of employees required to conduct such operations with safety and in accordance with the operating rules of the carriers.

2. Communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Division of Railway Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C. and should refer to Special Order ODT R-3, Revised.

3. Special Order ODT R-3 [1] issued December 2, 1942, is hereby revoked effective as of the date of the issuance of this Special Order ODT R-3, Revised.

4. This Special Order ODT R-3, Revised, shall become effective December 24, 1942, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 24th day of December 1942.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[Order 99 Under MPR 188]

American Architectural Iron Co.

ESTABLISHMENT OF TEMPORARY MAXIMUM PRICE

Order No. 99 under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188—Manufacturers' Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods Other Than Apparel Materials. Maximum prices for sale of a new fireplace grate manufactured by American Architectural Iron Company.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order No. 9250, § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, and § 1499.3 (c) of General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered:

(a) This Order No. 99 sets temporary maximum prices for sales of a new fireplace grate manufactured by American Architectural Iron Company, 111 Liverpool Street, East Boston, Massachusetts. It applies only to the grate which has been described in an application submitted by the manufacturer to the Office of Price Administration. The Order is temporary. No sales or deliveries may be made under its authority after the 1st day of April, 1943.

(1) For sales by the manufacturer, the maximum price is $5.00, f. o. b. factory.

(2) For sales at wholesale by a person other than the manufacturer, the maximum price is $6.25, f. o. b. seller's point of shipment.

(3) For sales at retail, the maximum price is $10.00.

(b) Before delivery of a grate to any purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall attach a tag or label which plainly states that the retail ceiling price of the grate is $10.00. The tag or label shall not be detached until the grate has been delivered to the consumer.

(c) At or prior to the first invoice to each purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser of the maximum price set by this Order for resales by the purchaser. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(d) This Order No. 99 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to terms used herein.

(f) This Order No. 99 shall become effective on the 23d day of December 1942, and shall terminate on the 1st day of April 1943.

Issued this 23rd day of December 1942.

[Amended Suspension Order 142]

Walker Oil Company

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

On October 20, 1942, Randall M. Walker, doing business as Walker Oil Company, Walker Chevrolet Company and Tank Car Station No. 5, Jesup, Georgia, hereinafter called respondent, filed a petition for reconsideration of Suspension Order No. 142 issued against respondent on October 16, 1942. Upon consideration of the petition for reconsideration, an order was made on October 29, 1942, staying Suspension Order No. 142 until further order of the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing and ordering a further hearing to be held on the charges against respondent. Thereafter, there was duly served upon respondent a notice of rehearing upon specific charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, the rehearing upon such charges was held on November 13, 1942, in Jesup, Georgia. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to such charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. Such evidence having been considered by the Administrator, it is hereby determined that:

(a) On July 22, 1942, respondent was both a dealer in and an intermediate distributor of gasoline having a place of business at Jesup, Georgia.

(b) Respondent has violated § 1394.-1601 of the Gasoline Rationing Regulations in that on July 22 and July 24, 1942, in his registrations with Wayne County, Georgia, War Price and Rationing Board, he represented that the total inventory of gasoline that he had on hand as a dealer and intermediate distributor as of 12:01 A. M. July 22, 1942, was 2,699 gallons, whereas the total inventory of said gasoline was in fact 6,888 gallons and respondent thereby obtained inventory coupons in an amount 4,189 gallons in excess of that to which he was then entitled.

[1] 7 F.R. 10121.

The violations of the Gasoline Rationing Regulations by respondent have interfered with the effective administration and enforcement of the Gasoline Rationing Regulations which have been prescribed in the public interest to promote the national war effort. It appears to the Administrator from the evidence before him that further violations of the Gasoline Rationing Regulations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered, That:

(a) Within three (3) days after the effective date of this Order respondent shall surrender to the War Price and Rationing Board, Wayne County, Georgia, bulk, inventory or other gasoline Rationing Coupons for a total amount of 4189 gallons of gasoline and upon such surrender said Board shall cancel the same.

(b) During the period in which this Suspension Order shall be in effect, respondent shall not sell, transfer or deliver any gasoline to any consumer.

(c) Any terms used in this Order that are defined in the Gasoline Rationing Regulations shall have the meaning therein given them.

(d) This amended Suspension Order No. 142 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. December 28, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 a. m. January 25, 1943.

[Suspension Order 182]

BUD'S ATLANTIC SERVICE STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Albert P. Caron, doing business as Bud's Atlantic Service Station, 19 Columbia Street, Adams, Massachusetts, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Boston, Massachusetts, on October 30, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Administrator, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a filling station known as Bud's Atlantic Service Station at 19 Columbia Street, Adams, Massachusetts.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§ 1394.1502), in that on numerous occasions between July 22, 1942, and September 22, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles in the amount of at least 450 gallons, without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons. Such transfers were not within the classes of transfers permitted by Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of coupons.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, (§§ 1394.1502 and 1394.1503), in that on numerous occasions between July 22, 1942, and September 22, 1942, respondent as a dealer transferred gasoline to himself as a consumer and into the fuel tanks of private passenger automobiles operated by him without detaching coupons from ration books issued for such vehicles; the total amount of all of the gasoline so transferred greatly exceeded the total amount of the gasoline rations issued to respondent for his private passenger automobiles.

(d) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1101), in that on numerous occasions between July 22, 1942, and September 22, 1942, respondent transferred service ration coupons issued to him for the operation of a taxicab to himself as a dealer for the purpose of replenishing his inventory.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Massachusetts, respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Administrator that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken: It is therefore ordered:

(e) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 182 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not in any manner, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer or deliver gasoline to any person: Provided, however, That subject to the prior approval of and supervision by the Regional Administrator of Region I, Office of Price Administration, respondent may dispose of his stocks of gasoline on hand at the time this Order is served upon him.

(2) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(3) No person, firm, or corporation shall deliver, or in any manner directly or indirectly transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(f) Within three days from the effective date of this Order, respondent shall surrender for cancellation to the War Price and Rationing Board with which he registered as a dealer, all of the gasoline ration coupons in his possession on the effective date of this Order except those issued to and held by him as a consumer.

(g) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 182 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(h) This Suspension Order No. 182 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. December 28, 1942, and shall remain in effect until further order by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing but not later than December 31, 1944.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; Sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); W.P.B. Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562); Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216); Supplementary Directive No. 1Q (7 F.R. 9121))

Issued this 23d day of December 1942.

[Suspension Order 187]

RED DEVIL SERVICE STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Antonio Tornatora, doing business as Red Devil Service Station, 452 New York Avenue Northwest, Washington, D. C., hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Washington, D. C., on November 30, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been duly considered by the Administrator, it is hereby determined:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station located at 452 New York Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1502), in that on various occasions between July 22 and November 16, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons. Such transfers were not within the classes of transfers of gasoline permitted by the provisions of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of gasoline ration coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Washington, D. C., respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Administrator that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken. It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 187 shall be in effect.

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(2) Respondent shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline.

(3) No person shall in any manner, directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 187 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 187 shall become effective 12:01 a. m. December 28, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 a. m. March 24, 1943.

LAWLER'S SERVICE STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Nicholas P Lawler, doing business as Lawler's Service Station, 403 "S" Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Washington, D. C., on November 30, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been duly considered by the Administrator, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent is a dealer in gasoline and operates a gasoline filling station under the firm name of Lawler's Service Station, located at 403 "S" Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1503), in that on various occasions between July 22, 1942, and November 16, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles and accepted in exchange for such transfers seventy-five (75) Class A, No. 3 coupons, seven (7) Class A, No. 4 coupons, and two (2) Class A, No. 6 coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Washington, D. C., respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Administrator that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken; It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 188 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(2) Respondent shall not transfer or deliver or otherwise trade or deal in gasoline.

(3) No person shall in any manner, directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 188 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 188 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. December 28, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 A. M. February 22, 1943.

UNITED RICHFIELD STATION

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Lewis Yankelevitz, doing business as United Richfield Station, Harrison and Center Streets, Cumberland, Maryland, hereinafter called respondent, was duly notified of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice a hearing upon the charges was held on November 10, 1942, in Baltimore, Maryland. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been duly considered by the Administrator, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1503), in that on various occasions between July 22 and September 12, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles in exchange for gasoline ration coupons Class "S" from coupon books that were not issued for and did not bear the identification of the vehicle into which the transfers were made.

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1503), in that on various occasions between July 22 and September 12, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of their motor vehicles and accepted in exchange for such transfers one Class A, No. 3 coupon; ten Class A, No. 4 coupons; and four Class A, No. 6 coupons.

(c) Respondent has violated Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1601) in that on or about July 22, 1942, respondent filed with the Office of Price Administration for the gasoline filling station known as United Richfield Station at Harrison and Center Streets, Cumberland, Maryland, an application for inventory coupons on OPA Form R–545 wherein the gasoline capacity of such station was stated to be 3,100 gallons when, in fact, such storage capacity was 2,100 gallons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in Maryland, respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Administrator that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken; It is therefore ordered:

(d) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 189 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not either as principal or agent accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(2) Respondent shall not either as principal or agent transfer or deliver gasoline to any person.

(3) No person shall in any manner directly or indirectly transfer or deliver any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(e) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 189 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(f) This Suspension Order No. 189 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. December 28, 1942, and unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 A. M. February 24, 1943.

[Suspension Order 190]

MILTON WOHLGEMUTH

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Milton Wohlgemuth, doing business as a gasoline dealer at 769 William Street, Buffalo, New York, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of charges of violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to the notice, a hearing upon the charges was held in Buffalo, New York, on November 12, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and respondent. The evidence pertaining to the charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. The matter having been considered by the Administrator, it is hereby determined that:

(b) Respondent has violated Ration Order 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations (§ 1394.1502), in that on numerous occasions between July 22, 1942 and September 28, 1942, respondent transferred gasoline to consumers and into the fuel tanks of motor vehicles in the amount of at least 200 gallons without receiving in exchange therefor any gasoline ration coupons. Such transfers were not within the classes of transfers permitted by Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, to be made without the exchange of coupons.

Because of the great scarcity and critical importance of gasoline in New York, respondent's violations of Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, have resulted in the diversion of gasoline from military and essential civilian uses into non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to the national war effort. It appears to the Administrator that further violations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action is taken; It is therefore ordered:

(c) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 190 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not in any manner, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer or deliver gasoline to any person: Provided, however, That subject to the prior approval of and supervision by the Regional Administrator of Region II, Office of Price Administration, respondent may dispose of his stocks of gasoline on hand at the time this Order is served upon him.

(2) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline for resale.

(3) No person, firm, or corporation shall deliver, or in any manner directly or indirectly transfer any gasoline to respondent for resale.

(d) Any terms used in this Suspension Order No. 190 that are defined in Ration Order No. 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations, shall have the meaning therein given them.

(e) This Suspension Order No. 190 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. December 28, 1942, and shall remain in effect until further order by the Deputy Administrator in Charge of Rationing but not later than December 31, 1944.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong.; as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9125 (7 F.R. 2719); W.P.B. Directive No. 1 (7 F.R. 562); Supplementary Directive No. 1H (7 F.R. 3478, 3877, 5216); Supplementary Directive No. 1Q (7 F.R. 9121))

Issued this 23d day of December 1942.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9289

Regulations Governing the Payment of Overtime Compensation to Employees of the Executive Departments and Agencies

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States, I hereby prescribe the following regulations governing the payment of compensation for employment in excess of 40 hours in any administrative workweek to civilian employees of the Government to whom the provisions of Senate Joint Resolution 170, 77th Congress, are applicable:

Section 1. Heads of Executive departments and agencies, or such officers or employees as they may designate, shall establish official hours of duty and a regular workweek for each employee or group of employees. No employee shall be required to work in excess of the officially established hours of duty except upon the order of the head of the department or agency or of such officer or employee as has been delegated specific authority to require such additional work.

Section 2. Overtime compensation for employment in excess of 40 hours during an officially established regular workweek, and for work ordered or approved in addition to the regular workweek so established shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half times the employee's regular rate of compensation, subject to the following limitations:

(a) No overtime compensation shall be paid on any part of an employee's basic rate of compensation in excess of $2,900 per annum;

(b) Each employee shall be paid only such overtime compensation or portion thereof as will not cause his aggregate compensation, composed of his basic rate of compensation and his overtime compensation, to exceed a rate of $5,000 per annum.

For the purpose of computing overtime compensation the pay for one hour shall be considered to be ⅛ of the employee's pay for one day and the pay for one day shall be considered to be 1/360 of the employee's per-annum salary.

Section 3. Overtime compensation of per-annum employees for employment during an officially established regular workweek in excess of 40 hours may be calculated on an annual basis and paid in equal amounts on the regular monthly or semi-monthly pay days.

Section 4. In the case of an employee to whom the annual- and sick-leave laws approved March 14, 1936, 49 Stat. 1161, 1162, as amended, are applicable, approved absence, except on leave without pay, during any part of the officially established regular workweek shall be charged as annual or sick leave as the case may be, and any absence on approved annual or sick leave shall not be construed to reduce the amount of overtime compensation to which the employee is entitled for employment during the officially established regular workweek.

Section 5. Overtime compensation for employment in excess of 40 hours per week during the period between December 1, 1942, and the date of issuance of these regulations shall be paid on the basis of the official hours of duty which employees were required to work during such period and on the basis of any additional overtime officially ordered or approved and currently recorded.

Section 6. Notwithstanding the provisions of this order, Federal civilian employees on vessels operated by the United States whose wages and allowances are computed on the basis of the special hours and conditions of their work may be compensated in accordance with the wage practices of the maritime industry.

Section 7. Employees such as certain forest-fire lookouts, forest guards, and lighthouse keepers the nature of whose work (as determined by the head of the department or agency concerned) requires them to remain at or within the confines of their posts of duty for more than 40 hours per week but does not require that all of their time be devoted to actual work shall be considered to have intermittent or irregular hours of duty within the meaning of the last proviso of section 1 of the said Senate Joint Resolution 170, 77th Congress.

ESTABLISHING THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TYPHUS COMMISSION

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States and as Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and for the purposes of protecting the members of the armed forces from typhus fever and preventing its introduction into the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. There is hereby established in the War Department, under the supervision and direction of the Secretary of War, a commission to be known as the United States of America Typhus Commission, hereinafter referred to as the Commission. The Commission shall serve with the Army of the United States, and shall consist of a Director, appointed by the Secretary of War, such officers of the Army Medical Corps as may be detailed as members thereof by the Secretary of War, such officers of the Navy Medical Corps and the Public Health Service as may be detailed as members thereof, upon request of the Secretary of War, by the Secretary of the Navy or the Federal Security Administrator, and such other persons as may be appointed as members thereof by the Secretary of War.

2. The Director of the Commission is authorized and directed to formulate and effectuate a program for the study of typhus fever and the control thereof, both within and without the United States, when it is, or may become, a threat to the military population. The operations of the Commission abroad shall be carried out in collaboration with the Department of State.

3. The Director of the Commission is authorized to employ necessary technical and nonprofessional personnel, and to make such expenditures, within the limits of funds made available to the Commission by the War Department, Navy Department, United States Public Health Service, or other Governmental agencies, as may be deemed necessary by him to accomplish the purposes of this order. Members of the armed forces may be detailed for duty with the Commission.

4. The Director shall take steps to secure the cooperation, assistance, and services of other Governmental agencies; make arrangements for the visiting by members of the Commission of such areas of neutral or allied nations as may be necessary to further the study of typhus fever; arrange for the analysis, study, and publication of scientific data and material obtained in such field investigations; establish and maintain typhus fever study units at appropriate Governmental laboratories; and procure such laboratory space, clinical facilities, and equipment as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this order. He shall collaborate with the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency, and appropriate civilian organizations, when necessary, regarding the procurement of personnel and equipment in connection with the activities of the Commission, keep the Secretary of War informed in regard to the progress made in carrying out this order, and perform such other duties as from time to time the Secretary of War may assign to him.

5. All Executive departments, independent establishments, and other Federal agencies are hereby authorized and directed to assist the Secretary of War and the Director in carrying out this order, including the furnishing of equipment, transportation, and personnel facilities and assistance.

6. There is hereby established a United States of America Typhus Commission Medal, with suitable appurtenances, which shall be awarded by the President of the United States or at his direction, to any person who may render or contribute meritorious service in connection with the work of the Commission.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9286

MEDAL FOR MERIT

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 2 of the act of July 20, 1942 (Public Law 671, 77th Congress), I hereby prescribe the following rules and regulations for the award of the decoration of the "Medal for Merit" created by said act:

1. The decoration of the Medal for Merit shall be awarded only by the President of the United States or at his direction. Awards of the Medal for Merit may be made to such civilians of the nations prosecuting the war under the joint declaration of the United Nations and of other friendly foreign nations, as have, since the proclamation of an emergency by the President on September 8, 1939, distinguished themselves by exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding services. Awards of the Medal for Merit made to civilians of foreign nations shall be for the performance of an exceptionally meritorious or courageous act or acts in furtherance of the war efforts of the United Nations and shall have the prior approval of the Secretary of State.

2. There is hereby created a Board to be known as the "Medal for Merit Board", which shall consist of—

The Secretary of State
The Secretary of War
The Secretary of the Navy
The Chairman of the War Production Board, and
The Director of the Office of Civilian Defense

The Secretary of State shall act as Chairman of the Board. Each member of the Board may designate an alternate to represent him on the Board and empower the person so designated to act in his stead.

3. The Medal for Merit Board will receive and consider proposals for the award of the decoration of the Medal for Merit and submit to the President the recommendations of the Board with respect thereto.

4. The Medal for Merit Board is authorized to prescribe, with the approval of the President, such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this order as may be necessary to accomplish its purposes.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter II—Commodity Credit Corporation

[Oilseed Order 6]

Part 250—Control of Vegetable Oil Seeds and Products Therefrom

INVENTORY LIMITATION OF OILSEED PRODUCTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Commodity Credit Corporation by Directive No. 7 of the War Production Board, issued August 15, 1942, and in view of the shortage of soybean, cottonseed, peanut and linseed oil meal and cake, It is hereby ordered, That:

Sec.
250.30	Definitions.
250.31	Inventory limitation.
250.32	Limitation on sales or deliveries.
250.33	Records.
250.34	Audit and inspection.
250.35	Reports.
250.36	Violations.
250.37	Appeals.
250.38	Communications to Commodity Credit Corporation.

Authority: §§ 250.30 to 250.38, inclusive, issued under W.P.B. Directive No. 7, 32 C.F.R., § 903.12, 7 F.R. 6518.

§ 250.30 Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Oilseed product" as used herein shall mean cottonseed oil meal or cake, soybean oil meal or cake, peanut oil meal or cake, and linseed oil meal or cake.

(2) "Fifteen days' supply" means the total tonnage of oilseed products which, based on his current method and rate of operation, is needed by a person to fill his manufacturing, sales, or consumption requirements during the period of fifteen days next succeeding the delivery date specified in the purchase order therefor.

(3) "Purchase order" means any contract or offer to purchase, any agreement to acquire by exchange, any request for shipment or delivery under existing contracts, or any other action heretofore or hereafter taken by any person to obtain delivery of oilseed products.

(4) "Delivery date inventory" means that quantity of oilseed products determined by deducting from the inventory on hand at the time the purchase order is placed the quantity which, based on his current method and rate of operation, the purchaser represents that he will use in meeting his manufacturing, sales, or consumption requirements between the date on which the purchase order is placed and the delivery date specified in the purchase order.

(5) "Person" as used herein means any individual, partnership, business trust, association or corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not, but shall not include any departments or agencies of the United States Government.

§ 250.31 Inventory limitation. Beginning with the effective date of this order and ending on February 28, 1943, unless otherwise authorized by Commodity Credit Corporation, no person shall (a) place any purchase order for oilseed products if the tonnage ordered, taken in conjunction with his delivery date inventory and any other unfilled purchase orders placed by him, would exceed a fifteen days' supply, as defined in § 250.30, or (b) accept delivery of any oilseed products to the extent that the tonnage delivered, taken in conjunction with his inventory on hand at the time of delivery, would constitute a total tonnage of oilseed products which, based on his current method and rate of operation, is needed by him to fill his manufacturing, sales or consumption requirements during the next succeeding fifteen-day period: Provided, That the foregoing inventory limitation shall not restrict to less than 45 tons the supply of oilseed products of any person who regularly receives deliveries of oilseed products in carload lots.

§ 250.32 Limitation on sales or deliveries. Beginning with the effective date of this order and ending on February 28, 1943, unless otherwise authorized by Commodity Credit Corporation, no person shall sell or deliver oilseed products to any person unless the person to whom such oilseed products are to be sold or delivered shall accompany his purchase order therefor with a certificate in substantially the following form:

> The undersigned certifies to his vendor and the Commodity Credit Corporation that he is familiar with provisions of Oilseed Order No. 6 and that the fulfillment of the purchase order to which this certificate is annexed will not cause his inventory of oilseed products to exceed the quantity permitted by Oilseed Order No. 6.

§ 250.33 Records. Every person subject to this order shall keep and preserve, for not less than two years, accurate and complete records concerning all sales, purchases, contracts for the sale or purchase, and deliveries of oilseed products.

§ 250.34 Audit and inspection. All such records shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of Commodity Credit Corporation.

§ 250.35 Reports. Every person subject to this order shall execute and file with Commodity Credit Corporation such reports as the Corporation may from time to time request.

§ 250.36 Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who wilfully furnishes false information to any seller of oilseed products or to the Commodity Credit Corporation in connection with this order is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from manufacturing, processing, using, purchasing, selling, transferring or otherwise disposing of or acquiring oilseed products.

§ 250.37 Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing with the Commodity Credit Corporation a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

§ 250.38 Communications to Commodity Credit Corporation. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications and appeals concerning this order shall be addressed to: Commodity Credit Corporation, South Agriculture Building, Washington, D. C.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter III—Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine

[B.E.P.Q.—Q. 72]

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

SUBPART—WHITE-FRINGED BEETLE

Introductory note. This revision of the quarantine and regulations is made principally because of the discovery during the past summer and fall of white-fringed beetle infestations in North Carolina in the vicinity of Wilmington and other places in New Hanover County, in the vicinity of Goldsboro, Wayne County, and in parts of Pender County. The regulated area is extended to include parts of the above counties as well as several areas in Alabama and Mississippi in which infestations of the beetles have been found since the quarantine and regulations were last revised. Brought within the regulated area for the first time are part of Lowndes County, Ala., and part of Jefferson Davis County, Miss. Minor additions to the regulated areas are made in Dallas County, Ala., and Forest, Harrison, Jackson, Jones, Pearl River, and Stone Counties, Mississippi.

All restricted articles are placed under quarantine throughout the year because of seasonal variation in the development of the pests in the different areas, the differences in the life history and habits of the various species, and other biological factors. However the quarantine provides for modification of certification requirements as to articles, seasons, or areas through administrative instructions issued from time to time by the Chief of the Bureau when in his judgment no hazard of dissemination of the beetles is presented by such modification. Articles brought under restriction for the first time in this revision include gravel, moss, and bulbs, corms, tubers, and rhizomes of ornamental plants. Peanut shells are no longer restricted by these regulations.

Minor modifications have been made in regulations pertaining to limited permits (paragraph (b) of § 301.72-5) and to the cleaning of railway cars (§ 301.72-8).

Arrangements for inspection of the restricted articles may be made by addressing the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, P. O. Box 989, Gulfport, Miss., or other field offices listed in the administrative instructions.

Determination of the Secretary of Agriculture

The Secretary of Agriculture, having given the public hearing required by law and having determined that it was necessary to quarantine the States of Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, and Mississippi to prevent the spread of infestations of introduced species of the genus Pantomorus, subgenus Graphognathus, commonly known as white-fringed beetles, not theretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States, on December 14, 1938, promulgated Notice of Quarantine 301.72, part 301, chapter III, title 7, effective January 15, 1939, with regulations supplemental thereto, and revision thereof, effective on and after May 9, 1942, governing the movement of live white-fringed beetles in any stage of development and carriers thereof. The Secretary of Agriculture, having given a further public hearing in the matter, has determined that it is necessary to revise further the quarantine and regulations for the purpose of quarantining the State of North Carolina because of the discovery of substantial infestations of the white-fringed beetle therein.

Order of the Secretary of Agriculture

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912, as amended (7 U.S.C. 161) and the Insect Pest Act of March 3, 1905 (7 U.S.C. 141, 143), the subpart entitled "White-fringed Beetle" of part 301, chapter III, title 7, Code of Federal Regulations [B.E.P.Q.—Q. 72] is hereby revised effective December 28, 1942, to read as follows:

SUBPART—WHITE-FRINGED BEETLE

(Quarantine No. 72)

AUTHORITY: §§ 301.72 to 301.72-9 (a), inclusive (except § 301.72-2a), issued under sec. 8, 39 Stat. 1165, 44 Stat. 250; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed. 161. § 301.72-2a issued under sec. 1, 33 Stat. 1269; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed. 141. § 301.72-9 (b) issued under sec. 3, 33 Stat. 1270; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed. 143.

§ 301.72 Notice of quarantine. Under the authority conferred by section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161), the Secretary of Agriculture quarantines the States of Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, and North Carolina to prevent the spread of dangerous infestations of introduced species of the genus Pantomorus, subgenus Graphognathus, commonly known as white-fringed beetles, and under authority contained in the aforesaid Plant Quarantine Act and the Insect Pest Act of March 3, 1905 (7 U. S. C. 141, 143), the Secretary of Agriculture prescribes regulations. Hereafter the following articles (as specifically named in the regulations supplemental hereto, in modifications thereof, or in administrative instructions as provided in the regulations supplemental hereto), which are capable of carrying the aforesaid insect infestations, viz, (1) nursery stock and other stipulated plants or plant products; (2) soil independent of, or in connection with, nursery stock, plants, or other products; or (3) other articles as stipulated in § 301.72-3; or (4) live white-fringed beetles in any stage of development, shall not be transported by any person, firm, or corporation from any quarantined State into or through any other State or Territory or District of the United States, under conditions other than those prescribed in the regulations supplemental hereto: Provided, That the restrictions of this quarantine and of the regulations supplemental hereto may be limited to such areas, designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as regulated areas, in the quarantined States, as, in his judgment, shall be adequate to prevent the spread of the said pest or pests. Any such limitation shall be conditioned, however, upon the affected State or States providing for and enforcing the control of the intrastate movement of the restricted articles and enforcing such other control and sanitation measures with respect to such areas or portions thereof as, in the judgment of the Secretary of Agriculture, shall be deemed adequate to prevent the intrastate spread therefrom of said insect infestation: And provided further, That whenever, in any year, the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine shall find that facts exist as to the pest risk involved in the movement of one or more of the articles to which the regulations supplemental hereto apply, making it safe to modify, by making less stringent, the restrictions contained in any such regulations, he shall set forth and publish such finding in administrative instructions, specifying the manner in which the applicable regulations should be made less stringent, whereupon such modification shall become effective, for such period and for such regulated area or portion thereof as shall be specified in said administrative instructions, and every reasonable effort shall be made to give publicity to such administrative instructions throughout the affected areas.

REGULATIONS

Meaning of Terms

§ 301.72-1 Definitions—(a) The pests. Species of the genus Pantomorus, subgenus Graphognathus, commonly known as white-fringed beetles, in any stage of development.

(b) Regulated area. Any area in a quarantined State which is now, or which may hereafter be, designated as regulated by the Secretary of Agriculture in accordance with the provisions of § 301.72 as revised.

(c) Restricted articles. Products or articles of any character whatsoever, the interstate movement of which is restricted by the provisions of the white-fringed beetle quarantine, and the regulations supplemental thereto.

(d) Nursery stock. Forest, field, and greenhouse-grown annual or perennial plants, for planting purposes.

(e) Inspector. Duly authorized Federal plant-quarantine inspector.

(f) Certificate. An approved document, issued by an inspector, authorizing the movement of restricted articles from the regulated areas.

(g) Limited permit. An approved document, issued by an inspector, to allow controlled movement of noncertified articles to designated and authorized destinations for processing or other restricted handling.

(h) Administrative instructions. Documents issued by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine relating to the enforcement of the quarantine.

(i) Infested or infestation. Infested by white-fringed beetles, in any stage of development. (See (a) above.)

(j) Infested area. That portion of the regulated area in which infestation exists, or in the vicinity of which infestation is known to exist under such conditions as to expose the area to infestation by natural spread of beetles, as determined by an authorized inspector.

Areas Under Regulation

§ 301.72-2 Regulated areas. The following counties, parishes, cities, and towns, or parts thereof, as described, are designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as regulated areas:

Articles Prohibited Movement

§ 301.72–2a Beetles prohibited shipment. The interstate shipping of living white-fringed beetles in any stage of development, whether moved independent of or in connection with any other article, is prohibited, except as provided in paragraph (b) of § 301.72–9.

Articles Restricted Movement

§ 301.72–3 Restricted articles. Except as provided in administrative instructions, the interstate movement of the following articles from any regulated area is regulated throughout the year:

(a) Soil, sand, gravel, clay, peat, or muck, whether moved independent of, or in connection with or attached to nursery stock, plants, products, articles, or things.

(b) Compost, manure, moss, and leafmold.

(c) Nursery stock.

(d) Grass sod.

(e) Potatoes.

(f) True bulbs, corms, tubers, and rhizomes of ornamental plants.

(g) Hay.

(h) Peanuts in shells.

(i) Seed cotton, cottonseed, and baled cotton lint and linters.

(j) Scrap metal and junk.

(k) Forest products such as cordwood, stump wood, logs, lumber, timbers, posts, poles, and cross ties.

(l) Brick, tile, stone, and cinders.

(m) Concrete slabs, pipe, and building blocks.

(n) Implements, machinery, equipment, and containers.

CONDITIONS OF INTERSTATE MOVEMENT

§ 301.72–4 Conditions governing interstate movement of restricted articles. (a) Certification required. Restricted articles shall not be moved interstate from a regulated area to or through any point outside thereof unless accompanied by a valid inspection certificate issued by an inspector: Provided, That certification requirements as they relate to part or all any regulated area may be waived, during part or all of the year, by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, on his finding and giving notice thereof, in administrative instructions, that the State concerned has promulgated and enforced adequate sanitary measures on and about the premises on which restricted articles originate or are retained, or that adequate volunteer sanitary measures have been applied, or that other control or natural conditions exist which have eliminated the risk of contamination by the pests in any stage of development.

(b) Use of certificate on shipments. Unless exempted by administrative instructions, every container of restricted articles moved interstate from any regulated area shall have securely attached to the outside thereof a certificate or permit issued in compliance with these regulations, except that in the case of shipments in bulk, by common carrier, a master permit attached to the shipping order, manifest, or other shipping papers, will be sufficient. In the case of shipments in bulk by road vehicle other than common carrier, a master permit shall accompany the vehicle. Master permits shall accompany shipments to destination and be surrendered to consignees on delivery.

(c) Movement within continuous areas unrestricted. No certificates are required for interstate movement of restricted articles when such movement is wholly within continuous regulated areas.

(d) Articles originating outside the regulated areas. No certificates are required for the interstate movement of restricted articles originating outside of the regulated areas and moving through or from a regulated area, when the point of origin is clearly indicated, when their identity has been maintained, and when the articles are protected, while in the regulated area, in a manner satisfactory to the inspector.

Conditions of Certification

§ 301.72–5 Conditions governing the issuance of certificates and permits—(a) Approved methods. Certificates authorizing the interstate movement of restricted articles from the regulated areas may be issued upon determination by the inspector that the articles are (1) apparently free from infestation; or (2) have been treated, fumigated, sterilized, or processed under approved methods; or (3) were grown, produced, manufactured, stored, or handled in such a manner that, in the judgment of the inspector, no infestation would be transmitted thereby: Provided, That certificates authorizing the interstate movement of soil, sand, gravel, clay, peat, muck, or compost, originating in an infested area may be issued only when such materials have been treated or handled under methods or conditions approved by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

(b) Limited permits. Limited permits may be issued for the movement of noncertified restricted articles to destinations and consignees as may be authorized and designated by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine for processing or other handling. As a condition of such authorization and designation, persons or firms shipping, receiving, or transporting such articles may be required to agree in writing to maintain such sanitary safeguards against the establishment and spread of infestation and to comply with such conditions as to the maintenance of identity, handling, or subsequent movement of restricted products and cleaning of railway cars, trucks, or other vehicles used in the transportation of such articles as may be required by the inspector.

(c) Dealer-carrier permit. As a condition of issuance of certificates or permits for the interstate movement of restricted articles, persons or firms engaged in purchasing, assembling, exchanging, processing, or carrying such restricted articles originating or stored in regulated areas, may be required to execute a signed agreement stipulating that the permittee will carry out any and all conditions, treatments, precautions, and sanitary measures which may be deemed necessary.

Procedure for Applicants

§ 301.72–6 Assembly of restricted articles for inspection. Persons intending to move restricted articles, the certification of which is required, interstate from regulated areas shall make application for certification as far as possible in advance of the probable date of shipment. Applications must show the nature and quantity of articles to be moved, together with their exact location, and if practicable, the contemplated date of shipment. Applicants for inspection may be required to assemble or indicate the articles to be shipped so that they may be readily examined by the inspector.

The United States Department of Agriculture will not be responsible for any cost incident to inspection or treatment other than the services of the inspector.

Certificates and Permits May Be Canceled

§ 301.72–7 Cancelation of certificates or permits. Certificates or permits issued under these regulations may be withdrawn or canceled and further certification refused whenever, in the judgment of the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, the further use of such certificates or permits might result in the dissemination of infestation.

Cleaning of Vehicles

§ 301.72–8 Cleaning of freight cars, trucks, and other vehicles. When in the judgment of the inspector a hazard of spread of infestation is presented, thorough cleaning of freight cars, trucks, and other vehicles may be required before movement interstate to points outside the regulated areas when such freight cars, trucks, or other vehicles have been used for the transportation of uncertified restricted articles within regulated areas.

Shipments for Experimental or Scientific Purposes

§301.72–9 (a) Articles for experimental or scientific purposes. Articles subject to restrictions may be moved interstate for experimental or scientific purposes, on such conditions as may be prescribed by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. The container of articles so moved shall bear an identifying tag from the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

(b) Beetles for experimental or scientific purposes. Live white-fringed beetles, in any state of development, may be moved interstate for scientific purposes only under conditions prescribed by the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. The container of white-fringed beetles so moved shall bear an identifying tag from the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

Effective December 28, 1942.

Done at the city of Washington this 23rd day of December 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] PAUL H. APPLEBY,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

APPENDIX

PENALTIES

The Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912, as amended (7 U.S.C. 161), provides that no person shall ship or offer for shipment to any common carrier, nor shall any common carrier receive for transportation or transport, nor shall any person carry or transport, from any quarantined State or Territory or District of the United States, or from any quarantined portion thereof, into or through any other State or Territory or District, any class of nursery stock or any other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products, or any class of stone or quarry products, or any other article of any character whatsoever, capable of carrying any dangerous plant disease or insect infestation, specified in the notice of quarantine * * * in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. It also provides that any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, or who shall forge, counterfeit, alter, deface, or destroy any certificate provided for in this act or in the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment not exceeding 1 year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

STATE AND FEDERAL INSPECTION

Certain of the quarantined States have promulgated quarantine regulations restricting intrastate movement supplemental to the Federal quarantine. These State regulations are enforced in cooperation with the Federal authorities. Copies of either the Federal or State quarantine orders may be obtained at the office of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Room 6, Gates-Cook Building (Tel. 1591), P. O. Box 989, Gulfport, Miss., or through a White-fringed Beetle Inspector at one of the subsidiary offices.

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

WHITE-FRINGED BEETLE REGULATIONS MODIFIED

§ 301.72a Administrative instructions; modification of certification requirements for specified articles. Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine by the second proviso of § 301.72, Chapter III, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations (Notice of Quarantine No. 72, on account of the white-fringed beetle), the certification requirements are hereby modified effective December 28, 1942, through June 15, 1943, for the interstate movement of the following articles and materials enumerated in § 301.72–3:

(a) Certificates may be issued for the interstate movement of the following materials under the conditions specified below:

(1) Soil, sand, gravel, clay, peat, or muck, when taken from a depth of at least 2 feet below the existing surface, and when entirely free from any surface soil to a depth of 2 feet.

(2) Sand and gravel, when washed, processed, or otherwise treated to the satisfaction of the inspector.

(b) All certification requirements are waived for the following articles and materials when free from soil and when sanitation practices are maintained as prescribed by or to the satisfaction of the inspector:

(1) Potatoes, except that those freshly harvested are not exempt.

(2) True bulbs, corms, tubers, and rhizomes of ornamental plants, except that those freshly harvested or uncured are not exempt.

(3) Hay, except that peanut hay is not exempt.

(4) Seed cotton, cottonseed, and baled cotton lint and linters.

(5) Scrap metal and junk.

(6) Forest products such as cordwood, stump wood, logs, lumber, timbers, posts, poles, and cross ties.

(7) Brick, tile, stone, and cinders.

(8) Concrete slabs, pipe, and building blocks.

(9) Implements, machinery, equipment, and containers.

Articles Remaining Under Quarantine

(c) Certification is required for the following articles and materials enumerated in § 301.72–3:

(1) All soil, sand, gravel, clay, peat, or muck, whether moved independent of, or in connection with, or attached to nursery stock, plants, products, articles, or things.

(2) Compost, manure, moss, and leafmold.

(3) Nursery stock.

(4) Grass sod.

(5) Potatoes, freshly harvested.

(6) True bulbs, corms, tubers and rhizomes of ornamental plants, when freshly harvested or uncured.

(7) Peanuts in the shell.

(8) Peanut hay.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Administration

PART 941—MILK IN THE CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, MARKETING AREA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS, ETC.

Order suspending certain provisions of § 941.5 (a) of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area.

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and the provisions of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area, it is hereby determined that the provisions of such order which provide that the price of Class I milk disposed of under a program approved by the Secretary of Agriculture for the sale or disposition of milk to low income consumers, including persons on relief, shall be a price which is less than the established price of Class I milk, are provisions which obstruct and do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to the producers of milk defined in the said order.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the provisions of § 941.5 (a)[1] of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, marketing area, which relate to the price to be paid by handlers for Class I milk disposed of under a program approved by the Secretary of Agriculture for the sale or disposition of milk to low income consumers, including persons on relief, shall be, and hereby are, suspended, effective as of 12:01 a. m., c. w. t., January 1, 1943.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 24th day of December 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

TITLE 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter II—Office of Alien Property Custodian

PART 503—GENERAL ORDERS

[General Order 17]

CUSTODY OF RECORDS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned hereby issues the following regulation:

§ 503.17 General Order No. 17. (a) The files and papers (including, without limitation, all correspondence, records, reports and other documents) of the Office of Alien Property Custodian are in the custody and possession of the Alien Property Custodian. Officers, employees, representatives and agents of the Office of Alien Property Custodian have access to such papers exclusively for the limited purposes of their official duties.

(b) All information and all such files and papers obtained by officers, employees, representatives or agents of the Office of Alien Property Custodian in the course of any examination, investigation, study or other employment with respect to any matter relating to the functions, duties, responsibilities, authority and power committed to the Alien Property Custodian by Executive Order or statute or otherwise shall be deemed strictly confidential unless made a matter of public record by order of the Alien Property Custodian or his authorized representative or unless the Alien Property Custodian or his authorized representative shall otherwise direct.

(c) No officer, employee, representative or agent of the Office of Alien Property Custodian shall produce or disclose directly or indirectly, to any person or before any court or administrative agency or other tribunal, other than the Alien Property Custodian or an officer, employee, representative or agent of the Office of Alien Property Custodian, whether in response to a subpoena or otherwise, any such confidential information, or any such files or papers, or the existence and contents thereof, unless the Alien Property Custodian or his authorized representative shall have authorized the disclosure thereof as not being contrary to the public interest.

(d) Any officer, employee, representative or agent of the Office of Alien Property Custodian who is served with any such subpoena or other process or order requiring the production of such files or papers or disclosure of such information shall promptly advise the Alien Property Custodian of such service and of the nature of the information or documents sought and any facts or circumstances which may bear upon the desirability of making available such information or documents.

(e) Any officer, employee, representative or agent of the Office of Alien Property Custodian who is served with any subpoena, process or order of any court or administrative agency or other tribunal requiring the disclosure of any such information or the production of any such files or papers or the disclosure of the existence or contents thereof shall appear in court or before the administrative agency or other tribunal and unless authority to the contrary shall have been given as provided in paragraph (c) of this regulation shall respectfully decline to disclose the information or to produce the files or papers called for by such subpoena or other process or order, basing his refusal to do so upon this regulation.

(f) The files and papers of the Office of Alien Property Custodian are available to the President of the United States, or his specially authorized representative, and to the Congress or either House or a standing or special Committee of either House or joint Committee of the Congress.

(g) The files and papers of the Office of Alien Property Custodian will be made available to other agencies and departments of the United States under suitable safeguards pursuant to arrangements made with the several agencies and departments.

(h) It shall be the policy of the Alien Property Custodian to make available to the courts of the United States and of the several States, territories and possessions and to the executive agencies of the United States and of the several States, territories and possessions, information and documents in his possession as freely and promptly as is consistent in his judgment with the public interest.

(i) No officer, employee, representative or agent of the Office of Alien Property Custodian shall have authority to determine generally or specifically what files or papers or information may be disclosed unless expressly given authority for that purpose by the Alien Property Custodian, or his duly authorized representative.

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter VIII—Procurement and Disposal of Equipment and Supplies

PART 81—PROCUREMENT OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND ANIMALS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The following sections of War Department Procurement Regulations dated September 5, 1942,[1] as amended,[2] are hereby further amended as follows:

Sections 81.318 (a), 81.318a (a) and (b), 81.324 (a) and (b), 81.343, 81.347, 81.348, 81.353, 81.964, 81.965, 81.980, 81.1106, 81.1303, 81.1320, 81.1321, 81.1322, 81.1323, 81.1324, and 81.1325 are amended and §§ 81.370 to 81.386, 81.818, 81.819, and 81.978a are added.

The changes and additions contained herein were made in the War Department Procurement Regulations under date of December 4, 1942. Numbers to the right of the decimal point correspond with the respective paragraph numbers in procurement regulations.

AUTHORITY: Sec. 5a, National Defense Act, as amended, 41 Stat. 764, 54 Stat. 1225; 10 U.S.C. 1193-1195, and the First War Act 1941, 55 Stat. 838, 50 U.S.C. Sup. 601-622.

DISTRIBUTION OF CONTRACTS AND ORDERS THEREUNDER

§ 81.318 Special cases—(a) Purchases under contracts of Procurement Division, Treasury Department; Navy Department; Post Office Department; etc. (1) Purchase orders covering such purchases will be distributed in accordance with § 81.317.

(2) The chief of the supply service concerned will secure compliance with all special instructions of the respective agencies which make the contracts.

* * * * *

In § 81.318a paragraphs (a) and (b) are amended to show correct cross references, as follows:

§ 81.318a. Assignments — (a) Basic statutes. There are two statutes creating restrictions on assignments of contracts with and claims against the United States. In 1940 both of these statutes were amended by the addition thereto of a paragraph making the restrictions inapplicable in certain situations. (See paragraph (b) of this section.)

* * * * *

(b) Assignment of Claims Act of 1940. In 1940 by the enactment of the Assignment of Claims Act (Public No. 811—76th Congress) the restrictions created by sections 3477 and 3737 of the Revised Statutes referred to in paragraph (a) of this section were, subject to certain conditions therein specified, made inapplicable to any case in which monies due or to become due under a contract providing for payments aggregating $1,000 or more, are assigned to a bank, trust company, or other financing institution including any Federal lending agency. The conditions specified in the Act are, in general, those set forth in paragraphs (a), (b) and (e) of the standard Article contained in § 81.355.

* * * * *

MANDATORY AND OPTIONAL CONTRACT PROVISIONS

Paragraph (d) (1) and (2) of the standard Article quoted in § 81.324 (a) and paragraphs (b) (3) and (d) (1) and (2) of the standard Article quoted in § 81.324 (b) are amended as follows:

§ 81.324 Termination for convenience of the Government. (a) * * *

Article * * * Termination for the convenience of the Government. * * *

(d) * * *

(1) By reimbursing the contractor for all actual expenditures and costs certified by the Contracting Officer as having been made or incurred with respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract;

(2) By reimbursing, or providing for the payment or reimbursement of, the contractor for all expenditures made and costs incurred with the prior written approval of the Contracting Officer in settling or discharging that portion of the outstanding obligations or commitments of the contractor which had been incurred or entered into with respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract; and

* * * * *

(b) * * *

Article * * * Termination for convenience of the Government. * * *

(b) * * *

(3) Transfer to the Government, in accordance with the directions of the Contracting Officer, all materials, supplies, work in process, facilities, equipment, machinery or tools acquired by the contractor in connection with the performance thereof, and all plans, drawings, working drawings, sketches, specifications and information for use in connection therewith. If and as the Contracting Officer so directs or authorizes, the contractor shall sell at a price approved by the Contracting Officer, or retain at a price mutually agreeable, any such materials, supplies, equipment, machinery, tools, or other things: Provided, however, That the contractor may retain any such equipment, machinery and tools as of right if he so elects in writing, stating that he will forego reimbursement therefor. The proceeds of any such sale, or the agreed price, shall be paid or credited to the Government in such manner as the contracting officer may direct so as to reduce the amount payable by the Government under this Article.

* * * * *

(1) By reimbursing the contractor for all actual expenditures and costs certified by the Contracting Officer as having been made or incurred with respect to this contract including expenditures and costs made or incurred in connection with any portions of the contract which may have been completed prior to termination, as well as expenditures and costs made or incurred after termination in completing those portions of the contract which the contractor may have been required by the notice of termination to complete.

(2) By reimbursing or providing for the payment or reimbursement of, the contractor for all expenditures made or costs incurred with the prior written approval of the Contracting Officer in settling or discharging any outstanding contractual obligations or commitments incurred or entered into by the contractor with respect to this contract; and

* * * * *

The introductory paragraph and paragraph (c) of the rate of wages clause quoted in § 81.343 are amended as follows:

§ 81.343 Rate of wages clause. * * *

Rate of wages. (In accordance with the act of August 30, 1935, 49 Stat. 1011, as amended by the act of June 15, 1940, 54 Stat. 399 (U. S. Code, title 40, secs. 276a and 276a-1), this article shall apply if the contract is in excess of $2,000 in amount and is for the construction, alteration, and/or repair, including painting and decorating, of a public building or public work within the geographical limits of the States of the Union, the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, or the District of Columbia.)

* * * * *

(c) The regulations of the Secretary of Labor, referred to in article -- hereof, allow certain "permissible deductions" from the wages required by this article to be paid.

* * * * *

The introductory paragraph in § 81.347 and clauses (d) and (f) of the standard Article quoted therein are amended as follows:

§ 81.347 Advance payments with interest. A clause substantially as follows will be included in fixed-price contracts when it is contemplated that advance payments with interest will be made thereon:

* * * * *

(d) If, upon the completion of the contract, or upon its termination for other than the fault of the contractor, the advance payments made to the contractor have not been fully liquidated in the manner herein provided, the unliquidated balance of such advance payments shall be deducted from any payments otherwise due the contractor, and if the sum or sums due the contractor be insufficient to cover such balance, the deficiency shall be paid by the contractor in cash forthwith after demand and final audit by the Government of all accounts hereunder: Provided, however, That in the event of such termination of the contract for other than the fault of the contractor, such deduction shall not be made prior to final audit unless, and only to the extent that, the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative shall determine that such action is reasonably required in order to secure the eventual repayment in full to the Government of such unliquidated advance payments. In the event of cancellation or termination of this contract because of the fault of the contractor, the contractor agrees to return to the Government, upon demand, without set-off of any sums alleged to be due the contractor, the unliquidated balance of any advance payment. Furthermore, if, in the opinion of the ---------------------- or his duly au-
(Chief of supply service)
thorized representative, the unobligated balance of the advance payments made by the Government under paragraph (a) hereof exceeds the amount necessary for the current needs of the contractor, as determined by the ---------------------- or his duly au-
(Chief of supply service)
thorized representative the amount of such excess shall, upon demand made by the
---------------------- or his duly authorized representative be promptly returned to the Government and will be credited against the balance due the Government on advances previously made. If the demand made in any event set forth in this subparagraph is not met upon receipt of such demand by the contractor, the amount demanded will bear interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) rather than two and one-half per cent (2½%) per annum from the date of the receipt of the demand until payment is made: Provided, however, That such additional interest over and above the regular two and one-half per cent is hereby waived as to any sum paid by the contractor within 15 days after the amount becomes due hereunder.
(Chief of supply service)

* * * * *

(f) On the unliquidated balance of the advance payments outstanding, the contractor agrees to p interest at the rate of two and one-half per cent per annum. Such interest shall be computed at the end of each calendar month on the average daily balance of the principal of the unliquidated advance payments outstanding. In determining such balance, charges on account of the advance payments to the contractor hereunder shall be made as of the dates of the checks therefor; credits resulting from disbursements made by the contractor which are applied against advance payments shall be made upon the approval of the vouchers therefor by the disbursing officer, as of the dates respectively upon which the contractor presents to the contracting officer or his duly authorized representative full and accurate data for the preparation of each such voucher which date shall, as to each such voucher, be certified by the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative on the face thereof; and credits arising from case repayments to the Government by the contractor shall be made as of the dates and checks therefor are received by the disbursing officer. As soon as such monthly computations shall have been made, the interest so determined shall be deducted from the payments otherwise due to contractor under this contract: Provided, however, That in no event shall deductions on account of interest exceed five per cent (5%) of the gross payment due the contractor prior to any deduction under this paragraph or paragraph (e) or any other provisions of this contract. In the event the accrued interest carried forward and deducted from subsequent payments, the interest shall not be compounded, and shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) hereof, cease to accrue upon the termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, or upon which the contractor completed his performance under the contract.

* * * * *

Clause (d) of the standard Article quoted in § 81.348 is amended as follows:

§ 81.348 Advance payments without interest. * * *

(d) If, upon the completion of the contract, or upon its termination for other than the fault of the contractor, the advance payments made to the contractor have not been fully liquidated in the manner herein provided, the unliquidated balance of such advance payments shall be deducted from any

In § 81.353 the statement contained in the last three lines is redesignated paragraph (b) and amended and paragraph (a) is added as follows:

* * * * *

(a) Changes in regulations under Walsh-Healey Act. From time to time there are issued by the Secretary of Labor changes in regulations under the Walsh-Healey Act which have the effect of modifying the standard representations and stipulations which are required to be inserted in supply contracts subject to that Act (See for example, subparagraph (5) of § 81.917 (b).) Accordingly, if desired, there may be added to the representations and stipulations set forth above an additional paragraph as follows:

(i) The foregoing representations and stipulations shall be subject to all applicable regulations, determinations and exemptions of the Secretary of Labor now or hereafter in effect.

(b) Convict labor. For discussion of the provision with respect to convict labor contained in paragraph (d) of the representations and stipulations set forth in this section, see § 81.903 (b).

TERMINATION OF FIXED PRICE (LUMP SUM) CONTRACTS

Termination for the Convenience of the Government

§ 81.370 Authority to terminate. The procedure provided in the succeeding paragraphs will be followed whenever the chief of any supply service shall find that it is in the interest of the government to terminate a lump sum contract now or hereafter entered into otherwise than for default under a clause similar to the usual Delays-Damages articles set forth in §§ 81.352 and 81.1302 (i).

§ 81.371 Where the contract does not contain standard termination article. If the contract does not contain an article in substantially the form set forth in § 81.324 (a) in the case of a lump sum supply contract or, in the case of a lump sum construction contract in substantially the form set forth in § 81.324 (b), the contracting officer will communicate with the contractor and will endeavor to amend the contract by supplemental agreement in substantially the form set forth in § 81.378. If no such amendment can be obtained, the procedure set forth in §§ 81.373 and 81.374 will be followed, depending upon whether or not the contract contains an article authorizing termination for the convenience of the Government.

§ 81.372 Where contract contains standard termination article—(a) Notice of termination. If the contract contains or has been amended to contain an article substantially in the form set forth in § 81.324 (a), in the case of a lump sum supply contract, or in the case of a lump sum construction contract, in substantially the form set forth in § 81.324 (b), the contracting officer shall transmit to the contractor a written Notice of Termination and Request for a Negotiated Settlement in triplicate substantially as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. It is to be noted that the words "uncompleted portion of the" where appearing in italics in the form are not appropriate to a notice of termination of a lump sum construction contract containing an article substantially like that in § 81.324 (a), and will be omitted from any notice relating to such a contract.

(b) Form of notice of termination.

NOTICE OF TERMINATION AND REQUEST FOR A NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT

The necessity and convenience of the Government require that your contract No.------ be terminated and that steps be taken immediately to bring about a settlement of the amount due to you. Accordingly, your Contract No. ------ is hereby terminated as of ----------------, 194--, pursuant to Article -------- of the contract.

It is the desire of the Government to work out with you by negotiation a settlement agreement that will properly and justly compensate you for the uncompleted portion of the contract.

You are hereby instructed (1) to suspend all work and the placing of all orders and subcontracts under this contract; (2) to terminate all subcontracts and cancel all existing orders and (3) to cause all work to cease thereunder, with the following exceptions: --------------------------------

After taking the steps above indicated, and to provide the basis for such negotiated settlement, you are requested to submit as promptly as possible a statement showing:

1. The portion of the total contract price previously paid, detailed as to date, number, and amount of each invoice.
2. The aggregate amount due under the contract for articles delivered or work performed and unpaid for, detailed as to date, number, and amount of each invoice.
3. The aggregate amount which will be due under the contract for all articles heretofore completed by you or work performed by you (including spare parts, drawings, information and other things) called for in the contract and not previously delivered.
4. Total direct labor costs incurred with respect to the contract.
5. Total direct material costs so incurred.
6. Total indirect factory expense so incurred.*
7. Production engineering expense, indicating labor and burden.*
8. Other engineering and similar expenses itemized in reasonable detail.*
9. Total administrative expenses incurred in respect to the contract.*
10. Total subcontractors' claims incurred, or to be incurred, with respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract, including actual or estimated charges for cancellation or termination of sub-contracts and purchase orders.
11. Total credits for material and parts diverted, or to be diverted, credits for salvage value of scrap and other credits applicable to the contract.
12. A computation of the profit realized on completed articles or work performed, together with such further figures, cost analyses, and information as will in your opinion assist the Contracting Officer to determine any allowance for profit which should be taken into account in negotiating such a settlement.
13. All accrued equipment rental.

If your own classification of accounts is substantially similar to the above, that classification will be satisfactory.

You are also requested to furnish an inventory of raw materials and materials in process and finished products on hand, and to supply schedules which show in detail the source and description of all significant charges summarized on the statement. You are further requested to submit a transcript of your advance payment account if any, as reflected by your books.

Vendors and subcontractors should be advised that the statement of charges submitted by them may be subject to an audit by Government auditors, and that an inspection of the supplies and materials covered by the purchase order or subcontract will be made by a Government inspector. All accounting and other records pertinent to the determination of the amount of settlement should be preserved by you and by your subcontractors and vendors. These documents will be of importance to you if a settlement by negotiation cannot be effected and may be of assistance to you in connection with negotiations. They should be carefully preserved.

If you are willing to enter into negotiations looking toward a negotiated settlement of the amount due with respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract in connection with this termination, please indicate your willingness to do so by signing the three copies, returning two executed copies to this office so that they will be received not later than ----------------, 194 --, and retaining the third copy for your files.

----------------, 194 --.

The undersigned is willing to enter into negotiations for a settlement as indicated above.

*Items 6, 7, 8 and 9 should be omitted or modified where inappropriate, as in the case of many construction contracts.

Item 13 will usually be applicable only to construction contracts.

(c) Termination of contracts at end of war. Termination of a contract as part of a general termination of war contracts at, about the time of, or following the cessation of the present hostilities will take place under the articles set forth in § 81.324 (a) and (b), as provided in paragraph (1) of those articles, even if the contract could then be terminated under any contract article relating to Delays—Damages (See for example, §§ 81.352 and 81.1302 (i)) by reason of some default of the contractor, unless the Contracting Officer shall find such defaults (1) have been gross or willful and (2) have caused substantial damage to the Government. The purpose of paragraph (1) of the standard termination articles is to give contractors assurance that at the end of the war the Government will not, in order to terminate, take unfair advantage of technical minor, or unintentional defaults which have not caused substantial damage to the Government, and make settlements under the Delays—Damages articles instead of under the more liberal provisions of the standard articles set out in § 81.324 (a) and (b). The second sentence of paragraph (1) of the standard articles does not in any way affect the termination of contracts during the war, or, indeed, any terminations except those which take place as part of the general termination of contracts at or about the end of the present war.

(d) Audit and negotiation. If the contractor indicates his acceptance of the proposal to enter into negotiations for a settlement, then upon receipt of the contractor's statement and accompanying exhibits, the contracting officer will verify the same by such procedure and to the extent prescribed by the chief of the supply service concerned, subject to any general audit instructions issued by the Director, Fiscal Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, and will then attempt to reach an agreement with the contractor as to the amount to be paid to the contractor (a) on account of the uncompleted portion of the contract, in the case of a lump sum supply contract containing an article in substantially the form set forth in § 81.324 (a), or (b) on account of the contract as a whole in the case of a lump sum construction contract containing an article in substantially the form set forth in § 81.324 (b). Under either contract article, there may be determined by agreement the amount due with respect to (1) expenses for the protection of government property, incurred after the effective date of the termination notice, and (2) settlement expenses.

(e) Settlement under termination articles. The Contracting Officer in determining what constitutes a proper settlement under a termination article substantially in the form of either of those contained in § 81.324 (a) and (b) is given a very wide range of discretion and may act upon such evidence as is satisfactory to him under all the circumstances with a view to reaching a fair adjustment expeditiously and with a minimum of technicality. He may allow the contractor by way of settlement such amount as will, in his judgment give to the contractor, fair, full and reasonable compensation for the contractor's costs, expenses and commitments, together with such allowance for profit as the contracting officer deems just and equitable to the contractor and reasonable under all the circumstances. Future procurement will be assisted by settlements involving (1) prompt payment to the contractor so that working capital for use in other contracts will not be unreasonably withheld from him, and (2) by reducing, as much as is consistent with protection of the interests of the Government, the time of Government personnel and of executive and accounting personnel of the contractor necessarily devoted to the termination adjustments.

(f) Appropriate settlements. In arriving at any agreement, whether or not a provision permitting such action is contained in the contract, the contracting officer may permit the contractor to retain title to partially completed materials and equipment, supplies, work in process, materials, and fabricated parts, provided that the Government shall be credited with the agreed value of such items. No allowance shall be made by way of profit or expenditure on account of supplies and other things which are undeliverable because of destruction or damage whether or not because of the fault of the contractor, except to the extent that the Government shall have expressly assumed the risk of destruction or damage. The contracting officer may, but is not required to, regard the provisions of the formula provided in the articles set forth in § 81.324 (a) and (b), respectively, which will govern the determination of the amount due in the event of a failure to negotiate a settlement, as providing general standards for fixing the amount of appropriate settlements by negotiation under such articles respectively. The provisions of either such formula, however, shall not be regarded as controlling any such settlement, but merely as providing an approximate guide by which the contracting officer may be assisted.

(g) Determination of amount due by negotiated settlement agreement. (1) If the Contracting Officer and the contractor reach an agreement as to the amount payable on account:

(i) Of the uncompleted portion of the contract in the case of a lump sum supply contract, and

(ii) Of the contract as a whole, so far as terminated, in the case of a lump sum construction contract containing an article substantially in the form set forth in § 81.324 (b), then the Contracting Officer shall proceed to enter into a supplemental agreement for the final termination of the contract, using the substance of whichever of the forms set forth in §§ 81.375 or 81.376 hereof is appropriate.

(2) In the case of a lump sum supply contract containing an article substantially in the form set forth in § 81.324 (a) such agreement shall provide for the payment to the contractor, subject to any deductions mentioned below in subparagraph (4), of the sum of:

(i) The agreed amount on account of the uncompleted portion of the contract; and,

(ii) All as more fully provided in the contract, (a) the contract price, to the extent unpaid, of all supplies (including spare parts, drawings, information and other things) which have been completed and delivered, or work performed, in accordance with the provisions of the contract and to which title has been transferred to the Government; and (b) the agreed amount for, or reimbursement of, expenditures made and costs incurred by the contractor subsequent to the receipt of the termination notice for the protection of Government property for such other expenses and costs as may be necessary in the settlement of the contract.

(3) In the case of a lump sum construction contract containing substantially the article set forth in § 81.324 (b), such agreement shall provide for the payment to the contractor, subject to any deductions mentioned below in subparagraph (4), of the sum of:

(i) The agreed amount (in addition to and without duplication of prior payments) to be paid to compensate the contractor for his costs and work; and

(ii) All as more fully provided in the contract, the agreed amount of, or reimbursement for, expenditures and costs incurred by the contractor after the date of termination for the protection of Government property and for such other expenses as may be necessary in the settlement of the contract.

(4) Any payments under any such settlement agreement shall be subject to the amount of any claims which the Government may have against the contractor under or in connection with the contract, including (but not limited to) a reasonable deduction on account of defects in the materials of workmanship of work performed for the Government, or of completed or partially completed supplies delivered to the Government, pursuant to the contract. The aggregate of all amounts payable by reason of the termination of any such contract, plus the sum of all amounts previously paid under the contract, shall not exceed the total contract price, adjusted in accordance with any applicable provisions of the contract, in the event that the contract contains an article calling for price adjustment (of the type usually referred to as an escalator clause) to the extent that the contracting officer shall determine that any such adjustment is required by the contract. The agreement may provide for withholding, or requiring the contractor to create, reasonable reserves to cover any unsettled claims for labor or material under the contract. Any such supplemental agreement shall provide for the liquidation of the outstanding balance of the advance payment account under any provisions of the contract or any separate agreement relating to advance payments made in connection with this contract.

§ 81.373 Where the contract contains no article substantially in the form set forth in § 81.324 (a) and (b), or where there is failure to agree on a negotiated settlement. If the contract does not contain an article in substantially the form set forth in § 81.324 (a), in the case of a lump sum supply contract, or in the case of a lump sum construction contract, in substantially the form set forth in § 81.324 (b), or if under a contract which does contain such an article the contracting officer and the contractor fail to agree on a settlement, then the contracting officer shall proceed to determine the amount payable to the contractor in accordance with any provision of the contract for termination for the convenience of the Government. Where settlement is made in accordance with provisions of any formula contained in the termination article of the contract, and not by negotiation, or where a settlement by negotiation is made as hereafter provided in this paragraph, the contracting officer will make such settlement by such procedure and after such verification and audit as may be prescribed by the chief of the supply service concerned, subject to any general audit instructions of the Director, Fiscal Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply. Such settlement shall give effect to the provisions of the contract or of any separate agreement governing the liquidation of any advance payments made in connection with the contract. If at any stage of the settlement procedure, the contracting officer and the contractor reach an agreement as to the amount payable on account of such a contract, or portion thereof, the contracting officer may embody such agreement in a final settlement agreement in the form set forth in whichever one of §§ 81.375 or 81.376 is appropriate in the particular case, supplemented, if that be desired, by § 81.378 in cases referred to in the title of that section. Such agreement shall be transmitted to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, for approval, unless the provision for termination of the contract for the convenience of the Government, prior to any amendment by such agreement, contains a provision for fixing by negotiation the amount to be paid to the contractor with respect to the contract or the portion thereof affected by the agreement, in which event such transmission is unnecessary.

§ 81.374 Procedure where contract does not contain article for termination for convenience of the Government. If there is no provision in the contract for termination for the convenience of the Government and the contractor fails to agree to an amendment of the contract to provide for such termination, the chief of the supply service either (1) should continue the performance of the contract, or (2) take such steps as may be possible to obtain the cooperation of the contractor in modifying or terminating the contract so as to cause minimum expense or loss to the Government. The chief of the supply service may approve or make an agreement for the termination of such a contract and for its settlement by reason of such termination, in such form as he may deem for the best interests of the Government, and such agreement need not be presented for approval of the Director, Purchases Division.

§ 81.375 Settlement agreement for use where a lump sum supply contract contains a provision for termination for the convenience of the Government substantially in the form contained in §81.324 (a) and permits settlement by negotiation of amount due with respect to uncompleted portion of the contract.

This Supplemental Agreement, entered into this ------- day of ---------------, 194--, by the United States of America, hereinafter called "The Government" represented by --------------- executing this contract
(authorized officer)
and --------------- hereinafter called "the Contractor",

Witnesseth that:

Whereas, the Contractor and the Government have entered into Contract No. W. ---- under date of ---------------, 194--, as amended and supplemented by -----------, dated -----------------------, 194--; and

Whereas, said contract provides for termination of such contract at the convenience of the Government and for the determination by negotiation of the amount payable on account of the uncompleted portion of the contract and of certain other items; and

Whereas, the Government and Contractor after negotiations have arrived at an agreement as to the sum payable on account of such uncompleted portion of the contract and for other items; and

Whereas, in the light of such agreement, the additional amount payable to the Contractor upon termination pursuant to the provisions of the contract has been found by the Government and the Contractor to be the sum of $--(x)--, which sum the Contractor is willing to and does accept in full and complete settlement except as may be otherwise set forth hereinafter of all liabilities and obligations of the Government under the aforesaid contract;

Now, therefore, the parties hereto do mutually agree as follows:

Article 1. The Contractor shall furnish and deliver to the Government at the places and times hereinafter stated the following materials and items:

(Insert description of all items including completed and partially completed supplies, spare parts, work in process, materials, fabricated parts, plans, drawings, information and other things which the Contractor is to deliver to the Government.)

Article 2. Upon delivery of all the materials and items specified in Article 1 above in accordance with the terms of Article 1, the Government upon presentation by the Contractor of properly certified invoices or vouchers will pay to the Contractor in addition to the sum of $--(a)-- previously paid to the Contractor for its work and services hereunder, the sum of $--(x)-- for all its costs, expenditures, liabilities, commitments and work done pursuant to the contract.

Said sum of $--(x)-- is made up as follows:

a. Payment in full for completed supplies, (including spare parts, drawings, information and other articles and items) called for by the contract, at the contract price therefor, so far as not previously paid $--(u)--.

b. Payment in full compensation to the Contractor for the uncompleted portion of the contract, including without limitation, a reasonable allowance for profit or anticipated profit $--(v)--.

c. Payment in full for expenditures made and costs incurred after the suspension notice for the protection of Government property and for such other expenditures and costs as were necessary in connection with the settlement of the contract $--(y)--.

Article 3. The Contractor agrees to accept the said additional sum of $--(x)-- in full and complete settlement of all its rights and of all obligations and liabilities of the Government under this aforesaid contract and agrees to release, and does hereby release, the Government from all further liability and obligation under said contract (except as may be otherwise set forth hereinafter) provided that said additional payment is made in accordance with Article 2 hereof.

Article 4. Upon payment of the additional sum specified in Article 2 hereof, the contract shall terminate and all rights and liabilities of the parties thereto and all obligations of the Government to make further payments or to carry out other undertakings thereunder shall cease forthwith and forever, except:

(1) All rights, and liabilities of the respective parties under the articles, if any, of this contract, applicable to patent infringement and patent license rights which shall continue in full force and effect;

(2) All rights and liabilities of the respective parties under the articles, if any, of said contract, concerning defects which may hereafter appear in any supplies and materials furnished the Government pursuant to said contract or of this supplemental agreement which rights and liabilities shall continue in full force and effect.

[Here add any excepted matters in addition to (1) and (2).]

In witness whereof—

§ 81.376 Settlement agreement for use where a lump sum construction contract contains a provision for termination for the convenience of the Government substantially in the form contained in § 81.324 (b).

This Supplemental Agreement, entered into this ------- day of ---------------, 194--, by the United States of America, hereinafter called "The Government" represented by -------------------- executing (authorized officer)
this contract and ------------------ hereinafter called "the Contractor",

Witnesseth that:

Whereas, the Contractor and the Government have entered into Contract No. W ----- under date of ---------------, 194--, as amended and supplemented by -----------, dated ------------------ 194--, and

Whereas, it has been determined that it is in the best interest of the Government to terminate the aforesaid contract; and

Whereas, said contract provides for termination of such contract at the convenience of the Government and for the determination by negotiation of the amount payable on account of the contract; and

Whereas, the Government and Contractor after negotiations have arrived at an agreement as to the sum payable on account of such contract; and

Whereas, in the light of such agreement, the amount payable to the Contractor upon termination pursuant to the provisions of the contract has been found by the Government and the Contractor to be the additional sum of $--(x)--, which sum the Contractor is willing to and does accept in full and complete settlement except as may be otherwise set forth hereinafter of all liabilities and obligations of the Government under the aforesaid contract;

Now, therefore, the parties hereto do mutually agree as follows:

Article 1. The Contractor shall furnish and deliver to the Government at the places and times hereinafter stated the following materials, supplies, equipment, machinery and machinery tools and items:

(Insert description of all items including all materials, supplies, work in process, facilities, equipment, machinery tools, plans, drawings, information and other things which the Contractor is to deliver to the Government.)

Article 2. Upon delivery of all the items specified in Article 1 above in accordance with the terms of Article 1, the Government upon presentation by the Contractor of properly certified invoices or vouchers will pay to the Contractor in addition to the sum of $--(a)-- previously paid to the Contractor for its work and services hereunder, the sum of $--(x)-- for all its costs, expenditures, liabilities, commitments and work done pursuant to the contract, a total sum of $--(a)-- plus --(x)--.

Said sum of $--(a)-- plus --(x)-- is made up as follows:

a. Payment in full compensation to the Contractor on account of the settlement of this contract, including without limitation, a reasonable allowance for profit or anticipated profit $--(y)--.

b. Payment in full for expenditures made and costs incurred after the suspension notice for the protection of Government property and for such other expenditures and costs as were necessary in connection with the settlement of the contract $--(z)--.

Article 3. [Note:—Article 3 and subseqent articles of this form are the same as those similarly numbered found in § 81.375].

§ 81.377 Supplemental agreement for use where contract contains no provision for termination for the convenience of the Government, or contains a termination article which does not provide for a negotiated settlement of the amount due in respect of the uncompleted portion of the contract.

This Supplemental Agreement, entered into this ------- day of ---------------, 194--, by the United States of America, hereinafter called "the Government" represented by --------------- executing this contract
(authorized officer)
and --------------- hereinafter called "the Contractor",

Witnesseth that:

Whereas, the Contractor and the Government have entered into Contract No. W---- under date of ---------------, 194--, as amended and supplemented by -----------, dated ---------------, 194--; and

Whereas, it is desirable to amend said contract so that termination thereof for the convenience of the Government and a settlement of the rights of the parties by reason of any such termination may be effected expeditiously, without undue expense, and with a minimum of administrative delay and inconvenience, and

Whereas, pursuant to the First War Powers Act and Executive Order No. 9001, issued pursuant thereto, the Secretary of War acting through his duly delegated officer, has authorized the amendment of existing War Department contracts so as to make adequate provision for termination for the convenience of the Government and for the negotiation of settlements in connection therewith and has found that such amendment will facilitate the prosecution of the war.

Now, therefore, the parties do agree to amend the aforesaid contract and the same is hereby amended by

(Here make such change in the contract as may be necessary to the end that it will contain provisions for termination at the convenience of the Government substantially the same as those set forth in § 81.324 (a) in the case of a lump sum supply contract or, in the case of a lump sum construction contract, as § 81.324 (b), of these procurement regulations.)

§ 81.378 Provisions for inclusion in contract forms set forth in §§ 81.375 or 81.376 where it is desired in the supplemental agreement of settlement to amend an existing lump sum contract to provide for a negotiated settlement. This provision may be inserted in any appropriate case immediately after the first "Whereas" in the form suggested in § 81.375 hereof in the case of a lump sum supply contract, or in § 81.376, in the case of a lump sum construction contract as set forth in the heading of this paragraph.

Now, therefore, the following amendments of said contracts are hereby effected:

Title I

Whereas, pursuant to the First War Powers Act and Executive Order No. 9001, issued pursuant thereto, the Secretary of War acting through his duly delegated officer, has authorized the amendment of existing War Department contracts so as to make adequate provisions for termination for the convenience of the Government and for the negotiation of settlements in connection therewith, and has found that such an amendment will facilitate the prosecution of the War.

Now, therefore, the parties do agree to amend the aforesaid contract and the same is hereby amended by

(Here make such change in the contract as may be necessary to the end that it will contain provisions for termination at the convenience of the Government substantially the same as those set forth in § 81.324 (a) or § 81.324 (b) as the case may be of these regulations.)

Title II

Whereas, said contract has been hereby amended as aforesaid, and (Here should be inserted the provisions of §§ 81.375 or 81.376, which follow the first "Whereas" clause in such paragraphs.)

TERMINATION UPON DEFAULT OF CONTRACTOR

§ 81.379 Steps to be taken in event of default. In any case where a contractor fails to perform within the time prescribed in his contract or is otherwise in default, the chief of the supply service may take any of the following courses:

(a) The contractor may proceed and may be charged with the actual damages resulting from the delays or other default. If the contract provides for liquidated damages, such damages and not actual damages must be charged.

(b) A supplemental agreement may be made with the contractor's surety, if any, providing for the completion of performance of the contract and for payment therefor. Such supplemental agreement should clearly state that all rights against the contractor are preserved so far as the surety does not undertake to cure the effect of defaults by the contractor.

(c) Where the contractor has not given a performance bond, or where the surety under such a bond has pursuant to any requirement thereof been given an opportunity (if such requirement is contained in the bond) to complete the contract but does not elect to do so, the Government may terminate the contract pursuant to any applicable provision thereof.

§ 81.380 Steps to be taken in event of termination because of default. If termination is effected pursuant to a contract provision substantially similar to that set forth in §§ 81.352 or 81.1302 (i) of these procurement regulations, the chief of the supply service may, but is not required to, take advantage of the remedies provided for in such contract provision or available by law. In lieu of making use of such remedies he may, if he finds that to do so will facilitate the prosecution of the war, make a supplemental agreement with the contractor for the termination of the contract upon such terms as may be agreed upon. Such agreement shall be subject to the approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, except where the chief of the supply service shall find any one of the following facts:

(a) That the Government no longer has need for the supplies called for by the contract.

(b) That the default of the contractor is excusable.

(c) That the supplies, undelivered because of the Contractor's default, can be obtained from some source other than the contractor on a basis as favorable, or substantially as favorable, as that set forth in the contract. In such event, even if for reasons of policy the supply service may wish to buy supplies of the type covered by the contract on terms more expensive or less favorable to the Government than those set forth in the contract, the contractor should not be charged with such excess expense. (For example, the supply service may desire to buy from particular producers or in particular geographical areas in order to distribute war work more widely, despite any extra expense involved. The excess expense in such a case is not equitably to be charged to the contractor.)

(d) That any excess cost charged to the contractor would be nominal.

§ 81.381 Delays. The contracting officer, at any time before final settlement (and notwithstanding any provision of the contract requiring that notice be given of the cause of delay in performance), may extend the time fixed for performance by supplemental agreement. If the contractor shall be in default by reason of delay at the date thereof, such supplemental agreement shall be subject to the approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, unless the contracting officer shall find that such delay caused no substantial damage to the Government. The contractor shall not in any case be considered in default by reason of delay if such delay is excusable within the meaning of the contract.

TERMINATION OF COST-PLUS-A-FIXED-FEE CONTRACTS

§ 81.382 Termination of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts for the convenience of the Government.

§81.383 Authorized officer. The chief of the supply service concerned, may direct or approve the termination of a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract by the contracting officer.

§ 81.384 Notice of termination. In terminating a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract as a whole, the contracting officer will promptly transmit to the contractor a written Notice of Termination substantially as follows:

> Pursuant to the provisions of Article---- of Contract No. ------ between the Government and yourself, that contract is hereby terminated. Effective at once, you will terminate all subcontracts and cancel all existing orders and cause all work thereunder to cease, with the following exceptions: -------
> Subject to customary approval of ratifcation by the contracting officer, you are authorized and requested to pay all invoices, charges, salaries, wages and other obligations actually incurred by you in connection with this contract and due on or before the effective date of this notice.
> You are requested to advise all vendors and subcontractors to submit to you, as promptly as possible, a statement of the charges that will be involved in the cancellation and termination of their orders for subcontracts. Such charges shall be set forth substantially under the following headings:
> (1) Amount of total contract price previously paid.
> (2) Direct labor.
> (3) Direct materials.
> (4) Indirect factory expense.*
> (5) Administrative expenses.*
> (6) Subcontractors claims.
> (7) Credits for scrap, etc.
> (8) Production engineering expense, indicating labor and burden.*
> (9) Other engineering and similar expenses.*
> (10) Other items of claim in detail.
> Vendors or subcontractors whose classification of accounts are similar to the above may follow their own classification. All such vendors and subcontractors should be advised that they may be required to support such statement of charges with appropriate and pertinent accounting and other records; that the statement of charges may be subject to an audit by Government auditors; and that an inspection of the supplies and materials covered by the Purchase Order or subcontract will be made by a Government inspector. Vendors and subcontractors should be directed to preserve all relevant records and papers.
> You will be reimbursed for the cost of all services rendered by you in connection with this termination of Contract No. ---- in accordance with the provisions of the contract.

(a) In the event of partial termination the first paragraph of the foregoing notice will be omitted and in lieu thereof the following paragraph:

> Pursuant to Article -- of Contract No. ---- entitled "Changes" you are directed to omit work covered by the contract as follows: (Here insert a statement of the work to be omitted, and following that the remainder of the notice set forth above.

*Items 4, 5, 8, and 9 to be omitted in the case of construction contracts unless applicable in the particular instance.

§ 81.385 Audit procedure. The contracting officer will see that the audit procedure prescribed by the chief of the supply service concerned, subject to any general instructions issued by the Director, Fiscal Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, is followed and that verification of the amounts due is completed in accordance with that procedure as rapidly as possible.

§ 81.386 Termination agreement. When the amount due to the Contractor has been determined in accordance with the provision of the contract, a final termination agreement will normally be prepared, embodying a general release by the contractor of all claims against the United States, and stating in detail any continuing obligations or rights, patent licenses, covenants of indemnity, and similar matters.

ADJUSTMENTS OF CONTRACTS BECAUSE OF CHANGED FEDERAL EXCISES

§ 81.818 Excises repealed by Revenue Act of 1942. Section 611 of the Revenue Act of 1942 repealed as of November 1, 1942 excise taxes imposed by Internal Revenue Code, section 3406 (a), subsection (5), (7), (8) and (9) relating respectively to electric signs, rubber articles, washing machines and optical equipment. Section 614 and 615 of the Revenue Act of 1942 have revised sections 3405 and 3406 (a) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code so as to exempt from excise taxation certain commercial refrigerating apparatus and cash registers of the type used in registering over-the-counter retail sales.

§ 81.819 Adjustments of lump sum contracts by reason of removal of certain federal excise taxes. The standard tax provision prescribed by § 81.357 of these regulations requires certain adjustments in contract prices by reason of changes in taxes after the date of the award of the contract, including those taxes directly applicable to the supplies or work covered by the contract or the materials used in work or manufacture under the contract (all as more fully set out in § 81.357). The removal of the Federal excise taxes mentioned in § 81.818 will require readjustment in the price of any contract containing the tax article set forth in § 81.357, for or including items which were subject to these taxes at the time the award was made, if and to the extent that the Contractor included any such tax in the price and has been relieved of the burden of the tax by the change in tax statute. To facilitate the prosecution of the war by reducing to a minimum the serious administrative burden of making these adjustments and the time of contractors and government officers consumed in determining the amount thereof, the chiefs of the supply services are authorized pursuant to the First War Powers Act 1941 and Executive Order No. 9001 to negotiate and enter into supplemental agreements with contractors with respect to the amount of any such adjustments after such verification and check thereof as the chiefs of the supply services severally shall prescribe. To expedite the negotiation of such adjustments the amount thereof may be determined by estimate, spot check, audit, or in any other manner deemed reasonable or appropriate by the chief of the supply service concerned. No such adjustment shall be required in respect of any contract or class of contracts as to which the chief of the supply service concerned shall determine that the amount of adjustment possibly to be obtained will not be substantial or warrant the interference with the orderly conduct of the procurement program or the expenditure of the time and effort involved in making or determining the amount of the same.

(a) No adjustment will be required of the contract price under any contract for or including supplies or materials which were subject to the repealed taxes when the award was made if the contract provided that the contract price did not include the taxes on such supplies or materials or if the contract did not include a provision similar to that found in the second sentence of the tax article set forth in § 81.357.

OVERTIME WAGE COMPENSATION

In § 81.964 paragraph (e) is amended; paragraphs (f) and (g) are amended and, together with paragraph (h), are redesignated (i), (j) and (k), respectively; new paragraphs (f), (g) and (h) are added; paragraphs (i), (j), (k), (m), (n) and (o) are amended and redesignated (l), (m), (n), (q), (r), and (v), respectively; paragraph (l) is redesignated (p), and new paragraphs (o), (s), (t), (u), and (w) are added, as follows:

(e) Double time mandatory for seventh consecutive day worked. When work is performed on any seven consecutive days, double time must be paid for the work on the seventh day. The exceptions to this requirement are set forth in paragraphs (f) and (g) of this section. Double time must be paid even though the seven days during which the work has been performed fall in two workweeks. Payment of double time on the seventh successive work day is mandatory even though (1) an existing collective bargaining agreement does not require it or (2) an existing agreement or applicable statute provides for overtime at the rate of time and one-half for hours over eight in a day or over forty in a week or for the sixth day or (3) the work is of a type for which overtime need not be paid under exceptions contained in section 7 of the "Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938". Where more than seven but less than fourteen successive days are worked, double time is required only on the seventh consecutive day. The seven consecutive days must have been worked after October 1, 1942.

(f) Double time not mandatory for seventh consecutive day worked under limited special circumstances. Double time need not be paid for work on the seventh consecutive day worked if by agreement the employer and employee have arranged a mutually satisfactory work schedule which affords a day of rest in each regular work week. A regular work week would be seven consecutive days starting on the same calendar day each week. Whether or not a work schedule is mutually satisfactory is governed by ordinary principles of contract law.

(g) Same. Double time is not required for an employee who, having worked six successive days, works a seventh consecutive day on an exchange basis as an accommodation to a fellow employee. Contra where the employer makes such a request.

(h) Computation of double time for seventh day. Double time may be based either on the wage earned on the seventh consecutive day or on the average hourly pay for the full workweek; it may be computed on the same basis the employer uses in computing other overtime. Double time required for the seventh successive day may not be credited against overtime required for any other period of the week by any law or by the employment contract; the double time requirement under the order is an added penalty. Time and one-half paid for work on a designated holiday occurring on one of the first six days may not be credited against double time due for the seventh successive day work.

(i) Computation of number of days worked. "The Order does not require that any particular number of hours be worked in any day for that day to be regarded as a day worked under paragraphs I (A) (1) and I (A) (2)." (Section 4, release of September 25, 1942.) In computing the number of days worked, only days actually worked should be counted. See however, paragraphs (j)–(l) of this section. Where otherwise regarded as time worked a day spent in travel on the employer's behalf is included for the purpose of computing the seventh successive work day, whether the travel is on one of the first six days or occurs on the seventh.

(j) Same: Inability to work. Whether or not seven or six days have been worked in any work week within the meaning of paragraphs I (A) (1) and I (A) (2), respectively of the order, where, through no fault of the employee, he does not work on one of the previous work days in the work week, although he is ready and willing to do so, "* * * [will] depend upon the circumstances of each case, and [the question] is generally to be solved in accordance with the custom, practice or agreement in the industry or plant * * *" (Section 3, release of September 25, 1942.) Thus, "where the employee reports for work pursuant to instructions and is sent home, such days will be considered days actually worked where so regarded by custom, practice or agreement in the industry or plant." (Footnote No. 2, release of September 25, 1942.) When an employee is told on the previous day not to report for work on the next day, that day need not be counted in computing the seventh successive day, although whether or not such day is counted in computing the sixth day depends on the custom, practice or agreement in the particular plant (see paragraph 946.20 below).

(k) Same: Absenteeism. "* * * since one of the purposes of the Order is to discourage absenteeism, where the employee absents himself for reasons of personal convenience the day is not included in the computation." (Section 3, release of September 25, 1942.)

(l) Same: Enumerated holidays included in the computation. "* * * Since it is the purpose of the Order to give recognition to the enumerated days as holidays, they should be counted as days worked for the purpose of computation of the seventh and sixth days of work under paragraphs I (A) (1) and I (A) (2) whether or not work is actually performed and whether or not compensation is paid for the holidays if no work is performed." (Section 5, release of September 25, 1942.) If one of the designated holidays falls on what would be the seventh successive day, and no work is performed, the day is not the seventh day of work for which double time is payable.

(m) Premium pay on holidays: When forbidden. (1) "* * * Double time on holidays is forbidden unless such holidays fall on the seventh day worked under paragraph I (A) (1) [of the Order] * * *" (Section 5, release of September 25, 1942.)

(2) Time and one-half on undesignated holidays is forbidden unless such holidays fall on the sixth day worked in any regularly scheduled work week under paragraph I (A) (2) of the order, and unless such premium pay is "* * * required by the provisions of law or employment contracts * * *" (paragraph I (A) (2), Executive Order 9240).

(n) Same: when mandatory. Time and one-half is required for work on the six holidays specified in paragraph I–B of the order. Under the order, it is permissible to pay employees straight time or less on such holidays even though the employee is given the day off. The order requires time and one-half for work performed on the enumerated holidays whether or not forty hours were previously worked in the workweek. However, if time and one-half is paid because of a holiday occurring on one of the early days in a week, credit may be taken by the employer in computing the amount which must be paid for hours in excess of forty per week under the Fair Labor Standards Act, unless the employment agreement provides that such credit may not be taken (see paragraph (s) of this section).

(o) Determination of sixth holiday. Determination whether another holiday is of greater local importance than Memorial Day for purposes of application of provisions of paragraph I (B) of the order may be made by the employer, assuming that such a determination is not in conflict with the employment contract.

(p) Same: not pyramided. See paragraph (v) of this section.

(q) Other kinds of premium payments not prohibited. The order does not prevent the payment of special compensation under other justifiable circumstances which do not depend upon the number of hours or days worked in a week. The order does not prohibit extra compensation customarily paid or provided for in the employment contract for night shifts, unusually long shifts, or special emergency work, even if occurring on Saturday or Sunday, unless they are in fact means to evade the terms of the order. The order does not forbid payment of a bonus unrelated to Saturday or Sunday work as such, or differential pay for different shifts. The order permits payment of time and one-half for hours over eight in one day or in excess of forty in a week, or for the sixth work day in the week, where required by law or employment contract, even though such hours fall on Saturday or Sunday. The order permits payment of time and one-half for hours in excess of eight worked on any day, including Saturday, where required by any law or employment contract, even though such a day is, for example, only the fourth day worked in a workweek and the total number of hours worked in the week including that day is less than 40. The order does not affect the requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act or the Walsh-Healey Act, nor does the order purport to deal with vacation pay in any respect.

(r) When time and one-half may be paid for work on the sixth day. Where by custom an employee has received time and one-half for the sixth work day, although no written contract so provides, the order does not prohibit continuance of the practice. In computing the sixth work day, for purposes of paragraph I (A) (2) of the order, existing practices or customs or agreement in the particular plant are controlling since premium pay for the sixth work day is not mandatory under the order. For example, see paragraphs (s)–(u) of this section.

(s) Computation of time and one-half for sixth day. Whether time and one-half paid for work on a designated holiday occurring in the early part of the week may be credited against time and one-half due for the sixth work day depends upon the terms of the employment contract. Whether an employee may be penalized for tardiness by deduction from the time and one-half required by either law or contract for work on the sixth day of the work-week similarly depends upon the terms of the employment contract.

(t) Computation of number of days worked. See paragraphs (i)–(k) of this section.

(u) Same: Whether enumerated holidays are to be included in the computation. Whether a designated holiday on which no work is performed is counted in computing the sixth day, depends upon the agreement in the particular plant. If no agreement on the subject exists it should be counted.

(v) Premium rates not pyramided. "Where particular work is subject to different premium rates under separate paragraphs of the order or applicable statutes, (e. g. work on a holiday which is also the seventh successive day of work), the order does not require that the several premium rates be pyramided, but does require that the highest single rate be paid." Where an employee works a designated holiday which is also the sixth work day, payment of time and one-half satisfies both the requirement of the order and of a law or of an employment contract requiring payment of time and one-half for the sixth work day, since pyramiding of premium payments would be contrary to the order which forbids more than time and one-half for work on a designated holiday.

(w) Workday and workweek schedules. The order does not penalize setting up different workweeks for different classes of employees or the use of swing-shifts, whereby the plant is kept in continuous operation but each employee is given a day of rest each week. Nor does the order penalize changes in the starting day of the workweek, unless this is done for purposes of evasion. The workday and the calendar day need not coincide; an employee whose scheduled shift continues after twelve midnight is still regarded as having worked only one day. The order does not penalize variance in the hours worked in the different days of the workweek, such as a schedule of four days work of eight hours per day and two days work of twelve hours per day.

In § 81.965 paragraph (a) is amended, paragraph (c) is redesignated paragraph (d), and a new paragraph (c) is added as follows:

§ 81.965 Exceptions—(a) Shipbuilding stabilization agreement. All work subject to the Zone Standards Agreements for the shipbuilding and ship repair industry has been excepted from the provisions of the order for a period of 60 days from October 1, 1942. An extension of the exception is anticipated and notice thereof will be included in these regulations.

* * * * *

(c) Holiday provisions of the order incorporated in building trades stabilization agreement. While work covered by the Building Trades Stabilization Agreement has been exempted from the order, the holiday provisions of the order (paragraph I (B)) have been incorporated in the Stabilization Agreement by resolution of the Board of Review, which performs the function of administering the Stabilization Agreement. (Interpretative Resolution No. 2 of the Board of Review passed on November 10, 1942).

(d) Miscellaneous. * * *

§ 81.978a List of designated industries referred to in § 81.978. Abrasives; aircraft; automobiles; chemicals and allied products; cotton manufactures; dyeing and finishing textiles; footwear; iron and steel and their products; leather; logging; machinery; meat products; metal mining; nonferrous metals and their products; nonmetallic mining and quarrying; petroleum, coal and natural gas products; petroleum and natural gas production; planing mills; professional and scientific instruments, photographic apparatus and optical goods; railroad equipment; rayon manufactures; refractories products; rubber products; sawmills; street and suburban railways and buses; surgical, medical and dental instruments, equipment, and supplies; tobacco products; woolen and worsted manufactures; work clothing.

Section 81.980 (d) (4), (f) (2), (l) (1), (n), (o), and (p) are added as follows:

§ 81.980 General Orders of National War Labor Board. * * *

(d) General Order No. 4. * * *

(4) General Order No. 4–B. The time as of which to determine whether an employer employs "not more than eight individuals" within the meaning of General Order No. 4 is the time when the wage or salary adjustment is agreed to, or, if it is not made by agreement, the time when it is put into effect. But an employer who, during any given year following October 3, 1942, in the case of wages, or October 27, 1942, in the case of salaries, has made adjustments affecting in the aggregate eight employees, will not, if he wishes to make any further adjustments within said year, be exempt under General Order No. 4.

* * * * *

(f) General Order No. 6. * * *

(2) Interpretation No. 1 of General Order No. 6—Question. Paragraph (b) of General Order No. 6 provides that unless a higher rate is approved by the Board, the rate for a new job classification shall be fixed "at a level not exceeding that which prevails for similar classifications within the area." What is the meaning of the quoted phrase? Specifically, must the rate on new jobs be fixed at not exceeding the average of the rates in the area for similar classifications, if the employer is to be free to proceed without the necessity of seeking approval by the Board of what otherwise would constitute a wage increase?

Answer. The object of paragraph (b) of General Order No. 6 was to prevent an employer, upon opening a new plant or creating new job classifications in his existing plant, from paying rates which would unstabilize the rate structure in the area affected by his action. In interpreting General Order No. 6 this object should be kept in mind, and the order should be given a practical and common sense reading.

(1) The creation of a new job classification in an existing plant. (a) Major considerations to be borne in mind in making rulings in these cases are that the rates for the new jobs should bear a direct relation to and be in balance with the existing rate structure in the plant. If comparison with other rates in the plant is not appropriate, then the new rates should bear the same relation to rates for similar classifications in the area as the existing rates in the plant bear to comparable rates in the area.

(b) In these cases of creating new job classifications in existing plants the local Wage and Hour offices, guided by the above considerations and with the approval of the appropriate Wage and Hour Regional Director, may make final rulings except in unusual circumstances, for example where it is proposed to set up in an existing plant a new department of substantial size. In such exceptional cases, the application for a ruling should be transmitted by the local Wage and Hour office to the War Labor Board Regional Director and there be processed as set out below.

(2) The establishment of a new plant. (a) Whether in a given case it would unstabilize wages in the area to permit a particular employer to fix the rates for a new plant at any level up to the maximum being paid in the area, or whether he should be permitted to pay only the average, or less than the average, will depend on his traditional wage history in relation to the wages of the industry generally, or of the area if he has theretofore operated in the area, the nature of the work in which he is engaged, the rates being paid for comparable work in comparable establishments, and other pertinent factors.

(b) Applications in these cases should be transmitted, without a ruling by the local Wage and Hour office but with such information as said office may deem helpful, to the War Labor Board Regional Director. In his discretion the Regional Director may rule on the case or refer it for a ruling to a tripartite panel. If the new plant is of substantial size and will employ a large proportion of skilled labor, the Regional Director should refer the case to a panel.

(c) It will be proper and sometimes necessary for the Regional Director or the panel to hold hearings relative to the proper level at which the applicant's rates for the new plant should be fixed. To such a hearing should be invited interested representatives of industry and labor.

(3) In all cases the applicant should show the data on the basis of which the proposed rates were determined.

Question. Does the foregoing relate to salaries as well as wages?

Answer. Yes, under General Order No. 6–A.

(l) General Order No. 12. * * *

(1) On November 25, 1942, the National War Labor Board determined that General Order No. 12 applies to employees of the District of Columbia.

* * * * *

(n) General Order No. 14. Authorization to the War Department to pass on wage and salary adjustments for designated civilian employees. (A) The National War Labor Board hereby delegates to the Secretary of War, to be exercised on his behalf by the Wage Administration Section within the Civilian Personnel Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply (hereinafter referred to as the "War Department Agency"), the power to rule upon all applications for wage and salary adjustments (insofar as approval thereof has been made a function of the National War Labor Board) covering civilian employees within the continental limits of the United States and Alaska, employed by

(1) The War Department,

(2) The Army Exchange Service, and

(3) Government-owned, privately-operated facilities of the War Department.

all in accordance with the further provisions of this Order.

(B) There shall be a standing tripartite Appeals Committee, to consist of two representatives to be appointed by the War Department Agency and two representatives each of industry and labor to be appointed by the National War Labor Board. The Committee may have such assistants as the Board may designate. The Board hereby delegates to the Appeals Committee the power to pass upon appeals from rulings by the War Department Agency under category A (3) above, and to perform such other duties as are hereinafter prescribed.

(C) In the performance of their respective duties the War Department Agency and the Appeals Committee shall comply with the terms of Executive Order No. 9250, dated October 3, 1942, and all general orders and policies of the National War Labor Board announced thereunder. The War Department Agency, without making an initial ruling thereon, may refer to the Board, through the Appeals Committee, for decision by the Board any case which in the opinion of the Agency presents doubtful or disputed questions of sufficient seriousness and import to warrant direct action by the Board.

(D) The War Department Agency and the Appeals Committee shall transmit to the Review and Analysis Division of the National War Labor Board copies of their respective rulings and rules of procedure as they are issued, and such additional data and reports as said Division or the Board may from time to time deem necessary.

(E) Any ruling by the War Department Agency hereunder shall be final, subject

(1) To the National War Labor Board's ultimate power to review rulings on its own initiative, and

(2) In cases under category A (3) above, to the right of any aggrieved party, within a period of ten days after the issuance of the ruling, to file an appeal with the Appeals Committee.

(F) Any ruling by the Appeals Committee hereunder shall be final, subject

(1) To the National War Labor Board's ultimate power to review rulings on its own initiative, and

(2) To the right of any aggrieved party, including the War Department, within a period of ten days after the issuance of the ruling, to petition the National War Labor Board for leave to appeal to the Board. The burden shall be upon the petitioner in such cases to show why the Board should be called upon to act.

(G) Any ruling by the War Department Agency hereunder shall be deemed to be the act of the National War Labor Board unless and until reversed or modified by the Appeals Committee or by the Board. Any such order of reversal or modification shall allow the War Department Agency a period of two weeks after (1) the time for appeal from the order of the Appeals Committee has elapsed, or (2) if the case has been appealed to the Board, from the date of the Board's order, within which to comply with the order.

(H) The term "government-owned, privately-operated facilities of the War Department" shall include for the purposes of this Order only those facilities (1) in which the War Department has contractual responsibility for the approval of pay roll costs, and (2) which are designated in lists furnished from time to time to the Board by the War Department Agency. The Board may at any time, upon at least seven days' notice to the War Department Agency, strike from the list any facility if the Board believes that the policies of Executive Order No. 9017 or Executive Order No. 9250 will be furthered by the Board's acting directly upon the wage and salary adjustments of such facility.

(I) Where disputes about wages or salaries arise between the private operators of said facilities and their employees, the disputes shall be referred to the War Department Agency. The Agency's rulings in such cases shall be final, subject to the same rights of appeal and review as in cases of rulings by the Agency upon applications for voluntary wage or salary adjustments. The Agency's jurisdiction over disputes shall include only those concerning wages and salaries. The National War Labor Board may in its discretion refer other disputes to the Appeals Committee for such action as the Board may specify in the particular case.

(o) General Order No. 15. Where under the provisions of a bona fide collective agreement there has been established an impartial chairman, umpire or arbitrator whose duties include the fixing of rates for new jobs, his decisions so rendered need not be submitted for approval to the National War Labor Board: Provided, That:

(1) The rate for each new job shall be fixed in an amount which is directly related to and in balance with the established rates of the other jobs covered by the agreement, and shall be consistent with the Board's Wage Stabilization Policy of November 6, 1942.

(2) A bi-weekly report of rates so fixed shall be transmitted to the Division of Review, Analysis and Research of the National War Labor Board together with sufficient information to establish the aforesaid relationship and balance.

(3) Such decisions shall be subject to the Board's ultimate power of review but any modification or reversal thereof will not be retroactive.

(4) The establishment of such rates should not result in any substantial increase of the level of costs and shall not furnish a basis either to increase price ceilings of the commodity or service involved or to resist otherwise justifiable reductions in such price ceilings.

(p) General Order No. 16. Adjustments which equalize the wage or salary rates paid to females with the rates paid to males for comparable quality and quantity of work on the same or similar operations, and adjustments in accordance with this policy which recognize or are based on differences in quality or quantity of work performed, may be made without approval of the National War Labor Board, provided that:

(1) Such adjustments are reported, when made, to the Division of Review, Analysis and Research of the National War Labor Board together with sufficient information to show that they are in accordance with the policy referred to above;

(2) Such adjustments shall be subject to the Board's ultimate power of review, but any modification or reversal thereof will not be retroactive;

(3) Such adjustments shall not furnish a basis either to increase price ceilings of the commodity or service involved or to resist otherwise justified reductions in such price ceilings.

§ 81.1106 Numbering of compressed gas cylinders. See in this connection AR 850–60 (September 29, 1942) covering the safe handling, storing, shipping and using of compressed gas cylinders.

In § 81.1303 paragraph 5 of Article I in the contract form is amended as follows:

§ 81.1303 W.D. Contract Form No. 3. * * *

ARTICLE I. Statement of work. * * *

5. The Contracting Officer may at any time by written order issue additional instructions, require additional work or services or direct the omission of work or services covered by this contract. If such changes cause a material increase or decrease in the amount or character of the work to be done under this contract an equitable adjustment of the amount of the fixed fee to be paid the Contractor shall be made and the contract shall be modified in writing accordingly. Any claim for adjustment under this Article must be asserted within 10 days from the date the change is ordered (unless the Contracting Officer, with the approval of the Secretary of War or his duly authorized representative, shall grant a further period of time prior to the date of final settlement of the contract). Nothing provided in this Article shall excuse the Contractor from proceeding with the prosecution of the work so changed. There shall be no adjustment in the amount of the fixed fee as provided herein, nor any claim therefor because of any errors and/or omissions made in computing the estimated cost of the construction of the work under this contract or where the actual cost varies from the estimated cost.

Articles 3, 4, and 6 of the contract form in § 81.1320 are amended as follows:

§ 81.1320 W.D. Contract Form No. 20. * * *

ARTICLE 3. Until all advance payments hereunder are liquidated, all funds received as advance payments under this supplemental contract together with------------------ deposited which shall be not less than 75%) percent (----%) of all other cash payments under the principal contract (or principal contracts), shall be deposited in a special bank account or accounts at a member bank or banks of the Federal Reserve System, or any "insured" bank within the meaning of the Act creating the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (Act of August 23, 1935; 49 Stat. 684, as amended; 12 U. S. C. 264), separate from the Contractor's general or other funds. Such special bank account or accounts shall be so designated as to indicate clearly to the bank the special character and purpose, and the balance in such account or accounts shall be used by the Contractor exclusively as a revolving fund for carrying out the purposes of the principal contract (or principal contracts), (including reimbursement to the Contractor for any reasonable amounts expended by him for such purposes), and any amendments thereto, and not for the other business of the Contractor: (Provided, That it is understood that all funds deposited in the said special account created hereunder may be used by the Contractor for the purposes of either or all of the principal contracts without regard to the origin of such payments; and) * Provided, That for the purpose of determining proper disposition of funds hereunder such of the Contractor's costs as may not be directly allocable to the principal contract (or principal contracts), as it (or they) may be amended, may be charged against funds deposited in the special account in that proportion which the amount of the work being done under the principal contract (or principal contracts), as it (they) may be amended, approximately bears to the total amount of work being performed by the Contractor, out of which such costs also arise, but within the period to which such costs relate. resentative, or by other person to whom authority to make advance payments has been delegated, withdrawals from special account or accounts shall be made subject to the prior written approval of the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative. Any balances from time to time in such special account or accounts shall secure the repayment of the advances in connection with which the special account or accounts are opened, and the Government shall have a lien upon such balances to secure the repayment of such advances, which lien shall be superior to any lien of the bank, or any other person, upon such account or accounts by virtue of assignment to it of the principal contract (or contracts) or otherwise: Provided, That the bank shall be under no liability to any party hereto for the withdrawal of any funds from said special account upon checks, properly endorsed and signed by the Contractor, except that after the receipt by the bank of written directions from the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, the bank shall not act thereon and be under no liability to any party hereto for any action taken in accordance with the said written directions. Any instructions or written directions received by the bank through the Contracting Officer upon War Department stationery and purporting to be signed by, or by the direction of, the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, shall, insofar as the rights, duties, and liabilities of the bank are concerned, be conclusively deemed to have been properly issued and filed with the bank by the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative.

Article 4. If, you upon completion of the principal contract (or of any of the principal contracts), or upon the termination thereof for other than the fault of the Contractor, the advance payments made to the Contractor, in respect of such contract have not been fully liquidated in the manner herein provided, the unliquidated balance of such advance payments shall be deducted from any payments otherwise due the Contractor in respect of such contract; and if the sum or sums due the Contractor be insufficient to cover such balance, the deficiency shall be paid by the Contractor in cash forthwith after demand and final audit by the Government of all accounts hereunder in respect of such contract; Provided, however, That in the event of such termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, such deduction shall not be made prior to final audit unless and only to the extent that, the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative shall determine that such action is reasonable required in order to secure the eventual repayment in full to the Government of such unpaid advance payments. In the event of cancellation or termination of the principal contract (or of any of the principal contracts) because of the fault of the Contractor, the Contractor, notwithstanding any ultimate rights to be reimbursed, agrees to return to the Government, upon demand, without set-off of any sums alleged to be due the Contractor, the unliquidated balance of any advance payment. Furthermore, if, in the opinion of the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, the unobligated balance of the advance payments made by the Government under Article 1 hereof exceeds the amount necessary for the current needs of the Contractor, as determined by the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative the amount of such excess shall, upon demand by the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, be promptly returned to the Government and will be credited against the balance due the Government on advances previously made. If the demand made in any event set forth in this Article is not met upon receipt of such demand by the Contractor, the amount demanded will bear interest at the rate of six percent (6%) rather than two and one-half percent (2½%) per annum from the date of the receipt of the demand until payment is made; Provided, however, That such additional interest over and above the regular two and one-half percent is hereby waived as to any sums paid by the Contractor within 15 days after the amount becomes due hereunder.

Article 6. On the unliquidated balance of the advance payments outstanding, the Contractor agrees to pay interest at the rate of two and one-half percent (2½%) per annum. Such interest shall be computed at the end of each calendar month on the average daily balance of the principal of the unliquidated advance payments outstanding. In determining such balance, charges on account of the advance payments to the Contractor hereunder shall be made as of the dates of the checks therefor; credits resulting from disbursements made by the Contractor which are applied against advance payments shall be made upon the approval of the vouchers therefor by the disbursing officer, as of the dates respectively upon which the contractor presents to the contracting officer or his duly authorized representative full and accurate data for the preparation of each such voucher which date shall, as to each such voucher, be certified by the contracting officer or his duly authorized representative on the face thereof; and credits arising from cash repayments to the Contractor shall be made as of the dates the checks therefor are received by the disbursing officer. As soon as such monthly computations shall have been made, the interest so determined shall be deducted from the payments otherwise due the Contractor under this contract, Provided, however, That, in no event shall deductions on account of interest exceed five percent (5%) of the gross payment due the Contractor prior to any deduction under this Article or Article 5 or any other provision of this contract. In the event the accrued interest exceeds such five percent, the excess of such interest shall be carried forward and deducted from subsequent payments. The interest shall not be compounded, and shall, subject to the provisions of Article 4 hereof, cease to accrue upon the termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, or upon the date found by the Contracting Officer to be the date upon which the Contractor completed his performance under the contract.

§ 81.1321 W.D. Contract Form No. 21. * * *

Article 5. If, upon completion of the principal contract, or upon the termination thereof for other than the fault of the Contractor, the advance payments made to the Contractor in respect of such contract have not been fully liquidated in the manner herein provided, the unliquidated balance of such advance payments shall be deducted from any payments otherwise due the Contractor in respect of such contract; and if the sum or sums due the Contractor be insufficient to cover such balance, the deficiency shall be paid by the Contractor in cash forthwith after demand and final audit by the Government of all accounts hereunder in respect of such contract: Provided, however, That in the event of such termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, such deduction shall not be made prior to final audit unless, and only to the extent that, the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative shall determine that such action is reasonably required in order to secure the eventual repayment in full to the Government of such unliquidated advance payments. In the event of cancellation or termination of the principal contract because of the fault of the Contractor, the Contractor, notwithstanding any ultimate rights to be reimbursed, agrees to return to the Government, upon demand, without set-off of any sums alleged to be due the Contractor, the unliquidated balance of any advance payment. Furthermore, if, in the opinion of the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, the unobligated balance of the advance payments made by the Government under Article 1 hereof exceeds the amount necessary for the current needs of the Contractor, as determined, by the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, the amount of such excess shall, upon demand by the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, be promptly returned to the Government and will be credited against the balance due the Government on advances previously made. If the demand made in any event set forth in this Article is not met upon receipt of such demand by the Contractor, the amount demanded will bear interest at the rate of six percent (6%) rather than two and one-half percent (2½%) per annum from the date of the receipt of the demand until payment is made: Provided, however, That such additional interest over and above the regular two and one-half percent is hereby waived as to any sums paid by the Contractor within 15 days after the amount becomes due hereunder. If and when the Contractor has, by means of deductions or otherwise, reimbursed the Government in full for payments made, any money remaining in the special bank account or accounts shall be free and clear of any lien hereunder, and the bank or banks concerned shall have authority to pay same to the Contractor and shall thereupon be relieved of any further obligation to the Government on account thereof.

Article 6. On the unliquidated balance of the advance payments outstanding, the Contractor agrees to pay interest at the rate of two and one-half percent (2½%) per annum. Such interest shall be computed at the end of each calendar month on the average daily balance of the principal of the unliquidated advance payments outstanding. In determining such balance, charges on account of the advance payments to the Contractor hereunder shall be made as of the dates of the checks therefor; credits resulting from disbursements made by the Contractor which are applied against advance payments shall be made upon the approval of the vouchers therefor by the disbursing officer, as of the dates respectively upon which the contractor presents to the contracting officer or his duly authorized representative full and accurate data for the preparation of each such voucher which date shall, as to each such voucher, be certified by the contracting officer or his duly authorized representative on the face thereof; and credits arising from cash repayments to the Government by the Contractor shall be made as of the dates the checks therefor are received by the disbursing officer. As soon as such monthly computations shall have been made, the interest charge so determined shall be deducted from any payments on account of the fixed fee which which may be made to the Contractor from time to time under this contract. In the event the accrued interest exceeds any such payment, the excess of such interest shall be carried forward and deducted from subsequent payments on account of the fixed fee. The interest shall not be compounded, and shall, subject to the provisions of Article 5 hereof, cease to accrue upon the termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, or upon the date found by the Contracting Officer to be the date upon which the Contractor completed his performance under the contract.

In § 81.1322 Articles 5 and 6 of the contract form are amended as follows:

Article 5. If upon termination of the Letter Purchase Order for other than the fault of the Contractor, the advance payments made to the Contractor and all interest which may have accrued thereon in respect of such contract have not been fully liquidated in the manner herein provided, the unliquidated balance of such payments and accrued interest shall be deducted from any payments otherwise due the Contractor in respect of such contract; and if the sum or sums due the Contractor be insufficient to cover such balance, the deficiency shall be paid by the Contractor in cash forthwith after demand and final audit by the Government of all accounts hereunder in respect of such contract: Provided, however, That in the event of such termination of the contract for other than the fault of the contractor, such deduction shall not be made prior to final audit unless, and only to the extent that, the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative shall determine that such action is reasonably required in order to secure the eventual repayment in full to the Government of such unliquidated advance payments. In the event of cancellation or termination of the principal contract because of the fault of the Contractor, or its termination due to failure to enter into the more formal contract contemplated by Paragraph 2 of the Letter Purchase Order, the Contractor notwithstanding any ultimate rights to be reimbursed, agrees to return to the Government, upon demand, without set-off of any sums alleged to be due the Contractor, the unliquidated balance of any advance payments and any interest which may have accrued thereon: Provided, That the Contractor may retain in the account an amount sufficient to meet the outstanding obligations incurred by it in good faith pursuant to authorization by the Contracting Officer under Paragraph 2 of the Letter Purchase Order until assumption and discharge of such obligations by the Government or final disallowance thereof. Furthermore, if, in the opinion of the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative the unobligated balance of the advance payments made by the Government under Article 1 hereof exceeds the amount necessary for the current needs of the Contractor, as determined by the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, the amount of such excess shall, upon demand by the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, be promptly returned to the Government and will be credited against the balance due the Government on advances previously made. If the demand made in any event set forth in this Article is not met upon receipt of such demand by the Contractor, the amount demanded will bear interest at the rate of six percent (6%) rather than at two and one-half percent (2½%) per annum from the date of the receipt of the demand until payment is made: Provided, however, That such additional interest over and above the regular two and one-half percent (2½%) is hereby waived as to any sum paid by the Contractor within 15 days after the amount becomes due hereunder. If and when the Contractor has, by means of deductions or otherwise, reimbursed the Government in full for payments made and all interest which may have accrued thereon, any money remaining in the special bank account or accounts shall be free and clear of any lien hereunder and the bank or banks concerned shall have authority to pay same to the Contractor and shall thereupon be relieved of any further obligations to the Government on account thereof.

Article 6. On the unliquidated balance of the advance payments outstanding, the Contractor agrees to pay interest at the rate of two and one-half per cent (2½%) per annum. Such interest shall be computed at the end of each calendar month on the average daily balance of the principal of the unliquidated advance payments outstanding. In determining such balance, charges on account of the advance payments to the Contractor hereunder shall be made as of the dates of the checks therefor; credits resulting from disbursements made by the Contractor which are applied against advance payments shall be made upon the approval of the vouchers therefor by the disbursing officer, as of the dates respectively upon which the Contractor presents to the contracting officer or his duly authorized representative full and accurate date for the preparation of each such voucher which date shall, as to each such voucher, be certified by the contracting officer or his duly authorized representative on the face thereof; and credits arising from cash repayments to the Government by the Contractor shall be made as of the dates the checks therefor are received by the disbursing officer. It is agreed that pending the execution of the more formal contract contemplated by Paragraph 2 of the Letter Purchase Order that the Contractor may, if he so elects, make direct repayment to the Government on account of advances made out of his own free funds, or may be required to make repayment out of the special account or otherwise as provided by Article 5. As soon as such monthly computations shall have been made, the interest charge shall be allowed to accrue, and shall not be payable until such time as provision is made for such payment under the provisions of the more formal contract contemplated by Paragraph 2 of the Letter Purchase Order, except as provided by Article 5 hereof. The interest shall not be compounded, and shall, subject to the provisions of Article 5, cease to accrue upon the termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor.

§ 81.1323 W.D. Contract Form No. 23. * * *

Article 4. If, upon completion of the principal contract (or of any of the principal contracts), or upon the termination thereof for other than the fault of the Contractor, the advance payments made to the Contractor in respect of such contract have not been fully liquidated in the manner herein provided, the unliquidated balance of such advance payments shall be deducted from any payments otherwise due the Contractor in respect of such contract; and if the sum or sums due the Contractor be insufficient to cover such balance, the deficiency shall be paid by the Contractor in cash forthwith after demand and final audit by the Government of all accounts hereunder in respect of such contract: Provided, however, That in the event of such termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, such deduction shall not be made prior to final audit unless, and only to the extent that, the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative shall determine that such action is reasonably required in order to secure the eventual repayment in full to the Government of such unliquidated advance payments. In the event of cancellation or termination of the principal contract (or of any of the principal contracts) because of the fault of the Contractor, the Contractor agrees to return to the Government, upon demand, without set-off of any sums alleged to be due the Contractor, the unliquidated balance of any advance payment. Furthermore, if, in the opinion of the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, the unobligated balance of the advance payments made by the Government under Article 1 hereof exceeds the amount necessary for the current needs of the Contractor, as determined by the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, the amount of such excess shall, upon demand made by the ---------------------------- (Chief of supply service) or his duly authorized representative, be promptly returned to the Government and will be credited against the balance due the Government on advances previously made. If the demand made in any event set forth in this Article is not met upon receipt of such demand by the Contractor, the amount demanded will bear interest at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum from the date of the receipt of the demand until payment is made: Provided, however, That such payment of interest is hereby waived as to any sum paid by the Contractor within 15 days after the amount becomes due hereunder.

* * * * *

In § 81.1324 Article 5 of the contract form is amended as follows:

§ 81.1324 W.D. Contract Form No. 24. * * *

ARTICLE 5. If, upon completion of the principal contract, or upon the termination thereof for other than the fault of the Contractor, the advance payments made to the Contractor in respect of such contract have not been fully liquidated in the manner herein provided, the unliquidated balance of such advance payments shall be deducted from any payments otherwise due the Contractor in respect of such contract; and if the sum or sums due the Contractor be insufficient to cover such balance, the deficiency shall be paid by the Contractor in cash forthwith after demand and final audit by the Government of all accounts hereunder in respect of such contract: Provided, however, That in the event of such termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, such deduction shall not be made prior to final audit unless, and only to the extent that, the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative shall determine that such action is reasonably required in order to secure the eventual repayment in full to the Government of such unliquidated advance payments. In the event of cancellation or termination of the principal contract because of the fault of the Contractor, the Contractor, notwithstanding any ultimate rights to be reimbursed, agrees to return to the Government upon demand, without set-off of any sums alleged to be due the Contractor, the unliquidated balance of any advance payment. Furthermore, if, in the opinion of the ----------------------------
(Chief of supply service)
or his duly authorized representative, the unobligated balance of the advance payments made by the Government under Article 1 hereof exceeds the amount necessary for the current needs of the Contractor, as determined by the ----------------------
(Chief of supply service)
or his duly authorized representative, the amount of such excess shall, upon demand by the ---------------------- or his duly authorized representative, be promptly returned to the Government and will be credited against the balance due the Government on advances previously made. If the demand made in any event set forth in this Article is not met upon receipt of such demand by the Contractor, the amount demanded will bear interest at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum from the date of the receipt of the demand until payment is made: Provided, however, That such payment of interest is hereby waived as to any sum paid by the Contractor within 15 days after the amount becomes due hereunder. If and when the Contractor has, by means of deductions or otherwise, reimbursed the Government in full for payments made, any money remaining in the special bank account or accounts shall be free and clear of any lien hereunder and the bank or banks concerned shall have authority to pay same to the Contractor and shall thereupon be relieved of any further obligation to the Government on account thereof.
(Chief of supply service)

* * * * *

Article 5 of § 81.1325 is amended as follows:

§ 81.1325 W. D. Contract Form No. 25. * * *

ARTICLE 5. If upon termination of the Letter Purchase Order for other than the fault of the Contractor, the advance payments made to the Contractor in respect of such contract have not been fully liquidated in the manner herein provided, the unliquidated balance of such advance payments shall be deducted from any payments otherwise due the Contractor in respect of such contract; and if the sum or sums due the Contractor be insufficient to cover such balance, the deficiency shall be paid by the Contractor in cash forthwith after demand and final audit by the Government of all accounts hereunder in respect to such contract: Provided, however, That in the event of such termination of the contract for other than the fault of the Contractor, such deduction shall not be made prior to final audit unless, and only to the extent that, the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative shall determine that such action is reasonably required in order to secure the eventual repayment in full to the Government of such unliquidated advance payments. In the event of cancellation or termination of the principal contract because of the fault of the Contractor, or its termination due to failure to enter into the more formal contract contemplated by Paragraph 2 of the Letter Purchase Order on or before the date of expiration set forth in Paragraph 6 of the Letter Purchase Order, or any duly authorized extensions thereof, the Contractor, notwithstanding any ultimate-rights to be reimbursed agrees to return to the Government, upon demand, without set-off of any sums alleged to be due the Contractor, the unliquidated balance of any advance payment or advance payments made hereunder: Provided, That the Contractor may retain in the account an amount sufficient to meet the outstanding obligations incurred by it in good faith pursuant to authorization by the Contracting Officer under Paragraph 2 of the Letter Purchase Order until assumption and discharge of such obligations by the Government or final disallowance thereof. Furthermore, if, in the opinion of the ---------------------------- or his duly authorized representative, the unobligated balance of the advance payments made by the Government under Article 1 hereof exceeds the amount necessary for the current needs of the Contractor, as determined by the ---------------------------- or his (Chief of supply service)
duly authorized representative, the amount of such excess shall, upon demand made by the ---------------------------- or his
(Chief of supply service)
duly authorized representative, be promptly returned to the Government and will be credited against the balance due the Government on advances previously made. If the demand made in any event set forth in this article is not met upon receipt of such demand by the Contractor, the amount demanded will bear interest at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum from the date of the receipt of the demand until payment is made: Provided, however, That such payment of interest is hereby waived as to any sum paid by the Contractor within 15 days after the amount becomes due hereunder. If and when the Contractor has, by means of deductions or otherwise, reimbursed the Government in full for payments made, any money remaining in the special bank account or accounts shall be free and clear of any lien hereunder and the bank or banks concerned shall have authority to pay same to the Contractor and shall thereupon be relieved of any further obligations to the Government on account thereof.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1729]

PART 323—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 3

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 3 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for coals of certain mines in District No. 3, and for a change in shipping point for a certain mine in District No. 3.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 3 and for a change in shipping point; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 323.6 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-I and R-IV, § 323.8 (Special prices—(b) Railroad fuel prices for all movements except via lakes) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-II and R-V, § 323.8 (Special prices—(c) Railroad fuel prices for movement via all lakes—all ports) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-III and R-VI, and § 323.23 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: December 7, 1942.

PART 323—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 3

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 3 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 3.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 3; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necesary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 323.6 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–I, § 323.8 (Special prices—(b) Railroad fuel prices for all movements except via lakes) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–II, § 323.8 (Special prices—(c) Railroad fuel prices for movement via all lakes—all ports) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–III, and § 323.23 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: December 9, 1942.

PART 330—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 10

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Memorandum opinion and order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 10 for establishment of minimum prices for coals of Ruff & Schrameck Coal Co. (W. V. Ruff) and Jackson County Brick Co.

An original petition pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was filed with the Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment both temporary and permanent, of minimum prices for the coals of the Ruff & Schrameck Coal Company Mine, Mine Index No. 1607 for truck shipments, and requesting the temporary establishment of minimum prices for truck shipments for coals produced at Mine Index No. 1597 of Jackson County Brick Company, and praying that no determination of permanent prices be made until such time as petitioner has had an opportunity to obtain sufficient factual data to propose permanent minimum prices for the coals of that mine.

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; that no petitions of intervention have been filed with this Division in the above-entitled matter; and the following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief be, and the same hereby is, granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 330.25 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matters, and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of the order, unless otherwise ordered, with respect only to the temporary relief herein granted to Ruff & Schrameck Coal Company Mine, Mine Index No. 1607; the temporary relief herein granted to Jackson County Brick Company Mine, Mine

Index No. 1597, shall not be made final until such time as all factual data necessary to establish permanent minimum prices has been obtained by petitioner and submitted to the Division for consideration or until further order of the Director.

Dated: December 9, 1942.

Chapter VII—Defense Supplies Corporation

[Regulation 1, Amendment 1]

PART 701—PETROLEUM COMPENSATION ADJUSTMENTS

Section 701.1, Definitions, paragraphs (f) and (k) are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 701.1 Definitions. * * *

(f) "Aviation gasoline" means aviation gasoline of 87 octane, A. S. T. M., or higher and all hydrocarbon components thereof (including natural gasoline).

* * * * *

(k) "Actual origin", means, in the case of crude, the well producing the crude imported into District One by the substitute method of transportation and, in the case of compensable products, except those acquired under an exchange or purchase, the refinery (which term shall include natural gasoline and recycling plants) manufacturing the compensable products imported into District One by the substitute method of transportation. If compensable products are purchased or acquired under an exchange in Districts Two or Three, "actual origin" means the point at which the compensable products imported into District One are delivered to the applicant under the sale or the exchange.

Section 701.1, Definitions, is hereby amended by adding new paragraphs to be numbered (o), (p), (q), (r), (s), (t), and (u), which will read as follows:

(o) "Compensable intra-district-movement" means the movement of compensable products, other than aviation gasoline, made upon the prior written request of the Petroleum Administration for War (formerly the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War), which request was approved by the Defense Supplies Corporation, from a refinery, terminal or bulk storage plant in District One, to a point in District One, which movement would not normally have been made by the applicant in the absence of a tanker shortage. Except as provided in this paragraph (o) and in § 701.5 (d) (1), as amended, movements of products refined, purchased or otherwise acquired in District One shall not be compensable.

(p) "Revenue price increases" means increases in maximum prices heretofore or hereafter authorized by the Office of Price Administration Under Revised Price Schedule 88 (Petroleum and Petroleum Products) for the express purpose of providing compensation for higher transportation costs involved in the use of substitute methods of transportation.

(q) "Revenue" means, in the case of an applicant who is a reseller, an amount equal to the volume of petroleum products sold by the applicant on or after August 1, 1942, multiplied by the applicable revenue price increase in effect at time of sale; and, in the case of an applicant who is a consumer, means an amount equal to the volume of petroleum products shipped from actual origin in Districts Two or Three on or after August 1, 1942, and imported into District One for his own consumption, multiplied by the applicable revenue price increase in effect at destination at time of delivery to the destination.

(r) "In-transit-handling" means terminaling, storage or other handling (including loading or unloading) incurred or which would have been incurred in connection with the movement of crude or compensable products under either the substitute method or normal method of transportation, and which occurred or would have occurred subsequent to the actual origin if the substitute method of transportation is involved or subsequent to the normal origin if the normal method of transportation is involved and which occurred or would have occurred prior to the actual destination in District One which is common to both methods of transportation.

(s) "Substitute cost of in-transit-handling" means the actual cost to the applicant not to exceed at any single point the lower of (1) 4¢ per barrel, or (2) the applicable ceiling rate, if any, of in-transit-handling incurred under the substitute method of transportation in connection with all movements included in an application filed pursuant to this regulation.

(t) "Average cost of in-transit-handling" means the weighted average substitute cost of in-transit-handling per barrel of crude and compensable products on which in-transit-handling is incurred by the applicant and determined for the calendar month for which an application for petroleum compensatory adjustments is filed.

(u) "Normal cost of in-transit-handling" means an amount determined by multiplying the average cost of in-transit-handling by the number of barrels of crude or of compensable products moved by the substitute method of transportation each time in-transit-handling would have been incurred had it been moved by the normal method of transportation.

Section 701.2, Persons eligible to apply for petroleum compensatory adjustments, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 701.2 Persons eligible to apply for petroleum compensatory adjustments. A person who produces, manufactures, acquires or purchases crude or compensable products in Districts Two or Three and imports the same, by substitute method of transportation, for manufacture or sale within District One, or who makes a compensable intradistrict movement, may file an application for a petroleum compensatory adjustment on account of any claim for extra costs covered by this regulation. In addition to the above, any person who, during the twelve month period ending June 30, 1941, regularly imported compensable products for his own consumption within District One, and who imports, by substitute method of transportation, compensable products from Districts Two or Three for his own consumption in District One, shall likewise be eligible to file an application for petroleum compensatory adjustment under this regulation.

Section 701.3, paragraph (a), Filing application for compensation, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 701.3 Filing application for compensation—(a) Place of filing. Applications for petroleum compensatory adjustment shall be filed with Price, Waterhouse & Co., 56 Pine Street, New York, New York.

* * * * *

Section 701.4, paragraph (c), Petitions for reconsideration or interpretation, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 701.4 Inspection and payment of claims. * * *

(c) Petitions for reconsideration or interpretation. (i) Should any claim be rejected in whole or in part or should any applicant desire an interpretation of this regulation then the applicant may request the Defense Supplies Corporation to reconsider its action or to issue an interpretation. If the request is in connection with a rejected claim, it must be filed within thirty (30) days after such claim is rejected. Such request shall be addressed to Defense Supplies Corporation, 811 Vermont Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., and shall state clearly and concisely the question involved and the applicant's views thereon.

Section 701.5, paragraph (a), Amount of compensatory adjustment, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 701.5 Extra transportation and compensable product costs—(a) Amount of compensatory adjustment. (1) Extra transportation and compensable product costs shall be computed on the basis of the crude or compensable products actually moved by the substitute method of transportation. The amount of the claim, in case crude or aviation gasoline is imported, shall be equal to the excess of (i) the cost of transporting crude or aviation gasoline from the actual origin to the destination in District One by the substitute method of transportation, over (ii) the cost of transporting similar crude or aviation gasoline from the normal origin to the same destination in District One by the facilities which would have been used under the normal method of transportation, plus, in the case of crude only, 17¢ per barrel. In any case where crude is purchased away from the well, under the substitute method of transportation, the amount of the transportation costs from the well to the point of purchase to be included in the claim shall not exceed the difference between the price paid for such crude and the prevailing price for such crude at the well is of the date of purchase. The amount of the claim in case compensable products other than aviation gasoline are imported shall be equal to the excess of (a) the value of such compensable products at the actual origin plus the cost of transporting such compensable products from the actual origin to the destination in District One by the substitute method of transportation, over (b) the value of similar compensable products at the normal origin plus the cost of transporting similar compensable products from the normal origin to the same destination in District One by the facilities which would have been used under the normal method of transportation. The amount of the claim in the case of a compensable intradistrict movement shall be computed in accordance with the formula contained in the written request for such movement, issued by the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War (now Petroleum Administration for War) and approved by the Defense Supplies Corporation.

(2) Any person submitting an application for a petroleum compensatory adjustment shall account for all revenue. The amount of such revenue, less adjustments hereinafter provided for, shall be deducted from the amount of any claim for which an application is filed hereunder. The revenue to be deducted from the amount of claims filed hereunder shall be adjusted as follows:

(i) If the applicant is a participant in the plan for the equitable sharing of revenues and extra transportation expenses, adopted and approved March 12, 1942, under Recommendation No. 12, as Amended, (Title 32—National Defense, Chapter XIII—Office of Petroleum Coordinator for National Defense), then, the amount of revenue such applicant is obligated to account for under the terms of such plan may be deducted from the revenue to be credited against the applicant's claim.

(ii) If the applicant has acquired petroleum products on which a previous owner has accounted or is obligated to account for revenue accruing from the sale of such products either under the said plan or under this regulation, then the amount of such revenue may be deducted from the revenue arising from the sale of like products to be credited against the applicant's claim. Should there be an excess of deductions under this paragraph over revenue from like products, such excess shall be carried forward and may be deducted from the revenue thereafter accruing on sales of like products. Where an adjustment is claimed on the ground that a previous owner is obligated to account or has accounted for the revenue, the applicant shall submit an affidavit from such previous owner or owners in quadruplicate, stating that such owner or owners is obligated to, and has accounted, or will account for such revenue.

Section 701.5, paragraph (b), Method of determining value of compensable products other than aviation gasoline, is hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) Method of determining value of compensable products other than aviation gasoline—(1) Value at the actual origin. (i) If purchased by the applicant the value of compensable products at the actual origin shall be the price paid therefor.

(ii) If acquired by the applicant in Districts Two or Three under an exchange, the value of compensable products shall be the prevailing market price to resellers in effect at the actual origin on date of shipment therefrom for like methods of shipment.

(iii) If manufactured by the applicant, the value of compensable products shall be the applicant's wholesale price[1] in effect at the point of actual origin for such product on date of shipment.

Section 701.5, paragraph (c), Method of determining extra transportation costs, is amended to read as follows:

(c) Method of determining extra transportation costs. Transportation costs, under both the normal and substitute methods of transportation, shall be computed on the basis of the crude or compensable products actually moved by the substitute method of transportation, and shall be computed to the first actual delivery point in District One which is common to both methods.

Except as hereinafter provided only costs computed or incurred in respect of the use of the following facilities may be included in an application for compensatory adjustments for extra transportation costs. The costs for the use of any facilities shall be computed on the basis prescribed below:

Facilities used	Rate or cost to be used in computation
Pipe line (gathering or trunk line).	Rate prescribed by or on file with an authorized regulatory body for the movement and material involved, or in the absence of such a rate, then the actual cost of the movement.
Tanker	The maximum voyage charter rate for the material and voyage involved as prescribed by the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.
Tank cars	Freight paid.
Barges	Rates prescribed by or on file with an authorized regulatory body for the voyage and material involved, or in the absence of such a rate, then the actual cost of the movement, provided, that such rate or cost shall not exceed any applicable ceiling rate.
Lake steamers.	Rates prescribed by or on file with an authorized regulatory body for the voyage and material involved, or in the absence of such a rate, then the actual cost of the movement, provided, that such rate or cost shall not exceed any applicable ceiling rate.
Trucks and other transportation facilities.	Actual cost of the movement, provided, that such cost shall not exceed any applicable ceiling rate.

If in-transit-handling is incurred by applicant under the substitute method of transportation on or after January 1, 1943, then the normal cost of in-transit-handling shall be deducted from the applicant's claim and the substitute cost of in-transit-handling may be included in such applicant's claim, provided such in-transit-handling was incurred pursuant to the prior written request of the Office of Defense Transportation. If in-transit-handling is or has been incurred by an applicant under the substitute method of transportation prior to January 1, 1943, then the normal cost of in-transit-handling shall be deducted from the applicant's claim and the substitute cost of in-transit-handling included by such applicant in his application filed hereunder, provided such in-transit-handling was incurred pursuant to the request of the Office of Defense Transportation or the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War (now Petroleum Administration for War) and the inclusion thereof is approved by the Office of Defense Transportation.

(d) Exchanges. (1) Where, during the period August 1, 1942 to December 31, 1942, inclusive, compensable products are acquired under an exchange which takes place entirely within District One, the cost of the normal method of transportation shall be computed to the point in District One where the applicant receives the compensable products from the other party under the exchange, and the cost for the substitute method of transportation shall be computed to the point in District One at which the compensable products are delivered by the applicant to the other party under the exchange. If compensable products received under an exchange are moved by the applicant to a point in District One which normally would not be supplied from the point at which the products were received, then, the applicant may add to the cost of the substitute method of transportation the transportation costs incurred in moving such compensable products from the point of receipt under the exchange to the first actual delivery point in District One which is common to both methods of transportation, and the cost of the normal method of transportation shall be computed to the same destination. If prior to January 1, 1943, products are acquired in District One in exchange for products delivered in Districts Two or Three the claim shall be presented in such form as to show all facts concerning the exchange and the proper method for determining compensation will be prescribed by Defense Supplies Corporation.

(2) On and after January 1, 1943, when products are delivered under an exchange in District One, transportation costs shall be computed as though no exchange were involved; i. e., the cost under both the normal and substitute methods of transportation will be computed to the point in District One where delivery is made under the exchange unless a point which is common to both methods of transportation was reached prior thereto.

This Amendment No. 1 to Petroleum Compensatory Adjustment, Regulation No. 1, shall become effective as of August 1, 1942; except that any application for a petroleum compensatory adjustment for the months of August, September, October or November, 1942, may be prepared and filed either on the basis of the regulation as amended or on the basis of the regulation as it existed prior to this amendment. If an application for a petroleum compensatory adjustment for August, September, October or November has been filed prior to the date of issuance of this amendment, then a supplementary claim may be filed within 30 days after the date of issuance of this amendment modifying such claim to conform to this amendment.

Issued this 14th day of December 1942.

DEFENSE SUPPLIES CORPORATION,
By GEORGE H. HILL, Jr., Vice President.

I, Dudley H. Digges, Secretary of Defense Supplies Corporation, do hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of Amendment No. 1 to Regulation No. 1 of Defense Supplies Corporation entitled "Petroleum Compensatory Adjustments" which was approved by the Executive Committee of Defense Supplies Corporation at a meeting thereof duly called and held on December 1, 1942.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the corporate seal of Defense Supplies Corporation to be affixed this the 26th day of December 1942.

Chapter VI—Selective Service System

[Order No. 76]

GLENDORA PROJECT, CALIFORNIA

ESTABLISHMENT FOR CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS

I, Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service, in accordance with the provisions of section 5 (g) of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 885) and pursuant to authorization and direction contained in Executive Order No. 8675, dated February 6, 1941, hereby designate the Glendora Project to be work of national importance, to be known as Civilian Public Service Camp No. 76. Said camp, located at Glendora, Los Angeles County, California, will be the base of operations for forest research work in the State of California, and registrants under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, who have been classified by their local boards as conscientious objectors to both combatant and noncombatant military service and have been placed in Class IV-E, may be assigned to said camp in lieu of their induction for military service.

The work to be undertaken by the men assigned to Civilian Public Service Camp No. 76 will consist of conduct of studies to develop the best methods of watershed management directed toward achieving maximum yields of useful water, reduction of erosion and control of floods, and shall be under the technical direction of the Forest Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, in conjunction with the California Forest and Range Experiment Station, insofar as concerns the planning and direction of the work program. The camp, insofar as camp management is concerned, will be under the direction of approved representatives of the National Service Board for Religious Objectors. Men shall be assigned to and retained in camp in accordance with the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 and regulations and orders promulgated thereunder. Administrative and directive control shall be under the Selective Service System through the Camp Operations Division of National Selective Service Headquarters.

LEWIS B. HERSHEY,
Director.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

Part 1010—Suspension Orders

[Suspension Order S–184]

C. ATHOL SAYRE

C. Athol Sayre of Muskogee, Oklahoma, is engaged in the business of constructing houses. On February 17, 1942, and on March 25, 1942, he applied on Form PD–105 to the War Production Board for priorities assistance under Preference Rating Order P–55 to construct three dwelling houses in Muskogee. In these applications he agreed to give reasonable preference as to occupancy to defense workers and further agreed that the dwelling houses to be built by him were to be rented and not sold. Upon the basis of these agreements, Preference Rating Order P–55 was issued to him. Notwithstanding his agreements, Mr. Sayre rented one of the dwellings to a non-defense worker and sold the other two dwelling units to non-defense workers in violation of his agreements to give preference as to occupancy to the defense workers and his agreement to hold the houses for rent.

Mr. Sayre's failure to abide by his agreement has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.184 Suspension Order S–184. (a) Deliveries of material to C. Athol Sayre, his successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries to C. Athol Sayre by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to C. Athol Sayre, his successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve C. Athol Sayre from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on December 28, 1942, and shall expire on March 28, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

Ernest Kanzler,
Director General for Operations.

Part 1010—Suspension Orders

[Suspension Order S–185]

RICHARD J. NASSER, ET AL.

Richard J. Nasser and Henry Nasser, of San Francisco, California, are engaged in the moving picture theater business as theater operators. John E. Kramer, of San Francisco, is a building contractor and Alexander A. Cantin, of San Francisco, is an architect.

On or about August 25, 1942, Richard J. Nasser, Henry Nasser and Charles Peterson, of San Francisco, as owners, John E. Kramer, as contractor, and Alexander A. Cantin, as architect, began construction, as defined in Conservation Order L–41, of a theater building located at 412 MacDonald Avenue, Richmond, California. The estimated cost of construction, as defined in said order, of such theater building substantially exceeded $5,000.00 and said persons were aware of Conservation Order L–41 prior to the beginning of such construction. This constituted a wilful violation of Conservation Order L–41, as amended on July 23, 1942.

This violation of Conservation Order L–41 has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce material to uses prohibited by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.185 Suspension Order S–185. (a) Neither Richard J. Nasser, Henry Nasser, John E. Kramer, Alexander A. Cantin, nor any other person shall order, purchase, accept delivery of, withdraw from inventory or in any other manner secure or use material or construction plant in order to continue or complete construction of the theater building located at 412 MacDonald Avenue, Richmond, California, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) For a period of six months from the effective date of this order no application filed by Richard J. Nasser, Henry Nasser, John E. Kramer, Alexander A. Cantin, nor any other person for authorization to complete the theater building located at 412 MacDonald Avenue, Richmond, California, shall be granted.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Richard J. Nasser, Henry Nasser, John E. Kramer or Alexander A. Cantin from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on December 29, 1942 and shall continue in effect until revoked.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

Ernest Kanzler,
Director General for Operations.

Part 1010—Suspension Orders

[Suspension Order S–186]

OSIPOW ELECTRIC SUPPLY COMPANY

Abraham Osipow and Jess Osipow, copartners doing business as Osipow Electric Supply Company, of Los Angeles, California, are engaged in the business of distributing electrical supplies as wholesalers. They operate a warehouse, as defined in General Preference Order M–9–a.

From February 7, 1942, to June 15, 1942, Osipow Electric Supply Company accepted and filled unrated wholesale orders for 769,605 feet of copper wire and cable, having a value of approximately $14,183.51. The orders for 727,713 feet of such copper wire and cable, having a value of approximately $12,785.21, were accepted and filled by the company in wilful violation of General Preference Order M–9–a, as amended on February 6, 1942, and May 7, 1942.

From January 19, 1942, to June 15, 1942, Osipow Electric Company applied preference ratings of A–10 under Preference Rating Order P–100 to certain purchase orders for electrical supplies, having a value of $1,005.07, certifying that such materials were for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies, as defined in Preference Rating Order P–100, whereas such materials were not for maintenance, repair or operating supplies and the application of such rating to these purchase orders constituted misrepresentations, to the War Production Board. By means of such misrepresentations the company received deliveries of such electrical supplies in violation of Preference Rating Order P–100.

These violations of General Preference Order M–9–a and Preference Rating Order P–100 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.186 Suspension Order S–186. (a) Deliveries of materials, directly or indirectly, to Abraham Osipow and Jess Osipow, individually or doing business as Osipow Electric Supply Company, their successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made, directly or indirectly, to Abraham Osipow and Jess Osipow, individually or doing business as Osipow Electric Supply Company, their successors or assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Abraham Osipow and Jess Osipow, individually or doing business as Osipow Electric Supply Company, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on December 29, 1942, and shall expire on March 29, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

Ernest Kanzler,
Director General for Operations.

Part 1010—Suspension Orders

[Suspension Order S–187]

WINSTON MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Winston Manufacturing Company, Nashville, Tennessee, is a manufacturer of construction machinery and equipment. Subsequent to May 2, 1942, the Company sold and delivered five unused rubber tired scrapers valued at approximately $40,000 without specific authorization from the War Production Board on orders which did not bear any preference ratings. These items were construction equipment as defined in Limitation Order L–82–a and their sale and delivery as aforesaid constituted a violation of that order.

This violation of Limitation Order L–82–a has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting construction equipment to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.187 Suspension Order S–187. (a) Deliveries of material to Winston Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries to Winston Manufacturing Company by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Winston Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations, or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Winston Manufacturing Company from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on December 28, 1942, and shall expire on March 28, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Part 1010—Suspension Orders

[Suspension Order S–188]

W. F. OTTEN

W. F. Otten of Tulsa, Oklahoma, is engaged in the business of constructing houses. On March 11, 1942, he applied on Form PD–105 to the War Production Board for priorities assistance under Preference Rating Order P–55 in order to construct a one-family dwelling house in Tulsa. In this application he agreed to rent this dwelling unit and to give reasonable preference as to occupancy to defense workers. In violation of his agreement, Mr. Otten, upon completion, occupied the premises himself and failed to give preference as to occupancy to defense workers.

Mr. Otten's failure to abide by his agreement with the War Production Board has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.188 Suspension Order S–188. (a) Deliveries of material to W. F. Otten, his successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries to W. F. Otten by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to W. F. Otten, his successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve W. F. Otten from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on December 28, 1942, and shall expire on March 28, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

Part 933—Copper

[Conservation Order M–9–c as Amended Dec. 26, 1942]

Section 933.4 Conservation Order M–9–c is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of copper for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 933.4 Conservation Order M–9–c—(a) Restrictions on manufacture of items appearing on Combined List and on List A–2., (1) No manufacturer of any item on the Combined List attached, or of parts (including repair parts[1]) for any such item, may, if such item or parts contain copper products or copper base alloy products, continue their manufacture on or after December 26, 1942 by means of processing, assembling or finishing.

(2) No manufacturer of any item on List A–2 attached, or of parts (including repair parts [1]) for any such item, may, if such item or parts contain copper products or copper base alloy products, continue their manufacture by means of processing, assembling or finishing on or after the governing date set forth opposite such item in Column 2 of List A–2.

(b) Restrictions on manufacture of articles not appearing on Combined List and List A–2 out of inventory on hand on February 28, 1942 and June 30, 1942. (1) During the period from December 25, 1942 to and including January 15, 1943, a manufacturer of any article omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from those lists, or of parts (including repair parts [1]) for such an article, may not continue the manufacture thereof by means of processing, assembling or finishing,

(i) Unless all copper products or copper base alloy products contained in such articles or parts were acquired by the manufacturer after February 28, 1942; or

(ii) Unless such articles or parts are being manufactured, processed, assembled or finished to fill a purchase order, existing or prospective,[2] bearing a preference rating of A–1–k or higher; and no such article or part so manufactured shall be delivered except to fill such an order; or

(iii) Unless the manufacturer has been specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, pursuant to an application made on Form PD–426, or otherwise, to manufacture, process, assemble or finish the article or parts in question with the copper products or copper base alloy products being used.

(2) After January 15, 1943, a manufacturer of any article omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from those lists, or of parts (including repair parts [1]) for such an article, may not continue the manufacture thereof by means of processing, assembling or finishing,

(i) Unless all copper products or copper base alloy products contained in such articles or parts were acquired by the manufacturer after June 30, 1942; or

(ii) Unless such articles or parts are being manufactured, processed, assembled or finished to fill a purchase order, existing or prospective,[2] bearing a preference rating of AA–4 or higher; and no such article or part so manufactured shall be delivered except to fill such an order; or

(iii) Unless the manufacturer has been specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, pursuant to an application on Form PD–426, or otherwise, to manufacture, process, assemble or finish the article or parts in question with the copper products or copper base alloy products being used.

The provisions of this paragraph (b) shall not apply to a manufacturer assembling a completed fractional horsepower electric motor into machinery of any kind omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from those lists; or to the manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing of any machinery omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from those lists, or of parts (including repair parts) for such machinery, if the only copper products or copper base alloy products used which were in the inventory of the manufacturer on or before February 28, 1942 (with respect to manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing during the period from December 25, 1942 to and including January 15, 1943) or on or before June 30, 1942 (with respect to manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing after January 15, 1943) are bushings, bearings, nuts, bolts, screws, washers and wire weighing in the aggregate less than 5% of the total weight of the article or part.

(c) Applicability of order to certain Governmental agencies. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall not apply to the use of copper products or copper base alloy products in the manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing of any item or article on the "Military Exemption List", or part therefor, which is being produced for purchase by, or for the account of, or for use by, the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration or the Coast Guard, where the use of copper products or copper base alloy products to the extent employed is required by the specifications (including performance specifications) of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration or the Coast Guard applicable to the contract, subcontract or purchase order.

(d) General restrictions on manufacture. (1) No manufacturer may continue the manufacture of any article omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from such lists, or of parts (including repair parts) for such an article, if such article or parts are to contain copper products or copper base alloy products where the use of any less scarce material is practible; and no manufacturer may continue the manufacture of any article omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from such lists, or of parts (including repair parts) for such an article, if they are to contain more copper products or copper base alloy products than is necessary for the article's proper operation or a higher type or grade of copper or copper base alloy than is necessary for the article's proper operation.

(2) (i) The use of copper products or copper base alloy products for plating any item on the Combined List or List A–2 or for plating any parts (including repair parts) of such an item, is prohibited unless such plating is expressly stated to be permissible on said Lists.

(ii) The use of copper products or copper base alloy products for plating any article omitted from the Combined List and List A–2 or excepted from such lists and the plating of parts (including repair parts) for such an article, is permitted provided:

(a) That such plating is not for decorative purposes or part of a decoration or as an undercoating for lead or silver plating, and

(b) That the use of, or the normal wear on such article or parts, would make impracticable any other form of coating.

(e) General restrictions on deliveries. The disposition of frozen and excessive inventories containing certain copper products or copper base alloy products shall be subject to the applicable provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 13 (§ 944.34) as amended from time to time.

(f) Special provisions. (1) The foregoing provisions of this amended order shall not apply to the use of copper products and copper base alloy products in typography, engraving, photo-engraving, gravure plate making, electrotyping, stereotyping and printing in the printing and publishing industries. In those processes, the use of bronze powder, bronze ink, bronze paste and bronze leaf is controlled by Supplementary Conservation Order M–9–c–3 effective March 28, 1942; the use of copper or copper base alloy engraving plates for engraving calling cards, greeting cards, social and business stationery and other similar purposes is prohibited after December 31, 1942; and all other uses in those industries of copper products, copper base alloy products, copper scrap and copper base alloy scrap are, in the quarter from October 1, 1942 to December 31, 1942, limited to 70% of the aggregate usage of such products and scrap in the last calendar quarter of 1940, and in each subsequent calendar quarter limited to 60% of such aggregate usage in the corresponding quarter of the year 1940, provided that, for electrotyping and rotogravure, 33⅓% of the allowable usage shall be in the form of copper or copper base alloy printing scrap during the month of January, 1943, 50% of the allowable usage shall be in such form during the month of February, 1943, and 75% of the allowable usage shall be in such form in each month after February, 1943. Nothing contained in this paragraph (f) (1) of this amended order shall affect the prohibition against the manufacture of powder containing copper products or copper base alloy products contained in paragraph (a) and the Combined List of this amended order.

(2) No person shall deliver, install or cut any copper or copper base alloy insect screening (i) unless such screening is to be delivered to, installed for or cut on the order of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast Guard, any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), or Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Corporation or any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended (except Defense Plant Corporation) or any person acting as agent of any such corporation (except Defense Plant Corporation), or (ii) unless such delivery, installation or cutting shall be with the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations. Applications for specific authorizations shall be made by letter addressed to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–9–c. The foregoing shall not apply to used or second hand insect screening or to insect screening in rolls of less than 25 feet in length. Nothing contained in this paragraph (f) (2) affects the prohibitions on the manufacture, processing, assembling or finishing of insect screening and screens with copper products or copper base alloy products contained in paragraph (a) and the Combined List of this order.

(g) Restrictions on deliveries to manufacturers. No person shall hereafter deliver copper products or copper base alloy products to any manufacturer, directly or indirectly, if he knows or has reason to believe that such products are to be used in violation of the terms of this order.

(h) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulation. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of paragraphs (a), (d) or (f) (1) of this order shall be made by filing Form PD–167 Revised with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–9–c. Relief granted pursuant to an appeal under this order shall remain in effect despite any amendment to this order, unless the grant of relief is specifically revoked or modified by the Director General for Operations.

(3) Communications. Any reports required to be filed under this order and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Copper Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–9–c.

(4) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply irrespective of whether such items, articles or parts whose manufacture is governed hereby are being manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to the effective date of this order. Insofar as any other order of the War Production Board or of the Office of Production Management may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the manufacture of items, articles or parts or the sale and delivery of such items, articles or parts, the limitation of such other order shall be observed.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(6) Installation. The restrictions of this order shall not apply to the installation of any item or article, or part (including a repair part) therefor, for the utimate consumer on his premises when any manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing of such an item, article or part is incidental to such installation and is done on such premises. The foregoing does not in any way affect, revoke or modify the provisions of Supplementary Conservation Order M–9–c–4 which prohibits the installation of certain types of copper and copper base alloy pipe, tube, fittings and building material under certain circumstances or of any other order restricting installation.

(7) Repair. The restrictions of this order (other than those contained in paragraph (d) (1) hereof) shall not apply to the manufacture, processing, assembling or finishing of repair parts to make a specific repair of a used article or to a person repairing a used article, on or off the premises of the owner, if the manufacturer of the parts or the person making the repair does not use copper products or copper base alloy products weighing in the aggregate more than two pounds and any manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing done by him is for the purpose of making a specific repair; nor shall the restrictions of this order (other than those contained in paragraph (d) (1) hereof) apply to the manufacture, processing, assembling or finishing of repair parts to make a specific repair of a used article or to a person repairing a used article, on or off the premises of the owner, if the manufacturer of the parts or the person making the repair does not use copper products or copper base alloy products weighing in the aggregate more than one pound in excess of the copper or copper base alloy scrap derived from the article being repaired, and all such scrap is delivered to a scrap dealer or to any other person to whom such delivery may be made under the provisions of Supplementary Order M–9–b and provided any manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing done by him is for the purpose of making a specific repair.

(8) Copper products or copper base alloy products not controlled by order. On and after the respective dates set forth in this subparagraph, the provisions of this order shall not apply to the manufacture of the following items or articles and parts (including repair parts) therefor, even though they contain copper products or copper base alloy products, since these items or articles are specifically governed by the following orders:

Shoe findings and footwear of all kinds governed by Supplementary Conservation Order No. M–9–c–1 effective January 23, 1942.

Fire protective equipment governed by General Limitation Order L–39 effective February 27, 1942.

Motorized fire apparatus governed by General Limitation Order L–43 effective February 27, 1942.

Bronze paste, bronze ink and bronze leaf and products made with bronze paste, bronze ink, bronze leaf and bronze powder (other than decalcomanias and ship bottom paint), governed by Supplementary Conservation Order M–9–c–3 as amended May 30, 1942.

Jewelry governed by Supplementary Conservation Order M–9–c–2 effective April 4, 1942.

Musical instruments governed by Supplementary Limitation Order L–37–a effective May 29, 1942.

Self-contained drinking water coolers governed by Schedule I of Limitation Order No. L–126 effective July 3, 1942.

The provisions of this order do not apply to attaching finished slide fasteners, hooks and eyes, brassiere hooks, sew-on machine attached or riveted snap fasteners or grippers, buckles, buttons, corset clasps, eyelets (other than eyelets usable as shoe eyelets), garter trimmings, hose supporters, insignia, jewelry, loops, mattress buttons, pin fasteners, pins, staples, slides, and trouser trimmings. The order does apply to manufacturing, processing, assembling and finishing of the closures and associated items listed above where the provisions of this order are more restrictive than other orders of the War Production Board.

The provisions of this order do not apply to the assembling of watch or clock movements finished prior to June 15, 1942, into cases not made of copper or copper base alloy; the provisions of this order do apply to manufacturing, processing and finishing watch and clock cases and all other parts of watches and clocks, and to assembling watches and clocks except under the conditions mentioned in this sentence.

(9) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(i) "Copper" means unalloyed copper metal. It shall include unalloyed copper metal produced from scrap.

(ii) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy metal in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal by weight equals or exceeds 40% of the total weight of the alloy. It shall include alloy metal produced from scrap.

(iii) "Copper products" means products made of copper fabricated to the extent that they are plate, sheet, strip, rolls, coils, wire, rod, bar, tube, tubing, pipe, extrusions, ingot, powder, anodes, castings or forgings or fabricated to any greater extent.

(iv) "Copper base alloy products" means products made of copper base alloy, fabricated to the extent that they are plate, sheet, strip, rolls, coils, wire, rod, bar, tube, tubing, pipe, extrusions, ingot, powder, anodes, castings or forgings or fabricated to any greater extent.

(v) "Manufacturer" means a person who manufactures, processes, assembles or finishes.

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

COMBINED LIST

The manufacture, processing, assembling or finishing of the items listed below and of all parts (including repair parts) therefor is prohibited if such article or part contains copper products or copper base alloy products, except to the extent permitted by the exceptions noted on the list. Where this list excepts an item if the use of copper products or copper base alloy products in making the item is limited or if the item is being produced for a particular end use, the manufacture, processing, assembling and finishing of the item made under the terms of such an exception is governed by paragraphs (b) and (d) (1) of this order.

AUTOMOTIVE, TRAILER[1] AND TRACTOR EQUIPMENT AND FARM MACHINERY

See also Order L-106 governing the use of copper and copper base alloy in the manufacture of automative parts entering into the production of, or as replacement parts for, passenger automobiles, motor trucks, truck trailers, passenger carriers and off-the-highway motor vehicles.

Ambulance hardware.
Defrosters (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Garage and automotive repair equipment.
Heaters (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Hearse hardware.
Horns (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Hub and gas-tank caps.
Lights, lamps, headlamps and accessories (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Miscellaneous fittings and trim.
Motorcycles (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Motor-driven scooters (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Mouldings.
Rear-view mirrors and hardware.

BUILDING SUPPLIES AND HARDWARE

(Excluding supplies and hardware for ships, boats and aircraft)

Air-conditioning equipment until January 1, 1943 (except for essential food storage, food transportation and industrial processing, and except for repair parts containing not more than 4 lbs. of copper products or copper base alloy products for use in "black out" plants). After December 31, 1942, see List A-2.
Blinds, including fixture fittings and trimmings.
Builders' finish hardware, including hinges, except in those parts of plants where the use of non-sparking metal is necessary to prevent a hazard in the production or use of explosives. For locks see under "Miscellaneous" on this list.
Conduits.
Decorative hardware—including house numbers.
Door knockers, checks, pulls, and stops.
Doors, door and window frames, sills and parts, including door handles and knobs.
Elevators and escalators (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for bearing, worm gears and parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Gravel stops and snow guards.
Grilles.
Gutters, leaders, downspouts, expansion joints, and accessories thereto.
Hangers and tracks for private garages.
Incinerator hardware and fittings.
Insect screens and screening.
Letter boxes and mail chutes.
Lightning rods and lightning rod systems including cables and accessories (except as permitted by Order L-39).
Lighting fixtures (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Ornamental metal work.
Pile butt protection.
Plumbing and heating supplies:
  Bands on pipe covering.
  Cistern and low-water floats.
  Fixture fittings and trimmings (See "Plumbing fixture fittings and trim" on List A-2).
  Hot water heaters, tanks, and coils (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are permitted by Order L-185).
  Pipe, tube, tubing, and fittings for piping systems (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are permitted by Schedule VII of Order L-42).
  Shower rods, and pans (See "Plumbing fixture fittings and trim" on List A-2).
  Shower heads (See "Plumbing fixture fittings and trim" on List A-2).
  Sinks and drainboards.
  Toilet floats (See "Plumbing fixture fittings and trim" on List A-2).
  Towel racks.
Push, kick, switch, floor, and all other device plates.
Roof, roofing, roofing nails, flashing valleys, and other roofing items.
Sheet, roll, and strip for building construction.
Shelves.
Stair and threshold treads.
Termite shields.
Terrazzo strips, reglets, and mouldings.
Unit heaters, unit ventilators, and convectors, space or local heaters, and blast heating coils, or any apparatus using such coils as part of its construction (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for valves, controls and parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Ventilators and skylights.
Water containers for humidification.
Weatherstripping and insulation.

BURIAL EQUIPMENT

Burial vaults.
Caskets and casket hardware. See also Order L-64.
Memorial tablets.
Morticians' supplies.

(See also "Boxes, * * *" under "Miscellaneous" on this list.)

CLOTHING AND ACCESSORIES

Insignia (except rank, branch and "U. S." Insignia for the Armed Forces).

DRESS ACCESSORIES

(See also Order L-68)

Buckles.
Buttons.
Dress ornaments.
Handbag fittings.
Metal cloths.

FURNISHINGS AND EQUIPMENT

(For homes, offices, institutions, hotels, apartment hotels, apartment houses, stations, clubs, fraternal organizations, union buildings, churches, synagogues, temples, restaurants and stores)

Andirons, screens, and fireplace fittings.
Candlesticks.
Cooking and table utensils.
Counters.
Curtain fasteners, rods, and rings.
Cuspidors.
Fans (See also Order L-176)
Furniture.
Furniture Hardware.
Hollow-ware.
Mud scrapers.
Portable heaters.
Stoves and ranges (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for valves, ferrules for compression fittings, controls other than timers, and parts necessary for conducting electricity). For additional restrictions see "Gas stoves and ranges for household use" on List A-2.
Table flatware (except that until January 1, 1943, table flatware may be manufactured, processed, assembled or finished if made according to Fed. Spec. RR-T-56.) After December 31, 1942, see List A-2.
Timers, for stoves and ranges.
Trays.
Upholsterers' supplies, including nails and tacks.
Vases, pitchers, bowls, and artcraft.
Washing tubs and washing boilers.
Waste baskets, hat trees, humidors, and similar items.

INDUSTRIAL MACHINERY

Pulp and paper manufacturing:
  Beater bars and beaters.
  Head boxes.
  Jordan bars.
  Refiner bars.
  Save-alls (except for screens).
  Stock and water lines.

JEWELRY, GIFTS AND NOVELTIES

All jewelry, gifts and novelties including, but not limited to—
  Advertising specialties.
  Atomizers (see also List A-2).
  Bar fittings.
  Book ends.
  Cosmetic containers.
  Lighters.
  Napkin rings.
  Picture frames.
  Smokers' accessories, including ash trays.
  Souvenirs.

PASSENGER TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT

(Including railroad cars, street and interurban cars, buses, and trailers, but excluding locomotives)

All items under heading "Furnishings and Equipment".
Air conditioning equipment for passenger cars until January 1, 1943 (except for essential repairs, and except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity). On and after December 31, 1942, see List A-2.
Bands on pipe covering.

[1] See also under "Passenger Transportation Equipment" on this list.

Decorative, general, and finish hardware, and ornamental metal work.
Door knockers, checks, pulls and stops.
Doors and windows, door and window frames and window sills.
Drinking water reservoirs.
Lighting fixtures (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Pipe, tube, tubing, and fittings for plumbing and heating (except for essential repairs).
Shower rods, heads and pans.
Sinks and drainboards.
Screens and screening.
Towel and luggage racks.
Water containers for humidification.
Weatherstripping and insulation.

MISCELLANEOUS

Alarm and protective systems, other than fire protective systems covered by Order L-39 (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity or where the use of such products is essential to the proper functioning of the parts).
Barrel hoops.
Badges.
Bar and counter equipment and fittings.
Barber shop equipment and supplies.
Barrel hooks.
Bathroom accessories as defined in Order L-30.
Beauty parlor equipment and supplies.
Beverage dispensing units and parts thereof (except for self-contained drinking water coolers as defined in Schedule I of Order L-126 or under any schedule of Order L-38).
Bicycles, and similar vehicles. (See also Order L-52).
Binoculars, including opera glasses.
Bird and pet cages and stands.
Bottle coolers.
Boxes, cans, jars and other containers, including burial urns.
Branding, marking, and labeling devices and stock for same (except where the devices and the stock are for affixing governmental, notarial and corporate seals or, until January 1, 1943, are adjustable stencils for addressing or identifying commercial products). For adjustable stencils after December 31, 1942, see the item "Adjustable stencils" on List A-2.
Cabinets.
Canes
Carpet rods.
Cash registers.
Chimes and bells (except for bells when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Clips.
Cleaning and polishing accessories, such as brooms, carpet sweepers, crumbing sets, dust pans, mops, pot scourers, whisk brooms and floor and furniture polishers
Clock and watch cases.
Cooking utensils (except for commercial processing in canneries and factories).
Cutlery, including pocket knives.
Dishwashing machines and domestic garbage grinders.
Dispensers, hand, for hand lotions, paper products, soap and straws.
Dog collars and other similar harness and equipment for pets.
Domestic ice refrigerators as defined in Order L-7.
Domestic laundry equipment as defined in Order L-6 and scrubbing boards, clothes line pulleys and reels.
Domestic mechanical refrigerators as defined in Order L-5.
Domestic vacuum cleaners as defined in Order L-18.
Electric blankets.
Electric light bulbs and cord sets for Christmas trees, and bulbs and neon and fluorescent tubes for advertising and display purposes.
Flashlights and electric lanterns used by railroad brakemen (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity).
Floats for liquid level control.
Flower pots, boxes and holders for same.
Flower shears.
Food dispensing utensils, devices and machines.
Fountain pens.
Fountains (except drinking water fountains when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are permitted by Schedules V, V-a and XII of Order L-42).
Furniture grommets.
Games as defined in Order L-81.
Garden tools and equipment.
Hair curlers, hair brushes and combs, shoe horns and button hooks.
Health supplies (except those to which a preference rating is granted under Order P-29).
Home and commercial electrical appliances, as defined in Order L-65.
Hooks, including hat and coat hooks.
Ice cream freezers for use in the home.
Kitchen utensils, devices and machines.
Kitchen, household and miscellaneous articles, as defined in Order L-30.
Lace tips.
Ladders and hoists (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity), including fittings.
Lamps, electric until January 1, 1943 (except for industrial, hospital or office and then not for standards, shades, shade holders, and stems). After December 31, 1942, see List A-2. The term "Lamps" as used here does not include electric light bulbs, but see "Electric light bulbs" above.
Lamps, other than electric (except for industrial, hospital or office use and then only when the only copper products or copper bas alloy products used are for valves, controls, and wicks).
Lawn sprinklers, mowers, seeders and rollers.
Livestock and poultry equipment (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for valves, controls, parts necessary for conducting electricity, and thermostats other than wafer thermostats, and for plating wafer thermostats).
Locks (except pin tumbler cylinder assemblies; essential interior working parts of Type 88, Type 97 and Type 114 locks; discs and springs for disc tumbler locks; levers for secure lever locks; interior working parts of railway car door locks and railway switch padlocks; and keys for pin tumbler and disc tumbler locks).
Luggage fittings, trim and harware.
Manicure implements.
Match and pattern plates, matrices, and flasks.
Medals.
Mirrors.
Motion picture and projection equipment (except for parts to repair and maintain necessary existing equipment in public theaters and educational institutions).
Name, identification and medal plates.
Non-operating or decorative uses of copper or copper base alloy, or the use of the same in such parts of installations and equipment (mechanical or otherwise) as bases, frames, guards, standards and supports.
Package handles and holders.
Paint (except for ship bottoms).
Pencils, mechanical.
Phonographs or other record players.
Photographic equipment and accessories (except document copying machines and equipment therefor for business purposes and for use by the U. S. Post Office, and except for X-ray equipment).
Pins.
Pleasure boat fastenings, fittings, hardware, and motors.
Pole-line hardware.
Powder, except for non-decorative uses.
Printing rollers (except to the extent that an equivalent poundage in copper or copper base alloy is returned to a brass mill in the form of old rollers).
Radio receiving sets for private use (except for replacement vacuum tubes).
Razors operated by electricity (except for repair parts).
Reclaimers for heating water.
Reflectors (except for electroplating of glass reflectors in connection with silvering when the reflectors are to be used in street and highway illumination, or for traffic signals, flood lights, searchlights and hospital operating room lights).
Refrigerator display cases.
Saddlery hardware and harness fittings.
Scales, except commercial, industrial and laboratory scales and laboratory balances. (See also Order L-190.)
Shells and caps for electric sockets except screw shells and except those used in connection with lamp signals in communication facilities.
Signs, including street signs. (See also Order L-29.)
Slot, game and vending machines, including parking meters.
Soda fountain equipment.
Sporting goods, and fishing and hunting equipment and supplies.
Staples for fastening cartons and containers.
Stationery supplies:
  Desk accessories. (See also Order L-73.)
  Office supplies. (See also Order L-73.)
  Pencils. (See also Order L-113.)
  Pens and penholders.
Statues.
Sundials.
Telescopes.
Tent poles and parts.
Thermos jugs and bottles.
Toys.
Unions and union fittings (except seats and except for other parts of unions and union fittings where and to the extent that the physical and chemical properties of the liquid or gas passing through the union or union fitting makes the use of any other material dangerous or impractical). (See also Order L-42.)
Umbrellas.
Valve handles.
Valves over 2-inch size (except seats, discs, stems, yoke sleeves, yoke bushings, stem bearings and packing glands, and except for other parts of such valves where and to the extent that the physical and chemical properties of the liquid or gas passing through the valve makes the use of any other material dangerous or impractical).
Voting machines.
Weather vanes.
Weight reducing and exercising machines.
Wool.

LIST A-2

The manufacturing, processing, assembling or finishing of the items listed below and of all parts (including repair parts) therefor is prohibited after the governing date if such article or part contains copper products or copper base alloy products, except to the extent permitted by the exceptions noted on the list. Where this list excepts an item if the use of copper products or copper base alloy products in making the item is limited or if the item is being produced for a particular end use, the manufacture, processing, assembling and finishing of the item made under the terms of such an exception is governed by paragraphs (b) and (d) (1) of this order.

Adjustable stencils	Dec. 31, 1942
Air conditioning equipment and refrigeration equipment ((i) except for repair parts containing not more than 4 pounds of copper products or copper base alloy products for use in "black out" plants; (ii) except for essential food storage, food transportation and industrial processing and then only when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for capillary tubing, bulbs, small moving parts, bellows, bearings which use not over 2 pounds of copper each, tube connections and fittings below ⅝", and integral fin tubing used in refrigeration condensers; and (iii) except for essential repairs of railroad passenger cars)	Dec. 31, 1942
Atomizers (except for medicinal purposes and for use in the preparation of dried milk and dried eggs)	Dec. 31, 1942
Blow torches, gasoline and alcohol, (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for the pump valve, pump check valve assembly, pump cylinder cap, brazing material, pack nut, valve stem, valve body and jet block)	Jan. 20, 1943
Brushes (except the type used in electric motors and generators)	Dec. 31, 1942
Cement flooring and composition flooring	Dec. 26, 1942
Cooling towers (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity)	Dec. 26, 1942
Electrolytic devices for the removal and prevention of scale in boilers	Dec. 31, 1942
Gas stoves and ranges for household use (except when each valve contains not more than ½ ounce of copper base alloy and each control contains not more than 1½ ounces of copper base alloy and the stove or range contains no other copper or copper base alloy whatever)	Aug. 7, 1942
Hand saw screws, nuts and washers for attaching saw blades to the handle	Dec. 26, 1942
Hammers	Dec. 31, 1942
Lamps, electric (except for nonportable lamps for use in hospitals or in industry, otherwise than in offices, and then only when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity)	Dec. 31, 1942
Lanterns	Sept. 7, 1942
Lighting fixtures for use outside of a building (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are for parts necessary for conducting electricity). For lighting fixtures in a building see "Lighting fixtures" under "Building Supples and Hardware" on the Combined List	Dec. 31, 1942
Loose-leaf binders	Dec. 26, 1942
Pipe, tube, tubing and fittings for water supply and distribution systems and installations (except corporation stops and couplings therefor, curb stops and couplings therefor, adapters, unions and solder nipples and except for all such pipe, tube, tubing and fittings for use on board ship and in chlorine gas equipment). This takes the place of Interpretation No. 4 of Order M-9-c	Dec. 26, 1942
Plumbing fixture fittings and trim (except when the only copper products or copper base alloy products used are permitted by the terms of Schedules V, V-a and XII of Order L-42 or any schedules or orders taking their place, or are permitted by a specific authorization of the Director General for Operations granted pursuant to such a schedule or order)	Dec. 26, 1942
Screens for oil wells and water wells	Jan. 20, 1943
Shower curtains	Dec. 26, 1942
Sound equipment attachments for motion picture projection machines (except for parts to repair and maintain necessary existing equipment in public theaters and educational institutions)	Dec. 31, 1942
Table flatware (except for a copper-silver strike)	Dec. 31, 1942
Trolley frog bodies, trolley wire crossover bodies, trolley clamps used for supporting Fig. 8 or grooved trolley wire (unless used for carrying current), and miscellaneous items such as machine screws, bolts and studs used with overhead trolley line material	Jan. 20, 1943

MILITARY EXEMPTION LIST

Air conditioning and refrigeration equipment (except for comfort use).
Bakery equipment (parts necessary for conducting electricity or where the use of copper products or copper base alloy products is essential to the proper functioning of the parts). For hot water heaters, tanks and coils see below on this list.
Bells (for use on board ship).
Binoculars.
Blow torches, gasoline and alcohol (parts other than tanks, only).
Boxes, cans, jars and other containers (for radio and communication equipment and for powder charges).
Carbonated beverage dispensing units for use on board ship (functional parts subject to corrosive action or which come in contact with food, only).
Conduits and pipe (for radio and electrical communication equipment).
Chronometer and watch cases.
Dishwashing machines.
Fans (parts necessary for conducting electricity, only).
Field ranges and ski stoves.
Floats for liquid level control (for use in aircraft and on board ship).
Furniture hardware (for use within magnetic circle on board ship).
Hammers.
Hoists, for handling powder, projectiles and explosives (for use on board ship).
Hot water heaters, tanks and coils for hospital, laundry and bakery projects.
Insect screens and screening.
Kitchen utensils, devices, machines and appliances (parts necessary for conducting electricity or which come in contact with food or where the use of copper products or copper base alloy products is essential to the proper functioning of the parts).
Ladders and stairs, for use in gasoline storage spaces on board ship (treads, only).
Lanterns, gasoline (generators, valves and controls, only).
Laundry equipment, for use on board ship (parts necessary for conducting electricity or where the use of copper products or copper base alloy products is essential to the proper functioning of the parts). For hot water heaters, tanks and coils see above on this list.
Laundry equipment, mobile, for field use (parts necessary for conducting electricity or where the use of copper products or copper base alloy products is essential to the proper functioning of the parts). For hot water heaters, tanks and coils see above on this list.
Lights, lamps and accessories (for use in aircraft and on board ship).
Locks and latches (for use on board ship).
Motion picture and projection equipment.
Name, identification and medal plates of a gauge of .03125 inch or less (for use in aircraft and on board ship).
Paint (for ship bottoms and flying boat hull bottoms).
Photographic equipment and accessories.
Pins for hinges (for use on board ship).
Prescription scales (health supplies).
Reflectors (for use on board ship, in aircraft searchlights, and recognition lights and hospital operating room lights and therapeutic lights).
Safety lamps, flame type (for use on board ship and for use in other places where there is danger of explosion).
Shells and caps for electric sockets (for use in aircraft and on board ship).
Soda fountain equipment for use on board ship (functional parts subject to corrosive action or which come in contact with food, only).
Sound equipment attachments for motion picture projection machines.
Table flatware made according to Fed. Spec. RR-T-56 until March 31, 1943.
Telescopes.
Unions and union fittings (for use on board ship).
Valve handles (for use within magnetic circle on board ship).
Valves (for use on board ship).

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Regulation 3 as Amended Dec. 26, 1942]

UNIFORM METHOD OF APPLICATION AND EXTENSION OF PREFERENCE RATING

§ 944.23 Priorities Regulation 3—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this regulation:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(3) "Assignment" of a preference rating means the granting to any person, by order or certificate issued by or under the authority of the Director General for Operations, of the right to use such rating.

(4) "Application" of a preference rating means the use of the rating by the person to whom it is initially assigned by or under the authority of the Director General for Operations, and includes the initial issuance by any governmental agency, under authority of the Director General for Operations, of a preference rating certificate rating a delivery to be made directly to such agency.

(5) "Extension" of a preference rating means the use of the rating by any person to whom it is applied or extended by another person.

(b) General provisions. (1) Except to the extent otherwise provided in Priorities Regulation No. 11 (§ 944.32) with respect to persons required or permitted to qualify under the production requirements plan, any person may apply a preference rating assigned to him by any preference rating certificate or preference rating order issued to him in his name or as one of a class, and any person may extend any rating which has been applied or extended to deliveries to be made by him, subject to the provisions of this regulation.

(2) A preference rating may be applied by the person to whom it is assigned only to the specific quantities and kinds of material authorized, or to the minimum required amounts of material when no specific quantities are authorized. Any rating which has been applied or extended by others to deliveries to be made by a person may, subject to the provisions of this regulation, be extended by such person in order to obtain not more than the same amount and kind of material (except as specified in paragraph (c) (3) of this regulation) which he has delivered or is required to deliver pursuant to such rating.

(3) No person shall duplicate, in whole or in part, purchase orders which he has placed with one or more suppliers for delivery of material to which he has applied or extended a rating, in such manner that the amount of the material ordered exceeds the amount to which he is authorized to apply or extend the rating, even though he intends to cancel or reduce his purchase orders to the authorized amount prior to completion of delivery.

(c) Extension of ratings. The following provisions shall be applicable to all extensions of preference ratings notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of the preference rating certificate or preference rating order assigning the rating, except to the extent otherwise provided in Priorities Regulation No. 11 (§ 944.32) with respect to persons required or permitted to qualify under the production requirements plan. No preference rating may be extended to the delivery of any material except:

(1) Material which will itself be delivered by the person extending the rating on a delivery bearing the rating which is being extended, or which will be physically incorporated into material to be so delivered, including the portion of such material normally consumed or converted into scrap or byproducts in the course of processing; or

(2) Material which is required to replace in inventory material so delivered or incorporated. Material shall not be deemed to be required if the delivery can be made and a practicable working minimum inventory of such material still retained; and if, in making delivery, the inventory is reduced below such minimum, the rating may be extended to replace such material only to the extent necessary to restore the inventory to such minimum: Provided, however, That the material ordered for replacement must be substantially the same as the material delivered or incorporated in the material delivered, subject only to minor variations in size, shape or design or substitutions of less scarce materials, which in any case do not substantially alter the purpose for which the same is to be used; or

(3) Repair, maintenance and operating supplies, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(i) The amount of maintenance, repair and operating supplies obtained by any person under this regulation and under any preference rating ("P") order (except P-100) assigning a rating to such person shall not, in the aggregate, exceed during any period the limit, if any, specified in such preference rating order for use of the rating thereby assigned;

(ii) The cost of all maintenance, repair and operating supplies obtained by any other person by extension of a rating shall not exceed in any month ten percent of the cost of materials described in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph (c) to which the same grade of rating is extended during the same month (or, if such materials are obtained without preference rating assistance, to which the same grade of rating could be extended, during such month if priorities assistance were needed);

(iii) The cost of maintenance, repair and operating supplies consisting of metals in any of the forms listed on the Metals List attached to Priorities Regulation No. 11 (§ 944.32) to which the rating is extended in any month shall not in any event exceed two and one-half percent of the cost of materials described in said subparagraphs (1) and (2) to which the same grade of rating is extended during the same month (or, if such materials are obtained without preference rating assistance, to which the same grade of rating could be extended during such month if priorities assistance were needed);

(iv) The term "maintenance, repair and operating supplies" as used in this subparagraph (3) shall include only those supplies which are actually required for directly processing the material described in subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this paragraph (c) or for maintenance or repair of production machinery and equipment used in such processing. It does not include office supplies or maintenance or repair of building; and

(v) In cases where the material to be processed is furnished by the customer, the cost thereof to the customer shall, for the purposes of this paragraph (c) (3), be taken instead of cost to the processor and the month in which the processing order is placed shall be taken in lieu of the month in which the material to be processed is ordered.

A person may not extend a rating to any materials in excess of the quantities specified in this paragraph (c) nor to materials for plant improvement, expansion or construction, to machine tools or other capital equipment, to business machines whether purchased or leased, or to maintenance, repair or operating supplies other than those specified above in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph (c).

(d) Method of application or extension. (1) Any person authorized to apply or extend preference ratings may do so:

(i) On a written contract or purchase order, by endorsing on, or attaching to, each contract or purchase order placed by him to which the rating is to be applied or extended, a certification in substantially the following form signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7 (§ 944.27) by an official duly authorized for such purpose:

CERTIFICATION

The undersigned purchaser hereby represents to the seller and to the War Production Board that he is entitled to apply or extend the preference ratings indicated opposite the items shown on this purchase order, and that such application or extension is in accordance with Priorities Regulation No. 3 as amended, with the terms of which the undersigned is familiar.

____________________ ____________
(Name of Purchaser and PRP Certificate No. if Purchaser is a PRP Unit) (Address)
By ____________________ ____________ (Signature and Title of Duly Authorized Officer) (Date)

(ii) On a purchase order placed by telegraph, by including in the telegram the following certification: "Ratings indicated are certified pursuant to Priorities Regulation No. 3." The requirements for manual signature or authorization under Priorities Regulation No. 7 (§ 944.27) will be satisfied in such case if the copy of the outgoing telegram retained by the person placing the order is signed or authorized in the manner provided in that regulation.

(iii) On a purchase order placed by telephone and requiring shipment within seven days, by stating to the supplier at the time of placing the order the substance of the certification set forth in subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph (d) (1); provided, however, in such case, that the person making the statement is an official duly authorized to make such certification, and the person making the statement furnishes to the supplier within seven days after placing the purchase order written confirmation of such order, bearing a certification of such preference rating substantially in the form prescribed by subparagraph (i) of this paragraph (d) (1). No preference rating received by telephone shall be extended by the supplier until receipt by him of the written certification herein required. In case of failure to receive written certification within the seven days' period herein prescribed, the supplier shall not accept any other order from, or deliver any additional material of any kind to, the purchaser until such written certification is furnished. On or before the fifteenth day of each month, any supplier who has received in the prior month a preference rating applied or extended by telephone shall notify the War Production Board, Compliance Division, of any case in which a purchaser has failed to furnish to him the written certification when due.

(iv) The person receiving the certification and rating shall be entitled to rely on such representation, unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false. Each person applying or extending a rating must maintain at his regular place of business all documents, including purchase orders and preference rating orders and certificates, upon which he relies as entitling him to apply or extend such rating, segregated and available for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated and made available for such inspection. In addition thereto, each person applying or extending a rating shall execute and file with the War Production Board all reports and questionnaires required by the applicable preference rating certificate or preference rating order and such other reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(2) Such certification may be used in lieu of any other form of certification required by the terms of any regulation, preference rating order or preference rating certificate (including, without limitation, the instructions accompanying Forms PD–1A, PD–3A and PD–25A) as a means of applying or extending a preference rating and in lieu of furnishing any copy of any preference rating order required thereby; except that the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 9 (§ 944.30) with respect to the method of applying (but not extending) preference ratings covering certain types of exports must be complied with when ratings are applied pursuant to that regulation.

(3) Notwithstanding the requirements of any applicable preference rating order or certificate,

(i) A person may defer extending any rating for a period of not more than three months after he becomes entitled to extend the same;

(ii) Ratings of the same grade assigned by different preference rating certificates or orders may be combined and extended to a single delivery; and

(iii) Ratings of different grades, whether assigned by the same or different preference rating certificates or orders, may be extended to deliveries under a single purchase order provided the amount of each material to which a particular grade of rating is extended is shown either as a separate item, or on a percentage basis where the material involved is of such type and in such quantities that the supplier can readily determine, from percentage figures alone, the exact effect of the extension of the rating on his production and delivery schedule. To the extent necessary to avoid production or delivery of material in quantities smaller than the minimum commercially practicable, items to which ratings of different grades might be extended may be combined and the rating of the lowest grade extended to the total production or delivery.

(4) In addition to complying with the foregoing requirements of this paragraph (d), any person applying or extending a preference rating shall include on his purchase order or contract such information (except designation of the number or serial number of the preference rating certificate or preference rating order assigning the rating) as may be required by the terms of any applicable order of the Director General for Operations and which the person placing the purchase order is able to furnish.

(e) Applicability of other restrictions. Except as expressly otherwise provided in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this regulation, the application or extension of any rating shall be subject to any applicable restrictions contained in any order of the Director General for Operations assigning the preference rating in question or regulating transactions in the material involved, including, without limitation, restrictions as to the kind and amount of material to which preference ratings may be applied or extended, requirements of countersignature or other written approval of particular transactions, and restrictions on the use of material.

(f) Effect on existing certificates and orders. All existing forms of preference rating certificates issued by or under authority of the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations are continued in full force and effect, and additional certificates on such forms may continue to be issued by the persons now or hereafter authorized to issue the same until such authority is revoked or amended, subject to the provisions of this and other regulations of the Director General for Operations. All certificates and all existing orders of the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations and the Director General for Operations are to be deemed amended by this regulation only where and to the extent that the provisions of this regulation indicate that it is to control.

PART 966—VANADIUM

[General Preference Order M–23–a, as Amended Dec. 26, 1942]

Section 966.2 General Preference Order M–23–a is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 966.2 General Preference Order M–23–a—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Vanadium" means and includes:

(i) Ores and concentrates containing commercially recognized vanadium, vanadium pentoxide, and other vanadium compounds for further purification or refining;

(ii) The element vanadium in pure form, ferro-vanadium, vanadium bearing primary chemical compounds, and other combinations of the element vanadium with other materials, prepared in forms for further processing or for industrial consumption or use;

(iii) All scrap, waste or industrial by-products containing commercially recoverable vanadium as defined in (i) and (ii) above, excluding vanadium bearing iron and steel scrap.

(2) "Producer" means any person who mines or otherwise produces natural materials containing commercially recoverable quantities of vanadium, or who generates vanadium in any of the forms included within paragraph (a) (1) (iii) above, in the course of any industrial operation.

(3) "Processor" means any person who prepares or treats vanadium for industrial consumption or use.

(b) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of the applicable priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(c) Restrictions on melting or processing. No person, other than a processor as defined in this order, shall melt or otherwise process vanadium except pursuant to approval of his melting schedule under the provisions of Supplementary Order M–21–a, as amended from time to time, or pursuant to specific authorization by the Director General for Operations; provided that any person other than a producer of steel and iron products (as defined in Supplementary Order M–21–a, as from time to time amended) may, without such approval or specific authorization, melt or otherwise process quantities not exceeding a total of ten pounds contained vanadium during any calendar month.

(d) Restrictions on deliveries—(1) Allocations. Except as permitted under paragraph (d) (2) of this order, no person shall deliver or accept delivery of vanadium without the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations. The Director General for Operations will from time to time allocate the supply of vanadium and specifically direct the manner and quantities in which deliveries to particular persons and for particular purposes shall be made or withheld. The Director may also require any person seeking to place a purchase order for vanadium to place the same with one or more particular suppliers. Such allocations and directions will be made primarily to insure satisfaction of all war requirements of the United States, both direct and indirect, and they may be made without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular contracts or purchase orders.

(2) Permissible deliveries. Until further order or in the absence of a contrary direction by the Director General for Operations, the following transactions are permitted without specific authorization by the Director General for Operations:

(i) Vanadium in any of the forms specified in paragraph (a) (1) (i) or paragraph (a) (1) (iii) of this order may be delivered by any producer or processor to any processor for the purpose of being concentrated, treated or otherwise prepared, by the processor receiving such delivery, for industrial consumption or use;

(ii) Deliveries of vanadium in any form may be made and accepted by any person in quantities of 10 pounds or less contained vanadium, provided that the total quantity acquired by any person pursuant to this subparagraph, in any calendar month from all sources of supply, shall be limited to 10 pounds contained vanadium.

The provisions of (i) and (ii) of this paragraph (d) (2) shall not apply to deliveries of vanadium from any processing plant operated by or for the Metals Reserve Company or any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended (15 U. S. C., section 606 (b)). Deliveries from such a plant shall be made only with the specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(e) Applications for specific authorization. Application for specific authorization to acquire or to melt or otherwise process vanadium shall be made to the War Production Board on Forms PD–707, PD–209A (Schedule 2) and PD–209B, or on such other forms as may be from time to time prescribed for the purpose. An applicant shall file a copy of Form PD-209B with each supplier with whom he has placed a purchase order for such vanadium. Applications shall be filed at such time and in such manner as may be required by the instructions accompanying the appropriate forms prescribed by the War Production Board.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Communications to War Production Board. All reports and applications to be filed hereunder, appeals and other communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the Ferro-Alloys Branch, Steel Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference: M–23–a.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

PART 1145—OFFICE SUPPLIES

[Limitation Order L–73 as of Dec. 26, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron, steel and other materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1145.1 General Limitation Order L–73—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Office supplies" means manufactured products (other than furniture and machinery) designed for use in an office, notwithstanding their auxiliary use for industrial purposes.

(2) "Group I products" means the following types of office supplies: wire staples, whether preformed or continuous roll.

(3) "Group II products" means the following types of office supplies: clips, clamps, pins, and thumb-tacks; copy-holders; eyelet and round and flat-head fasteners; eyeleters; file fasteners; pencil sharpeners; punches and perforators; stapling and fastening machines.

(4) "Group III products" means the following types of office supplies: adhesive and gummed tape dispensers; arch and clip board files; calendar stands; desk accessories; inked ribbon spools and containers; list finders; rulers and yardsticks; staple removers; stationery sundries, not elsewhere classified.

(5) "Producer" means any person engaged in the fabrication, assembly, or any other operation or process connected with the manufacture of office supplies.

(6) "Prohibited materials" means copper, tin, nickel, chromium, zinc, cadmium, and crude rubber in any form whatever.

(7) "Federal specifications" means specifications (including emergency alternate specifications) approved from time to time by the Director of Procurement for use of all departments and establishments of the Federal Government, and any amendments thereof.

(8) "Iron and steel used" means the aggregate weight of iron and steel when first put into production in the manufacture of office supplies whether in the form of raw materials or as semi-processed or finished parts.

(9) "Preferred order" means any order or contract for office supplies to be delivered to or for the account of

(i) The Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Commission for Aeronautics, and the Office of Scientific Research and Development;

(ii) The government of any of the following countries: The United Kingdom, Canada, and other Dominions, Crown Colonies and Protectorates of the British Empire, Belgium, China, Greece, the Kingdom of the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia and Yugoslavia;

(iii) Any agency of the United States Government for delivery to, or for the account of the government of any country listed above or any country, including those in the Western Hemisphere, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States," (Lend-Lease Act).

(b) General restrictions. (1) During the period of three months beginning April 1, 1942, no producer shall use:

(i) In the manufacture of Group I products more iron and steel than 25% of the aggregate weight of all metals used by him in the manufacture of Group I products during 1940.

(ii) In the manufacture of Group II products more iron and steel than 20% of the aggregate weight of all metals used by him in the manufacture of Group II products during 1940.

(iii) In the manufacture of Group III products more iron and steel than 12½% of the aggregate weight of all metals used by him in the manufacture of Group III products during 1940.

(2) During each period of three months, beginning with July 1, 1942, until otherwise ordered no producer shall use

(i) In the manufacture of Group I products more iron and steel than 25% of the aggregate weight of all metals used by him in the manufacture of Group I products during 1940.

(ii) In the manufacture of Group II products more iron and steel than 15% of the aggregate weight of all metals used by him in the manufacture of Group II products during 1940.

(iii) In the manufacture of Group III products more iron and steel than 12½% of the aggregate weight of all metals used by him in the manufacture of Group III products during 1940.

(3) A producer having preferred orders may exceed the foregoing restrictions in any period of three months to the extent of the amount of iron and steel necessary to fill such preferred orders provided that his quota of iron and steel for the following three months shall be reduced by an equivalent amount of iron and steel.

(4) On and after December 26, 1942, no producer shall use in the manufacture of any Group I, Group II or Group III products any prohibited materials, except that:

(i) Zinc may be used for galvanizing to the extent necessary for practicable use and wear, subject to the restrictions contained in Conservation Order M–11–b as amended from time to time, and

(ii) Coppered (liquor finish) steel may be used.

(5) From March 28, 1942, no producer shall manufacture any Group I, Group II or Group III products which exceed the minimum requirements of applicable specifications, as defined in paragraph (a) (7) hereof, in respect to any metal or other critical material contained therein.

(6) On and after December 26, 1942, no producer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any desk pencil sharpeners containing any metal except such desk pencil sharpeners as he can completely manufacture and assemble prior to January 15, 1943, out of completely fabricated iron and steel parts, contained in his inventory, prior to December 26, 1942. On and after January 15, 1943, no producer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any desk pencil sharpeners containing any metal.

(7) On and after December 26, 1942, no producer shall procure or acquire any iron or steel to be used in the production of file fasteners, and on and after January 1, 1943, no producer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any file fasteners containing any metal.

(8) On and after December 31, 1942, no producer shall sell, lease, trade, lend, deliver, ship or transfer any file fastener produced after December 26, 1942, containing any metal, except in fulfillment of orders accepted by him prior to December 26, 1942.

(9) On and after December 26, 1942, no producer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any staplers or two-hole punches and perforators which contain more than 8 ounces of metal per unit, or any three-hole punches and perforators which contain more than 12 ounces of metal per unit, except out of materials which have been so processed, fabricated, worked on or assembled prior to December 26, 1942, that they cannot be used in the production of any staplers or punches and perforators which conform to the specifications contained in this subparagraph. On and after January 1, 1943, no producer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any staplers or two-hole punches and perforators containing more than 8 ounces of metal per unit, or any three-hole punches and perforators containing more than 12 ounces of metal per unit.

(10) The restrictions contained in paragraph (b) (5) of this order shall not apply to file fasteners, desk pencil sharpeners, staplers or two-hole punches or perforators containing more than 8 ounces of metal per unit, or three-hole punches or perforators containing more than 12 ounces of metal per unit produced on and after December 26, 1942.

(11) On and after December 26, 1942, no producer shall process, fabricate, work on or assemble any repair or replacement parts for any office supplies containing any metal, except for staplers or punches and perforators.

(12) On and after December 26, 1942, no producer shall exceed the restrictions contained in this order for the purpose of filling preferred orders. The provisions of this paragraph shall in no way affect the duty of a producer who prior to December 26, 1942, has exceeded the restrictions contained in this order pursuant to paragraph (b) (3) for the purpose of filling preferred orders to deduct from his quota of iron and steel for the three months period following January 1, 1943, the equivalent amount of iron and steel by which, prior to December 26, 1942, he has exceeded his quota for the purpose of filling preferred orders.

(c) Avoidance of excessive inventories. No manufacturer of office supplies shall accumulate for use in the manufacture of office supplies inventories of raw materials, semi-processed materials, or finished parts in quantities in excess of the minimum amount necessary to maintain production of office supplies at the rates permitted by this order.

(d) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(e) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(f) Reports. (1) Every producer affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(2) Every producer affected by this order shall execute and file Form PD–655 with the Consumer Durable Goods Division of the War Production Board, Ref.: L–73, on or before January 10, 1943, and on or before the 10th day of each calendar month thereafter.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (A) of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 80).

(h) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be filed on Form PD–500 with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(i) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order issued, or to be issued hereafter, restricts the use of any material in the manufacture of office supplies to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions in such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

(j) Application of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provisions hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(k) Communications. All reports, appeals and other communications concerning this order should be addressed to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–73.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

PART 1158—INDUSTRIAL MACHINERY

[Limitation Order L–83 as Amended Dec. 26, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials used in the manufacture of industrial machinery for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1158.1 General Limitation Order L–83—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Critical industrial machinery" means new, used or reconditioned machinery, of the kinds listed, from time to time, in List A. The value of a critical industrial machine shall be the selling price, or in any case where the machine is rented, the cost of production (as indicated by the company's regularly established cost accounting system), excise tax value, or insurance value, whichever is higher. The term "new critical industrial machinery" means any critical industrial machinery which has not been delivered by any person acquiring it for use, and does not include used or reconditioned machinery. The term "used critical industry machinery" means any critical industrial machinery which at any time has been delivered to any person acquiring it for use, but does not include rebuilt machinery. The term "reconditioned critical industrial machinery" means used machinery which has been rebuilt or otherwise conditioned for resale, or reuse.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person producing critical industrial machinery.

(4) "Distributor" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying or otherwise acquiring new, used, or reconditioned machinery for resale.

(5) "Order" means any commitment or other arrangement for the delivery of critical industrial machinery, whether by purchase, lease, rental, or otherwise.

(6) "Approved order" means:

(i) Any order for critical industrial machinery, when accompanied by a PD–3A certificate, to be delivered to, or for the account of:

(a) The Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development;

(b) The government of any of the following countries: Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Iceland, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, Turkey, United Kingdom including its Dominions, Crown Colonies, and Protectorates, and Yugoslavia.

(ii) Any order placed by any agency of the United States Government for critical industrial machinery to be delivered to, or for the account of, the government of any country listed above, or any other country, including those in the western hemisphere, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(iii) Any order for critical industrial machinery bearing a preference rating of A–9 or higher assigned by a Preference Rating Certificate PD–3 or PD–3A countersigned prior to May 18, 1942, by a Preference Rating Order in the P–19 series issued prior to May 18, 1942, or by a Preference Rating Certificate PD–1 or PD–1A, a Preference Rating Certificate in the PD–25 or PD–408 Series, or Preference Rating Order P–19–h (PD–200 or 200A) issued at any time. After May 18, 1942, Preference Rating Certificate PD–3A shall be used only to assign preference ratings to approved orders to be delivered to or for the account of the agencies set forth in subdivision (i) hereof. Any preference rating certificate or order of any of the kinds enumerated above may be used to secure critical industrial machinery only by the person to whom it was originally issued and only when such machinery is expressly specified on the certificate or order (or its Form PD–200 or 200A). Any person placing an approved order for critical industrial machinery bearing a rating assigned by any such certificate or order who does not deliver such certificate or order but retains the same, as permitted by Priorities Regulation No. 3, as amended from time to time, or by the terms of the preference rating order shall, in addition to furnishing the endorsement required by such Priorities Regulation No. 3, as amended from time to time, or such preference rating order certify to the person from whom the machinery is to be acquired that the certificate or order was originally issued to him and that the critical industrial machinery ordered was expressly specified on the certificate or order (or its Form PD–200 or 200A).

(iv) Any order which the Director General for Operations authorizes for production or delivery pursuant to paragraph (b) (2) hereof.

(b) Restrictions on acceptance of orders for, and delivery and acquisition of, critical industrial machinery—(1) General prohibitions. Except as provided in paragraph (b) (4) hereof, no person shall accept any order for critical industrial machinery, or deliver any critical industrial machinery in fulfillment of any order, whether accepted or not; unless such order is an approved order. No person shall accept delivery of any critical industrial machinery except pursuant to an approved order.

(2) Procedure for authorization of orders on books. Manufacturers or distributors may apply for authorization to deliver orders which are not approved orders, on their books on May 18, 1942, as it affects classes of critical industrial machinery from time to time, by filing with the War Production Board, in triplicate, plainly marked Ref: L–83, a list of all such orders together with the name of the purchaser or lessee, the date of the order, the number of pieces of machinery, a description of the machinery, the value of the machinery, the rating assigned, if any, the preference rating certificate number, if any (or blanket preference rating order and serial number), the specified delivery date, the percentage of completion of the order on May 18, 1942, as it affects any particular kind of machinery, and the expected use to which the machinery will be put. The Director General for Operations may thereupon, if he shall deem it necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense, authorize the delivery of any such orders, or the assignment of preference ratings thereto.

(3) Auction sales, sales pursuant to court order and similar transactions. Dispositions of used critical industrial machinery at auction, at sheriff's sale, at tax sales, in liquidations of all or part of a business, and in similar transactions must be approved orders unless such dispositions are made to distributors within the limits specified in paragraph (b) (4) (vii).

(4) Exempted transactions. Nothing in this order shall be construed to prohibit any of the following transactions:

(i) The seizure of critical industrial machinery (but not subsequent disposition or use thereof) upon default, by any person pursuant to the terms of a conditional sale agreement, chattel mortgage, pledge, or other security agreement; and the distraint or levy by execution (but not subsequent disposition thereof) by tax authorities.

(ii) The delivery or acquisition of critical industrial machinery (but not subsequent disposition thereof) through a transfer by will or intestacy, or a transfer by operation of law to a trustee, receiver, or assignee for the benefit of creditors, in bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, or assignment for the benefit of creditors.

(iii) The delivery or acquisition of critical industrial machinery as part of a transaction, such as merger, consolidation, sale and purchase of assets, sale and purchase of stock, or lease of plant, involving the transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of an enterprise, where no liquidation or dismemberment of assets is contemplated.

(iv) The transfer of critical industrial machinery, within a plant, or within a single corporate enterprise (including majority-owned subsidiaries), from one plant or branch to another: Provided, however, That nothing in this subdivision (iv) shall be construed to permit transfers from a portion of an enterprise manufacturing, building, or assembling new machinery to a portion using it.

(v) The delivery or acquisition of critical industrial machinery (but not subsequent disposition thereof) as a trade-in, where the machinery to be installed is delivered pursuant to an approved order.

(vi) Deliveries to, and acquisitions by, distributors, of new critical industrial machinery in the following two instances only:

(a) To fill approved orders for new critical industrial machinery which orders are actually in the hands of such distributors; or

(b) To replace new critical industrial machinery delivered by such distributor to fill an approved order.

(vii) Deliveries to, and acquisitions by distributors of used critical industrial machinery (but not subsequent dispositions thereof) at auction, sheriff's sales, tax sales, liquidations or otherwise.

(viii) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c), the delivery of critical industrial machinery for repair and return, the return of a repaired machine, and the loan of a machine to the user, for a period not to exceed one month, pending the repair of the damaged machine.

(ix) The delivery and acquisition of critical industrial machinery to be scrapped for its material content.

(x) The unloading, from a vessel, of any imported critical industrial machinery.

(xi) The transfer of any interest in any written instrument evidencing an interest in critical industrial machinery: Provided, however, That nothing in this subdivision (xi) shall be construed to permit the physical delivery or use of critical industrial machinery.

(c) Non-applicability to repair or maintenance of existing equipment. The prohibitions of paragraph (b) hereof shall not be construed to restrict any delivery (1) to fill any order or group of orders of less than $1,000, placed with one or more suppliers within any four weeks' period, for parts intended for use in the repair or maintenance of any single existing machine, or a single machine delivered under the terms of this order, or (2) to fill any order of $1,000 or more for repair or maintenance parts when and only when there has been an actual breakdown or suspension of operations because of damage, wear and tear, destruction or failure of parts, or the like, and the essential repair or maintenance parts are not otherwise available.

(d) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944) as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(e) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(f) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L–83.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(h) Records and reports. All manufacturers and distributors affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning production, deliveries, and orders for industrial machinery. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the Director General for Operations, War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as said Director shall from time to time request. On or before 15 days after May 18, 1942, as to any kind of machinery, every manufacturer of critical industrial machinery shall file in triplicate with the War Production Board, plainly marked Ref.: L–83, a supplementary list of all orders for critical industrial machinery now on his books (in excess of the amounts listed in List A), not reported under paragraph (b) (2), together with the name of the purchaser or lessee, the date of the order, the number of pieces of machinery, a description of the machinery, the value of the machinery, the rating assigned, the preference rating certificate number, if any, (or blanket preference rating order and serial number), the specified delivery date, the percentage of completion of the order, and the expected use to which the machinery will be put. Manufacturers who have previously filed a list under the order need not refile.

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

LIST A

NOTE: List A is amended by deleting from such list items 1, 2, 3, 11, 12, 13 and 14 and by renumbering item nos. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 15, 16, 17 and 18 to read 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11, respectively.

1. Packaging and labeling machinery, on orders for a single machine of a value in excess of $200: Provided, however, That there shall be excluded from the terms of this order, orders for machinery to which a preference rating has been legally applied pursuant to the terms of Preference Rating Order P–115.

2. Pulp and paper making machinery, on orders for a single machine of a value in excess of $1,000.

3. Paper converting machinery, on orders for a single machine of a value in excess of $200.

4. Printing and publishing machinery, on orders for a single new, or less-than-five-year-old reconditioned or used machine of a value in excess of $200.

5. Bakery machinery, on orders for a single machine of a value in excess of $200.

6. Confectionery machinery, on orders for a single machine of a value in excess of $200.

7. Beverage bottling machinery, on orders for a single machine of a value in excess of $200.

8. Coffee grinding machinery, one horsepower and over, on orders for a single machine of a value in excess of $50.

9. Food slicing and grinding machinery, one horsepower and over, on orders for a single machine of a value in excess of $50: Provided, however, That there shall be excluded from the terms of this order orders for machinery to which a preference rating has been legally applied pursuant to the terms of Preference Rating Order P–115.

10. Dairy machinery and equipment, on orders for a single machine or piece of equipment of a value in excess of $300; Provided, however, That there shall be excluded from the terms of this order orders for machinery to which a preference rating has been legally applied pursuant to the terms of Preference Rating Order P–118. The term "dairy machinery and equipment" includes all machinery and equipment used for the processing of milk and milk products into dairy products, except machinery used on a farm for the producing of and handling of milk preparatory to delivery to commercial processors. A processing plant located on a farm is considered, under the terms of this order, to be a commercial processor, and is subject to the limitations hereof.

11. New woodworking, sawmill and logging machinery and equipment, on all orders for a single machine or unit of equipment of a value in excess of $250. The term "new woodworking, sawmill and logging machinery and equipment" means: new borers, dowel machines, edgers, gluing equipment, grinders, jointers, kilns, lathes, matchers, mills, mortisers, moulders, routers, sanders, saws, shapers, surfacers, tenoners, trimmers, veneer and plywood machines; and all other new machinery and equipment normally used in cutting, shaping, gluing, finishing, or otherwise processing wood and wood products, except machinery used for painting, varnishing, lacquering and similar purposes.

INTERPRETATION 1

Paragraph (a) (2) of General Limitation Order L–83 defines "Critical industrial machinery" as new, used, or reconditioned machinery of the kinds listed from time to time in List A of the order, and provides that the value of a critical industrial machine shall be the selling price with certain exceptions. List A specifies the machinery included in the order. In certain instances, the list contains dollar limitations on the value of machines so included. For instance, bakery machinery is covered by General Limitation Order L–83 only on an order for a single machine of a value in excess of $200.

The selling price of a machine would normally establish its value for purposes of this order unless other facts indicated that such selling price was not the actual value placed upon the machinery by the buyer and seller. In any case where a used machine is sold with the understanding by buyer or seller that the machine must be repaired or reconditioned in connection with or in relation to the sale transaction, in order that the machine be an effective instrument, the value of the machine for purposes of this order is to be deemed the aggregate of the selling price of the inoperable machine plus the cost of repairing or reconditioning the machine to the point where it can operate effectively. In other words, the sale of a broken down machine, followed by repairing or reconditioning in order that the machine be in condition to operate, does not avoid the impact of the order merely because the original sale of the inoperable machine is fixed at a value below the limitations established in General Limitation Order L–83; the cost of the repairs necessary to render the machine an effective instrument must be added to such original selling price in order to determine the value for the purposes of the order. (Issued December 17, 1942.)

PART 1176—IRON AND STEEL CONSERVATION

[Conservation Order M–126 as Amended Dec. 26, 1942]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron and steel for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1176.1 General Conservation Order M–126—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Governing date", with respect to any item on List A or List S, or part thereof, means the date set forth opposite such item.

(2) "Army - Navy - Maritime order" means an order for material to be purchased (or physically incorporated into material to be purchased) by or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration, where with respect to any item on List A, or part thereof, the use of iron or steel, or with respect to any item on List S, or part thereof, the use of stainless steel, is required by the specifications (including performance specifications) of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration, applicable to the contract, subcontract or purchase order.

(3) The terms "iron" and "steel" shall not be deemed to include screws, nails, rivets, bolts, or wire, strapping or small hardware for joining or other similar essential purposes.

(4) The term "stainless steel" means corrosion or heat resistant alloy iron or alloy steel containing 10 per cent or more of chromium with or without nickel and/or other alloying elements.

(5) "Process" means cut, draw, machine, stamp, melt, cast, forge, roll, turn, spin or otherwise shape.

(6) "Put into process" means the first change by a manufacturer in the form of material from that form in which it is received by him.

(7) The term "assemble" shall not be deemed to include the putting together of an article after delivery to a sales outlet or consumer in knockdown form pursuant to an established custom. The term "assemble" shall also not be deemed to include adding finished parts to an otherwise finished article when the placing of one or more finished parts or the size or type of one or more finished parts is determined by the use to which the ultimate consumer is to put the article.

(b) Restrictions with respect to List A products. Except as provided in paragraph (d);

(1) Raw material deliveries. From and after the applicable governing date of any item on List A, no person shall deliver or accept delivery of any iron or steel which he knows or has reason to know will be used to make such item, or any part thereof.

(2) Fabrication—(i) Limitation. During the 30 days next following the applicable governing date of any item on List A, no person shall put into process any iron or steel to make such item, or any part thereof, in an aggregate weight greater than 75 per cent of the average monthly weight of all metals put into process by him during 1941 in the making of such item and parts, and no person shall put into process any iron or steel in the making of any such item or part unless processing thereof will be completed within such 30 day period.

(ii) Prohibition. From and after the date 30 days after the applicable governing date of any item on List A, no person shall process any iron or steel to make such item, or any part thereof.

(3) Assembly. From and after the date 60 days after the applicable governing date of any item on List A, no person shall assemble such item, or any part thereof, containing any iron or steel.

(4) List A products without governing dates. With respect to any item on List A without a governing date, (i) no person shall deliver or accept delivery of any iron or steel which he knows or has reason to know will be used to make such item, or any part thereof, (ii) no person shall put into process or process any iron or steel to make such item, or any part thereof, and (iii) no person shall assemble such item, or any part thereof, containing any iron or steel.

(5) Finished item deliveries. No person shall deliver or accept delivery of any item on List A, or part thereof, which he knows or has reason to know was fabricated, assembled or delivered in violation of any applicable provision of this order as amended from time to time.

(c) Restrictions with respect to List S products. Except as provided in paragraph (d):

(1) Raw material deliveries. From and after the applicable governing date of any item on List S, no person shall deliver or accept delivery of any stainless steel which he knows or has reason to know will be used to make such item, or any part thereof.

(2) Fabrication—(i) Limitation. During the 30 days next following the applicable governing date of any item on List S, no person shall put into process any stainless steel to make such item, or any part thereof, in an aggregate weight greater than 50% of the average monthly weight of stainless steel put into process by him during 1941 in the making of such item and parts, and no person shall put into process any stainless steel in the making of any such item or part unless processing thereof will be completed within such 30 day period.

(ii) Prohibition. From and after the date 30 days after the applicable governing date of any item on List S, no person shall process any stainless steel to make such item, or any part thereof.

(3) Assembly. From and after the date 45 days after the applicable governing date of any item on List S, no person shall assemble such item, or any part thereof, containing any stainless steel.

(4) Finished item deliveries. No person shall deliver or accept delivery of any item on List S or part thereof, which he knows or has reason to know was fabricated, assembled, or delivered in violation of any applicable provision of this order as amended from time to time.

(d) Exemption for Army-Navy-Maritime orders. (1) The provisions of paragraph (b) with respect to items on List A with governing dates shall not apply to Army-Navy-Maritime orders for such items, or any parts thereof, for a period of 60 days after the applicable governing date. From and after the expiration of the applicable exemption period, no person shall deliver, accept delivery of, put into process, process or assemble any iron or steel for the making of any item on List A, or part thereof, unless such item or part is on List C. The provisions of paragraph (b) shall not apply to Army-Navy-Maritime orders for any item on List C, or part thereof, except that stainless steel shall not be used to make such item and parts, unless permitted by paragraph (d) (3).

(2) The provisions of paragraph (c) shall not apply to Army-Navy-Maritime orders for any item on List S, or part thereof, for a period of 60 days after its governing date. Except as provided in paragraph (d) (4), from and after the expiration of the applicable exemption period, no person shall deliver, accept delivery of, put into process, process or assemble any stainless steel for the making of any item on List S, or part thereof, unless such item or part is on List C.

(3) Except as otherwise specified on List C as to any item, or part thereof, stainless steel may be used to make any item on List C, or part thereof, for Army-Navy-Maritime orders until January 5, 1943. Except as provided in paragraph (d) (4), on and after January 5, 1943, no person shall use any stainless steel to make any item on List C, or part thereof, unless, and then only to the extent that, the use of stainless steel is expressly permitted for such item.

(4) The provisions of this order prohibiting the delivery, processing or assembling of stainless steel or a type of stainless steel for the making of any item, or part thereof, for Army-Navy-Maritime orders shall not apply to any order which has been approved on form PD–391 for melting during the fourth quarter of 1942 or for delivery during such quarter; or to any order which cannot be filled by the manufacturer because of his inability to secure permitted materials, except that this exemption shall be only for the minimum period of time necessary to obtain such permitted materials and in no event later than April 30, 1943.

(e) Restrictions with respect to other products—(1) Roofing and siding. No person shall manufacture any iron or steel into roofing and siding except:

(i) For delivery to or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, The War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development; or

(ii) For delivery on a preference rating of AA–5 or higher assigned by a PD–3A preference rating certificate or by a preference rating order in the P–19 series; or

(iii) For defense housing, to the extent specified in the Defense Housing Critical List; or

(iv) For the manufacture, maintenance and repair of railroad freight cars, street cars, or busses; or

(v) For deliveries on preference ratings assigned by the Board of Economic Warfare or for deliveries on Lend-Lease orders; or

(vi) For delivery to an ultimate purchaser for maintenance and repair purposes regardless of rating. With respect to this paragraph (e) (1) (vi), no person may manufacture from May 5, 1942 to December 31, 1942, more than 20 percent of the roofing and siding made by him from iron or steel during the calendar year 1940; or in the calendar year 1943 or any subsequent calendar year, more than 25 percent of the roofing and siding made by him from iron or steel, during the calendar year 1940.

Any person manufacturing or selling any such roofing or siding may rely on the certificate of his customer that such roofing or siding will only be sold or used as permitted by this paragraph (e) (1).

(2) Other products. No person shall use any iron or steel to make any article not prohibited on List A, or any part thereof, where and to the extent that the use of other material (excluding material on List D) is practicable. Alloy steel shall not be used when the use of carbon steel is practicable, and no more iron or steel shall be used in connection with the manufacture of any such article than is essential. The provisions of this paragraph (e) (2) shall not apply in the case of articles or parts to be purchased by or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, or to be physically incorporated into products to be so purchased to the extent that the use of iron or steel is required by the specifications (including performance specifications) of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration applicable to the contract, subcontract or purchase order.

(f) Restrictions with respect to other scarce materials. No person whose use of iron or steel is restricted by paragraphs (b), (d) or (e) shall use as a substitute therefor any material on List D.

(g) Disposition of frozen and excessive inventories. The disposition of frozen and excessive inventories containing iron or steel shall be subject to the applicable provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 13 (§ 944.34).

(h) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order must be made on Form PD–500 and must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates.

(3) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply whether the items are ordered or manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior to, on, or subsequent to May 5, 1942, or pursuant to a contract supported by a preference rating. Insofar as any other order of the Director General for Operations may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the use of any material in the production of any item, the limitations of such order shall be observed.

(4) Intra-company deliveries. The restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries prohibit or restrict deliveries not only to other persons, including affiliates or subsidiaries, but also from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(6) Installation. The restrictions of this order with respect to putting into process, processing, and assembling shall not apply to the installation of an item or part for the ultimate consumer on his premises when any putting into process, processing or assembling of such item or part is incidental to such installation and is done on such premises.

(7) Repair. The restrictions of this order (other than those contained in paragraph (e) (2)) shall not apply to a person repairing a used article on or off the premises of the owner, if the person making the repair does not use iron or steel weighing in the aggregate more than 25 pounds and if any putting into process, processing or assembling done by such person is for the purpose of making the specific repair. The limitations in this paragraph (h) (7) on repairing a used article shall not apply to any item on List A or List S, or part thereof, to the extent that maintenance and repair of such item is specifically excepted on List A or List S.

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

Ernest Kanzler,
Director General for Operations.

- Bed spring frames[1]—for use on board ship.
- Bench legs.
- Binoculars.
- Bird cages—for carrier pigeons.
- Bird feeders—for carrier pigeons.
- Biscuit boxes—for use on board ship and where climatic conditions make necessary.
- Bleachers and grandstands—but only straps and necessary fasteners for demountable wooden bleachers and grandstands.
- Boat hooks.
- Bobbin heads of non-nickel bearing stainless steel—for use on board ship.
- Boiler casings of stainless steel[1]—for use on board destroyers and where required for corrosion or heat resistance on board ship.
- Bottle holders—for use on board ship and in hospitals.
- Boxes, meter, and covers.
- Brushes—wire bristles only.
- Buckets and pails.[2]
- Buckles for clothing.
- Buildings, portable.
- Buttons.
- Cabinets[1] for mobile units such as maintenance company equipment (truck mounted), spare parts trucks and mobile reproduction units, and for electrical installations, hospital operating and examining rooms, and as permitted by L-13-a and L-62.
- Cabinets of stainless steel for radar equipment.
- Cable terminals, fittings and turnbuckles of stainless steel—for aircraft and use on board ship.
- Canopies, hoods, and supports—for use on board ship, military repair units, hospital installations, and military construction units.
- Cans or containers for anti-freeze, candy, coffee, nuts—where climatic conditions make necessary.
- Cash boxes.
- Casket handles.
- Ceilings—for use on board ship, but only where necessary.
- Chains and cables.[2]
- Cigarette lighters—as ordered by the Army Exchange Service for use by the Army, Navy, Coast Guard, and Marine Corps.
- Clock cases.
- Clothing trim.
- Control levers of stainless steel for aircraft.
- Cooking stoves, commercial electric.
- Counter tops and edgings—for use on board ship.
- Covers, manhole.
- Covers, meter frame.
- Culverts—for airports, for use outside continental limits of the U. S., and where certified to the manufacturer or supplier as necessary by the Army or Navy engineer in charge.
- Cups of all kinds, drinking.
- Dishwashing machines.
- Door closers—for fire prevention, for use on board ship, and where climatic or safety conditions make necessary.
- Door handles—for fire prevention, for use on board ship, for military vehicles, and where climatic or safety conditions make necessary.
- Door stops.
- Dust collecting systems and equipment.
- Dust covers and enclosures—when specified for military vehicles.
- Electric drinking water coolers[1]—for use on board ship, in hospitals and in tropical climates.[2]
- Erasing knives.
- Fences, including chain link, weighing not more than 2 pounds per lineal foot and not more than .33 pounds per square foot.
- Fence posts.
- Fans of stainless steel—for use on board ship and where required for corrosion resistance.
- First aid kits.
- Flag holders.
- Flag staffs and flag masts—for use on board ship, and on military vehicles.
- Flashlight tubes.
- Floor and ceiling plates for piping—for use on board ship, for military vehicles, and where climatic or safety conditions make necessary.
- Fountains, portable, of stainless steel—for use on board ship.
- Furniture—for use on board ship.
- Galley and mess equipment of stainless steel, as follows:
  - Canteens of stainless steel.
  - Coffee urns of non-nickel bearing stainless steel.
  - Cold storage space on board ship—but only non-nickel bearing stainless steel clad for doors and other parts coming in direct contact with food.
  - Compartment mess trays—but only from existing finished stocks of stainless steel.
  - Dishwashing machines—but only tanks, hoods and pump shafts of non-nickel bearing stainless steel.
  - Kettles, steam jacketed—but only inside lining of single clad stainless steel.
  - Metal sponges of non-nickel bearing stainless steel wire.
  - Portable water coolers—but only liners of non-nickel bearing stainless steel.
  - Pressure cookers—but only clad stainless steel for bottoms and solid stainless steel for sides.
  - Sinks and dresser tops for use on board ship and aircraft—but only single clad stainless steel.
  - Steam tables and warming pans—but only clad stainless steel.
  - Stock pots—but only single clad stainless steel.
- Games.
- Garage hoists and car lifts.
- Gates for fences—but only in conformance with A. N. M. B. specifications.
- Grilles—sewer.
- Hand seals for documents.
- Harness and saddlery fittings.
- Hat frames, wire and gimps.
- Hat-making machinery, but only—
  - Blocking machines with complete sets of blocks.
  - Sets or dies for cutting parts.
- Helmets—stainless steel permitted for beading and loops.
- Hose clamps of stainless steel—for aircraft.
- Hose reels.
- Hospital equipment—
  - Arm immersion stands.
  - Bed trays.
  - Bedside panel screen frames—for use in operating rooms, and outside continental limits of U. S.
  - Bowl stands—for use in operating rooms and on board ship.
  - Cabinets—X-ray film filing.
  - Cabinets for diathermy, sinusoidal and galvanic apparatus.

PART 3110—TEXTILE, FIBER, CLOTHING AND LEATHER MACHINERY

[General Limitation Order L-215]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials used in the manufacture of textile, fiber, clothing and leather machinery for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3110.1 General Limitation Order L-215—(a) Priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of all the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Producer" means any person (including any agency or department of the United States Government) producing, processing or finishing any textiles, fibers, or leather, or any product made therefrom.

(2) "Processing machinery" means any specialized machinery or parts therefor (whether new, used, reconditioned, rebuilt) for the production, fabrication, handling, preparation, processing, finishing, sorting, grading of, or for the performance of any operation upon, his products by any producer; but shall not include general types of machinery or parts, such as boilers, motors, cranes, tractors, etc., which are commonly used by all industries, or any machinery covered by General Limitation Order L-91.

(3) "Fabricator" means any person constructing, assembling, reconditioning or rebuilding processing machinery, as herein defined.

(c) Restrictions on production and purchases of machinery—(1) Prohibition upon unauthorized orders. Except as provided in subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph (c), no producer shall order or accept delivery of, and no fabricator shall produce, accept any order for, or deliver, any processing machinery (whether new, rebuilt, reconditioned or used) upon any order hereafter placed unless specifically authorized on Form PD-744 or authorized or given a preference rating on Form PD-200.

(2) Procedure for authorization of orders. Producers who do not obtain authorizations or preference ratings on Form PD-200 shall apply for authorizations to acquire or accept delivery of processing machinery by filing with the War Production Board an application on Form PD-744. The Director General for Operations may thereupon, if he shall deem it necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense, authorize the acquisition or delivery of such processing machinery, specifying the fabricator or other person who is to sell or deliver the same. Such authorization shall be in lieu of any authorization required by General Limitation Order L–83.

(3) Scheduling of production and sales by fabricators. Except as provided in paragraph (c) (4) below, every fabricator shall file with the Director General for Operations his production and sales schedules for processing machinery. Schedules covering industrial sewing, clothing, shoe and leather machinery proposed to be produced during 1943 shall be filed on or before January 11, 1943, on Form PD–745, and subsequent schedules shall be filed on such dates and for such periods as may be required by supplementary orders issued from time to time. Schedules relating to textile machinery shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of each month on Form PD–746.

Upon receipt of each form, the Director General for Operations shall either approve, or disapprove in whole or part, the schedules shown thereon, as he shall determine to be necessary in the public interest or to promote the national defense, and shall return a copy of the form to the fabricator with his determination noted thereon.

(4) Exempted transactions. (i) This order shall not be construed to require the filing of schedules by fabricators or to prohibit the placing or acceptance of orders or delivery or acquisition of used processing machinery to fill all or any part of an order or group of orders amounting in the aggregate for each type of machine to less than the following dollar amounts:

(a) Used textile machinery—$500

(b) Used leather working machinery when sold (but not when leased)

(1) Shoe manufacturing machinery—$200, except that all power-driven eyeletting machines must receive approval

(2) Tanning machinery—$200

(3) Shoe repairing machinery—$50

(4) All other leather working machinery—$200

(c) Used sewing machinery when sold (but not when leased)—$50

(d) Used clothing making machinery when sold (but not when leased)—$50

Provided, That no one textile, fiber or clothing products producer shall in any one calendar month place orders for, or acquire or receive delivery of, an aggregate (from all sources of supply combined) of more than the highest value specified above for the type of machinery purchased by such producer.

(ii) This order shall not be construed to prohibit any dealer from purchasing used parts or used processing machinery from a fabricator or another dealer for purposes of resale, or to prohibit any fabricator from selling or delivering such parts or machinery to such dealer: Provided, That this provision shall not exempt the subsequent disposition of such machines and parts by the dealers from the provisions of this order.

(d) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(e) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: "War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Division, Washington, D. C., Reference L–215."

(f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(g) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as may be required by said Board from time to time.

(h) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, purchases, production and sales.

PART 3150—AIRPORT LIGHTING EQUIPMENT

[General Limitation Order L–235]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of aluminum, copper, iron, steel and other materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3150.1 General Limitation Order L–235—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Airport lighting equipment" means any equipment or device (whether portable or not) specifically designed or constructed for use as a lighting unit or in conjunction with a lighting unit for the purpose of indicating or illuminating the facilities or obstructions on an airport or seadrome. Airport lighting equipment shall include but is not limited to equipment and devices used as or in conjunction with the following lighting units:

(i) Airport beacon.

(ii) Approach light.

(iii) Boundary light.

(iv) Obstruction light.

(v) Contact light or runway marker light.

(vi) Range or threshold light.

(vii) Illuminated wind direction indicator.

(viii) Illuminated landing direction indicator or illuminated course indicator.

(ix) Landing area floodlight.

(x) Pistol or directed airport traffic control light.

(xi) Rotating beacon.

(xii) Code beacon.

Airport lighting equipment shall not include aircraft lighting equipment, airway lighting equipment (other than a rotating or code beacon), pyrotechnic devices, or obstruction lights for marking hazards to aerial navigation other than those located on or controlled from an airport or seadrome.

(2) "Approved airport lighting equipment" means:

(i) Any airport lighting equipment for land use conforming to specifications issued by The Aeronautical Board of the United States, approved by joint action of the War and Navy Departments and the Civil Aeronautics Administration, and which equipment has been certified by The Aeronautical Board of the United States to be manufactured in conformity to such specifications, or

(ii) Any airport lighting equipment for seadrome use conforming to specifications issued by the Bureau of Aeronautics of the United States Navy Department.

(3) "Lighting unit" means any equipment or device or part of such equipment or device employing an artificial light source for the purpose of indication or illumination or both.

(4) "Airport beacon" means a lighting unit located on or near an airport or seadrome for the purpose of indicating the location of such airport or seadrome, the light source of such lighting unit being controlled from such airport or seadrome.

(5) "Approach light" means one of a group of lighting units located outside of a landing area on an airport or seadrome to indicate the projection of a runway or landing strip.

(6) "Boundary light" means one of a series of lighting units used to indicate the limits of a landing area on an airport or seadrome.

(7) "Obstruction light" means a lighting unit used to indicate the presence of a fixed object dangerous to aircraft while in motion.

(8) "Contact light or runway marker light" means one of a series of lighting units set along the sides of a runway for the purpose of indicating the location of the runway and assisting aircraft in landing and taking off.

(9) "Range or threshold light" means a lighting unit marking both ends of the runway or landing strip on an airport or seadrome.

(10) "Illuminated wind direction indicator" means a device including a lighting unit designed and constructed to indicate the direction or velocity of the surface wind.

(11) "Illuminated landing direction indicator or illuminated course indicator" means any combination of lighting units used to indicate the direction to be used in landing.

(12) "Landing area floodlight" means a lighting unit designed and constructed for location on an airport or seadrome for the purpose of illuminating any part of the area of an airport or seadrome used for the landing or taking off of aircraft.

(13) "Pistol or directed airport traffic control light" means a lighting unit designed to be operated manually for the purpose of directing aerial traffic at an airport or seadrome.

(14) "'Rotating beacon" means a lighting unit having variations in light intensity, when viewed from a fixed point, which are produced by rotating a projector about a vertical axis.

(15) "Code beacon" means a lighting unit producing an intermittent light having characteristic groups of flashes by which it can be identified.

(16) "Airport" means a land area prepared to permit aircraft to land thereon and take off therefrom.

(17) "Seadrome" means a water area prepared to permit aircraft to land thereon and take off therefrom.

(18) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, municipal corporation or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(19) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to the continued safe operation of any airport lighting equipment.

(20) "Repair" means the restoration of any airport lighting equipment to a sound working condition after wear and tear, damage, destruction, or failure of any part has made it unfit or unsafe for service.

(b) General restrictions—(1) Manufacture. On and after the 5th day of January 1943, notwithstanding any contract, agreement or preference rating to the contrary, no person shall manufacture or assemble airport lighting equipment other than approved airport lighting equipment except:

(i) As authorized by the Army Air Forces Matériel Center of the War Department of the United States, or

(ii) As authorized by the Bureau of Aeronautics of the United States Navy Department, or

(iii) To meet the specifications of the United States Navy Department for use on an aircraft carrier, or

(iv) Upon written request as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, or

(v) For the purpose of experimentation, test or examination to determine the efficiency and the most effective use of materials for such airport-lighting equipment.

(2) Sale and delivery. On and after the 5th day of January 1943, notwithstanding any contract, agreement or preference rating to the contrary, no person shall sell or deliver any airport lighting equipment except that a person may:

(i) Sell and deliver approved or other airport lighting equipment in fulfillment of orders placed by the Army Air Forces Matériel Center of the War Department of the United States, or by the Bureau of Aeronautics of the United States Navy Department, or

(ii) Sell and deliver airport lighting equipment in fulfillment of contracts or orders of the United States Navy Department for use on aircraft carriers, or

(iii) Sell and deliver airport lighting equipment for the purposes of maintenance or repair, or

(iv) Sell and deliver airport lighting equipment as otherwise specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, or

(v) Deliver airport lighting equipment for the purpose of experimentation, test or examination to determine the efficiency and the most effective use of materials for such airport lighting equipment.

(c) Reports. Each person to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports as the Board shall from time to time require.

(d) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(e) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(f) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(h) Communications. Reports to be filed and all other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to War Production Board, Building Materials Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–235.

(i) Appeal. Any appeal under the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of appeal.

(P. D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–179]

AMERICAN DEVELOPING CORP. AND BETHLEHEM BLDG. CORP.

The American Developing Corporation and the Bethlehem Building Corporation are two Maryland Corporations located at 2900 West Belvedere Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland. Both corporations are completely controlled and managed by John Kennedy, President, and Adolph C. Dreyer, Secretary-Treasurer, and are engaged in the business of building houses.

The American Developing Corporation began construction (as defined in Conservation Order L–41) after April 9, 1942.

without the authorization of the Director of Industry Operations, of three dwelling houses at 3302–3304–3306 West Garrison Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland. The estimated cost of construction of each of these three houses was far in excess of $500.00. The American Developing Corporation was familiar with the provisions of Conservation Order L–41, and the beginning of construction, therefore, constituted a wilful violation of Conservation Order L–41.

The American Developing Corporation and the Bethlehem Building Corporation both wilfully violated Preference Rating Order P–55 issued to each authorizing them to extend A–2 preference ratings to obtain materials entering into the construction of certain private defense housing projects. The American Developing Corporation wilfully misapplied its A–2 preference rating by purchasing a quantity of steel sash which was not included on its approved materials list, and by purchasing a large quantity of door lock sets in excess of those specifically authorized on its approved materials list. The Bethlehem Building Corporation wilfully misapplied its A–2 preference rating by purchasing a large quantity of plumbing and heating equipment in excess of the specific quantities and kinds authorized by its approved materials list. The Bethlehem Building Corporation, furthermore, applied its A–2 preference rating to purchase large quantities of materials subsequent to the expiration date of the P–55 order. This application of the preference rating was a violation of § 944.4a of Priorities Regulation No. 1 as amended.

These violations of Conservation Order L–41, Preference Rating Order P–55 and § 944.4a of Priorities Regulation No. 1 as amended have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.179 Suspension Order S–179. (a) Neither the American Developing Corporation nor any other person shall order, purchase, accept delivery of, withdraw from inventory, secure in any manner, or use any material or construction plant in order to continue or to complete construction of any of the houses at 3302–3304–3306 Garrison Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland. No application for authorization to continue or complete construction of these houses shall be granted to the American Developing Corporation or any other person.

(b) For a period of five months from the effective date of this order no application or authorization to begin construction of any house, building, structure or project filed, directly or indirectly, by the American Developing Corporation, the Bethlehem Building Corporation, John Kennedy or Adolph C. Dreyer, their successors and assigns, shall be granted by the War Production Board.

(c) For a period of five months from the effective date of this order, deliveries of material, directly or indirectly, to The American Developing Corporation, The Bethlehem Building Corporation, John Kennedy or Adolph C. Dreyer, their successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(d) No allocation shall be made, directly or indirectly, to the American Developing Corporation, the Bethlehem Building Corporation, John Kennedy or Adolph C. Dreyer, their successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(e) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve The American Developing Corporation, The Bethlehem Building Corporation, John Kennedy or Adolph C. Dreyer, their successors and assigns from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(f) This order shall take effect on December 28, 1942.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–183]

PALMER MFG. CORP.

Palmer Manufacturing Corporation, Phoenix, Arizona, is a corporation engaged in the manufacture and sale of evaporative type coolers and furnaces.

From June 18, 1942, to August 13, 1942, the Company produced a substantial number of evaporative coolers having a rated capacity of less than two horsepower to fill orders other than for the Army, Navy, or United States Maritime Commission, and continued to produce such coolers subsequent to August 13, although such production was then prohibited by General Limitation Order L–38. The manufacture of such coolers constituted wilful violations of General Limitation Order L–38, as amended on June 18, 1942.

From June 5, 1942, to June 17, 1942, the Company sold and delivered ten units of unused air conditioning equipment, as defined in General Limitation Order L–38, having a total value of approximately $610.38, on orders other than preferred orders, as defined in said Order L–38, to persons other than producers, dealers or other authorized channels of distribution for resale. The sale and delivery of such equipment constituted wilful violations of General Limitation Order L–38.

From June 25, 1942, to September 18, 1942, the Company sold and delivered a substantial number of unused evaporative coolers having a rated capacity of less than two horsepower which were not in its possession on June 18, 1942, on orders other than preferred orders, as defined in General Limitation Order L–38. The sale and delivery of such coolers constituted wilful violations of General Limitation Order L–38, as amended on June 18, 1942.

The Company failed to keep accurate and complete records of its inventories, production and sales of evaporative coolers as required by General Limitation Order L–38.

These violations of General Limitation Order L–38 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce material to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.183 Suspension Order S–183. (a) Deliveries of material to Palmer Manufacturing Corporation, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Palmer Manufacturing Corporation, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Palmer Manufacturing Corporation from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or of the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on December 31, 1942, and shall expire on June 30, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–189]

DUBIN FIXTURE MFG. CO.

Dubin Fixture Manufacturing Company, Los Angeles, California, is a partnership composed of Samuel Dubin, Albert Dubin and David Dubin, engaged in the manufacture of soda fountains, restaurant equipment and barroom equipment. Subsequent to August 13, 1942 the company produced twelve bottled beverage coolers and twenty ice cream cabinets, despite the fact that it knew that Amendment No. 1 to General Limitation Order No. L–38 prohibited such production.

This manufacture of bottled beverage coolers and ice cream cabinets constituted a wilful violation of General Limitation Order No. L–38, which has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses prohibited by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.189 Suspension Order S–189. (a) Deliveries of material to Samuel Dubin, Albert Dubin and David Dubin, their successors and assigns and to the partnership known as Dubin Fixture Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries to Samuel Dubin, Albert Dubin and David Dubin, their successors and assigns, or to the partnership known as Dubin Fixture Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, and any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Samuel Dubin, Albert Dubin and David Dubin, their successors and assigns, or to the partnership known as Dubin Fixture Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is covered by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Samuel Dubin, Albert Dubin and David Dubin, or the partnership known as Dubin Fixture Manufacturing Company from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order is to take effect on December 31, 1942, and is to expire on March 31, 1943, at which time the restrictions of this order are to be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1056—NATURAL GAS

[General Directive 1 Under Limitation Order L–31]

Pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) (1) of Limitation Order L–31, it is ordered and directed:

§ 1056.3 General Directive 1 under Limitation Order L–31. (a) Whenever it is necessary, pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) of Limitation Order L–31, for a utility to reduce deliveries of gas to consumers having standby facilities, the utility shall reduce deliveries to consumers having such standby facilities, to the extent of such standby facilities, in the following order:

(1) All consumers who have standby facilities capable of utilizing coal, but only within the limits of the utility's contractual rights;

(2) All consumers who have standby facilities capable of utilizing coal, without regard to the contractual rights of the utility or any consumer;

(3) All oil refineries having standby facilities of any type, but only within the limits of the utility's contractual rights;

(4) All oil refineries having standby facilities of any type, without regard to the contractual rights of the utility or any consumer; and

(5) All other consumers having standby facilities of any type, without regard to the contractual rights of the utility or any consumer.

(b) Except as set forth in the proviso of the first paragraph of said paragraph (c) (1), deliveries to any consumer in the respective classes (a) (2) to (a) (5) above, inclusive, shall not be reduced until deliveries to all consumers in prior classes have been suspended. Reductions within any class shall be proportionate insofar as practicable.

(c) This directive does not affect the order in which deliveries are to be reduced to consumers without standby facilities, as provided in paragraph (c) (1).

(d) This directive supersedes any specific directives under paragraph (c) (1) inconsistent herewith which have heretofore been issued by the Director General for Operations, but is subject to specific directives which may later be issued in particular cases by the Director General for Operations.

(e) This directive shall be effective immediately upon issuance and shall remain effective until modified or revoked.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

  Crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber for war orders I
  Crude rubber for civilian orders II-A
  Latex for civilian orders II-B
  Reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber for civilian orders II-C

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of rubber and balata for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 940.3 General Limitation Order M-15-b—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Crude rubber" means all forms and types of crude rubber (including crepe rubber for soles or any other purpose) but does not mean or include balata, gutta-percha, gutta siak, gutta jelutong, pontianac, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or latex.

(2) "Latex" means the dry latex solids contained in liquid latex in crude form, and in compounded liquid latex (but not the dry latex solids in shoe adhesives and container sealing compounds).

(3) "Scrap rubber product" means any finished rubber product or part thereof, made in whole or in part from crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, scrap rubber or reclaimed rubber, which through wear, deterioration or obsolescence has served its primary purpose in its present state, but does not mean or include a repairable tire, treadable tire or any other manufactured product which is still usable for the primary purpose for which it was designed.

(4) "In-process scrap" means any material which is produced in the course of manufacture (including the repair, retreading or recapping of tires), and any defective or factory rejected materials or products which are not usable for the primary purpose for which they were designed and which contain any crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, scrap rubber or reclaimed rubber, including all types and grades of residues, such as cuttings, trimmings, tuber heads, flash, cut edgings, sweepings, dust, buffings, sawings, grindings, drippings and any other form of rubber whether vulcanized or unvulcanized, which results from or is incident to the processing of crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, scrap rubber or reclaimed rubber in the manufacture or repair of any product, but does not mean or include uncured friction scrap, reclaimed rubber or any finished rubber products.

(5) "Uncured friction scrap" means any scrap rubber which contains fabric and which is produced in the manufacture of tires, hose or belting before such products are finally vulcanized.

(6) "Scrap rubber" means and includes any scrap rubber product, in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap.

(7) "Reclaimed rubber" means any vulcanizable material derived from the processing or treatment of scrap rubber.

(8) "Repairable tire" means a pneumatic tire or tire casing which has sufficient tread design or under tread to warrant repair for use for the purpose for which it was primarily designed. For the purposes of this definition:

(i) "Repair" means a vulcanized sectional repair, or vulcanized reinforcement or vulcanized spot repair which can be accomplished in accordance with recognized commercial practice and which can be reasonably expected to render satisfactory service under limited operating conditions (speed under 40 MPH and no overload) so that the tire when repaired will be in a safe condition for service.

(ii) The tread and sidewall must not be severely weather checked or cracked to the extent that the tire has more than two radial cracks which extend through the cord body.

(iii) The cord body:

(a) Must not have separation between plies.

(b) Must not have been damaged to the extent that cords are pulled loose beyond the first inside ply.

(c) Must not have any fabric injuries that exceed one-half the cross-sectional diameter of the tire. Example—Injuries in 600/16 (6 inch) tires must not be more than three inches long on the inside of the tire: in 10.00/20 tires not more than five inches.

(d) Must not have or show evidence of having had more than three injuries requiring sectional repairs.

(e) Must not have injuries below any point where the top of the rim flange makes contact with the tire.

(f) Must not have or exhibit circumferential or flex breaks on the inside ply.

(g) Bead area must be sound with no broken wires.

(9) "Treadable tire" means a pneumatic tire or tire casing which warrants repair and retreading or recapping for the purpose for which it was primarily designed in accordance with recognized commercial practice, and which can reasonably be expected to render satisfactory service under limited operating conditions (speed under 40 MPH and no overload). For the purpose of this definition:

(i) The cord body:

(a) Must not be worn through more than one body ply for a total length of more than four inches on four ply tires.

(b) Must not be worn through more than two plies for a total length of more than four inches on tires of six plies or more.

(c) Must not have or show evidence of having had more than two injuries each not exceeding one-third the cross-sectional diameter of the tire. Example—Breaks in 600/16 (6 inch) tire must not be more than two inches long on the inside of the tire: 900/20 (9 inch) tires not more than three inches long.

(d) Must not have more than three radial cracks of more than one inch in length extending to the cord body.

(ii) The tire must in all other respects than specified in this paragraph (a) (9) conform to the requirements of a repairable tire.

(10) "Scrap consumer" means any person who consumes scrap rubber in the manufacture of any finished or partly finished product or material, and includes any person producing reclaimed rubber from scrap rubber, but does not include any person who separates scrap rubber or tears, splits or pulls scrap rubber apart (such as splitting tires) for the purpose of selling the component parts thereof to Rubber Reserve Company or to a scrap dealer.

(11) "Scrap dealer" means any person (other than a scrap consumer) buying, selling or collecting scrap rubber.

(12) "Synthetic rubber" means any of the varieties of compositions generally known as synthetic rubber, including, but not limited to, butadiene types, chloroprene, organic polysulfids and butyl.

(13) "Balata" means any of the gums of recognized commercial grades having a gutta hydrocarbon base and a high resin content, procured from wild forest trees of the Mimusops genus and closely related genera generally found in South and Central America from the Amazon Valley north through Panama, and includes such gums whether in crude or refined (deresinated or partly deresinated) form; but does not mean or include scrap balata or reclaimed balata.

(14) "Inventory" means crude rubber, latex, scrap rubber, reclaimed rubber or balata, or products thereof, in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished parts or sub-assemblies.

(15) "Consume" means to use, process, stamp, cut, or in any manner make any substantial change in the form, shape or chemical composition of any crude rubber, latex, scrap rubber, reclaimed rubber or balata.

(16) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(17) "War order" means:

(i) Any contract or purchase order for material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, or the Office of Scientific Research and Development, but not to or for the account of any post exchange, ship's store, commissary, officer's mess, officers', non-commissioned officers' or enlisted men's club, or any similar agency or organization.

(ii) Any contract or purchase order placed by any agency of the United States for material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of, any foreign country under the provisions of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(iii) Any contract or purchase order for material or equipment required by the person placing the same to fill his contracts or purchase orders on hand, provided such material or equipment is to be physically incorporated in material or equipment to be delivered under contracts or purchase orders included under (i) and (ii) of this paragraph (a) (17).

(b) Restrictions on consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata—(1) Crude rubber. Crude rubber may be consumed only:

(i) To fill war orders; but only in the manufacture of those products set forth in Schedule I attached to this order.

(ii) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-A attached to this order; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations:

(2) Latex. Latex may be consumed only:

(i) To fill war orders; but only in the manufacture of those products set forth in Schedule I attached to this order.

(ii) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-B attached to this order; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations.

(3) Reclaimed rubber. Reclaimed rubber may be consumed only:

(i) To fill war orders; but only in the manufacture of those products set forth in Schedule I attached to this order.

(ii) To manufacture those products set forth in Schedules II-A or II-B attached to this order and not set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order; but only where special authorization for the consumption of crude rubber, latex or reclaimed rubber to manufacture such products has been issued by the Director General for Operations.

(iii) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order which are also set forth in Schedule II-A or Schedule II-B attached to this order, whether or not mixed or compounded with crude rubber, latex or scrap rubber; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations for the consumption of the respective amounts of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber to be consumed.

(iv) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order and not set forth in Schedules II-A or II-B attached to this order; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations.

(4) Scrap rubber. Scrap rubber may be consumed only:

(i) To fill war orders; but only in the manufacture of those products set forth in Schedule I attached to this order.

(ii) To manufacture those products set forth in Schedule II-A or II-B attached to this order and not set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order; but only where special authorization for the consumption of crude rubber, latex or scrap rubber to manufacture such products has been issued by the Director General for Operations.

(iii) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order which are also set forth in Schedule II-A or Schedule II-B attached to this order, whether or not mixed or compounded with crude rubber, latex or reclaimed rubber; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations for the consumption of the respective amounts of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber to be consumed.

(iv) To manufacture those groups of products set forth in Schedule II-C attached to this order and not set forth in Schedule II-A or II-B attached to this order; but only upon receipt of authorization from the Director General for Operations.

(v) To manufacture reclaimed rubber.

(vi) As to in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap generated after March 31, 1942, by the person who generated such in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap; but only in the manufacture of any products of the group (as set forth in said Schedules II-A, II-B and II-C) in which is listed the product in connection with which such in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap was generated. In such case the in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap consumed shall not be charged against his quota or allotment of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber for making products of that group. Any person may consume in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap whether generated by him or not, in the manufacture of any products not so listed in the same group when, but only when, he has received from the Director General for Operations an authorization to consume reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture of such other group of products, and in such event the in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap consumed shall be within the limits of such authorization and shall be charged against his quota or allotment of reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber for manufacturing such other group of products.

(5) Balata. Balata shall be consumed only:

(i) To manufacture self-sealing fuel cells to fill war orders.

(ii) For such other purposes as may be permitted by special authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(c) General provisions—(1) Distribution of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata among plants. Each company (which term when used in this subparagraph shall include any corporation together with all other corporations controlling, and all other corporations controlled by, such corporation) which is a processor of crude rubber, latex, scrap rubber, reclaimed rubber or balata and which operates plants in more than one community (all plants operated by the same company in the same community being herein collectively referred to as a "unit"), shall immediately upon distributing crude rubber, latex, scrap rubber, reclaimed rubber or balata during any calendar month among its units in proportions differing from the proportional distribution throughout such units during July, 1941, file with the Rubber and Rubber Products Branch of the War Production Board, a full report thereof showing clearly the reasons for such change in proportional distribution throughout its units. In any case in which it appears that such change in ratio was not justified or proper, the Director General for Operations may take such action as he deems appropriate.

(2) Manufacture according to regulations. Any of the products or materials whose manufacture is permitted by this order or by special authorization of the Director General for Operations shall be manufactured only in conformity with regulations now or hereafter set forth in lists attached to § 940.5 Supplementary Order M–15–b–1 or such other regulations as may be issued by the Director General for Operations; provided that until regulations for particular products or groups of products are issued by the Director General for Operations, the crude rubber, latex or balata content by weight of any such products manufactured by any person shall not exceed the respective crude rubber, latex or balata content by weight of similar products manufactured by such person on the most recent date prior to September 1, 1942, on which he manufactured such products.

(3) Limitation on consumption to fill war orders. No person shall consume more crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata to fill any war order than is required for delivery within sixty days from the date such crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata is consumed under the delivery dates specified in the purchase order placed with him.

(4) Limitation of inventories. No person other than Rubber Reserve Company shall purchase, accept delivery of or otherwise acquire any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or balata or products thereof, or any products of scrap rubber, in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished products or parts or subassemblies in quantities which shall result in such person having an inventory of such material or products in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory, taking into consideration the limitations placed by this order on the production of products made of crude rubber, latex, balata, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber. An inventory of crude rubber, latex or balata which can reasonably be expected to last more than sixty days, or of reclaimed rubber which can reasonably be expected to last more than forty-five days, shall be deemed to be in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory. The limitation on inventories imposed by this paragraph (c) (4) and by § 944.14 (Priorities Regulation No. 1) as amended, shall not apply to inventories of reclaimed rubber held or acquired by persons engaged in the business of reclaiming rubber but who are not consumers of reclaimed rubber, it being contemplated that persons engaged in the business of reclaiming rubber (but not consumers of reclaimed rubber) may accumulate such inventories of reclaimed rubber as they may deem advisable.

(5) Restriction on the acquisition of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata. No person other than Rubber Reserve Company shall purchase, accept delivery of or otherwise acquire any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata for any purpose except for the purpose of consuming the same in the manufacture of a product or products for which such material may be consumed under the provisions of this order or under special authorization of the Director General for Operations, provided that nothing in this order shall prevent any scrap dealer from acquiring scrap rubber in the usual course of his business for the purpose of selling the same to another scrap dealer or to Rubber Reserve Company.

(6) Restriction on the sale of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and balata. No person shall sell, trade or transfer the ownership of any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or balata, and no person shall accept any such sale, trade or transfer of ownership, except (i) as may be expressly permitted by regulations prescribed by Rubber Reserve Company, or (ii) in those cases in which special authorizations may be issued by the Director General for Operations; provided that nothing in this paragraph (c) (6) shall be deemed to prohibit the sale of unvulcanized rubber products or products made from balata which were in finished or marketable form on December 11, 1941, or which have become finished and marketable at any time after that date pursuant to processing not prohibited by any orders or other instructions heretofore or hereafter issued by the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations.

(7) General restrictions on the purchase and sale of scrap rubber. Except (i) as may be expressly permitted by regulations prescribed by Rubber Reserve Company, or (ii) in those cases in which special authorizations may be issued by the Director General for Operations:

(a) No person other than Rubber Reserve Company shall sell, trade or transfer the ownership or possession of any scrap rubber to any scrap consumer.

(b) No scrap consumer shall purchase, receive or accept delivery of any scrap rubber, or the right to receive any scrap rubber, from any person other than Rubber Reserve Company.

(c) No scrap consumer shall sell, trade or transfer the ownership or possession of any scrap rubber to any person, including any scrap dealer.

Provided, That the prohibitions of this paragraph (c) (7) shall not apply to any transfer or delivery of scrap rubber from one location to another location controlled by the same person where no change of ownership takes place, or to any purchase or sale by any corporation from or to another corporation which is its subsidiary or of which it is a subsidiary, of any in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap generated by the corporation making such sale or transfer, and any such sale shall be expressly permitted within the terms of paragraph (c) (2) (iii) of Priorities Regulation No. 13 (Part 944). For the purposes hereof a corporation shall be deemed to be a subsidiary of another corporation if all or substantially all of its voting stock is owned by such other corporation.

(8) Restriction on the destruction of tires and scrap rubber. No person shall destroy, damage, cut or tear apart any tire, tire casing or tire tube or any scrap rubber, whether by burning or any other means and whether for the purpose of making or repairing products or materials from or with all or any of its constituent parts; provided that this restriction shall not apply to the following:

(i) The consumption of any scrap rubber in the manufacture of any product for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be consumed under the provisions of this order or under special authorization of the Director General for Operations; but subject to such limitations as to quantities, specifications and other restrictions as may be imposed by this order or such special authorization.

(ii) The consumption of any scrap rubber by any person producing reclaimed rubber as a necessary incident to such reclaiming operations.

(iii) The destruction of any scrap rubber (without destroying the rubber therein) for the purpose of selling its component parts to a scrap dealer for resale by him either (a) to Rubber Reserve Company, or (b) under rules or regulations prescribed from time to time by Rubber Reserve Company.

(iv) The destruction of the following articles when through obsolescence, use or deterioration the articles have entirely served their usefulness in their present state:

(a) Used battery containers and separators and parts thereof.

(b) Rough bore (metal reinforced) oil suction and discharge hose and hose containing asbestos combined with rubber.

(c) Wire cord generally classed as lamp cord and similar wire cords (but not other insulated wire or rubber covered cable).

(d) That part of rubber bonded to metal which cannot be separated from the metal by mechanical means.

(g) Metal-inserted running boards.

(h) Gasoline pump hose.

(i) Friction tape and adhesive tape (except in-process scrap).

(j) Burnt rubber all of which has been exposed to open flame (but not scorched rubber compounds).

(k) Gasket compounds containing cork.

(v) Ordinary wear and tear incident to the normal use of any article for the primary purpose for which it was designed.

(9) Restriction on regrooving tires. No person shall regroove the tread or tread surface of any tire or tire casing, whether by cutting, scraping, grinding, burning, heating, remolding or any other means.

(10) Restriction on splitting camelback and capping stock. No person shall split, cut, tear or otherwise separate any camelback or capping stock in such manner that there will result camelback or capping stock of gauges other than 10/32, 12/32, 14/32, 16/32, 18/32, 20/32, 22/32 inches and larger.

(11) Reports covering war orders. No person shall consume any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber to fill any war order until he has forwarded to the Rubber and Rubber Products Division of the War Production Board a report on Form PD–330, or such other form for reporting war orders as may be prescribed by the Director General for Operations. Upon forwarding such report, such person may proceed to fill the war order covered by the report unless notified to the contrary by the Director General for Operations; provided the products covered by such order may be manufactured under the provisions of Schedule I attached to this revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b.

(12) Prohibited products for other than war orders. Except to fill war orders, no person shall consume any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture of any of the products for which the consumption of such material is prohibited by Schedule III attached to this order, even though the consumption of such material would otherwise be permitted under any of the broader provisions, classifications or groupings of this order or under any of the other schedules attached to this order.

(13) Prohibited products for war orders. Unless permitted by special authorization of the Director General for Operations, no person shall (i) consume any crude rubber or latex in the manufacture or assembly of any of the products or materials set forth in Groups A and B of Schedule IV attached to this order for delivery to fill any war order; or (ii) consume any reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture or assembly of any of the products or materials set forth in Group B of said Schedule IV for delivery to fill any war order.

(14) Index of permitted and prohibited products. Schedule V is attached to this order for the convenience of the industry. This schedule constitutes an index of the products for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed, and those for which these materials may not be consumed, and contains appropriate cross-references to the other schedules in which such products are mentioned.

(15) Restriction on the importation of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata and products thereof. No person other than Metals Reserve Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, Rubber Reserve Company or any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, or any agent acting for one of them, shall, except as authorized or otherwise directed in writing by the Director General for Operations, purchase for import, import, offer to purchase for import, receive, or offer to receive on consignment for import, or make any contract or other arrangement for the importing of, any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata, whether in crude, partly processed or processed form, or any finished or partly finished product or material made from any of the foregoing. For the purpose hereof "import" means to transport into the continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States, and shall include a release from the bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs; and products or materials shall be deemed to be made from crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata if at least ten per cent of the weight of such products or materials was made from crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata or from any one or more of them. The restriction of this paragraph (c) (15) shall not apply to:

(i) The importation by any person during any calendar month of products or materials (except tires, tire casings and tire tubes) which contain an aggregate of not more than twenty-five pounds of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber and balata provided such products or materials are not imported for the purpose of manufacturing, processing sale or resale;

(ii) The importation by any person who is entering or reentering the United States of bicycle tires mounted on any used bicycle included in the personal effects of such person.

(iii) The importation of any scrap rubber by the Army or Navy of the United States or the United States Maritime Commission;

(iv) The importation of any finished products made of rubber or balata by diplomatic representatives (but not consuls or other commercial representatives) of any foreign government for their personal use or the use of members of their staffs;

(v) The importation from the Dominion of Canada by any person of any rubber or balata, or any products thereof manufactured in the Continental United States, Canada or the British Isles.

(16) Restriction on consumption of rubber products and materials. No person shall use or consume any finished or partly finished product or material containing in the aggregate more than ten per cent by weight of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber, to manufacture for sale to others any other products in such a manner as to divert the products or materials so consumed from the purpose for which they were originally intended, except to manufacture products for which he has received an authorization from the Director General for Operations to consume crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber. In any case in which any such product or material is used pursuant to any such authorization, it shall be chargeable to such person's quota of reclaimed rubber and/or scrap rubber for the manufacture of such permitted products.

(17) Finished item deliveries. No person shall sell, transfer or deliver, or purchase or accept or accept transfer or delivery of, any item which he knows or has reason to know was fabricated, assembled or delivered in violation of any applicable provisions of this order as amended from time to time.

(18) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(19) Applications for authorizations to consume crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber. Each person who wishes to consume any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber at any time subsequent to October 1, 1942 to manufacture any of the products or groups of products listed in Schedules II–A, II–B and II–C attached to this order, shall file with the Rubber and Rubber Products Division of the War Production Board an application on

Form PD-407. Such application shall be filed not later than the tenth day of the month preceding the calendar month during which such person wishes to consume crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber.

(20) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by transmitting to the Rubber and Rubber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., an appeal on Form PD-500-b. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(21) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply to the use of material in all articles hereafter manufactured irrespective of whether such articles are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to the effective date hereof, or pursuant to a contract supported by a preference rating. Insofar as any other order of the Director of Priorities, the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations heretofore or hereafter issued may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the use of crude rubber, latex, scrap rubber, reclaimed rubber or balata in the production of any article, the limitations of such other order shall be observed.

(22) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(23) Communications. All reports required to be filed under this order, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Rubber and Rubber Products Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: M-15-b.

(24) General reports. Any person who, during any calendar month, consumes, ships or stocks any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata, or who, on the last day of any calendar month, has in his possession any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or balata, shall, not later than the fifteenth day of the succeeding month, file with the Rubber and Rubber Products Division of the War Production Board a report on the appropriate form PD-49, PD-649 or such other form or forms as may be prescribed from time to time.

(25) Outstanding special instructions. No unrevoked special instruction (i. e., instruction issued by individual letter or telegram and not by general order) issued prior to September 1, 1942 by the Director of Priorities, Director of Industry Operations or Director General for Operations, which (i) authorizes the consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber within a specified period or prior to a specified date, or (ii) forbids or restricts the consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber, is revoked or rescinded by this revised Supplementary Order No. M-15-b. All such unrevoked instructions shall remain in effect unless hereafter specifically rescinded or revoked by the Director General for Operations.

Issued this 28th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director of Operations.

SCHEDULE I

Products for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed to fill war orders. (See paragraphs (b)(1)(i), (b)(2)(i), (b)(3)(i) and (b)(4)(i) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M-15-b)

Pending the issuance of a list of products for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be required to fill war orders, to be set forth in a revised Schedule I, crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed to manufacture any product to fill any war order, unless the consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber in the manufacture of such product is prohibited by paragraph (c)(13) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M-15-b and Schedule IV attached thereto or by special direction of the Director General for Operations.

SCHEDULE II-A

NOTE: Changes have been made in this Schedule.

Products for which crude rubber may be consumed upon authorizations issued from time to time by the Director General for Operations. (See paragraph (b)(1)(ii) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M-15-b.)

Any authorization to consume crude rubber to manufacture any group of products set forth in this Schedule II-A also authorizes the manufacture from the quota or allotment of crude rubber for that group of cements necessary to the manufacture (but not the use or application) of such products. No crude rubber shall be consumed to manufacture cements for the use or application of products of any group set forth in this Schedule II-A unless permitted by special authorization of the Director General for Operations.

Group 1

Compounds for insulating wire and cable

Group 2

Compounds for rubber insulating tape

Group 3

Belt splicing and repair material
Last puller belts
Polishing belts
Screen diaphragms designed for paper making equipment

Group 4

Conveyor and elevator belting and pulley lagging therefor

Group 5

Flat transmission belts
Hog beater belts

Group 6

Industrial brake lining and clutch facings

Group 7

V-belts

Group 8

Acid hose
Air drill hose
Cement handling hose, including cement grouting, concrete placing and cement and dry material hose
Chemical hose
Divers' hose
Dredging sleeves
Expansion joint hose
Flexible couplings
Flanged flexible hose
Grease gun hose
Gasoline and oil tank wagon hose (not including curb pump hose)
Hydraulic control hose
Industrial vacuum hose, including dust collector, blower or exhaust hose
Jetting and hydraulic hose, including arbor pipe forming and phosphate flexible hose
Milk conveying hose
Oil suction and discharge hose
Paint spray hose
Pinch valve hose
Pneumatic hose
Railroad hose (all types)
Rotary driller's hose
Sand blast hose
Sanitary hose
Spray hose (designed for working pressures of 300# per square inch and over)
Steam hose
Suction hose
Welding hose

Group 9

Hard rubber pipe and fittings (industrial only)
Rubber buckets, pails, dippers, funnels, measures, bottles, beakers, frames, baskets, racks, trays (designed for handling corrosive materials and explosives)
Rubber insulated fume-ducts, fans, racks, frames, trays, screens, pipe, buckets, pails, dippers, agitators, funnels and measures (designed for handling corrosive materials and explosives)
Rubber pumps
Rubber lining designed for blowers, exhausters and pumps
Rubber valves and valve parts (except tire tube valves)

Group 10

Rubber lined tanks, drums, pipes and fittings (hard and soft)

Group 11

Rubber covered rolls and roll coverings (except domestic washing machine wringer, printers', fingerprint and business machine rolls)

Group 12

Press die pads

Group 13

Loom pickers

Group 14

Storage battery parts, (including only separators, retainers, binding strips, element support rods, tie rods, and hand-built jars and hand-built containers, but not including hand-built jars and containers designed for radio, farm lighting, mine safety and automotive S. L. I.)

Group 15

Hard rubber sheets, rods and tubing (designed for dielectric purposes)
Insulated tools
Magneto parts
Molded cable connectors and terminal blocks (designed for dielectric purposes)

Group 16

Mine safety battery parts
Mine safety lamp parts, excepting insulated wire
Respirators, hose masks, gas masks, goggles, inhalators, excepting headharness (mining and industrial types)

Group 17

Sheet, strip and mechanical packings

Group 18

Oil well specialties (including only packers, testing, lining bumper and swab rubbers; blow-out preventors; drill pipe protectors; stabilizers; slush pump pistons and liners; mud and oil pump pistons, liners, valves and parts; valve cups; strippers; stuffing box rings)

Group 19

Industrial abrasive implements

Group 20

Airplane de-icer parts
Card clothing
Gas main bags
Gaskets and washers for hose
Lineman's protective devices (including only line hose, insulator hoods, blankets, cable end test caps and separators, cable bandages, lineman's sleeves and insulating stools)
Mine ventilating tubing
Molded seals for dam and lock gates

Group 21

Component parts (not elsewhere listed but not including sponge) of machinery for the processing and fabricating of raw and semi-finished materials or for the transmission of mechanical power (except as specifically prohibited in Schedule III attached to Revised Supplementary Order No. M-15-b)

Group 22

Pipe coupling rings

Group 23

Fire and mill hose

Group 24

Milk and milking machine equipment consisting of:
  Couplings for pasteurizers and milk bottle and can washers
Gaskets for milk separators and clarifiers
Milk bottle filler rubbers
Milking machine inflations and tubing

Group 25

Box die gum, rubber die gum and rubber type gum, designed for industrial marking devices only

Group 26

Engravers' rubber (excluding rubber stamps, box dies, band daters and toy stamps)

Group 27

Printing plates (excluding rubber stamps, box dies, band daters and toy stamps)

Group 28

Cutting rubbers
Finger print rolls and finger print rubber
Offset and newspaper blankets
Printers' rollers
Rubber solution for wet plate negatives
Suction cups for printers' equipment

Group 29

Automotive parts consisting of the following only:
  Air brake and vacuum brake parts, excepting boots and linings
  Air brake and vacuum brake hose
  Hydraulic brake cylinder parts, excepting boots and linings
  Hydraulic brake hose
  Hydraulic clutch and throttle controls
  Pitman arm bushings for independent suspensions
  Remote control gearshift bushings
  Sealed beam gaskets
  Shock absorber bushings
  Steering post alignment bushings
  Suspension and torque arm bushings
  Steering box-to-frame pads for independent suspensions
  Torsional vibration dampers
  Windshield wiper blades and pivot to housing gaskets
  Engine, transmission and propeller center bearing mountings

Group 30

Pneumatic, solid and cushion tires, (including tubes, flaps, airbags and valves) of the following types only:
  Passenger
  Truck and bus
  Special purpose of the following types only: low platform trailer, rock service, earth-mover, road builder and road grader
  Industrial Motorcycle Airplane

Group 31

Camelback, capping stock, filler strip, stripping stock, cushion stock, lug stock, and base stock for retreading and recapping tires

Group 32

Full circle and sectional airbags designed for recapping, retreading and repairing tires

Group 33

Tire and tube repair materials (including only cushion stock, tread repair stock, cord friction, square woven fabric friction, repair patches, and tube repair gum)

Group 34

Rubber footwear designed for severe industrial use, including rubber boots, mine pacs, and work shoes all with plain or steel toes

Group 35

Rubber footwear (other than that listed in Group 34), including rubber boots, arctics, gaiters, and light and heavy rubbers

Group 36

Diaphragms designed for regulating the flow of fluids
Tank balls designed for flush valves
Bibb washers
Fuller balls
Ball cock washers

Group 37

Autopsy and mortuary gloves
Industrial all rubber gloves and industrial net-lined gloves and industrial finger cots

Group 38

Electricians' gloves

Group 39

Brain surgery caps
Colostomy outfits
Denture suctions and model formers
Dilators
Finger cots (medical, surgical, dental, veterinary, mortuary and laboratory types only)
Orthodontia bands
Parts for medical, surgical, dental, veterinary and mortuary instruments
Prostatic bags
Rubber bands and cushions designed for artificial limbs
Tubes and tubing (except fountain syringe lengths), including catheters, stopples, and rubber policemen (medical, surgical, dental, mortuary, veterinary and laboratory types only)
Urinals designed for individual wear
Vaccine caps
X-ray sheets, gloves, aprons and cooling hose

Group 40

Surgical adhesive tape, medicated footpads and plasters

Group 41

Breast pumps
Bulbs (medical, surgical, dental, veterinary, mortuary and laboratory types only)
Medicine droppers
Water bottles and combination syringes

Group 42

Ice bags
Metatarsal cushions or pads (not parts of shoes)
Pneumatic truss pads
Truss pad covers

Group 43

Acoustic aids (soft rubber parts only) designed for individual hearing instruments and audiometers

Group 44

Hard rubber pipes, connections and accessories (medical, surgical, dental, veterinary and mortuary types only)

Group 45

Tubing, fountain syringe length

Group 46

Blood pressure bags
Dental dam
Dental separating strips and mouth props
Denture rubber
Inhalation bags and face pieces, not including oxygen tents (medical, surgical, dental and veterinary types only)
Invalid rings, but not including sponge rubber rings
Operating cushions, but not including sponge rubber cushions
Tourniquets

Group 47

Hospital sheeting

Group 48

Feeding nipples

Group 49

Pessaries and prophylactics

Group 50

Surgeons' gloves (medical, surgical, dental and veterinary types only)

Group 51

Meteorological balloons

Group 52

Cements designed for the repair, use or application of products permitted to be manufactured from crude rubber by Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b, except cements for use in the manufacture of such products, except shoe adhesives

Group 53

Commercial diving equipment

Group 54

Compounds designed for seaming protective clothing other than footwear and gloves

Group 55

Abrasive sand blasting helmets and clothing

Group 56

Conductive soles, taps and heels

Group 57

Shoe cements

Group 58

Lifesaving suits

Group 59

Compounds designed for sealing cans made of tinplate, blackplate or terneplate
Rings and compounds for sealing glass containers

Group 60

Blended compounds or mixtures designed for laboratory testing

Group 61

Vacuum cleaner belts

Group 62

Airplane equipment not elsewhere listed

Group 63

Molding bags

Group 64

Street car wheel sandwich rings

Group 65

Vibration dampers

Group 66

Water meter parts

SCHEDULE II–B

Products for which latex may be consumed upon authorizations issued from time to time by the Director General for Operations. (See paragraph (b) (2) (ii) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b)

Any authorization to consume latex to manufacture any group of products set forth in this Schedule II–B also authorizes the manufacture from the quota or allotment of latex for that group of cements necessary to the manufacture (but not the use or application) of such products. No latex shall be consumed to manufacture cements for the use or application of products of any group set forth in this Schedule II–B unless permitted by special authorization of the Director General for Operations.

Group 1

Colostomy outfits
Finger cots (medical, surgical, dental, mortuary and veterinary types only)
Prostatic bags
Prosthetic devices
Tubes and tubing (except fountain syringe lengths), including catheters (medical, surgical, dental, mortuary, veterinary and laboratory types only)
Urinals designed for individual wear

Group 2

Blood pressure bags
Inhalation bags, and face pieces, not including oxygen tents (medical, surgical, dental and veterinary types only)
Veterinary sleeves

Group 3

Industrial rubberized fabric gloves designed for handling corrosive and severely abrasive materials

Group 4

Electricians' gloves

Group 5

Dental dam

Group 6

Autopsy and mortuary gloves
Industrial all rubber gloves and industrial net-lined gloves and industrial finger cots

Group 7

Meteorological balloons

Group 8

Feeding nipples

Group 9

Pessaries and prophylactics

Group 10

Surgeons' gloves (medical, surgical, dental and veterinary types only)

Group 11

Compounds designed for sealing glass containers and cans made of tinplate, blackplate or terneplate

Group 12

Shoe cements

Group 13

Latex insulation for fume ducts, fans, racks, frames, trays, screens, pipes and fittings, buckets, dippers, funnels, measures, drums, pumps, valves, baskets, concave rollers and agitators (designed for handling corrosive materials)

Group 14

Flat transmission belts
Round transmission belts
V-belts

Group 15

Mine ventilating tubing

Group 16

Industrial abrasive implements

Group 17

Blended compounds or mixtures designed for laboratory testing

Group 18

Tire cord dip

SCHEDULE II–C

NOTE: Changes have been made in this schedule.

Products for which reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed upon authorizations issued from time to time by the Director General for Operations. (See paragraphs (b) (3) (iii) and (b) (4) (iii) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b)

Any authorization to consume reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber to manufacture any group of products set forth in this Schedule II–C also authorizes the manufacture from the quota or allotment of reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber for that group of cements necessary to the manufacture (but not the use or application) of such products. No reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber shall be consumed to manufacture cements for the use or application of products of any group set forth in this Schedule II–C unless permitted by special authorization of the Director General for Operations.

Group 1

Adhesives designed for fabricating steel wool, curled hair or fibre pads for surgical corrective appliances

Group 2

Adhesives for seaming bags and bagging
Gaskets and compounds for sealing jars, tumblers, cans, drums and pails

Group 3

Athletic equipment, consisting of the following only:
  Basketball bladders
  Football bladders
  Punching bag bladders
  Soccer bladders
  Volley ball bladders
  Hardballs
  Squash balls
  Tennis balls

Group 4

Automotive parts (including only spring bumpers—front and rear, tailpipe supports, battery drain tubes, brake boots, insulating forms or shapes for high tension wiring)

Group 5

Clutch facings, brake lining and brake blocks

Group 6

V-belts

Group 7

Barrel lining

Group 8

Brush setting compounds

Group 9

Molded battery containers except those designed for automotive S. L. I. batteries of S. A. E. Groups 1, 2 and 3

Group 10

Storage battery parts (except molded containers)

Group 11

Crutch tips

Group 12

Erasers and pencil plugs

Group 13

Friction tape

Group 14

Heels and heel bases (black dense composition only)

Group 15

Out soles, out soling strips, taps, top lifts and top lifting material (black dense composition only)

Group 16

Shoe bottom fillers and shoe tapes

Group 17

Insoles, midsoles and box toes

Group 18

Automotive radiator hose
Braided covered tubing
Cable covering, electric
Car heater hose
Curb line and garage air hose
Fire extinguisher tubing
Garden hose
Grease hose, low pressure, non-industrial Pump and windshield wiper tubing
Rock wool insulation hose
Shaft covering, flexible
Spray hose (designed for working pressures under 300 pounds per square inch)
Vacuum cleaner hose
Water hose

Group 19

Parts for business machines (except platens and rolls)

Group 20

Parts for refrigerators, washing machines and motor-driven electric appliances (except hose and belts)

Group 21

Horseshoe pads

Group 22

Industrial pressure sensitive tape

Group 23

Stamp gum

Group 24

Sponge for stamp gum cushion

Group 25

Truss pads

Group 26

Elastic fabrics and elastic webbing for:
  Artificial legs
  Gas masks
  Goggles
  Hose masks
  Inhalators and respirators
  Edging for baby pants
  Industrial shoes
  Repair web
  Sanitary belts
  Surgical bandages, stockings and supports
  Trusses (including umbilical belts)

Group 27

Spud washers
Waste and overflow washers
Float valve shank washers
Flush elbows
Flush valve washers
Force cups
Gaskets and valves designed for back flow preventors (or vacuum breakers)
Siphon washers

Group 28

Cements designed for the repair, use or application of products permitted to be manufactured from crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber by Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b, except cements for use in the manufacture of such products, and except shoe adhesives.

Group 29

Tire and tube repair materials (including only cushion stock, tread repair stock, cord friction, square woven fabric friction, repair patches and tube repair gum)

Group 30

Capping stock, filler strip, stripping stock, cushion stock, lug stock and base stock for retreading and recapping tires

Group 31

Blended compounds or mixtures designed for laboratory testing

Group 32

Compounds designed for proofing fabrics, other than footwear and gloves

Group 33

Bicycle tires (including casings, tubes, flaps and valves)

Group 34

Mallets and mallet heads.

SCHEDULE III

NOTE: Changes have been made in this Schedule.

Exceptions from groups of products set forth in Schedules II–A, II–B and II–C. (See paragraph (c) (12) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b)

Unless otherwise specified in this Schedule III, no person may consume any crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture or assembly of any of the products or materials listed in this Schedule III, even though the consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber might otherwise be permitted under any of the broader provisions or classifications of products under paragraphs (b) (1) (ii), (b) (2) (ii), (b) (3) (ii) or (b) (4) (ii) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b or Schedules II–A, II–B or II–C attached to said order. (The prohibitions of this Schedule III do not apply to the manufacture of products or materials to fill war orders, as to which see Schedule IV.)

The omission of any products or materials from this Schedule III does not mean that crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be consumed in their manufacture. Crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed in the manufacture of products or materials not listed in this Schedule III only if and to the extent permitted by Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b and Schedules II–A, II–B and II–C attached to said order.

Accelerator pedals (automotive)
Animal boots and shoes
Arch supports
Arm rests
Artificial leather
Basin gaskets and washers
Basin stoppers
Bath sprays
Bath tub stoppers
Battery carrier straps
Beer tubing
Blowout shoes (for tires)
Bookbinding adhesives
Bottle carriers
Bottle driers
Brake rod rattlers
Brewery hose
Brush bristles
Bumper tacks
Bunion pads
Camera bellows
Camera focusing cloth
Candy molds
Carboy pads
Casket gaskets
Chair and furniture parts
Channel filler
Christmas tree lighting devices
Chute lining
Cigar machine aprons
Cleats for athletic and sport shoes
Coated clips
Coffee maker bushings and gaskets
Concentrator belts
Contraction joint seals and concrete filler
Corn pads
Crib sheeting
Crutch pads
Cutting blocks
Cushions, upholstery and mattresses (except invalid rings and operating cushions)
Defroster parts and hose
Desk and chair protective pads
Dish drainers
Drain pipe lining
Draper aprons
Electric base plugs, plug connectors and light sockets
Elevator belt buckets and cleats
Exercise machine parts
Extension lamp handles
Fan bases and blades
Faucet caps
Faucet filters
Feeding bottle caps and covers (except nipples)
Ferrules
Filter cloth
Finger pads
Flooring, tile and tiling, and wainscoting (except conductive)
Fountain pen stock
Fly paper
Foot bath trays
Gaskets, pads and shims made from scrap tires and tubes
Gasoline curb pump hose
Gasoline tubing
Gauntlets and cuffing (except linemen's sleeves)
Gear silencers
Glue dispensers
Graphite guns and parts thereof
Grommets (except dielectric)
Handle grips (except for dielectric purposes)
Hard rubber photographic trays and development tanks (except X-Ray)
Hard rubber spatulas (except for handling explosives and corrosive materials)
Hat-forming bags
Hatters' belts
Horse shoes
Horticultural binding tape
Hose nozzles
Household gloves
Hydrometer parts
Ice cube trays
Ink wells and bottles
Instep supports
Kneeling pads
Knife handles and grips
Labels and label plasters
Lamp shades
Lawn mower tires
Leather finishes
Line tube caps
Link mats
Loom harness strapping
Lug straps, bumpers and holdups (constituting textile machinery parts)
Mallets and mallet heads (except that reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be used)

Marbon B (except wire and cable insulation)
Mats and matting (except conductive)
Molds for casting
Molded wheels and casters
Musical instruments and parts thereof
Oxygen tent canopies
Pacifiers
Paint brush guards
Painters' graining tools
Panelboard
Paper machine aprons
Paper padding adhesives
Pedal rubber
Photo wringers
Photographers' bulbs and tubes
Pliofilm (except for wire and cable insulation)
Plioform (except for wire and cable insulation)
Pliolite (except for wire and cable insulation)
Plywood adhesives
Post insulators
Powder bags (mining)
Pulley lagging
Recoil pads
Refrigerator freezing trays
Rock wool insulation hose (except that reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be used)
Rubber bands (except orthodontia bands and bands for artificial limbs)
Rubber thread and rubber tape (except compounds for rubber insulating tape)
Rubberized hair and fibre (except for surgical corrective appliances)
Sand blasting stencils
Screw bumpers
Self-adhering signs
Service station signal hose
Sink and lavatory gaskets (including mack gaskets)
Sink sprays and drain stoppers
Slip joint washers
Spark plug caps
Specimen (biological) injections
Sponge applicators
Stair and step treads
Stick-on soles and taps
Stipplers
Stirrup pump hose
Stirring rods
Street sweeper belts
Street car springs
Swimming pool hose
Table tops
Tank floats
Telephone bases
Telephone cord protectors
Telephone protectors
Test tube holders
Textlie printing blankets
Thermometer cases
Thermos bottle parts
Thermoplastic coatings (except for wire and cable insulation)
Tire reliners
Tire and tube repair materials made from scrap tires and tubes
Toggle straps
Toilet closet outlet gaskets
Toilet closet seat bumpers
Trolley wire guard
Typewriter keys, platens, feet and covers
Typewriter and office machinery silencers
V-belt shock absorbers
Vacuum cleaner tires and bumpers
Washing machine drain hose
Weatherstripping
Wheelbarrow tires
Whiskey hose
Windlace and windlace tubing
Yarning material

SCHEDULE IV

Products for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may not be consumed to fill war orders. (See paragraph (c) (13) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b).

No person may (1) consume any crude rubber or latex in the manufacture or assembly of any of the products or materials set forth in Groups A and B of this Schedule IV for delivery to fill any war order; or (2) consume any reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture or assembly of any of the products or materials set forth in Group B of this Schedule IV for delivery to fill any war order; even though the consumption of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber might otherwise be permitted under any of the broader provisions or classifications of products under paragraphs (b) (1) (i), (b) (2) (i), (b) (3) (i) or (b) (4) (i) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b or Schedule I attached to said order.

The omission of any products or materials from this Schedule IV does not mean that crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be consumed in their manufacture. Crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed in the manufacture of products or materials not so listed only if and to the extent permitted by Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b and Schedule I attached to said order.

Group A—Products and materials for which crude rubber and latex shall not be consumed

Accelerator treadle connections
Brush-setting compounds
Bumpers (automotive axle)
Bumper stripping
Cellular discs
Channel rubber (except airplane)
Combined fabrics (except flotation and lighter-than-air equipment or as otherwise specified by List 3 attached to Supplementary Order No. M–15–b–1, as amended)
Cowl vent hose
Cowl vent seals and gaskets
Dust and lever housing covers
Erasers (including typewriter)
Escalator handrails
Flyers' clothing bags (Type B 4)
Fly Paper
Foot boards (motorcycle)
Friction tape
Gym and basketball shoes (except cement and foxings)
Handle grips (except dielectric)
Labels
Mallet heads
Marbon B. (except wire and cable insulation)
Pliofilm, Plioform, and Pliolite (except moisture proof envelopes for parts for airplanes, tanks and guns and wire and cable insulation)
Recoil pads (except machine gun and eye buffers)
Rubber bands (except parts of combat equipment)
Rubberized curled hair or vegetable fibre
Sponge cushioning including seat bottoms, seat backs, armrests, handrests, parachute backs and seats and tank crash pads and linings and all other (except vision and gunsight slot pads, mask parts, ear cushions and cushioning for cameras, flight control and fire control instruments)
Toilet closet gaskets
Toilet seat bumpers
Water, garden and lawn hose (except as specified by List 1 attached to Supplementary Order No. M–15–b–1, as amended)
Weatherstrip (except airplane)

Group B—Products and materials for which crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber shall not be consumed

Artificial leather and upholstery
Ash trays
Athletic equipment (except clothing)
Bath sprays, sponges and soap dishes
Bumper tacks
Buttons (clothing)
Canvas water bags
Cap covers
Cartridge clip boxes
Cellular pads for crash helmet cushions
Channel filler and glazing rubber (except airplane)
Chevrons
Desk and chair protection pads
Desk sets
Dishdrainers
Door checks and bumpers (reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be used for airplane and automotive parts)
Door knob covers
Fan bases and blades (reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be used for combat tank equipment)
Faucet caps
Fender protective plates
Fender welting
Flooring (except conductive)
Fly swatters
Footbath trays
Gear shift knobs
Grommets (except airplane and dielectric)
Gun grips
Hood supports and bumpers
Hospital sheeting
Inkwells and bottles
Kneeling pads
Leather finishes
Link mats (reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be used for airplane walkways, pilot house, bridge deck and gun platforms)
Mastic deck covering (except repair)
Mats and matting (except switchboard and conductive; reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be used for airplane walkways, pilot house, bridge deck and gun platforms)
Molded wheels and casters (except hospital and surgical equipment and airplane tailwheels)
Name plates
Office machine silencers
Paper padding adhesives
Paving blocks
Pedal rubbers
Picture screens
Plate wipers
Plywood adhesives
Rubber-covered lamp guards, handles, grab rails and knobs (except dielectric)

Rubber thread and rubber tape (except compounds for rubber insulating tape)
Sateen gimp
Serving trays
Sewage disposal bags and paper
Shims (automotive)
Sink pads, mats, sprays and stoppers
Stair and step treads (except conductive)
Steering wheels
Step plates
Stove top pads
Table tops (except conductive)
Tank fenders and flaps
Telephone bases
Tent fabrics
Thermostat covers
Tile and tiling (except conductive)
Toilet seats
Tractor and implement tires
Typewriter keys
Valve stems for tire tubes other than airplane tire tubes
Wainscoting
Wheelbarrow and lawnmower tires
Window squeegees (but not windshield wipers)
Wrestling mat covers
Zipper tabs

SCHEDULE V

NOTE: Changes have been made in this Schedule.

Index of products for which crude rubber, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may be consumed, and of products for which the consumption of these materials is prohibited. (See paragraph (c) (14) of Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b)

This Schedule constitutes an index of the permitted and prohibited products under Schedules I, II–A, II–B, II–C, III and IV attached to Revised Supplementary Order No. M–15–b, and is attached to such order for the convenience of the industry. Appropriate cross-references are made to such other schedules. Crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and scrap rubber may not be consumed to manufacture any product or material not mentioned in this Schedule V unless otherwise authorized by the Director General for Operations.

PART 940—RUBBER AND BALATA AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER OR BALATA IS A COMPONENT

[Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as Amended Dec. 28, 1942]

Supplementary Order M-15-b-1 (§ 940.5), including all prior amendments thereto, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 940.5 Regulations covering manufacture of rubber products—(a) Applicability of Supplementary Order M-15-b (§ 940.3). This order is issued pursuant to paragraph (c) (2) of Supplementary Order No. M-15-b (§ 940.3), as amended, issued by the Director General for Operations. All definitions and all other provisions of Supplementary Order No. M-15-b shall apply to this order as fully as though set forth herein. Nothing in this order shall be construed to permit the use of crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture of any products except as permitted by Supplementary Order No. M-15-b, as amended, or by special directions issued by the Director General for Operations.

(b) General provisions. With respect to all regulations set forth in the lists attached to this order, unless otherwise stated in the applicable list:

(1) The total rubber hydrocarbon (sometimes designated RHC in this order and in lists attached to this order) is the sum total of crude rubber and the average rubber hydrocarbon value of reclaimed rubber expressed on a volume basis (except where such term is used in List 19, with respect to which Note 1 of subdivision (a) of List 19 shall control). The average rubber hydrocarbon value of reclaimed rubber used in compounds in regulations incorporated in lists now or hereafter attached to this order shall be calculated from the rubber value of reclaimed rubber as certified by the manufacturer of the reclaimed rubber.

(2) The synthetic rubber value (sometimes designated SRV in this order and in lists attached to this order) is the total synthetic rubber expressed on a volume basis.

(3) A mixture of various types of synthetic rubber is permitted in synthetic rubber compounds.

(4) All regulations shall apply to all purchase orders, including war orders, except where otherwise specified in the appropriate list.

(5) These regulations shall not apply to the manufacture of experimental products or experimental compounds designed for:

(i) Special requirements for the Army or Navy of the United States.

(ii) The substitution of synthetic rubber for crude rubber and latex.

(iii) The substitution of reclaimed rubber for crude rubber, latex or synthetic rubber.

(iv) The conservation of crude rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber or synthetic rubber.

(c) Regulations covering the manufacture of certain rubber products. No person shall consume any crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture of any of the types of products included in the lists enumerated below and attached hereto except in accordance with the regulations therein prescribed; such regulations to be effective as to any product or class of products as of January 11, 1943, except where otherwise specified in the appropriate list:

LIST 1—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF COMPOUNDS FOR MECHANICAL RUBBER PRODUCTS

This List 1 establishes standards for the grades of compounds to be used in the manufacture of mechanical rubber products. Other lists now and hereafter attached to Supplementary Order No. M-15-b-1 will govern the use of these compounds in the manufacture of finished products. These compounds need be used only when required by regulations contained in such other lists. The variations permitted by subdivision (c) of this list are allowed in the manufacture of finished products covered by other applicable lists unless prohibited by such other lists.

M-SB-14	M-SN-14	M-ST-14	25

(c) GENERAL PROVISIONS

(1) Synthetic rubber may be substituted for crude rubber, in whole or in part, provided the sum of the SRV by volume and RHC by volume does not exceed the maximum total RHC of the grade specified.

(2) In the synthetic rubber compounds specified in this list crude rubber and reclaimed rubber may be used when required for processing reasons, provided the total amount of any crude rubber used does not exceed 15% of the maximum volume of the SRV designated for the synthetic rubber compound.

(3) Compounds of lower crude rubber, total RHC or SRV content than those designated in lists now or hereafter attached to Supplementary Order No. M–15–b–1 may be used in manufacturing products covered by such lists, provided the physical and service requirements, where specified, are met.

(4) All compounds shall be black except where otherwise designated in other applicable lists.

LIST 2—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF CONVEYOR, ELEVATOR AND FLAT TRANSMISSION BELTING AND V-BELTS

(a) GENERAL PROVISIONS

(1) The manufacture of conveyor, elevator and flat transmission belting and V-belts shall be limited to the types and grades listed in this List 2.

(2) Rubber belting utilizing a solid woven carcass is permitted, provided such construction uses no more crude rubber or rubber hydrocarbon (RHC) than is permitted in laminated belting of equivalent size and thickness.

(3) Constructions using combinations of fabric and other reinforcing materials, such as cord or wire, are permitted, provided total crude rubber and rubber hydrocarbon (RHC) do not exceed those which are used in an equivalent grade, fabric ply, construction belt.

(4) The regulations contained in this List 2 shall not apply to the manufacture of component parts of water craft, aircraft, military vehicles or gun mounts to fill war orders for the Army or Navy of the United States when the Army or Navy contract specifically requires the use of different compounds or constructions.

(5) Any brands or labels used shall be spaced at least ten feet apart, except that each belt may have at least one brand or label.

(b) CONVEYOR BELTING

(1) Compounds permitted. Compounds for each of the grades of conveyor belting listed in Table A below shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order No. M–15–b–1, as amended, the appropriate grades of compound to be used for covers and frictions being those hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such class in Table A.

TABLE A

Grade of belt	Conveyor cover compound	Pulley cover compound	Friction compound	Grade regulation			Combined cover gauge maximum in inches
				Average tensile range p. s. i.		Average friction range in pounds
				Pulley cover	Conveyor cover
No. 1	M-N	M-R	M-N	800-1000	1700-2200	16-19	7/32
No. 2	M-R	M-R	M-P	800-1000	800-1000	12-15	7/32

NOTE 1: A skim coat of same quality as friction compound and not exceeding .010 inches shall be permitted on 42 oz. or heavier belt duck on grade 1 only.

NOTE 2: The gauge of any breaker, where used, is to be included in the cover thickness.

(2) Grades of belts permitted. (i) All conveyor belts designed for the following uses shall be of Grade 2 quality only, and the thicknesses of covers for each group shall not exceed those specified for such group:

Group 1—Sum of thicknesses of conveyor and pulley covers shall not exceed 1/16″	Group 2—Sum of thicknesses of conveyor and pulley covers shall not exceed 3/32″	Group 3—Sum of thicknesses of conveyor and pulley covers shall not exceed 1/8″
Fruits. Vegetables. Lime slaked. Charcoal. Grains and seeds. Beets. Flour. Soap. Portable conveyor for handling above material.	Sand. Soil. Soda. Powdered stone and chemicals. Earth. Fine gravels to 1/4″. Pulverized coal. Coke breeze. Concentrates. Wet pulp. Portable conveyor for handling above material.	Sulphur. Salts. Sugar. Small sized bituminous coal up to 4″. Small coke up to 2″. Ashes. Culm. Clay. Shells. Gravel 1/2″ to 2″. Concrete mix. Cement. Lime unslacked. Phosphate pebble. All portable conveyors except for services in Groups 1 and 2.

(ii) Either Grade 1 or Grade 2 belting may be used for belts designed for services other than designated in Groups 1, 2 and 3 above.

(iii) No crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be used to manufacture conveyor belting designed for the handling of boxes, bales, bags, cases, sacks, paper, dry pulp and wood chips.

(iv) Grade 1 belting may be used for any service where the temperature of the materials handled exceed 200° Fahrenheit.

(v) Pulley lagging shall be made with not more than five plies of woven duck, with a friction back and a wearing face not greater than 3/8″ in thickness. Compounds shall be of Grade 2 quality. Pulley lagging shall not be manufactured for use as portable conveyors.

(c) ELEVATOR BELTING

(1) Compounds permitted. Compounds for each of the grades of elevator belting listed in Table B below shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M–15–b–1, as amended, the appropriate grades of compounds to be used for covers and frictions being those hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such class in Table B.

TABLE B

Grade of belt	Pulley cover compound	Bucket cover compound	Friction compound	Grade regulation			Maximum combined cover gauge in inches
				Average tensile range p. s. i.		Average friction range in pounds
				Bucket cover	Pulley cover
No. 1	M-N	M-R	M-N	800-1000	1700-2200	16-19	3/16
No. 2	M-R	M-R	M-P	800-1000	800-1000	12-15	3/16

NOTE 1: A skim coat of same quality as friction compound and not exceeding .010 inch shall be permitted only on Grade 1.

NOTE 2: The gauge of any breaker, where used, is to be included in the cover thickness.

(2) Grades of belts permitted.

(i) All elevator belts designed for the following uses shall be of Grade 2 quality only, and the thicknesses of covers for each group shall not exceed those specified for such groups:

Group 1—Sum of thicknesses of the bucket and pulley covers shall not exceed 1/16″	Group 2—Sum of thicknesses of the bucket and pulley covers shall not exceed 1/8″	Group 3—Sum of thicknesses of the bucket and pulley covers shall not exceed 5/32″	Group 4—Friction surface only
Pulverized coal. Soap. Lime slaked.	Coke breeze. Powdered stone and chemicals. Concentrates. Sand. Clay. Soil.	Gravel up to 2″. Small bituminous coal up to 2″. Trap rock up to 2″. Salt. Sugar. Cement. Lime unslaked. Phosphate pebble.	Grains. Seeds.

(ii) Either Grade 1 or Grade 2 belting may be used for belts designed for services other than designated in Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4 above.

(iii) No crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be used in the manufacture of elevator belting designed for the handling of boxes, bales, bags, cases, sacks, paper, dry pulp and wood chips.

(d) FLAT TRANSMISSION BELTING

Flat transmission belts and belting shall be manufactured in two grades only, as follows:

Grade of belt	Crude rubber maximum weight in pounds	Total RHC maximum weight in pounds
No. 1	.46	.73
No. 2	.15	.47

NOTE 1: The maximum weight of crude rubber and total RHC as designated above shall be based on a unit of 1,200 sq. in. per single ply of fabric.

NOTE 2: All flat belts and belting designed to transmit power to, and/or on, any farm machinery and equipment shall be Grade 2 quality, except those designed to transmit power to the Hammermills which may be Grade 1.

NOTE 3: Grade 1 belting is permitted with 1/32″ Grade M–N rubber cover when designed for service under severe chemical conditions. No rubber covers are permitted for belts designed for any other service.

NOTE 4: Color of seaming strip is optional.

NOTE 5: No crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber shall be used in the manufacture of loom harness strapping.

(e) V-BELTS

(1) V-belts shall be manufactured in two grades only, as follows:

Grade of belt	Crude rubber and latex maximum by volume of total belt	Total RHC maximum by volume of total belt
	Percent	Percent
No. 1	40	55
No. 2	0	50

NOTE 1: The crude rubber and RHC is based on total volume of belt. In determining the belt volume the published nominal cross-sectional dimensions shall be used where these exist and mold cross-sectional dimensions shall be used in all other cases. The percentage calculations shall be based on the volume of net finished belt but manufacturing waste shall be included in the crude rubber and RHC contents.

NOTE 2: Color of cord treatments is optional.

NOTE 3: On Grade 2 belts a maximum of 1% crude rubber by volume may be used as a cement to aid processing, and this 1% crude rubber shall be included in the total RHC.

(2) All V-belts of the following classifications shall be of Grade 2 quality only:

F. H. P.

Belts designed for replacement for passenger automobiles.

Belts designed for replacement for trucks under 1½ tons.

Agricultural belts, except those of C section and larger, double V and round belts of any section, designed for use with agricultural machinery. Farm tractor belts may be Grade 1 quality.

Household equipment belts.

LIST 3—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF HOSE

(a) GENERAL PROVISIONS

(1) The manufacture of hose shall be limited to the types and grades listed in this List 3, except as permitted by List 14.

(2) The tube, friction, layers, filler and cover for each of the types of hose listed in the regulations contained in this List 3 shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order No. M–15–b–1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound to be used being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such type.

(3) Hose manufactured in accordance with these regulations shall be inspected and tested in accordance with the methods of A. S. T. M. Standard D–380, latest revision prior to January 11, 1943.

(4) The regulations contained in this List 3 shall not apply to the manufacture of component parts of watercraft, aircraft, military vehicles or gun mounts to fill war orders for the Army or Navy of the United States when the Army or Navy contract specifically requires the use of different compounds or constructions.

(5) Brands or labels shall be spaced at least twenty-five feet apart, except that each length of hose may have at least one brand or label.

(b) COMMERCIAL TYPES

Type of product	Compound				Construction and/or service restrictions
	Tube	Friction	Layer or Filler	Cover
Acid-conducting and suction	M-H	M-P	M-R	M-P	Tube: 3/16 inch maximum. Cover: 1/16 inch maximum.
Air brake—Truck and bus.	M-N or M-SN-7 or M-SB-7.	M-N or M-SN-7 or M-SB-7.		M-P or M-SN-9 or M-SB-9.	Maximum wall: 13/64" on sizes under 5/8" I. D. 3/8" on sizes 5/8" and over.
Air-curb	M-T	M-T		M-T	Maximum wall: 3/16 inch. Made only in 1/4" and 3/8" I. D. sizes.
Air and air tool: Industrial Grade 1.	M-N, or M-SN-7 or M-SB-7.	M-P or M-SN-7 or M-SB-7.		M-M or M-SN-7 or M-SB-7.	Maximum wall: 11/32" for sizes with 5/8" I. D. and smaller. 13/32" for sizes 3/4" I. D. to 1½" I. D. incl. ½" for sizes 1⅝" I. D to 3" incl. 5/8" for sizes over 3" I. D. Service: Designed for use only for heavy duty service, in mines, quarries and outside construction, including ship yards where tools are oiled through the hose and abrasion on cover is severe.
Grade 2	M-Q-1	M-P		M-P	Maximum wall: 9/32" for sizes 5/8" I. D. or smaller. 11/32" for sizes 3/4" I. D. to 1½" incl. 7/16" for sizes over 1½" I. D. Service: Designed for use for all industrial air or air tool service not specifically covered in Grade 1.
Alcohol, brewers and beverage hose, tubing and suction hose	M-J-1	M-P	M-P	M-R	Tube: 1/8" maximum. Cover 1/16" maximum. Tube color—optional.
Arbor pipe forming.	M-H	M-H			Tube 5/64" maximum.
Braided cover tubing.	M-T				Maximum wall: 5/64" on sizes 3/8" I. D. and under. 3/32" on sizes over 3/8" I. D.
Butane and Propane.	M-SB-9 or M-SN-9 or M-ST-6.	M-SB-8 or M-SN-8 or M-ST-6.		M-SB-8 or M-SN-8 or M-ST-6.	Maximum wall: 7/16" on sizes 1" I. D. and under. 33/64" on sizes over 1" I. D.
Cable covering—electric.	M-T	M-T		M-T	Maximum wall: 3/16". Not an integral part or vulcanized to a wire or cable. Service: Safety protective covering on electrical power lines.
Cement handling, Cement gun, incl. grouting.	M-E	M-H	M-P	M-P	Tube: 3/16" maximum. Cover: 1/16" maximum.
Cement and material-dry and ice-slinger.	M-E	M-N	M-P	M-P	Tube. 3/16" maximum for sizes 1" I. D. and under. 1/4" maximum for sizes over 1" I. D Cover: 3/64" maximum all sizes. Not permitted for rock wool insulation.
Concrete placing.	M-E	M-N	M-P	M-P	Tube: ½" maximum. Cover: 1/16" maximum.
Chemical	M-T	M-R		M-T	Maximum wall: 9/32" on sizes 3/4" I. D. and under. 11/32" on sizes over 3/4". I. D.
Coupling-flexible.	M-Q-1	M-R			Tube: 3/64" maximum.
Creamery (Sanitary).	M-Q-1	M-M		M-N or M-SN-7 or M-SB-7.	Tube. 7/64" maximum. Cover: 1/16" maximum. Service: For meat packing or food handling plants only.
Divers:
Floating	M-A	M-H		M-A	Maximum wall: 3/16".
Sinking	M-N	M-N		M-M	Maximum wall: 5/16".
Dredging sleeves.	M-H	M-N		M-P	Tube: 1/4" maximum. Cover: 3/64" maximum. Skim coat: Not permitted.
Expansion joints.	M-A	M-E	M-M	M-M	Tube: 1/8" maximum for sizes 8" I.D. and under. 3/16" maximum for size over 8" I.D. Cover: 1/16" maximum all sizes. Service: Expansion joints are normally used in rigid line to absorb thrust or excessive motion or to isolate vibration and/or noise.
Fire extinguisher tubing.	M-T	M-T		M-T	Maximum wall: 3/16".

(b) COMMERCIAL TYPES—continued

Type of product	Compound				Construction and/or service restrictions
	Tube	Friction	Layer or Filler	Cover
Flanged flexible pipe.	M-E	M-N	M-P	M-P	Tube: 3/16" maximum for sizes 12" I.D. and under. 1/4" maximum sizes over 12". Cover: 3/64" maximum all sizes.
Fuelline—Automotive, truck and bus.	M-K or M-SB-10 or M-SN-10.				Service: The rubber compound may be used in connection with metal lining. The synthetic rubber compounds may be used either with or without metal lining.
Fuel oil and gasoline (Not service station pump hose.)	M-SB-9 or M-SN-9 or M-ST-6.	M-SB-9 or M-SN-9 or M-ST-6.		M-SB-9 or M-SN-9 or M-ST-6.	Maximum wall: 11/32" all sizes.
Garden	M-T			M-T	Maximum wall: 5/32" (Cover may be omitted).
Grease—Low pressure non-industrial.	M-T	M-T		M-T	Maximum wall: 5/32".
Hydraulic brake.	M-E	M-A		M-A	Maximum wall: .195 inch for 1/8" I.D. .230 inch for 7/32" I.D.
Hydraulic control and industrial grease:
High pressure.	M-M or M-SB-9 or M-SN-9.	M-M or M-SB-9 or M-SN-9.		M-P or M-SB-9 or M-SN-9.	O.D.: To fit available one time couplings.
Medium pressure.	M-M or M-SB-9 or M-SN-9.	M-M or M-SB-9 or M-SN-9.		M-P or M-SB-9 or M-SN-9.	Maximum wall: 1/4" on sizes 3/8" I.D. and under. 5/16" on sizes over 3/8" I.D.
Low pressure.	M-M or M-SB-9 or M-SN-9.			M-P or M-SB-9 or M-SN-9.	Maximum wall: 1/8" all sizes.
Jetting and hydraulic.	M-N	M-P		M-M	Maximum wall: 9/16" on sizes 4" I.D. and under. 11/16" on sizes over 4" I.D.
Milk conveying.	M-H-1	M-P		M-N	Tube: 3/32" maximum. Cover 3/32" maximum.
Oil suction and discharge:
(a) Rough bore.	M-SB-9 or M-SN-9 or M-ST-6.	M-SB-8 or M-SN-8 or M-ST-6.	M-SB-8 or M-SN-8 or M-ST-6.	M-SB-8 or M-SN-8 or M-ST-6.	Tube: 1/16" maximum for sizes 4" I.D. and under. 7/64" maximum for sizes over 4" I.D. Layer: 1/16" maximum. Cover: 3/32" maximum all sizes.
(b) Smooth bore.	M-SB-9 or M-SN-9 or M-ST-6.	M-SB-8 or M-SN-8 or M-ST-6.	M-SB-8 or M-SN-8 or M-ST-6.	M-SB-8 or M-SN-8 or M-ST-6.	Tube: 7/64" maximum for sizes 4" I.D. and under. 9/64" maximum for sizes over 4" I.D. Layer: 1/16" maximum. Cover: 3/32" maximum.
Phosphate flexible.	M-E	M-H	M-P	M-P	Tube: 1/4" maximum. Cover: 1/16" maximum.
Pinch valve	M-E	M-H		M-E	Maximum wall: ½" on sizes 4" I.D. and under. 5/8" on sizes over 4" I.D.
Pump tubing	M-T	M-T		M-T	Maximum wall 7/64" on sizes 1/4" I.D. and under. 5/32" on sizes over 1/4" I.D.
Radiator:
Grade 1	M-K or M-SB-7 or M-SN-7.	M-N or M-SB-7 or M-SN-7.		M-P or M-SB-7 or M-SN-7.	Tube: Maximum thickness 3/32". Wall: Maximum gauge 7/32" for 3 ply; Maximum gauge 9/32" for 5 ply. No wall gauge restrictions for types designed for use on combat vehicles. Service: Only to fill war orders and for use on trucks 1½ tons and over, buses and railroad gas-electric power units.
Grade 2	M-ST-6	M-ST-6			Tube: Maximum thickness 1/16"—no cover permitted Service: Designed for use on trucks 1½ tons and over, which are provided with proper fittings and clamps for sealing.
Grade 3	M-T	M-T		M-T	Maximum wall: 3/16". Service: All services not specifically covered by grades 1 and 2.
Rock wool insulation.	M-T	M-R	M-T		Tube: 1/8" maximum. No cover permitted.
Rotary drilling	M-E	M-H	M-M	M-M	Tube: 5/32" maximum. Cover: 3/32" maximum.
Sand blast	M-E	M-N		M-P	Tube: under 1"—3/16" maximum all other 1/4". Cover 3/64" maximum, all sizes.
Shaft covering flexible.		M-T		M-T	Cover: 1/16" maximum.

(b) COMMERCIAL TYPES—continued

Type of product	Compound				Construction and/or service restrictions

(c) FIRE HOSE AND MILL HOSE

(1) The following regulations (which, with respect to the use of crude rubber, are identical with Federal Emergency Alternate Specifications E-ZZ-H-451a) shall apply to the manufacture of all fire hose and mill hose.

(2) Fire hose and mill hose shall be manufactured only in the following sizes and the maximum amount of crude rubber per 100 feet for each size shall not be greater than the amount designated for each size, as follows:

Nominal size:	Maximum amount of crude rubber permitted per 100 feet
1½ inches	4.0 pounds.
2 inches	5.5 pounds.
2½ inches	7.0 pounds.
3 inches	8.5 pounds.
3½ inches	10.0 pounds.

(3) The rubber lining shall be made either from calendered sheets of not less than three plies lap-jointed and vulcanized into one solid body, or from a single ply extruded tube. The lap joints of calendered tubes shall be as small as is consistent with best manufacturing practice.

(4) The rubber lining shall be of a thickness not less than .04 of an inch at any point when measured on specimens buffed just to the point where the fabric impression left by the jacket is removed.

(5) Each set of hose couplings shall be provided with three rubber gaskets of good quality. One gasket shall fit accurately the swivel of the couplings, and one (not less than ⅛ of an inch thick) shall be placed under the end of each expansion ring. When the coupling is made up snugly, as in service, the gasket in the swivel shall not be compressed to such an extent as to project beyond the inside surface of the coupling.

(6) The hose shall have an internal diameter as shown by a tapered plug gauge of not less than the nominal size of the hose, except that in the case of 2½ inch hose, the internal diameter so measured shall not be less than 2 9/16 inches.

(7) Unless otherwise specified in the purchase order, hose shall be furnished in lengths averaging not less than 50 feet, measured from back to back of couplings and under a pressure of 10 pounds per square inch. No length before sampling shall be less than 48 feet.

(8) The hose with couplings attached shall meet the following hydrostatic proof pressure test requirements without leakage in the hose or at the couplings or breaking any threads in the jacket:

	Numerical requirements for—
	Single jacket		Double jacket
	1½ and 2 inch	2½ inch	1½ and 2 inch	2½ inch	3 and 3½ inch
Test pressure for initial requirements—pounds per square inch			10	10	10
Test pressure—pounds per square inch	300	300	400	400	400
Test pressure for kink test—pounds per square inch			350	350	250
Elongation at test pressure—maximum percent			8	8	8
Twist to right—maximum degrees per foot			29	12.5	12.5
Twist to left—maximum degrees per foot	0	0	0	0	0
Warp—maximum inches			20	20	20

The kink test may be required on only one sample per 100 lengths.

A twist to the right is indicated by a clockwise rotation of the coupling, looking from the hose toward the coupling. A twist to the left is indicated by a counter clockwise rotation. A maximum twist to the left of 2 degrees per foot will be permitted while pressure is being raised, but any final twist must be to the right.

Warp is defined as deviation from a straight line.

(9) A three foot sample, when subject to a burst test while lying straight, shall not burst below the pressure designated in the following table:

Kind of hose:	Burst pressure—pounds per square inch
Single jacket	450
Double jacket	600

(10) The hose shall meet the following tests with respect to the rubber lining:

(i) Tensile strength of at least 800 pounds per square inch when tested across the fold.

(ii) Ultimate elongation of at least 300%.

(iii) Tensile strength, as determined with test pieces ½ inch wide prepared from strips cut transversely across the fold which have been subjected to the action of dry heat of 158 degrees ± 2 degrees Fahrenheit for 96 hours, shall be not less than 75% of the strength before heating.

(11) The adhesion of the rubber lining to the jacket shall be such that a weight of 8 pounds suspended from a strip 1½ inches wide will cause separation at a rate not greater than 1 inch per minute. This requirement does not prohibit that construction wherein there is no adhesion between the jacket and lining along the fold, providing the surface over which there is no adhesion is not greater than 35% of the total surface.

(d) RAILROAD HOSE

The tube, cover, intermediate layer and friction for each of the classes of railroad hose listed below shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound for each part being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such class in Tables A, B, C, E and G of this subdivision (d). The physical properties of the compounds and tests on the hose shall meet the minimum requirements specified.

(1) Air brake and train air signal hose.

TABLE A

	Grade	Minimum gauge in inches	Minimum tensile p. s. i.	Minimum elongation	Minimum adhesion in pounds
				Percent
Tube	M-P	0.094	800	300	12 between tube and duck.
Friction	M-N				15 between plies of duck.
Cover	M-M	0.063	1,200	300	12 between cover and duck.

(i) Cotton reinforcement. The reinforcement shall consist of not less than four plies of cotton duck cut on a bias of approximately 45 degrees and applied evenly and firmly with not less than ½" lap not sewed. The plies of duck shall be well frictioned on both sides with M-N grade compound which shall firmly join the plies to the rubber tube and cover and to each other.

(ii) Rubber caps. Each length of hose shall have a rubber cap firmly vulcanized on each end.

(iii) Sampling. For each lot of 300 or less lengths of each size of hose, one extra length shall be furnished for test.

(iv) Hydrostatic test. A 17-in. section of hose shall be subjected to a hydrostatic pressure of 200 lbs. per sq. in. applied at the rate of not less than 100 lb. per sq. in. in 6 seconds. The expansion in circumference at this pressure shall be not more than ¾ in. for air-brake or 11/16 in. for air-signal hose. The hose shall show no leaks or other defects. After the above test, the same section of hose shall be subjected to a hydrostatic pressure of 500 lb. per sq. in. maintained for 10 minutes without leaking, bursting or showing other defects; after which the pressure shall be increased until the hose bursts, which shall not occur at a pressure of less than 700 lb. per sq. in.

(v) Dimensions and tolerances. The dimensions and tolerances of the hose shall be as follows:

	Length in inches	Outside diameter in inches	Inside diameter in inches	Thickness of end cap, in inches
Air-brake hose:
Maximum	22½	2⅛	1⁷⁄₁₆	⁴⁄₃₂
Minimum	22	2¹⁄₁₆	1⅜	¹⁄₃₂
Air-signal hose:
Maximum	22½	1⅞	1³⁄₁₆	⁴⁄₃₂
Minimum	22	1¹³⁄₁₆	1⅛	¹⁄₃₂

(vi) Label. The label shall be in accordance with AAR Specification EM-601-42. (2) Tender tank hose.

TABLE B

	Grade	Minimum gauge in inches	Minimum tensile p. s. i.	Minimum elongation	Minimum adhesion in pounds
				Percent
Tube	M-Q-1	0.070	600	200	10 between tube and duck.
Friction	M-N				12 between plies of duck.
Intermediate	M-Q-1	0.070			10 between intermediate layer and duck.
Cover	M-Q-1	0.060	600	200	10 between cover and duck.

(i) Cotton reinforcement. The reinforcement shall consist of plies of cotton duck cut on a bias of approximately 45 degrees and applied evenly and firmly with not less than ½" lap not sewed. The plies of duck shall be well frictioned on both sides with M-N grade compound which shall firmly join the plies to the rubber tube, cover and intermediate layer and to each other. A distinct intermediate layer of rubber shall be readily visible when the finished hose is cut open. At each end of the hose there shall be an extra ply of duck under the cover and extending for 6 inches from the end of the hose.

The cotton duck shall be either 15.4 oz. single yarn chafer or 16 oz. plied yarn chafer, the weight being based on a linear yard per 40" wide.

(ii) Helical wire reinforcement. The helical reinforcement shall be of thoroughly galvanized or copperized spring steel wire No. 9 BWG (0.148 inches). It shall be wound with not over 1 inch pitch throughout the length of the hose up to a point distant 3½" from each end of the hose. At this point the wire shall be turned to a straight line parallel with the axis of the hose and shall extend to a point 1 inch from the ends of the hose.

(iii) Intermediate rubber layer. The intermediate layer of rubber shall be formed completely around the wire and bonded to the duck.

(iv) Sampling. For lots of 25 to 100 lengths, of each size of hose one length shall have a prolong 18 inches long for test purposes. For lots less than 25, no prolong shall be supplied.

(v) Boiling water test. Samples of the tube, removed from the hose and buffed to a uniform thickness shall be immersed in boiling water for a period of eight hours. After removal and drying for 24 hours the type A test specimen shall be died from the immersed sample and tested. The tensile strength shall not be less than 50% of the original.

(vi) Bend test. A complete length of hose shall be bent 180 degress until two ends are parallel. The diameter of the inside of the bend shall be equal to three times the nominal inside diameter of the hose. The hose when bent in this position shall show no kinking.

(vii) Tolerance. (a) The inside diameter may vary by not more than ¹⁄₃₂" either way from that designated.

(b) The length of hose may vary by not more than ¼" either way from that designated.

(c) The outside diameter over soft ends of hose shall conform to the following table:

Nominal inside diameter in inches	Outside diameter in inches
	Maximum	Minimum
2¼	3¼	3⅛
2½	3½	3⅜
3	4	3⅞
3½	4½	4⅜
4	5	4⅞
4½	5½	5⅜

(viii) Label. The label shall be in accordance with AAR Specification EM-606-42.

(3) Cold water hose.

Over 1½"	M-R
Cover	M-T	0.047	550	200	5—sizes ¾" and under. 6—over ¾".

(i) Cotton reinforcement. The reinforcement shall consist of cotton duck for wrapped hose and braided fabric for braided hose. For wrapped hose the plies of duck shall be cut on a bias of approximately 45 degrees and applied evenly and firmly over the tube with not less than ½" lap, not sewed. The plies of duck shall be well frictioned on both sides with the designated grade of compound which shall firmly join the plies to the reclaimed rubber tube and cover and to each other. The plies of braided fabric shall be separated by a friction layer in the designated grade of compound which shall firmly join the plies to the reclaimed rubber tube and cover and to each other.

(ii) Sampling. From each lot of 1000 feet or less of each size of hose, a three foot section shall be taken for test purposes.

(iii) Hydrostatic test, dimensions, plies and tolerances. The bursting strength, as determined by straight burst method, the inside and outside diameters, minimum number of plies, shall be as designated in the following Table D:

TABLE D

Size I. D.	Outside diameter maximum—in inches	Minimum number of plies		Bursting strength minimum—p. s. i.

NOTE: ½" gas and oxygen hose, if required, shall conform to the same regulations as ⅜" and under for tube, friction and cover.

(i) Cotton reinforcement. The reinforcement shall consist of cotton duck for wrapped hose and braided fabric for braided hose. For wrapped hose the plies of duck shall be cut on a bias of approximately 45 degrees and applied evenly and firmly over the tube with not less than ½" lap, not sewed. The plies of duck shall be well frictioned on both sides with M-P grade compound which shall firmly join the plies to the rubber tube and cover and to each other. The plies of braided fabric shall be separated by a friction layer of M-P grade compound which shall firmly join the plies to rubber tube and cover and to each other.

(ii) Sampling. From each lot of 1,000 feet or less of each size of each kind of hose, a three foot section shall be taken for test purposes.

(iii) Hydrostatic test, dimensions, plies and tolerances. The bursting strength, as determined by straight burst test, the inside and outside diameters, minimum number of plies, and tolerances and dimensions shall be as designated in the following Table F:

NOTE 1: The inside diameter tolerance shall be plus or minus 3/128" on sizes 3/8" and under: plus or minus 1/32" on sizes 1/2" and 3/4", and plus or minus 1/16" on sizes over 3/4".

NOTE 2: The minimum O. D. on the 1/4", 5/16" and 3/8" sizes of gas and oxygen hose shall not be less than 1/16" under the maximum designated O. D.

(iv) Label. The label shall be in accordance with AAR Specification EM-603-42.

(v) Color. All compounds shall be black, except the cover on hose for acetylene-hydrogen which shall be red.

(5) Steam and hot water hose.

NOTE 1: The rack steaming test only shall be used

NOTE 2: Hose for general use shall, unless otherwise specified, be furnished in 50 ft. length.

Hose for car heating purposes shall be furnished in 24 in. length with a permissible variation of 1/4" either way.

(i) Cotton reinforcement. The reinforcement shall consist of plies of cotton duck cut on the bias and applied evenly and firmly over the tube with not less than a 1/2" lap not sewed. The number of plies shall be as shown in Table H appearing in subparagraph (iii) hereof.

The plies of duck shall be well frictioned on both sides with a rubber compound which shall firmly join the plies to the rubber tube and cover and to each other.

(ii) Sampling. Two samples, each 24" long, shall be taken from each lot of 1,000 or less feet of each size of long length hose, and from each lot of 300 or less lengths of car heating hose. One of these samples shall be used for the hydrostatic test, the other for the before and after steaming tests.

(iii) Hydrostatic test. One of the 24 in. test samples shall be subject to a hydrostatic pressure applied at the rate of not less than 100 lbs. per sq. in. in six seconds and shall withstand without bursting, leaking or developing other defects, the indicated pressure for the respective sizes of hose shown in the following Table H:

2	3	6	750

(iv) Tolerances. (a) The inside diameter may vary either way by not more than 1/32" from the dimensions shown.

(b) The inside diameter after the steam test shall be not more than 13 per cent greater than the original diameter for sizes 1 inch and over, and not more than 20 per cent for sizes less than 1 inch.

(v) Label. The label shall be in accordance with the AAR Specification EM-605-42.

LIST 4—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF PACKING

(a) The manufacture of packing shall be limited to the types and grades listed in this List 4.

(b) The fabric reinforced face and friction compounds, the non-fabric reinforced compounds and core compounds for each of the commercial types of packing shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound to be used being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such types. For these types of packing, when a compound grade is not designated, the maximum limitation on crude rubber by weight shall be that designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such type.

(c) The regulations contained in this List 4 shall not apply to the manufacture of component parts of watercraft, aircraft, military vehicles or gun mounts to fill war orders for the Army or Navy of the United States when the Army or Navy contract specifically requires the use of different compounds or constructions.

Description	Grade	Non-fabric reinforced compounds	Fabric-reinforced		Construction and/or service restrictions
			Face compound	Friction compound
Standard rubber sheet packing (known heretofore as red or black sheet packing) including cut, extruded, or molded strips, gaskets or packing rings of simple round, square, or rectangular cross section made from these compounds (except for application elsewhere defined).	1	M-M-2			Color: May be red or black. Service: (a) Designed for use against chemicals or foodstuffs, where contamination or the imparting of undesirable odors or taste is to be avoided. (b) Designed for use against saturated steam at pressures in excess of 50 p. s. i.
Shore hardness—75 min	2	M-S			Service: Designed for service other than listed for Grade 1.
Soft rubber sheet, including cut, extruded or molded strip, gaskets or packing rings of simple round, square or rectangular cross section (except for applications elsewhere defined):					Service: Soft rubber sheets in Grades 1, 2, and 3 are to be used only in packing designed for services where a grade softer than standard rubber sheet is absolutely necessary. Packing designed for use in bolted tanks shall be Grade 3 except that hardness may be in excess of 75.

LIST 6—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF HOG SCRAPER (BEATER) PADDLES

(a) The manufacture of hog scraper (beater) paddles shall be limited to the constructions listed in this List 6.

(b) Compounds for each of the grades of hog scraper paddles listed in Table A of this List 6 shall be made from one of the compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compounds to be used for covers, friction and coats being those hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such class:

Description	Cover compound	Friction compound	Coat or skim compound
Rubber covered	M-R	M-N	M-E
Friction surface		M-N	M-E

NOTE 1: The skim or coat shall not ex- .010 inch in thickness. Where skim coats are not used, a cushion layer of same quality as the skim may be used provided it does not exceed the combined gauges of the permissible skims.

NOTE 2: Maximum combined gauges of covers shall not exceed 3/16 inch.

LIST 7—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF LOOM PICKERS

(a) The manufacture of loom pickers shall be limited to the types listed in this List 7.

(b) Compounds for each of the types of loom pickers shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound to be used being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite description or designation of such type:

Type of product	Compound
Loom pickers for cotton weaving	M-P-1
Loom pickers for rayon weaving	M-K-1
Reversible drop box pickers for cotton or rayon	M-K-1

NOTE 1: The compounds specified above shall be employed only as a friction for the fabric.

NOTE 2: The color of compounds used in loom pickers is optional.

LIST 8—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF MILK AND MILKING MACHINE EQUIPMENT

(a) The manufacture of milk and milking machine equipment shall be limited to the items listed in this List 8.

(b) Compounds for each of the following types of rubber parts for milk and milking machine equipment shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound to be used being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite description or designation of such type:

Type of product	Compound
Milking inflations	M-A.
Milking tubing (single line)	M-H-1.
Milking tubing (twin line)	M-M-1.
Bottle filler rubbers	M-H-1.
Miscellaneous parts such as special gaskets, gland rings, bowl rings:
Grade 1. Shore hardness below 55	M-K.
Grade 2. Shore hardness 55-65	M-N.
Grade 3. Shore hardness 65-75	M-P-1.
Grade 4. Shore hardness above 75	M-S.

(c) The color of milking inflations is optional.

LIST 9—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF PIPE COUPLING RINGS

(a) The manufacture of pipe coupling rings shall be limited to the types listed in this List 9.

(b) Compounds for each of the grades of pipe coupling rings listed below shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound to be used being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such grade:

Compound	Service restriction
M-N or M-SB-8 or M-SN-6.	Designed for all types of coupling rings, bell joint clamp gaskets, and all types of rings, bands, plugs, gaskets, etc., for the repair of pipe.

LIST 10—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF PRESS DIE PADS

(a) The manufacture of press die pads shall be limited to the grades listed in this List 10.

(b) Compounds for press die pads shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound to be used being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such products:

Grade	Compound	Shore durometer
No. 1	M-A	Under 40.
No. 2	M-E	40 and over.

NOTE 1: In order to reverse the pad so that both sides can be used, pads shall not be manufactured with the rubber compound vulcanized to a steel plate.

NOTE 2: Rubber color stripes to identify hardness are permitted.

LIST 11—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF PRINTING RUBBER PRODUCTS

(a) The manufacture of printing rubber products shall be limited to the types and grades listed in this List 11.

(b) Compounds for each of the types of printing rubber products shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound to be used being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such type.

Type of product	Shore durometer	Compound
Printing plate gums	46-55	M-M-1 or M-SB-8 or M-SN-7.
Printing plate gums	56-65	M-N-1 or M-SB-9 or M-SN-8.
Printing plate gums	66-90	M-Q-1 or M-SB-10 or M-SN-9.
Printing plate insert and backing fabrics		M-R-1 or M-SB-8 or M-SN-7.
Adhesive fabric		M-E.
Offset blankets		M-J-1 or M-SB-7 or M-SN-6 or M-ST-5.
Newspaper blankets		M-L-1 or M-SB-8 or M-SN-7 or M-ST-5.
Cutting rubber		M-J-1 or M-SB-7 or M-SN-6.
Printing rolls		M-J-1 or M-SB-7 or M-SN-6.
Engraving rubber face stock	30-55	M-M-1 or M-SB-8 or M-SN-7.
Engraving rubber face stock	56-75	M-N-1 or M-SB-8 or M-SN-7.
Engraving rubber face stock	76-90	M-P-1 or M-SB-9 or M-SN-8.
Engraving rubber friction		M-Q-1 or M-SB-8 or M-SN-7.
Engraving rubber filler		M-Q-1 or M-SB-10 or M-SN-9.
Box die gums		M-M-1 or M-SB-7 or M-SN-6.

NOTE 1: In any combination of compounds, any one or group of compounds may be higher in crude rubber and RHC volume than the designated compound grade provided the total volume of crude rubber and RHC of all compounds is not in excess of that permitted.

NOTE 2: The thickness of face stocks on engraving rubber shall not exceed 1/8''.

NOTE 3: Red face stock may be used on offset blankets and newspaper blankets.

NOTE 4: Rolls (except feed rolls) used on duplicating, hectograph, mimeograph or similar reproducing equipment shall conform to the requirements for printing rolls.

LIST 12—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF RUBBER LINED TANKS, DRUMS AND RUBBER PROTECTED INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT.

(a) The manufacture of rubber lined tanks, drums and rubber protected industrial equipment shall be limited to the types and kinds set forth in this List 12.

(b) Compounds for each of the following types of rubber lined tanks, drums and rubber protected industrial equipment shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List I attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound to be used being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such type in Table A of this List 12.

TABLE A

Type of equipment	Compound	Construction and/or service restrictions
Rubber lined drums and tanks (hard or soft rubber).	M-F	1/8'' maximum thickness designed for use for temperature up to and including 150° F. 3/16'' maximum thickness designed for use for temperatures in excess of 150° F.
Rubber lined pipes and fittings	M-F	1/8'' maximum thickness in pipes up to and including 3'' diameter, regardless of anticipated temperature; also in pipes over 3'' in diameter designed for use where temperature is not in excess of 150° F. 3/16'' maximum thickness for pipes over 3'' in diameter designed for use where temperature is in excess of 150° F.

NOTE 1: The lining of tank cars is to be in accordance with I. C. C. specifications.

NOTE 2: No crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber shall be used in conjunction with tanks, barrels, pails, drums, racks, fume ducts or pipe and fittings for any operation connected with the plating or anodizing of materials.

NOTE 3: No crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber shall be used in lining or covering tanks and drums, pipe and fittings, when designed for purely abrasive services where no corrosive liquids are present.

NOTE 4: No outside rubber coverings shall be permitted extending more than a vertical distance of 2'' below the outside top edge of any rubber lined tank or more than 2'' from the outside edge of any rubber lined cover.

NOTE 5: Where corrosive chemicals and chemicals having a softening action on rubber are involved, an additional 1/16'' thickness may be employed.

NOTE 6: Where closed vessels or tanks operating under a vacuum of 18'' of mercury or more are involved, an additional thickness of 1/16'' may be used.

(c) Rubber protected fume ducts, fans, racks, frames, trays, screens, buckets, pails, dippers, funnels, and measures (for handling corrosive materials and explosives) shall employ the same restrictions and compounds as rubber lined tanks and drums.

(d) Rubber protected agitators, pumps, blowers, exhauster and pump lining, valves and valve parts shall be made from compound grade M-F, and the restrictions on thickness shall be the same as those for rubber lined tanks and drums, except that a greater thickness of rubber may be used where existing equipment makes it necessary to have such additional thickness to make the equipment function.

(e) Lining of centrifugal pumps designed to handle ore concentrates, slurry, sand and other highly abrasive material in suspension, shall be made from compound grade M-C, and the restrictions on thickness shall be the same as those for rubber lined tanks and drums, except that a greater thickness of rubber may be used where existing equipment makes it necessary to have such additional thickness to make the equipment function.

LIST 13—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF ABRASIVE IMPLEMENTS

(a) The manufacture of rubber bonded abrasive implements shall be limited to implements designed for the types of operations listed in this List 13.

(b) Crude rubber may be used in the manufacture of only those rubber bonded implements which are designed for the types of work listed below, and the only grade of compound to be used in their manufacture shall be that listed as M-N-2 in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended:

Ball and roller race.
Cut-off and thin slotting.
Stainless welds.
Heat sensitive and non-ferrous alloys.
Centerless and control.
Soft polishing and bonded cork.
Rubber asbestos products.
Shank mounted.
Disc mounted tie gum.
Weld grinding at bottom of slots.

LIST 14—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF MINE AND INDUSTRY SAFETY PARTS

(a) The manufacture of mine and industry safety parts shall be limited to the types and grades listed in this List 14.

(b) Compounds for each of the mine and industry safety parts listed below shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound to be used being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such grade in Table A of this List 14.

TABLE A

Type of product	Compound	Construction
Face pieces, respirators, goggles and accessories not elsewhere listed	M-K-1
Corrugated tubes	M-L
Flutter valve, valve mechanisms and valve assemblies	M-B

	Tube	Friction	Cover
Hose mask hose, as required by Bureau of Mines.	M-L or M-SN-9 or M-SB-9.	M-N or M-SN-7 or M-SB-7.	M-P or M-SN-7 or M-SB-7.	Cover—³⁄₃₂" max. Tube—¹⁄₁₆" max. I. D.—1 inch only. Maximum O. D.—1⁷⁄₁₆".

NOTE.—The color of face pieces, respirators, goggles and corrugated tubes is optional.

LIST 15—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF BRAKE LININGS, BRAKE BLOCKS AND CLUTCH FACINGS

(a) The manufacture of brake linings, brake blocks, and clutch facings shall be limited to the types and grades listed in this List 15.

(b) Compounds for each of the following types of brake linings, brake blocks and clutch facings shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 of Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound to be used being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such type in Tables A and B of this List 15.

TABLE A—BRAKE LININGS AND BLOCKS

Type of product	Compound
	Passenger cars	Trucks and buses	Industrial
Folded and compressed	M-T-3	M-T-3	M-S-3
Wire back	M-T-4	M-T-4	M-T-4
Sheeter	M-T-3	M-T-2	M-R-2
Extruded	M-T-1	M-T-1	M-R-2
Synthetic resin and/or oil bonded (not wire back)	M-T-4	M-S-5	M-S-5

TABLE B—CLUTCH FACINGS

Type of product	Passenger cars	Trucks and buses	Industrial
Formed and jointed	M-T-3	M-S-1	M-S-1
Whole cloth	M-T-3	M-S-1	M-S-1
Spiral wound and chevron	M-T-3	M-S-4	M-S-1
Molded resin bonded	M-T-4	M-T-4	M-S-5
Sheeter	M-T-3	M-T-2	M-R-2

NOTE 1: Vehicles over 1½ tons capacity are considered as trucks and/or buses.

LIST 16—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF RUBBER COVERED ROLLS [EXCEPT DOMESTIC WASHING MACHINE WRINGER, PRINTERS, FINGER PRINT AND BUSINESS MACHINES]

(a) Roll covering compounds for each of the types of rolls, listed in Table A below shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 1 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such grade in Table A of this List 16.

TABLE A—Pusey & Jones Plastometer (hardness—⅛" ball)

	Grade of compound
Above 220	M-C, M-SB-5, M-SN-5 or M-ST-2.
180–220	M-D, M-SB-5, M-SN-5 or M-ST-2.
90–180	M-E, M-SB-5, M-SN-5 or M-ST-2.
60–90	M-F, M-SB-5, M-SN-5 or M-ST-2.
0–60	M-G-1, M-SB-5, M-SN-5 or M-ST-2.
Base rubber for rolls of all hardnesses	M-H-2.

(b) The cover thickness of each of the types of rolls listed in Table B of this List 16 shall not exceed that specified for such type in such Table B.

TABLE B

Industry	Type of roll	Maximum cover thickness
Paper mill rolls: Group 1	Press, smoothing, sizing, lump breaker, breast pad.	¾" on rolls up to and including 24" core diameter. ⅞" on rolls of larger core diameter.
	Waxing—all types—Baby, monkey and primary press.	¾". When used as top roll ¾"; when used as bottom roll ½".
Group 2	Suction press	⅞".
	Couch, including cylinder wet machine and extractor.	1¼".
	Couch, for deckers, thickeners, save-alls and washers.	½".
	Felt, table, wire and carrier guide	¼".
	Worm felt	¼" over-all.
	Draw cutters (wormed)	½" over-all.
	Coating	1".

NOTE 1: Coverings for the classes of rolls described in Group 2 above may be applied only to cores already in use as a component part of the machine. No new cores for existing or new machines may be covered with rubber.

NOTE 2: Embossing rolls shall not be rubber covered.

Industry	Type of roll	Maximum cover thickness
		Inches
Steel mill rolls	Electrolytic and tinning	⅝
	Scrubber	1½
	Carrier and support	1
	Dancer and immersion	¾
	Acid	¾
	Pinch	1½
	Polishing	1¼
	Bonderizing	¾
Tanning rolls	Splitting machines	1
	Setting-out, buffing, flashing, putting-out, unhairing.	¾
	Wringer, shaving, breast and staking	½
Textile rolls: For flat goods service	Top rolls—all types	⅝
	Bottom rolls	⅜
For rope form and warp yarn service	Top rolls—all types	¾
	Bottom	⅜
For other services, including jig, beam, immersion guide, and where protective covering against corrosive chemicals is required		¼

NOTE: Wool scouring rolls may be made to existing dimensions.

Other industrial rolls. Agricultural equipment rolls and gluing rolls may not be covered with rubber compound in excess of ¾". No type of industrial rolls not mentioned in this List 16 shall be covered with rubber or rubber compounds.

NOTE 1: On all rolls where ends, shafts or shoulders are protected from corrosion with coverings, the thickness of the end covering shall not exceed ¼", except when used for pickling stainless steel, where nitric acid and/or hydrofluoric acid is used, the thickness should not exceed ¾".

NOTE 2: The maximum thickness of covers may be exceeded where definite diameters are necessary to maintain peripheral speed, or where definite diameters are necessary to maintain tension by the use of graduated diameter in continuous finishing operations.

NOTE 3: The color of roll covering compounds is optional.

LIST 17—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF SOLES, TAPS, SHEET SOLING, TOPLIFTS, HEELS AND HEEL BASES.

These regulations govern the manufacture of all soles, taps, sheet soling, toplifts, heels and heel bases made in whole or in part of crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber.

(a) COMPOUNDS

MAXIMUM PERCENT BY VOLUME

Compound grade	Crude rubber	Synthetic rubber (SRV)	Uncured friction scrap	Total RHC	Abrasive index	P & J hardness[1]
						Maximum	Minimum
HA	45	0	0	65	65	.75 mm.	.68 mm.
HC	0	0	0	55	25	.80 mm.	.50 mm.
HD	0	0	0	50	20	.80 mm.	.50 mm.
HE	0	0	0	45	15	.80 mm.	.50 mm.
HF	0	0	0	45	10	.80 mm.	.50 mm.
HK	40	0	0	60	65	.35 mm.	.30 mm.
HL	0	0	10	45	26	-----	-----
HM	0	0	0	55	22	.53 mm.	.42 mm.
HO	0	0	0	50	20	.40 mm.	.27 mm.
H-SN-11 (Chloroprene)	0	40	0	10	-----	-----	-----
H-SB-12 (Butadiene)	0	35	0	15	-----	-----	-----

[1] For reference only, the following equivalent Shore durometer hardness figures, which are approximately equivalent, are given for the Pusey and Jones (P & J) hardness figures, designated in the table above.

P & J .80 mm to .50 mm equivalent to 65 to 80 Shore.
P & J .53 mm to .42 mm equivalent to 75 to 82 Shore.
P & J .40 mm to .27 mm equivalent to 85 to 95 Shore.
P & J .35 mm to .30 mm equivalent to 87 to 93 Shore.
P & J .75 mm to .68 mm equivalent to 68 to 70 Shore.

NOTE 1: A minus tolerance of two points from the specified abrasive index requirements is permitted, with an unlimited plus tolerance.

NOTE 2: For Grade HL compound, the RHC of the uncured cord friction scrap is not included in the total.

NOTE 3: Reclaimed rubber of a quality better than first quality whole tire grade is not permitted to be used in any of these compounds. This prohibits the use of tube reclaim, floating scrap reclaim, carcass reclaim and any other grade of reclaimed rubber with an RHC greater than 55 per cent by weight. The use of in-process scrap and/or uncured friction scrap is prohibited in all sole and heel compounds, except as expressly permitted by subdivision (a) of this List 17.

NOTE 4: HF compound shall not contain any reclaimed rubber derived in whole or in part from pneumatic or solid tire (including tire beads), bogie wheels, tire tubes, or floating scrap, or any grade of reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber with an RHC greater than 40% by weight.

NOTE 5: Black is the only color permitted in the products covered by these specifications.

NOTE 6: Not less than 3% of suitable antioxidants by weight based on the total weight of rubber hydrocarbon (RHC) shall be used in HL and HM compounds, one-third of which shall be of a recognized flex-resisting type.

NOTE 7: Clean cut cotton cords or cords from tire carcasses may be used in HF, HL, and HM compounds to meet the necessary requirements for corded soles, taps and heels.

NOTE 8: The methods of Federal Specification EA-ZZ H141 and ZZ R601 shall be applicable to these regulations.

NOTE 9: All conductive soles and heels shall meet the standards of the ASA specifications.

NOTE 10: No toplifts, heels or heel bases may be cut out of any scrap rubber, tires or belting.

NOTE 11: Soling material may be cut from scrap tire casings or scrap belting.

(b) HEELS AND HEEL BASES

(1) Corded heels made from HL compound may be manufactured only to fill war orders.

(2) HC compound may be used only in heels using an inert core, which shall be manufactured only to fill war orders. For whole heels a core of 0.366" ± .03" thickness shall be used, while for half heels a core of 0.183" ± 0.015" thickness shall be used.

(3) HD compound may be used only in washer well type heels and may be manufactured only to fill war orders.

(4) HF compound only may be used in "Steel Plate" heels, with the tensile, elongation and abrasive index requirements waived. The hardness shall be between .18 mm. and .40 mm.

(5) HF compound only may be used in heel bases, with the tensile, elongation and abrasive index requirements waived. The hardness shall be between .18 mm. and .40 mm.

(6) All heels, except those to fill war orders and conductive types, shall be made of HF compound only.

(7) All heels made of HF compound shall have a minimum tensile of 400 p. s. i. with a minimum elongation of 150% in addition to meeting other requirements set forth for such heels in subdivision (a) of this List 17.

(8) HK compound may be used only in the manufacture of conductive heels.

(c) SOLES, TAPS, SHEET SOLING AND TOPLIFTS

(1) Composition soles, taps and sheet soling, except oil resisting and conductive types, shall be made only from HM compound.

(2) Corded soles and taps, either transverse or cord on end, made from HL compound, may be manufactured only to fill war orders or orders for industrial work or utility shoes.

(3) Molded toplifts and toplifting material may be manufactured from HO compound only.

(4) Synthetic oil-resisting compounds H-SB-12 and H-SN-11 may be used only on orders for industrial work shoes requiring soles and heels with oil-resisting properties.

(5) HA compound may be used only in the manufacture of conductive soles.

List 18—Regulations for the Manufacture of Industrial Occupational Protective Clothing

(a) The manufacture of industrial occupational protective clothing shall be limited to pants, coats, jackets, hats and firemen's and policemen's clothing; provided that this limitation shall not apply to:

(1) Self-inflating life preservers and dual tube belts when required to fill war orders.

(2) Commercial diving equipment.

(3) Gloves

(4) Waterproof footwear.

(5) Life saving suits designed for use by seamen.

(b) No crude rubber, synthetic rubber or latex shall be used in compounds for rubberizing the fabrics for these products.

(c) Single coated fabrics shall contain not more than 12 ounces of compounds per square yard.

(d) Double coated fabrics shall contain not more than 19 ounces of compounds per square yard.

(e) Double texture fabrics shall contain not more than 10 ounces of compounds per square yard.

(f) Crude rubber or synthetic rubber may be used in the manufacture of cements and/or tapes necessary for seaming in the manufacture of these products.

(g) Not over three pounds of crude rubber may be used in a complete life saving suit, including shoes, gloves, hood, fasteners and suit.

List 19—Regulations for the Manufacture of Hard Rubber Products

No person shall consume any crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber in the manufacture of any of the types of products listed below, except in accordance with the regulations set forth in this List 19.

(a) COMPOUNDS

Grade	Maximum percent by volume
	Crude rubber and latex	Total RHC
HR-A	85	85
HR-B	80	80
HR-C	70	70
HR-D	60	75
HR-D-1	60	60
HR-E	50	65
HR-E-1	50	50
HR-E-2	45	60
HR-F	40	55
HR-F-1	40	40
HR-G	30	55
HR-G-1	30	30
HR-H	20	50
HR-H-1	20	35
HR-H-2	20	20
HR-I	10	50
HR-J	0	50

Note 1: Where used in this List 19 the terms "rubber hydrocarbon" and "(RHC)" mean the sum total of crude rubber and the average rubber value of the reclaimed rubber used, expressed on a volume basis, as determined from the specific gravity of the unvulcanized compound.

Note 2: The rubber hydrocarbon (RHC) of hard rubber dust derived from scrap rubber is not included in the total RHC content. The rubber hydrocarbon of hard rubber dust, manufactured from crude rubber or reclaimed rubber, however, is included in the total RHC.

Note 3: Synthetic rubber may be substituted for crude rubber, in whole or in part, in the above compounds, provided the sum of the SRV by volume and RHC by volume does not exceed the maximum total RHC of the grade designated.

Note 4: Compounds of lower rubber and rubber hydrocarbon (RHC) content may be used in manufacturing hard rubber products listed in this List 19, provided the physical requirements, where designated, are met.

(b) HARD RUBBER PRODUCTS

Hard rubber compounds for each of the types of products listed below shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in subdivision (a) of this List 19, the appropriate grade of compound to be used being that hereinbelow designated opposite the description or designation of each such type.

(1) Hard rubber products designed for handling corrosive chemicals and explosives.

Type of product	Compound
Bottles, (Blown):
Body	HR-F.
Sealing bond	HR-D.
Baskets, centrifuge-lined and covered perforated metal. Maximum thickness cover and lining shall be 3/16″. Maximum thickness hole lining shall be 5/16″	HR-C.
Baskets—etching, buckets, pails, dippers, funnels, measures, beakers, frames, racks and trays	HR-H.
Bleaching rods and dye sticks	HR-B.
Component hard rubber parts of machinery for manufacture of rayon and chlorine:
Hand made	HR-D-1.
Molded	HR-E-1.
Fittings—tees, ells, flanges, crosses, unions and couplings:
Molded	HR-G.
Blown	HR-E.
Pipe	HR-G.
Pumps, molded valves and valve parts	HR-F.
Pump lining	HR-C.
Valves and valve parts (blown)	HR-E.

(2) Sheet, rod and tubing.

Type of product	Compound	Construction and/or service restrictions
Sheet	HR-E HR-G	Thickness—1/16″ and under. Thickness—over 1/16″. Service—for dielectric purposes and resistance to corrosive chemicals only.
Rod	HR-E-2 HR-G	Diameter—1/8″ or less. Diameter—over 1/8″. Service—for dielectric purposes and resistance to corrosive chemicals only.
Tubing	HR-D HR-G	Wall thickness—3/32″. Wall thickness—over 3/32″. Service—for dielectric purposes and for handling corrosive chemicals only.

Note: Where the finished dimensions of an article machined from sheet are less than 1/16″, rod less than 1/8″ diameter or tubing less than 3/32″ wall thickness, or where such products require special characteristics, such as low power factor or high dielectric strength, compound HR-B may be used.

(3) Molded parts.

Type of product	Compound	Construction and/or service restrictions
Cable connectors and terminal blocks	HR-H	Service—for . lelectric purposes.
Insulated tools	HR-J	Service—for dielectric purposes.
Magneto parts	HR-E-1	Service—for dielectric purposes.
Mine safety lamp parts	HR-C
Hard rubber pipe—connections and accessories	HR-G	Service—medical, surgical, dental, veterinary and mortuary types only.
Syringe pipes and combination fittings	HR-G-1
Pessaries	HR-D
Water meter parts:
Molded	HR-D	Service—For water meter parts only.
Blown	HR-D
Sheet, rod and tubes	HR-D

(4) Hard rubber latex coverings.

Type of product	Compound	Construction and/or service restrictions
Coverings for fume ducts, fans, racks, frames, trays, screens, pipe and fittings, buckets, dippers, funnels, measures, drums, pumps, valves, baskets and agitators.	HR-A	Service—for protecting equipment from corrosive chemicals and fumes.

(5) Storage battery parts.

Type of product	Compound	Range of physical properties
Binding strips	HR-D
Separators, sheet or molded retainers	HR-E-1
Tubular retainers	HR-D-1
Support and tie rods	HR-G
Hand built jars, except radio, farm-light, mine safety and automotive S. L. I. types.	HR-I	1,500 lbs.—3,000 p. s. i. 20%—3% elongation.
Hand built monoblocs except radio, farm-light, mine safety and automotive S. L. I.	HR-H	2,000 lbs.—4,200 p. s. i. 10.5%—5% elongation.
Molded single cell jars and molded monoblocs, except automotive S. L. I. S. A. E. Groups 1, 2 and 3.	HR-J	1,300 lbs.—2,000 p. s. i. or more. 6%—1% elongation.
Molded covers, vents filler caps, splash covers, discs and sleeves, molded plate supports, bridges, wedges, protectors, insulators, spacers, boots, moss shields, post sealing nuts.	HR-J	1,300 lbs.—2,000 p. s. i. or more. 6%—1% elongation.
Mine safety battery parts	HR-A

Note 1: No crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be consumed in the manufacture of hard rubber storage battery parts except for the parts designated above.

Note 2: No crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed or scrap rubber may be consumed in the manufacture of separators or retainers for use in radio, farm lighting or automotive S. L. I. batteries, except to fill war orders.

(6) Hard Rubber—Army, Navy and Federal specifications.

Type of product	Compound	Specifications and physical requirements
Army aircraft battery containers	HR-D	70-20-d. Tensile—4,000 lbs.-7.5% elongation. 5,000 lbs.-6.0% elongation. 6,000 lbs.-5.0% elongation. Tensile product—30,000.
Army aircraft battery vents	HR-J	70-20-d. Tensile—1,300 lbs.— 2,000 p. s. i. or more 6%-1% elongation.
Navy portable batteries: Monoblocs	HR-H	17B4 (int.) Tensile—1,800-4,200 lbs. p. s. i. 12%-5% elongation
Covers and vents	HR-J	Tensile—2,400 lbs. p. s. i. 4% elongation
Signal Corps battery containers:
Outside covers and cases	HR-B	70-20-d. Tensile—4,000 lbs.-5,000 lbs.-6,000 lbs. Elongation 7.5%-6%-5% Tensile product 30,000
Inner covers and vents	HR-J	Tensile—2,400 lbs. p. s. i. 4% elongation
Ordnance vehicle battery containers, covers and vents.	HR-J	RIXS-108. Tensile—1,300 lbs.-2,000 lbs. or more 6%-2% elongation.

List 20—Regulations for the Manufacture of Rubber Insulating Tape

(a) Rubber insulating tape shall be manufactured only from unvulcanized or partially vulcanized crude rubber and reclaimed rubber compounds.

(b) The thickness shall be .027 inches, plus or minus .003 inches.

(c) Crude rubber shall not be used in proportions which will require more than seven pounds of crude rubber or more than twenty-one pounds of reclaimed rubber per 27,000 square inches of tape.

(d) Rubber insulating tape shall conform to Emergency Alternate Federal Specification E-HH-T-111a, as amended June 23, 1942.

List 21—Regulations for the Manufacture of Rubber Footwear

(a) The production of footwear, except as permitted by subdivisions (b) and (c) of this List 21, shall be limited to the following items, and the average amount of crude rubber and latex per pair used in the manufacture of each item shall not be greater than the indicated maximum weight:

Item	Average weight of crude rubber and latex per pair maximum (in pounds)
Men's short boot (14″ height, square top	1.00
Men's 4-buckle cloth farm-weight arctic	.65
Men's 4-buckle cloth light-weight arctic	.55
Boys' 3-buckle cloth light-weight arctic	.45
Youth's 3-buckle cloth light-weight arctic	.40
Women's 2-snap gaiter (rubber)	.25
Misses' 2-snap gaiter (rubber)	.25
Child's 2-snap gaiter (rubber)	.20
Men's work rubber, semistorm and storm	.50
Men's dress rubber, storm and over (soft back only)	.30
Men's clog	.125
Boy's dress rubber, storm and over (soft back only)	.25
Youth's storm rubber	.25
Women's toe rubber	.10
Growing girls' storm and women's over (maximum 16/8 heel)	.20
Misses' storm rubber	.20
Child's storm rubber	.17

(b) The production of severe occupational footwear for other than war orders shall be limited to the following items, and the average amount of crude rubber and latex per pair used in the manufacture of each item shall not be greater than the indicated maximum weight:

Item	Average weight of crude rubber and latex per pair maximum (in pounds)
Men's short boot (plain toe)	1.50
Men's short boot (steel toe)	1.57
Men's storm king boot (plain toe)	2.00
Men's storm king boot (steel toe)	2.07
Men's hip boot (plain toe)	2.30
Men's hip boot (steel toe)	2.37
Men's 15″ lace mine pac (plain toe)	1.50
Men's 15″ lace mine pac (steel toe)	1.57
Men's workshoe (plain toe)	.95
Men's workshoe (steel toe)	1.02

(c) The production of footwear to fill war orders shall be limited to the items and respective maximum weights listed in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this List 21 and to the following additional items, and the average amount of crude rubber and latex per pair used in the manufacture of each item listed below shall not be greater than the indicated maximum weight:

Item	Average weight of crude rubber and latex per pair maximum (in pounds)
Wader, over the shoe, arm-pit height	3.50
Wader, over the shoe, waist height	2.90
Men's hip boot, alternate light weight	1.85
Men's toplace short boot	1.25
Men's 4-buckle cloth arctic, BQD No. 56B	.68
Men's cashmerette four-buckle arctic No. 72A2B	.75
Men's six-buckle height arctic, Bur. of Aero	.75
Men's four-buckle height arctic, Bur. of Aero	.68
Men's flying boots, A6, A9, A10	Cements only
Men's aviation wading shoes, Bur. of Aero	.38
Men's shoe pac (shell)	.68

Item	Average weight of crude rubber and latex per pair maximum (in pounds)
Men's shoe pac (shell) Yukon type BQD No. 57E	.68
Boots, canvas upper, BQD No. 79	.65
Men's storm Navy rubber	.35
Overshoes, clog type, non-slip sole	.30
Gymnasium shoe	.07

(d) Variations from the average weights of crude rubber and latex per pair maximum are permitted as follows:

Plus 10%.
Minus unlimited.

(e) All rubber footwear shall be manufactured in black color only.

(f) No crude rubber shall be used for label plasters.

LIST 22—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF COMPOUNDS FOR TIRES, TIRE CASINGS, CAMELBACK, CAPPING STOCK AND TIRE AND TUBE REPAIR MATERIALS

These regulations govern the manufacture of compounds for tires, tire casings, camelback, capping stock and tire and tube repair materials. Other lists now and hereafter attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1 will govern the use of these compounds in the manufacture of finished products. These compounds need be used only when required by other regulations contained in lists now or hereafter attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended. The variations permitted by this revised List 22 are allowed in the manufacture of finished products covered by other applicable lists unless expressly prohibited by such other lists.

COMPOUNDS

Description of product		Maximum percent by volume
Type	Grade	Crude rubber and latex	Total RHC
(1) Tread compounds	A	73.0	73.0
	B	59.5	72.6
	C	47.9	71.5
	D	40.4	71.1
	E	26.0	68.8
	F	0.0	67.0
(2) Friction compounds	A	88.5	89.2
	B	78.0	89.2

	C	60.0	86.3
	D	43.0	80.5
	E	19.0	73.8
	FF	6.4	70.2
	F	0.0	67.5

NOTE: Variations from the above regulations are permitted as follows:

	Tread compounds	Friction compounds
Crude rubber and latex.	Plus 0, minus 2.	Plus 0, minus 5.
Total RHC	Plus 2, minus (limited only by designated minimum percent of crude rubber and latex).	Plus 5, minus (limited only by designated minimum percent of crude rubber and latex).

LIST 23—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF TIRE AND TUBE REPAIR MATERIALS

The manufacture of tire and tube repair materials shall be limited to the types and grades listed in this List 23.

The grade of compound to be used in manufacturing each type shall be one of those listed in List 22 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound being that set forth opposite the description of each type in the following table:

Description of item	Compound
	Type	Grade
(1) Tread repair stock (maximum thickness 1/16").	Tread	C.
(2) Tread repair stock (to fill war orders only).	do	B.
(3) Repair plugs (cured)	do	F.
(4) Truck tire repair cushion stock.	Friction	A.
(5) Passenger tire repair cushion stock.	do	C.
(6) Truck tire cord repair friction.	do	A.
(7) Passenger tire cord repair friction.	do	C.
(8) Square woven fabric friction	do	A.
(9) Truck tire repair patches (cured and uncured).	do	C or better.
(10) Passenger tire repair patches (cured and uncured).	do	Any.
(11) Combination tube repair gum (cured back, uncured face).	do	C.
(12) Tube repair gum (uncured).	do	B.
(13) Cements (cold-cure)	Minimum .25 pound crude rubber per gallon.
(14) Cements (vulcanizing)	Minimum .55 pound crude rubber per gallon.

NOTE 1: Of the above materials items 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 9 and 10 shall be manufactured in black color only.

NOTE 2: In item 11 different grades of compounds may be used in the cured and uncured portions of each, provided the total crude rubber content in the whole item does not exceed the per cent represented by the compound grade specified.

NOTE 3: No repair kit containing any of the above materials, except garage kits, may contain more than .04 pounds of combination tube repair gum nor more than 1.5 cubic inches of any rubber cement.

NOTE 4: Garage kit containing any of the above materials shall contain either one-third pound, one-half pound or one pound of combination tube repair gum and not more than one-half pint of any rubber cement.

NOTE 5: The overall gauge of any combination tube repair gum manufactured shall not exceed .05 inch, including holland cloth or other protective material.

NOTE 6: Any package or container containing any of the above materials shall bear the name of the manufacturer of the materials.

LIST 24—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF TIRES AND TIRE CASINGS (EXCEPT AIRPLANE AND BICYCLE TIRES).

(a) For other than war orders. (1) Except as provided in subdivisions (a) (3) and (b) of this List 24, the manufacture of tires and tire casings (except airplane and bicycle tires) shall be limited to the sizes, plies and tread types listed in this subdivision (a).

The friction and tread, respectively, of each of the sizes listed in this subdivision (a) shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 22 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, and (where designated) the maximum crude rubber and latex content shall not exceed that designated, the appropriate grade of compound to be used for each respective friction and tread and (where specified) the maximum crude rubber and latex content being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such size.

(2) No person shall manufacture any size of tire in more than one design of regular tread type, unless such manufacturers' mold equipment for such size and tread design is insufficient for his requirements.

(3) Mileage tires (for city and intercity bus mileage contracts) may be manufactured from friction and tread compounds up to and including Grade A compounds, as set forth in said List 22, without restriction as to sizes, plies or tread design.

(4) Rayon shall not be used in the manufacture of any tires except mileage contract tires for city and intercity buses, and tires of WPB sizes numbers 29, 31, 34, 36 and 41 in the number of plies specified for such sizes. Tires so manufactured shall be produced in the same molds used for regular skid-depth cotton tires, and shall be marked to indicate their rayon construction.

(5) Each tire casing manufactured under these specifications, except tire casings manufactured to fill war orders, shall be branded on the serial side near the serial number with the words "War Tire" and the letters representing the respective grades of compounds designated for the friction and the tread. In WPB sizes 202, 206, 208, 210, 213, 217, 219, 225 and 227 the word "Reclaim" shall also be branded on the tire, and the friction and tread compound designations may be omitted. Letters used to brand tires of a cross-section of 6.50 inches or more shall be at least 5/16 inch high, while those used to brand smaller tires shall be at least 3/16 inch high.

(b) To fill war orders. (1) The manufacture of tires and tire casings (other than airplane and bicycle tires) to fill war orders shall be confined to the respective sizes, plies, tread types, compounds and (where designated) maximum crude rubber and latex contents designated in subdivisions (a) (1), (b) (2) and (b) (6) of this List 24 (except WPB sizes 3, 202, 206, 208, 210, 213, 217, 219, 225 and 227, which shall not be manufactured for war orders).

(2) The friction, tread and (where designated) maximum crude rubber and latex content, respectively, of each of the sizes of tires and tire casings listed below shall be made from one of the grades and compounds listed in said List 22, the appropriate grade of compound to be used for each respective friction and tread and (where designated) the maximum crude rubber and latex content being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such size.

24-inch rims	14.00	52.40	53.10

(5) Standard tread radii of mud-snow approved non-directional type treads shall be between 80 and 95 percent of the line cross-section width of the Tire and Rim Association's standard tire sections, according to its most recent standards effective prior to January 11, 1943.

(6) Run-flat (English) and combat (U. S.) tires to fill war orders may be manufactured in any sizes, plies and tread designs, and from any friction and tread compounds up to and including A grade compounds as listed in said List 22.

(7) Rayon shall not be used in the manufacture of any tires (including tires of the kinds and sizes referred to in subdivision (a) (4) of this List 24) to fill any war order, except war orders for U. S. combat tires.

(8) Where required to fill war orders, single marked, high pressure types may be substituted for WPB sizes 21, 22, 24, 25, 27, 28, 33, 43, 44 and 45.

(c) Regulations in appealed cases. The friction and the tread, respectively, of truck tires of sizes, plies and tread types not designated in subdivisions (a) and (b) hereof which may be permitted on appeal by special authorization of the Director General for Operations shall, unless otherwise specified in such authorization, be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in said List 22, the appropriate grade of compound to be used for each respective friction or tread being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description or designation of such class.

Description of product	Compounds
	Friction	Tread
13–24 inch rims, size 7.00 and smaller, 8 ply and less	C	C
13–24 inch rims, size 7.50, 8 ply and less	B	B
13–24 inch rims, size 8.25 and larger, 10 ply and more	A	B

(d) Maximum crude rubber and latex content. (1) With the grades of compounds specified in subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of this List 24, a manufacturer can calculate the maximum amount of crude rubber, latex and total RHC which may be used in the manufacture of a tire or tire casing of any specified type or size. Within the maximum amounts thus calculated, a manufacturer may, in his discretion, shift the amounts between friction and tread. After January 11, 1943, the compound regulations shall not apply, and a manufacturer may not use in the manufacture of any tire or tire casing more crude rubber and latex than the amount set forth opposite each size and type in said subdivisions (a) and (b), such amount to exclude processing losses and the crude rubber used for curing bags. The waiver of compound grades and the restrictions on crude rubber and latex content shall not apply in the case of the sizes for which no such maximum amount is set forth.

(2) Notwithstanding any provisions of subdivision (b) (1) of said List 22, a minus tolerance of not more than 5% of the maximum crude rubber and latex content specified above is permitted.

(3) When the cord used in any tire is of a gauge of less than .027 inches, as measured by the most recent ASTM methods in effect prior to January 11, 1943, the maximum crude rubber and latex content permitted shall be reduced by 6%.

(4) In the event that the crude rubber and latex content of any tire or tire casing manufactured by any person on January 11, 1943, is less than the maximum permitted above, after giving effect to the minus tolerance of 5%, such person shall not increase the crude rubber and latex content of such tire or tire casing.

(5) Where, immediately prior to January 11, 1943, any type and size of tire manufactured by any manufacturer had a crude rubber and latex content in excess of 105 per cent of the maximum crude rubber and latex content allowed by this List 24 for such type and size of tire, such manufacturer shall make no change in the construction of or compounds for such type and size of tire without special authorization from the Director General for Operations either (i) to acquire new tire molds, (ii) to recut his existing tire molds, (iii) to reduce the quality of compounds, or (iv) exceed the maximum crude rubber and latex content specified therefor in this List 24. All requests for such authorization shall be submitted as appeals on Form PD–500–b. Where, immediately prior to January 11, 1943, the type and size of tire of any manufacturer exceeded the maximum crude rubber and latex content permitted therefor by this List 24 by not more than five per cent, such manufacturer may make such change in construction or compounds as may be necessary to meet the regulations of this List 24 without further authorization, or may appeal (on Form PD–500–b) for permission to exceed the maximum crude rubber and latex content allowed by this List 24. This paragraph does not constitute an authorization to manufacture tires having a maximum crude rubber and latex content in excess of that permitted by this List 24.

(6) Any person may, with special authorization of the Director General for Operations, use lower grades of compounds than those designated above, or make reductions below the maximum crude rubber and latex content allowed, after giving effect to the minus tolerance: Provided, That the tires manufactured thereby shall bear the name of the manufacturer and, where produced to fill war orders, shall meet the specifications of the purchasers. All requests for such special authorization shall be submitted as appeals on Form PD-500–b.

(e) Definition. Where used in this List 24: "regular" as applied to tread type means standard "100" level, on-the-road type.

List 25—Regulations for the Manufacture of Tire Tubes (Except Airplane Tire Tubes and Bicycle Tire Tubes)

(a) The manufacture of tire tubes (except airplane tire tubes and bicycle tire tubes) shall be limited to the types and sizes specified in this List 25.

(b) No tire tube of the types and sizes listed in this List 25 shall have a crude rubber content, excluding processing losses and valves, in excess of the amount designated hereinbelow for each such type and size:

Variations from the above maximum crude rubber weights shall be permitted to the extent of −5%.

(c) In the event that the crude rubber content for a tire tube of a given type and size manufactured by any person on January 11, 1943 is less than the maximum indicated above, after allowance for the −5% tolerance, such person shall make no change in the crude rubber content of such tubes.

(d) The foregoing restrictions on crude rubber content of tire tubes shall not apply to tire tubes for use with mileage bus contract tires.

List 26—Regulations for the Manufacture of Truck Tire Flaps

The maximum amounts of crude rubber per flap shall not exceed the amounts set forth in the following table opposite the description of each size and type of flap:

Tire size	Rim width	Rim type	Maximum weight of crude rubber (in pounds)
6.00-16	4.50	Semidrop centre	.65

Sizes not listed shall be in proportion to sizes shown.

The amount of crude rubber allowed in flaps designed for use with combat tires may be increased 10% in those cases in which a bead lock is used.

These restrictions shall not apply to the manufacture of flaps for use with mileage contract bus tires.

In the event a manufacturer on January 11, 1943 was using less crude rubber in any size of flap than the maximum amounts listed in this List 26, he shall not increase the amount of crude rubber used in manufacturing flaps of the same size.

List 27—Regulations for the Manufacture of Insulated Wire and Cable

(a) GENERAL PROVISIONS

(1) The manufacture of rubber-covered insulated wire and cable shall be limited to the types and grades listed in this List 27.

(2) The regulations contained in this List 27 shall not apply to the manufacture of component parts of watercraft, aircraft, combat vehicles or gun mounts to fill war orders for the Army or Navy of the United States when the Army or Navy contract specifically requires the use of different compounds or constructions; or in any case for wire, cable or tape of the following types:

(i) Submarine cable designed for communications, light and power.

(ii) Oil and gas well logging cable.

(iii) Military field communication wire, search light, flood light and fire control cable and Radar Detector Cable.

(iv) Rubber compound tape designed for splicing and terminal use with products listed in (i), (ii) and (iii) above.

(b) COMPOUNDS

The following are the compounds hereinafter referred to in this List 27:

Use	Compound grade	Maximum per cent by volume			Performance reference
		Crude rubber	Synthetic rubber SRV	Total RHC
(1) Insulation	W-A	55	0	65	Performance Type RP or ASTM-D-353-1941 Heat resistant type-RH, or ASTM-EA-D-469.
	W-B	35	0	50	ASTM-EA-D-353. ASTM-EA-D-574.
	W-C	8	0	50	N. E. C. Grade type R, 2/11/42.
(2) Jackets	W-D	50	0	75	ASTM-EA-D-532.
	W-SN-6 (Chloroprene)	0	65	0
	W-SB-4 (Butadiene)	0	75	0

NOTE 1: Synthetic rubber may be substituted for crude rubber, in whole or in part, in the above rubber compounds, provided the sum of the SRV by volume and RHC by volume does not exceed the maximum total RHC of the grade designated.

NOTE 2: If, for processing reasons, it is necessary to use crude rubber or reclaimed rubber, 15% by volume of the SRV may be replaced with RHC derived from crude rubber.

NOTE 3: Compounds of lower crude rubber, total RHC or SRV content, may be used in manufacturing wire insulation and jackets, provided the performance requirements, where designated, are met.

NOTE 4: The performance references are given for the purpose of guidance as to performance expectation and represent typical compounds, but they are not specific requirements of these regulations.

(c) WIRE AND CABLE

Rubber insulations and jackets of each of the classes of wire and cable listed below in this subdivision (c) shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in subdivision (b) of this List 27, the appropriate grade of compound to be used for insulation or jacket being that hereinbelow designated opposite the description or designation of such class.

Type of service	Outer covering	Operating voltage	Compounds
			Insulation	Jacket
(1) Building wire (except open wiring), telephone drop wire, police and fire alarm systems, and general service designed for use in dry locations.	Fibrous or lead	0-3000	W-C	None.
	Lead	3001-5000	W-C	Do.
	Fibrous	3001-5000	W-B	Do.
	Fibrous or lead	5001 and over	W-B	Do.
(2) For general service designed for use in wet locations.	Lead or impervious sheath	0-3000	W-C	Do.
	Lead or impervious sheath	3001 and over	W-B	Do.
	Fibrous [1]	All voltages	W-A	Do.
	Fibrous or lead	0-600	W-A	Do.
(3) For special service wire and cable designed for: (a) Copper temperatures above 60° C.	Fibrous, lead or impervious sheath.	All voltages	W-A	Do.
(b) Motor leads.
(c) Severe mechanical conditions.
(d) High frequency communications.
(e) Railway signal service.
(4) Designed for portable heavy duty service of the following kinds only:		0-5000	W-B	W-D or W-SN-6 [2] or W-SB-4.
(i) Electric power shovels and dredges.
(ii) Mining locomotives and machinery.[3]
(iii) Welding machinery and power leads.[3]
(iv) Portable drills, tools and industrial appliances.
(v) Electrically driven construction machinery, including air compressors cement mixers, conveyors, hoists, cranes, locomotives and public conveyances.
(vi) Oil well exploration cable.
(vii) Shot fire cable, for use in mines as required by the U. S. Bureau of Mines.
(5) Table appliance service cords	Fibrous [4]	0-600	W-C	None.
(6) Automotive ignition cable	Fibrous	All voltages	W-B	Do.

(d) MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

(1) Grounded neutral conductor. Unless specifically stated on the purchase order that the "white" conductor is to be used on D. C. circuits or as an ungrounded conductor, it is to be assumed that it will be used for a grounded neutral conductor and no crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber shall be used as insulation on wire designed for the grounded neutral conductor of a 0-600 V AC wiring system, including the service drop and service, the mains, feeders and branch circuit conductors up to the final outlet, but not including portable heavy duty or portable appliance service cords listed in subdivisions (c) (4) and (c) (5) of this List 27, nor the wires designed for lighting fixtures.

(2) Open wiring on knob and tube or cleat work. No crude rubber, synthetic rubber or scrap rubber shall be used on insulation designed for open wiring on knob and tube or cleat work.

(3) Jackets, belts and sheaths. Rubber jackets, belts or sheaths shall not be used for mechanical protection in wire or cable except as provided in subdivisions (c) (4) and (c) (5) of this List 27.

(4) Walls. No insulated wire shall be manufactured or specified by any person with heavier walls than those provided by American Standards Association's standard C 8.11-1936 or ASTM D-27; and required by the rating of the equipment serviced, except for non-leaded submarine cable, and for railroad signal service.

(5) Rubber insulating tape and terminals. Rubber compounds for rubber insulating tape and terminals shall conform to specifications set forth in List 20 attached to Supplementary Order No. M-15-b-1, as amended, except that compounds designed for tape for the following uses may be manufactured in the same quality as the insulation designated:

(i) For operating voltages in excess of 3000 volts.

(ii) For cables to be used in wet locations.

(iii For operation at conductor temperatures of 70° C. or higher.

LIST 28—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF FEEDING NIPPLES

(a) The manufacture of feeding nipples made from crude rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber shall be limited to infants' nipples and lambs' nipples.

(b) Infants' nipples.

(1) All infants' nipples shall be manufactured in accordance with the regulations set forth in the following Table A:

TABLE A

Type	Molded	Dipped	Hand made
Minimum tensile strength, p. s. i.	2000	2000	1500
Ultimate elongation, in per cent	750	750	750
Reclaimed rubber	None	None	None
Maximum crude rubber and/or latex by volume, in per cent	98	98	98
Maximum rubber hydrocarbon by volume, in per cent	98	98	98
The total weight in pounds of crude rubber and/or latex in each finished nipple shall not exceed	.0105	.007	.007

[1] Except tha W-B compound may be used in the insulation of lead covered underground distributing telephone cables.

[2] If necessary for bonding of laminated chloroprene jackets, it is permissible to use an intermediate tie gum of W-D compound not exceeding 1/64" in thickness.

[3] For "Uni-insulation" the use of W-A compound is permitted in (4) (ii) and (iii).

[4] Provided that a compound containing not more than 50% by volume of rubber hydrocarbon (RHC) obtained by the use of reclaimed rubber only, may be used as a jacket in the manufacture of PWP type cord.

(2) Compounds may contain ground-scrap rubber generated by the manufacturer in the production of infants' feeding nipples.

(c) Lambs' nipples. The total weight of crude rubber and/or latex in each finished nipple shall not exceed .0105 pounds.

LIST 29—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF AIRPLANE TIRES AND TIRE CASINGS

(a) The manufacture of airplane tires and tire casings shall be limited to the sizes, plies, and types listed below.

(b) The friction and the tread, respectively, of each of the sizes listed below shall be made from one of the grades of compounds listed in List 22 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound to be used for each respective friction and tread being that hereinbelow designated therefor opposite the description and designation of such size.

(c) With the grades of compounds designated above, a manufacturer can calculate the maximum amount of crude rubber, latex and total RHC which may be used in the manufacture of a tire or tire casing of any designated size. Within the maximum amounts thus calculated, a manufacturer may, in his discretion, shift the amounts between friction and tread, but may not consume in the manufacture of any tire or tire casing more crude rubber, latex or RHC than would be used in the manufacture of such tire or tire casing if the above compound grades were used, after allowing for tolerances permitted.

LIST 30—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF CAMELBACK, CAPPING STOCK, FILLER STRIP, STRIPPING STOCK, PADDING STOCK, CUSHION STOCK, LUG STOCK AND BASE STOCK

(a) The manufacture of these items shall be limited to the types and grades listed below.

(b) The grade of compound to be used in manufacturing each type shall be one of those listed in List 22 attached to Supplementary Order M-15-b-1, as amended, the appropriate grade of compound being that set forth opposite the description of each type in the following table:

Description of item	Tread compound	Service
Motorcycle type capping stock and camelback.	A	To fill war orders only.
Passenger type capping stock (¼ inch bevel)	F	To fill war orders only.
Passenger type capping stock and camelback.	C
Truck-type capping stock (¼ inch bevel)	C	Designed for retreading road building and road grading tires.
Truck-type camelback (wing die)	C
Lug stock and base stock	C
Heavy-duty capping stock (¼ inch bevel)	A	Designed for recapping and retreading mileage bus tires, rock service tires of a cross-section of 8.25 or more or earth-mover tires of a cross-section of 16.00 or more.
Heavy-duty camelback (wing die)	A
Airplane capping stock and camelback	A or lower	Designed for recapping and retreading airplane tires.
Filler strip	C	Permitted in widths of 2½" and 3½" only, maximum thickness ⅛".
Padding stock	B	Maximum thickness 1/16".
Stripping stock	D	Maximum width 1".
Passenger type cushion stock	C
Truck type cushion stock	A

(c) Capping stock and camelback (except airplane and motorcycle types) shall be manufactured only in gauges of 8/32, 10/32, 12/32, 14/32, 16/32, 18/32, 20/32, 22/32 inches and larger.

(d) Passenger-type capping stock may be faced with a compound containing crude rubber: Provided, That not more than .02 pound of crude rubber may be used in such compound for each pound of reclaimed rubber used in the thread compound.

LIST 31—REGULATIONS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF MEDICAL AND SURGICAL RUBBER GOODS.

The kinds of medical and surgical rubber goods listed in this List 31 shall be manufactured only in accordance with the regulations set forth herein.

(a) RUBBER COMPOUNDS

Grade	Maximum percent by volume
	Crude rubber or latex	Total RHC
D-A	98	98
D-B	75	90
D-C	70	70
D-D	50	50
D-D-1	50	65
D-E	45	65
D-F	30	60
D-G	20	50

(b) GENERAL PROVISIONS

(1) Synthetic rubber may be substituted for crude rubber, in whole or in part, provided the sum of the SRV by volume and RHC by volume does not exceed the maximum total RHC of the grade designated.

(2) Whenever colors are used in manufacture, the product shall be limited to shades of black, brown, red or maroon.

(3) The methods of Federal Specification ZZ-R-601 shall be applicable to these specifications.

(c) DESIGNATION OF GRADES

Each product listed below in this List 31 shall be manufactured from a compound which will not exceed by volume the maximum crude rubber or latex and the total rubber hydrocarbon content indicated by the designated grade for such compound in subdivision (a) of this List 31, the appropriate grade of compound being that hereinafter set forth opposite the description of such product; and each product must also fulfill the requirements of any regulations set forth for that product:

PART 933—COPPER

[Supplementary Conservation Order M-9-c-3 as Amended Dec. 28, 1942]

Section 933.8 Supplementary Conservation Order M-9-c-3 is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

§ 933.8 Supplementary Conservation Order M-9-c-3—(a) Effect on Order M-9-c. On and after December 28, 1942, this order shall govern to the exclusion of Conservation Order M-9-c the use of bronze powder in the manufacture of paste, ink and leaf, of paint (except ship bottom paint), of other coatings (except decalcomanias) and of any other bronze powder products, and the use of bronze powder and such bronze powder products in the manufacture of other articles. It does not overrule the provisions of Copper Conservation Order M-9-c which have prohibited the manufacture of bronze powder for all purposes, except for use in making nondecorative decalcomanias, ship bottom paint and drift signals, since March 31, 1942.

(b) Manufacture of bronze powder products and of articles made therewith. On and after December 28, 1942, no person shall manufacture paste, ink or leaf with bronze powder or any other bronze powder product, or manufacture, finish or coat any article with bronze powder or bronze powder products, if he knows or has reason to believe that the bronze powder being used was manufactured after March 31, 1942 or that the bronze powder product being used was manufactured in violation of Conservation Order M-9-c or this Order M-9-c-3, as such orders existed at the time such product was manufactured. Except as above provided, the manufacture of paste, ink and leaf with bronze powder and of any other bronze powder product, and the use of bronze powder products in manufacture, finishing and coating of other articles, is permitted.

(c) Delivery and acceptance of delivery of bronze powder, of bronze powder products and of articles made therewith. On and after December 28, 1942, no person shall deliver bronze powder, paste, ink or leaf manufactured with bronze powder, any other bronze powder product, or any article manufactured, finished or coated with bronze powder or bronze powder products, and no person shall accept delivery thereof, if he knows or has reason to believe that the bronze powder was manufactured after March 31, 1942 or that the bronze powder product, or the article manufactured, finished or coated with bronze powder or a bronze powder product, was manufactured in violation of Conservation Order M-9-c or this Order M-9-c-3, as such orders existed at the time such product or article was manufactured. Except as above provided, the delivery and acceptance of delivery of bronze powder, of paste, ink and leaf manufactured with bronze powder, of any other bronze powder product, and of any article manufactured, finished or coated with bronze powder or a bronze powder product, is permitted.

(d) Communications to War Production Board. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Copper Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M-9-c-3.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 28th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 987—COBALT

[General Preference Order M-39 as Amended Dec. 28, 1942]

§ 987.1 General Preference Order M-39—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Cobalt" means and includes:

(i) Ores, concentrates, and crudes, including beneficiated or treated forms containing cobalt (commercially recognized).

(ii) Cobalt metal, cobalt oxide, and other primary chemical compounds which result from the processing of cobalt ores, concentrates, crudes, or residues; but not including by-products from which cobalt is not commercially recoverable.

(iii) All scrap or secondary material containing commercially recoverable cobalt as defined in (i) and (ii) above, excluding cobalt-bearing iron and steel scrap.

(b) Refining ores. The Director General for Operations from time to time may direct the manner in which any of the forms of cobalt specified in paragraph (a) (1) (i) above shall be refined or otherwise processed.

(c) Deliveries—(1) Allocations. Except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, no person shall deliver or accept delivery of cobalt in any of the forms specified in paragraph (a) (1) (ii) above. The Director will from time to time allocate the supply of such cobalt and specifically direct the manner and quantities in which deliveries to particular persons or for particular uses shall be made or withheld. Such allocations and directions may be made without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular contracts or purchase orders. The Director may also, in his discretion, require any person seeking to place a purchase order for such cobalt to place the order with one or more particular suppliers.

(2) Exception for small deliveries. Any person may receive deliveries up to but not exceeding an aggregate of 25 pounds of contained cobalt, in any of the forms specified in paragraph (a) (1) (ii) above, during any calendar month without specific authorization by the Director General for Operations under paragraph (c) (1) of this order. Any person may make a delivery the acceptance of which is authorized by this subparagraph.

(d) Reports. (1) No person shall be entitled to receive an allocation in accordance with paragraph (c) (1) above unless, not later than the 20th day of the month next preceding the month in which delivery is scheduled, he shall have filed with the War Production Board reports on Forms PD–581 and PD–582 as revised. Failure of any person to file a report in the manner and on the date required by this paragraph may be construed as notice to the Director and to all suppliers of cobalt that such person does not desire an allocation of cobalt during the succeeding month.

(2) Any person who on the first day of a calendar month has in his possession or under his control a quantity of cobalt in any of the forms specified in paragraphs (a) (1) (i), (ii) and (iii) above in excess of 100 pounds (contained cobalt) shall file a report with the War Production Board on Form PD–581 on or before the 20th day of such month, whether or not such person applies for an allocation of cobalt for delivery during the succeeding month.

(3) Each refiner or processor of cobalt ores, concentrates or crudes in any of the forms specified in paragraph (a) (1) (i) above shall on or before the 20th day of each month file with the War Production Board on Form PD–581 his production schedule for the succeeding month.

(e) Use of cobalt prohibited except for specified items. No person shall put into process any cobalt as defined in paragraphs (a) (1) (i), (ii) and (iii) above, except for the production of cobalt in the forms specified in paragraph (a) (1) (ii) above or except for the uses or in the production of the items (and the necessary material therefor), specified below, and then only to the extent that the use of an alternate material is impracticable.

(1) Catalysts.

(2) Cattle and plant food.

(3) Decolorizer for glass, the batch composition of which shall not exceed 1 pound of cobalt element per 100 tons of glass.

(4) Driers.

(5) Ground coat frit to be used or sold on orders bearing preference ratings of AA–4 or higher.

(6) "Health supplies" as defined in Preference Rating Order P–29 as the same may be amended.

(7) High speed steel as approved under Supplementary Order M–21–a.

(8) Laboratory and research equipment.

(9) Magnets.

(10) Non-ferrous alloys.

(11) Pigment for glass for optical or for safety purposes.

(f) Prohibitions against sales or deliveries. Notwithstanding the fact that an order may be authorized pursuant to paragraphs (c) (1) or (c) (2) hereof, no person shall hereafter sell or deliver cobalt to any person if he knows or has reason to believe such material is to be used in violation of the terms of this or any other order of the Director General for Operations.

(g) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board as they may be amended from time to time.

(h) Appeals and communications. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. All appeals and other communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Ferro-Alloys Division, Washington, D. C., Reference M–39.

(i) Applicability of order. The restrictions contained in this order shall apply to all contracts whether made prior or subsequent to the effective date of this order.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) Revocation of Order M–39–b. Conservation Order M–39–b and all amendments thereto are hereby revoked.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 28th day of December 1942.

Ernest Kanzler,
Director General for Operations.

PART 1042—IMPORTS OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS

[Supplemental General Imports Order M–63–d, Revocation]

§ 1042.5 Supplemental General Imports Order M–63–d is hereby revoked, the subject matter of such order being incorporated in paragraph (b) (4) of General Imports Order M–63, as amended December 17, 1942.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 28th day of December 1942.

Ernest Kanzler,
Director General for Operations.

PART 3039—MANUFACTURED GAS

[General Directive 1 Under Limitation Order L–174]

Pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) (1) of Limitation Order L–174, It is ordered and directed:

§ 3039.1 General Directive 1 under Limitation Order L–174. (a) Whenever it is necessary, pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) of Limitation Order L–174, for a utility to reduce deliveries of gas to consumers having standby facilities, the utility shall reduce deliveries to consumers having such standby facilities, to the extent of such standby facilities, in the following order:

(1) All consumers who have standby facilities capable of utilizing coal, but only within the limits of the utility's contractual rights;

(2) All consumers who have standby facilities capable of utilizing coal, without regard to the contractual rights of the utility or any consumer;

(3) All oil refineries having standby facilities of any type, but only within the limits of the utility's contractual rights;

(4) All oil refineries having standby facilities of any type, without regard to the contractual rights of the utility or any consumer; and

(5) All other consumers having standby facilities of any type, without regard to the contractual rights of the utility or any consumer.

(b) Except as set forth in the proviso of the first paragraph of said paragraph (c) (1), deliveries to any consumer in the respective classes (a) (2) to (a) (5) above, inclusive, shall not be reduced until deliveries to all consumers in prior classes have been suspended. Reductions within any class shall be proportionate insofar as practicable.

(c) This directive does not affect the order in which deliveries are to be reduced to consumers without standby facilities, as provided in paragraph (c) (1).

(d) This directive supersedes any specific directives under paragraph (c) (1) inconsistent herewith which have heretofore been issued by the Director General for Operations, but is subject to specific directives which may later be issued in particular cases by the Director General for Operations.

(e) This directive shall be effective immediately upon issuance and shall remain effective until modified or revoked.

[Supplement 1 to Rev. Tire Rationing Regulations[2]]

TIRES AND TUBES, RETREADING AND RECAPPING OF TIRES, AND CAMELBACK

A rationale for this supplement has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

§ 1315.1851 Exceptions to eligibility in territories and possessions and transfers of used tires. (a) Whenever a Territorial Director determines that recapping facilities in the territory or possession under his jurisdiction are inadequate or unavailable, he may:

(1) Grant priority for recapping services to those persons holding certificates for recapping services whom he finds to be most essential to the public health, safety or the war effort.

(2) Authorize the War Price and Rationing Boards in such territory or possession to issue certificates for new or used tires to persons eligible for recapping services under these Regulations.

(b) Whenever a Board in a territory or possession issues a certificate for a used tire, as provided in paragraph (a), the provisions of §§ 1315.701 to 1315.707, inclusive, of the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations shall govern the form, execution and use of the certificate, the transfer and acquisition of the used tire and the turning in of the replaced tire.

(c) A retailer or distributor may transfer used tires to a consumer in exchange for a certificate authorizing such transfer.

(d) A dealer may, in exchange for the replenishment portion (Part B) of a certificate for used tires issued pursuant to paragraph (a), transfer used tires to another dealer.

(e) Supplement No. 1 (§ 1315.1851) to Revised Tire Rationing Regulations shall become effective December 24, 1942, and shall continue in force and effect until amended by further order or direction of the Office of Price Administration.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Temporary MPR 23]

SHELLED PEANUTS, SALTED PEANUTS AND PEANUT BUTTER

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, to issue a temporary regulation establishing as the maximum prices for certain peanut items the prices prevailing with respect thereto within the five days prior to the issuance of this regulation.

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to the producers of peanuts prices for their raw agricultural commodity equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the aforesaid Acts and Executive Order and in Accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23 is hereby issued.

Sec.
1351.1551 Purpose of this regulation.
1351.1552 Prohibition against buying and selling above maximum prices.
1351.1553 Maximum prices.
1351.1554 Exempt sales.
1351.1555 Evasion.
1351.1556 Export sales.
1351.1557 Records and reports.
1351.1558 Enforcement.
1351.1559 Petitions for amendment.
1351.1560 Relation to the General Maximum Price Regulation.
1351.1561 Geographical applicability.
1351.1562 Definitions.
1351.1563 Revocation or replacement of regulation.
1351.1564 Effective period.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1351.1551 to 1351.1564, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250; 7 F.R. 7891.

§ 1351.1551 Purpose of this regulation. It is the purpose of this regulation to establish maximum prices for sales of the following peanut items:

(a) Shelled peanuts.

(b) Salted peanuts.

(c) Peanut butter.

The peanut products listed above are referred to in this regulation as "listed peanut items."

§ 1351.1552 Prohibition against buying and selling above maximum prices. (a) From December 29, 1942 to February 26, 1943, inclusive, regardless of any contract or obligation, no person shall sell or deliver a listed peanut item, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive a listed peanut item at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) However, prices lower than maximum prices may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1351.1553 Maximum prices. (a) The seller's maximum price for any listed peanut item shall be the highest price charged by the seller to a purchaser of the same class during the period December 19, 1942 to December 23, 1942, inclusive, for the same listed peanut item.

(b) Where a seller during the period December 19, 1942 to December 23, 1942, inclusive, did not deal in a listed peanut item, the seller's maximum price for such listed peanut item shall be the highest price charged during the period December 19, 1942 to December 23, 1942, inclusive, by the most closely competitive seller to a purchaser of the same class for such peanut item.

§ 1351.1554 Exempt sales. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23 shall not apply to the following:

(a) Sales or deliveries of peanuts for oil.

(b) Sales or deliveries made directly by a farmer of any listed peanut item grown and processed on his farm. However, this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23 shall apply to a sale or delivery by a farmers' cooperative and to a sale or delivery directly by a farmer of any listed peanut item to an ultimate consumer, if during the preceding month the farmer's sales to ultimate consumers of all food products produced on his farm exceeded $75.00.

(c) Sales or deliveries of raw shelled peanuts from the 1941 crop.

§ 1351.1555 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to a listed peanut item alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of any commmission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or by changing a business practice relating to the price lines, grading, labeling, packaging or branding of a listed peanut item.

§ 1351.1556 Export sales. The maximum prices at which a person may export a listed peanut item shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1557 Records and reports. (a) As to all sales not specifically exempted by other sections of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23, every person selling a listed peanut item shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all his existing records relating to prices which he charged for such listed peanut item delivered or supplied during the period December 19, 1942, to December 23, 1942, inclusive, and his offering prices for delivery or supply of a listed peanut item during such period; and shall prepare, on or before December 31, 1942, on the basis of all available information and records, and thereafter keep for examination by any person during ordinary business hours, a statement showing (1) the highest prices charged for such listed peanut item during such period, together with an appropriate identification of such item, and (2) all his customary allowances, discounts, and other price differentials.

[2] 7 F.R. 5059, 7242, 8829, 9000, 10530.

(b) As to all sales not specifically exempted by other sections of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23 every person selling a listed peanut item shall keep and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration records of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the prices which he charged for such peanut item during the period from December 29, 1942 to February 26, 1943, inclusive, and, in addition, records showing, as precisely as possible, the basis upon which he determined maximum prices.

(c) Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1351.1558 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages and proceedings for suspension of licenses, provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23 or of any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1351.1559 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, and amendments, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1560 Relation to the General Maximum Price Regulation. The following sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation,[3] and amendments to them, shall be applicable to every person selling a listed peanut item:

(1) Determination of maximum prices by sellers at retail operating more than one retail establishment (§ 1499.4a). In applying § 1499.4a of the General Maximum Price Regulation, the base period of December 19, 1942, to December 23, 1942, inclusive, shall be substituted for the period of March 1942 used therein.

(2) Adjustment of maximum prices in cases of special deals (§ 1499.4b).

(3) Transfers of business or stock in trade (§ 1499.5).

(4) Federal and state taxes (§ 1499.7). In applying § 1499.7 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, the base period of December 19, 1942, to December 23, 1942, inclusive, shall be substituted for the period of March 1942 used therein, and the date December 23, 1942, shall be substituted for the date March 31, 1942.

(5) Sales slips and receipts (§ 1499.14).

(6) Registration (§ 1499.15).

(7) Licensing (§ 1499.16).

§ 1351.1561 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23 shall be applicable to the United States, its territories and possessions, and the District of Columbia.

§ 1351.1562 Definitions. (a) When used in this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23, the term:

(1) "Person" means individual, corporation, partnership, association, or other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agencies of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Highest price charged during the period December 19, 1942, to December 23, 1942, inclusive", means the highest price which the seller (except a seller of shelled peanuts) charged for a listed peanut item delivered by him during the period from December 19, 1942 to December 23, 1942, inclusive, to a purchaser of the same class, or, if the seller made no such delivery during such period, his highest offering price for delivery during that period to a purchaser of the same class. In the case of a seller of shelled peanuts, "highest price charged during the period December 19, 1942, to December 23, 1942, inclusive" means the highest price at which the seller during the period from December 19, 1942, to December 23, 1942, inclusive, contracted to sell for immediate or future delivery to a purchaser of the same class, or, if the seller made no such contract during such period, his highest offering price during that period to a purchaser of the same class. No seller shall change his customary allowances, discounts or other price differentials unless such change results in a lower price. No seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted, to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery of supply of any listed peanut item than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during the period December 19, 1942, to December 23, 1942, inclusive, on deliveries of a listed peanut item.

(3) "Purchaser of the same class" refers to the practice followed by the seller in the ninety-day period preceding December 23, 1942, in setting different prices for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers (for example, but not limited to, manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber, retailer, government agency, public institution, individual consumer or any ordinarily recognized subgroup or combination of the foregoing) or for purchasers located in different areas or for different quantities or under different conditions of sale.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and in the General Maximum Price Regulation, issued by the Office of Price Administration, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1351.1563 Revocation or replacement of regulation. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23 may be revoked or replaced by a permanent maximum price regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1564 Effective period. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 23 (§§ 1351.1551, to 1351.1564, inclusive), shall become effective on December 29, 1942, and shall, unless earlier revoked or replaced, expire at 12 o'clock midnight, February 26, 1943.

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 280,[1] Amendment 4]

MAXIMUM PRICES FOR SPECIFIC FOOD PRODUCTS

The statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1351.807 of the Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1351.807 Adjustment of maximum prices of fluid milk and shell eggs. (a) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized representative thereof, may adjust any maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation 280 for fluid milk sold at wholesale in containers other than bottles or paper containers in the case of any seller or group of sellers, and may adjust any price so established for shell eggs sold at wholesale or retail in the case of any seller or group of sellers where it appears:

(1) That there exists or threatens to exist in a particular locality a shortage in the supply of such fluid milk or shell eggs; and

(2) That such local shortage will be substantially reduced or eliminated by adjusting the maximum prices of such seller and of like sellers for such fluid milk or shell eggs; and

(3) That such adjustment will not create or tend to create a shortage, or a need for increase in prices, in another locality, and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 289]

DAIRY PRODUCTS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 to establish in a permanent regulation maximum prices for the sale of the dairy products named herein.

The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of the dairy products covered by this regulation which prevailed between October 1 and October 15, 1941 and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industries affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended; and Executive Order No. 9250. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to producers of the agricultural commodity—milk—from which the dairy products named in this regulation are producer, a price for their product equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by Executive Order No. 9250.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1351.1501 to 1351.1522, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1351.1501 Products covered. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 289 establishes the maximum prices at which the following dairy products referred to below as "listed dairy products" may be sold and delivered.

(a) Cheddar cheese.
(b) Butter.
(c) Evaporated milk.
(d) Powdered skim milk.

§ 1351.1502 Exempt sales. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289 shall not apply to any sale or delivery which is specifically exempted in sections establishing maximum prices for any of the listed dairy products.

§ 1351.1503 Prohibition against dealing in listed dairy products above maximum prices. (a) On and after December 30, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver a listed dairy product, and no person, in the course of trade or business, shall buy or receive a listed dairy product at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this section shall not apply to sales or deliveries of a listed dairy product which, prior to December 30, 1942 has been received for shipment to the purchaser by a carrier which is not owned or controlled by the seller.

§ 1351.1504 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1351.1505 Records and reports. (a) Every sale of a listed dairy product covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289 after the effective date of this regulation shall be invoiced by the seller. The original invoice shall be signed by the seller or by a duly authorized partner, officer or employee of the seller; shall be delivered to the buyer and shall state: (1) the date of purchase, (2) the name and address of the buyer and seller, (3) the quantity and description of each listed dairy product sold, (4) the price per unit of sale and in total.

(b) After the effective date of this regulation, every buyer of any listed dairy product shall preserve for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, the original, and every seller of any listed dairy product shall similarly preserve a copy of each invoice required to be furnished by paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Every person subject to this regulation shall keep such other records and shall submit such reports as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time request in writing, either in addition to or in substitution for records and reports herein required.

§ 1351.1506 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to any of the listed dairy products, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1351.1507 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damage provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest District, State, Field or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal Office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1351.1508 Export sales. The maximum prices at which a person may export a "listed dairy product" shall be determined in accordance with Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration on April 25, 1942.

§ 1351.1509 Imports. On and after the effective date of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289, no person in the course of trade or business shall import or agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to import a "listed dairy product" at a price in excess of the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289.

"Import" means to buy, receive, or in any manner pay for a commodity pursuant to or in connection with any transaction, contract, agreement or other obligation whereby the commodity is transported or is to be transported to the several states of the United States or the District of Columbia from any place outside the several states of the United States and the District of Columbia regardless of whether the importer deals directly with the seller, or deals through an agent, broker or other intermediary acting for either party, in or outside the United States, its Territories or possessions, or the District of Columbia, and regardless of whether such importation is for use or for resale.

§ 1351.1510 Applicability of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280. This regulation supersedes the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280[3] or the provisions of any other maximum price regulation with respect to the "listed dairy products" for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1351.1511 Applicability of certain provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation. (a) The following sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation,[4] the amendments thereto, and Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 4[5] thereof, shall be applicable to agreements, sales and deliveries covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289.

(1) § 1499.4b (Special deals.)
(2) § 1499.15 (Registration.)
(3) § 1499.16 (Licensing.)
(4) § 1499.29 (a) (5) (Development contracts.)
(5) § 1499.29 (a) (6) (Secret contracts.)
(6) § 1499.29 (a) (f) (Emergency purchases.)
(7) § 1499.29 (a) (15) (Sales or deliveries of the War Department or the Department of the Navy through such Department's sales stores.)

§ 1351.1512 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289 shall be applicable only to the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1351.1513 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business or stock in trade of a manufacturer or wholesaler of a "listed dairy product" is sold or otherwise transferred on or after December 30, 1942 and the transferee continues the business, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those which the transferor would have been subject to if no transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify these prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or shall turn over to the transferee, all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions contained in this regulation.

§ 1351.1514 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1515 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to and at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In appropriate situations, where a petition for amendment requires extended consideration, the Price Administrator, may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1351.1516 Taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale or delivery of a "listed dairy product" imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such commodity and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect prior to the effective date of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289 for any listed dairy product. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price prior to the effective date for such item the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such a case shall include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289.

(2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective after the effective date of this Regulation for any listed dairy product. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1351.1517 Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation, the term:

(1) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, any other Government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Sale at wholesale" means a sale by a person who receives delivery of a commodity and resells it, without substantially changing its form, to any person other than the ultimate consumer.

(3) "Sale at retail" means a sale to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial, commercial, institutional or governmental user.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended, and of section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1351.1518 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 289 (§§ 1351.1501 to 1351.1522, inclusive) shall become effective December 30, 1942.

§ 1351.1519 Maximum prices for Cheddar cheese—(a) Maximum prices for Cheddar cheese other than at wholesale or retail—(1) In the State of Wisconsin. The maximum price for Cheddar Cheese delivered at all places in the state of Wisconsin regardless of the point of origin, shall be as set forth in Table A below, except as provided in subparagraph (5) below for "twins" and "Cheddars" of 37.5% moisture content or less when sold for processing or to the United States Government or any agency thereof.

TABLE A

Maximum price (cents per pound)	Styles	Approximate weight (pounds)
23¼	Cheddar	70
23¼	Twins	70
23½	Flats	35
23¾	Double daisies	44
23¾	Triple daisies	66
24	Single daisies	22
24	Longhorns	12
24	Young Americas	12
24¼	Square prints	10
24¼	Natural loaf	5
24¼	Picnics and midgets	12

(2) Outside the State of Wisconsin. The maximum prices for Cheddar cheese delivered at all places outside the state of Wisconsin, regardless of the point of origin, shall be the prices listed in Table A above plus transportation charges. The transportation charges shall be the lowest published railroad carlot freight rate per pound gross weight from Plymouth, Wisconsin to that place times 1.15. Calculation of transportation charges on a cents per pound basis shall be carried to the second decimal point.

(3) Cheese sold f. o. b. cheese factory or assembler's plant shall be considered "delivered" to the buyer at that factory or plant.

(4) The prices in the preceding subparagraphs (1) and (2) are prices for unparaffined, ungraded, bulk Cheddar cheese of 39% or less moisture content, packed in boxes customarily employed for the particular styles listed in subparagraph (1).

(5) Moisture content for twins and cheddars when sold for processing or to government agencies. Whenever "twin" and "cheddar" styles of Cheddar cheese are sold for processing or to the United States government, or any agency thereof, and the moisture content of such cheese is 37½% or less, the maximum price shall be as set forth in Table B below.

TABLE B

Where moisture content is—	Maximum price (cents per pound)
33% or less	25.54
Over 33%, but not over 33½%	25.36
Over 33½%, but not over 34%	25.16
Over 34%, but not over 34½%	24.97
Over 34½%, but not over 35%	24.77
Over 35%, but not over 35½%	24.58
Over 35½%, but not over 36%	24.39
Over 36%, but not over 36½%	24.20
Over 36½%, but not over 37%	24.01
Over 37%, but not over 37½%	23.82

(6) Assembling costs. Wherever assembling operations are performed, one cent per pound may be added to the maximum prices in subparagraphs (1) and (2), or to the maximum prices set forth in subparagraph (5) (if twins or cheddars are being sold for processing or to the United States government, or any agency thereof), for each pound of Cheddar cheese so assembled. For the purposes of this subparagraph, no person shall be entitled to the additional cent per pound for assembling unless the cheese for which the assembling cost is claimed has been graded, paraffined, and weighed. This allowance of one cent per pound shall also include transportation costs, if any, from the cheese factory to the assembling plant, whether the assembling plant is located inside or outside the state of Wisconsin.

(7) Marking of date and place of manufacturing. On and after the effective date of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289 every person engaged in the manufacture of Cheddar cheese shall mark plainly and conspicuously on the side of such cheese before it leaves the cheese factory, with dark colored vegetable ink the name of the state in which the cheese has been manufactured, and the day, month and year of manufacture.

Example. An assembler in Chilton, Wisconsin wishes to sell some current "cheddar" style cheese to a cheese wholesaler in New York City. He figures the maximum selling price as follows: Since he is selling in New York City he looks to subparagraph (2) because the sale is outside the state of Wisconsin.

In subparagraph (2) he is referred to Table A which names a price for "Cheddars" of 23¼¢ (23.25¢) per lb. He then figures transportation charges from Plymouth, Wisconsin to New York City. Assume the carlot freight rate between these points per 100 lbs. gross weight is 81¢.

81¢÷100=.81¢ (to reduce freight rate to a pound basis)

.81¢×1.15=.93$_{15}$ (to obtain full transportation charge per pound allowed)

NOTE: Carried only to second decimal place.

23.25¢—Cheddar price from Table A
1.00 —Assembly cost permitted
.93 —Transportation charge

25.18¢=maximum selling price for assembled cheddars in New York City.

NOTE: Regardless of the actual transportation costs, he must use freight rate from Plymouth times 1.15.

Example. This assembler in Wisconsin wishes to sell 35% moisture current "cheddars" to a processor in Chicago. He figures the maximum selling price to the processor in the same way as example above, except that he substitutes for the price of 23.25¢ per lb. found in Table A, the price of 24.77¢ per lb. found in Table B for moisture content of over 34½% but not over 35%, and the transportation charge from Plymouth to Chicago instead of from Plymouth to New York.

NOTE: Table B is used only when "cheddar" and "twins" styles are sold for processing—not when sold to wholesalers. Table B is also used for sales to United States government agencies.

(b) Maximum prices for processed Cheddar cheese other than at wholesale or retail—(1) In the State of Wisconsin. The maximum prices for "Processed Cheddar cheese" delivered at all places in the state of Wisconsin, regardless of the point of origin, shall be as follows:

TABLE C

Weight of package:	Cents per pound
Half pound or less (for example the ½ lb. and ¼ lb. size)	29¾
Over half pound to 2 lb. inclusive (for example the 2 lb. size)	28¼
Over 2 lbs. (for example, the 5 lb. size)	27¼

(2) Outside the State of Wisconsin. The maximum prices for "processed Cheddar cheese" delivered at all places outside the state of Wisconsin, regardless of the point of origin, shall be the prices listed in Table C above plus transportation charges. The transportation charges shall be the lowest published railroad carlot freight rate per pound of gross weight, from Plymouth, Wisconsin to that place times 1.15. Calculation of transportation charges on a cents per pound basis shall be carried to the second decimal place.

(3) "Processed Cheddar cheese" sold f. o. b. processing plant shall be considered "delivered" to the buyer at that plant.

Example. The cheese processor in Chicago wishes to sell a 2 lb. loaf of processed Cheddar cheese to a cheese wholesaler in New York. He calculates his maximum selling price as follows: He looks to subparagraph (2) in this paragraph because the sale is outside the state of Wisconsin. Here he is referred to Table C where he finds a price of 28.25¢ for this item. He then figures the transportation charges from Plymouth, Wisconsin to New York City. Assume the carlot freight rate per 100 lbs. gross weight is 81 cents.

81¢÷100=.81¢ (to reduce freight rate to a per lb. basis)

.81¢×1.15=.93¢ (to obtain full transportation charge allowed)

28.25¢—2 lb. package price from Table B
.93¢—Transportation charge

29.18¢=Maximum selling price in New York.

(c) Maximum prices for wholesaler's sales of Cheddar and processed Cheddar cheese. (1) Wholesalers shall determine their maximum selling price for a particular lot of any "cheese item" by multiplying their "base cost" by a figure appropriate to the type of sale for which a maximum price is being sought, in accordance with the following procedure:

(i) The wholesaler shall find in the following Table D, the type of sale for which he is seeking a price and the figure under the appropriate column which is to be used as a multiplier.

TABLE D

Type of sale	Figure to be used as multiplier for units of cheese weighing 2 lbs. or more	Figure to be used as multiplier for packages of "processed cheese" weighing less than 2 lbs.
(a) Primary wholesaler's sale. Any sale to another wholesaler or to a chain store warehouse delivered at the buyer's customary receiving point by a wholesaler who customarily buys or receives his cheese directly from a plant which processes or assembles cheese	1.03	1.035
b) Meat packer's wholesale sale. A sale by a meat packer or the branch warehouse of a meat packer delivered at the buyer's customary receiving point to retail stores or to governmental, commercial, industrial or institutional users. No sales by meat packers or their branch warehouses shall be considered as any other type of sale designated in this Table, except sales which fall within paragraph (a) of this Table, "Primary wholesaler's sale"	1.06	1.07
c) Service wholesaler's sale. A sale to retail stores or to governmental, commercial, industrial or institutional users when delivery is made upon orders previously taken from the buyer and where credit is customarily extended to the buyer. Sales by retail owned cooperatives to retail stores which are not members of its organization are included, where they meet the above requirements	1.11	1.135
(d) Retail-owned cooperative sale. A sale to member retail stores delivered at the buyer's customary receiving point by either a non-profit organization or a corporation of which 51% or more of the stock is owned by its retail customers	1.06	1.07
(e) Cash and carry wholesaler's sale. A sale to retail stores or to governmental, commercial, industrial or institutional users, where delivery and credit are not extended to the buyer	1.07	1.075
(f) Wagon route wholesaler's sale. A sale from a truck operated by a driver-salesman to a retail store, or to governmental, commercial, industrial or institutional users, where the first record of the transaction is made by the salesman concurrently with the delivery of the product sold	1.11	1.135

Example: The New York cheese wholesaler desires to sell and deliver the "cheddars" which he bought from the Wisconsin assembler to a wholesale grocer in Norfolk, Virginia. He calculates the maximum selling price for this sale as follows: In Table D he finds that his type of sale is a "Primary wholesaler's sale." For this sale the "figure to be used as a multiplier" is 1.03, since a "cheddar" weighs more than 2 lbs.

(ii) He shall then determine his "base cost" for such cheese item.

(iii) His "base cost" depends upon whether he is a "direct buyer" or an "indirect buyer" of such cheese item.

(iv) He is a "direct buyer" if he buys or receives such cheese directly from a plant which processes or assembles cheese.

(v) If he is a "direct buyer," his "base cost" at the particular place at which he is to deliver the item shall be as follows:

(a) For delivery any place in the state of Wisconsin:

TABLE E

Type and style of cheese:	"Base cost" in cents per pound
Cheddars	24¼
Twins	24¼
Flats	24½
Double daisies	24¾
Triple daisies	24¾
Single daisies	25
Longhorns	25
Young Americas	25
Square prints	25¼
Natural Loaf	25¼
Picnics and midgets	25¼
Processed in packages of ½ lb. or less	29¾
Processed in packages of over ½ lb. to and including 2 lbs.	28¼
Processed in packages of over 2 lbs.	27¼

(b) For delivery any place outside the state of Wisconsin the appropriate figure in Table E plus transportation charges. Transportation charges shall be 1.15 times the lowest published railroad carlot freight rate per lb. gross weight from Plymouth, Wisconsin to that place.

Example (continued): He then finds his "base cost". He is a "direct buyer", therefore his "base cost" is the figure in Table E of 24.25¢ for "cheddars" plus the transportation charges from Plymouth, Wisconsin to the wholesale grocer in Norfolk. Assume freight rate between these points per 100 lbs. gross weight is $1.05.

$1.05÷100=1.05¢ (to reduce freight rate to a pound basis)

1.05¢×1.15=1.20$_{75}$¢ (to obtain full transportation charge allowed)

24.25¢ "Cheddar" price from Table E
1.20 Transportation charge

25.45¢×1.03 (multiplier)=26.21$_{35}$¢
26.2¢=maximum price adjusted to nearest $\frac{1}{10}$ of a cent.

NOTE: "Transportation charge" in "direct buyers" "base cost" depends on freight rate to buyer's customary receiving point, not seller's location.

(vi) A wholesaler is an "indirect buyer" with respect to any cheese item which he purchased in a "Primary Wholesaler's Sale" as defined in Table D of subdivision (i) of this paragraph.

(vii) If he is an "indirect buyer", his "base cost" shall be the maximum selling price of his supplier at such "indirect buyer's" customary receiving point as determined under this section.

Example: If the wholesale grocer in Norfolk, after purchasing from the cheese wholesaler sells and delivers one of the "cheddars" to a retail store in Virginia Beach, the maximum selling price is determined as follows: In Table D, he finds the "type of sale" to be a "Service Wholesaler's Sale." The "figure to be used as a multplier" appropriate to this type of sale and item is 1.11. He then finds his "base cost." Since he is an indirect buyer, his "base cost" is the maximum selling price of his supplier, the cheese wholesaler, at the customary receiving point of the wholesale grocer in Norfolk, namely 26.2 cents. (See foregoing example). Then 26.2¢×1.11=29.08¢=29.1¢—maximum selling price adjusted to nearest $\frac{1}{10}$ of a cent.

(viii) The wholesaler having found his "base cost" and selected the "type of sale" from Table D, shall multiply this "base cost" by the figure to be used as a multiplier for the appropriate "type of sale." The result shall be his maximum selling price for such sale.

(ix) In calculating the maximum selling price for a "Primary Wholesaler's Sale" of cheese the "base cost" shall never exceed the "base cost" for a "direct buyer" regardless of whether or not the cheese was purchased by the wholesaler as a "direct" or as an "indirect buyer."

Example (continued): If the New York cheese wholesaler had not been a "direct buyer" (i. e. had purchased from a cheese company's branch warehouse) and had sold the cheese to the wholesale grocer in Norfolk this sale would still have been a "Primary Wholesaler's Sale" and the maximum price would be 26.2¢, exactly as above, in the example under subdivision (v).

(x) When a wholesaler, who has calculated his maximum selling prices with respect to a particular lot of a cheese item, buys in a different "type of sale" or changes his method of buying from "direct" to "indirect" or from "indirect" to "direct", he shall calculate new maximum selling prices as provided above in this paragraph. Nothing contained in this subdivision shall affect the prohibition contained in subdivision (ix) of this subparagraph.

Example (continued)—If the wholesale grocer in Norfolk stops buying from the New York wholesaler and buys his "cheddars" from a Wisconsin assembler directly, or if he sells the Virginia Beach retail store cash and carry, then he must recalculate his maximum selling price in both instances.

(xi) In calculating maximum prices on a cents per pound basis in this paragraph, all calculations by wholesalers shall be carried to the second decimal place. Any final calculation of a maximum price resulting in a fraction of a cent per pound shall be adjusted to the nearest tenth of a cent.

(2) Discounts and allowances for wholesalers. (i) The maximum prices determined under the provisions of this subparagraph shall be the maximum prices for any quantity sold. But these prices must be reduced by the seller's customary discounts or allowances for cash or prompt payment. However, any discount, allowance or other price differential may always be given when it results in a price less than the maximum price.

(d) Discounts and allowances for sales other than at wholesale and retail. The prices determined under the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall be the maximum prices to any class of purchasers and for any quantity sold. But these prices must be reduced by the seller's customary discounts or allowances for cash or prompt payment. However, any discount, allowance, or other price differential may always be given when it results in a price less than the maximum price.

(e) Exempt sales—(1) Sales at retail. All sales at retail are exempt from the provisions of this section. Sales at retail shall be determined under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 268,[6] entitled "Certain Perishable Food Products at Retail."

(2) Sales of aged or cured Cheddar cheese. All sales of aged or cured Cheddar cheese are exempt from the provisions of this section. Maximum prices for sales of aged or cured Cheddar cheese shall be determined under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280. Aged or cured Cheddar cheese is Cheddar cheese which has been permitted to stand under a controlled temperature for such a length of time that it has acquired a clean, pleasant, mild aroma, a pleasing, nutty flavor, a mellow, silky, meaty body, and a close, solid, uniformly colored interior. For purposes of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289, no Cheddar cheese shall be considered aged or cured unless the same has remained in the possession of either an assembler, or a wholesaler under controlled temperature conditions for at least six months.

(3) The sales exempted under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph are in addition to the sales exempted by the application of certain provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation as provided in § 1351.1511 hereof.

(f) Definitions—(1) Cheddar cheese. "Cheddar cheese," frequently called "American cheese" means "Cheddar cheese" as defined in the "Standards of Identity for Cheddar Cheese, Cheese, Washed Curd Cheese, Colby Cheese" promulgated by the Food and Drug Administration and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of January 9, 1941, Page 195. It contains not more than 39% of moisture and its solids contain not less than 50% of milk fat.

(2) Cheese item. "Cheese item" refers to the particular styles and sizes of Cheddar cheese and of processed Cheddar cheese listed in Table E of subdivision (v) in paragraph (c) (1) of this section.

(3) Processed Cheddar cheese. "Processed Cheddar cheese" is Cheddar cheese which has been graded, cleaned, blended, ground, pasteurized and packaged. It shall contain not more than 40% of water and in the water free substance not less than 50% of milk fat.

§ 1351.1520 Maximum prices for butter—(a) Sales and deliveries of butter by manufacturers and wholesalers.

(1) Where a manufacturer or wholesaler sold his butter during the months of September and October, 1942 at a "price differential" over or under the "market quotation" for any of the cities listed in Table F in subdivision (i) below, he shall determine his maximum selling price for each grade and package type of butter to each class of purchaser in accordance with the following procedure:

(i) He shall first select from Table F the "base quotation" for the particular score of butter and for the particular city with respect to which, during the months of September and October, 1942 he based his butter price for the particular butter item for which he is seeking a maximum selling price to a particular class of purchaser.

TABLE F

City	Base quotation for butter scores 88 to 92
	88	89	90	91	92
New York	44¾	45¼	46¼	46½	46¾
Philadelphia
Boston
Chicago	44	44½	45½	45¾	46
Los Angeles	46	46½	47½	47¾	48
San Francisco
Seattle
Portland

Example: The Wisconsin Creamery Company wishes to sell its A grade of butter packed in paper cartons to the Chicago Retail Store. During October the Wisconsin Creamery Company sold other retail stores (purchasers of the same class) such A grade of butter in paper cartons by quoting its price at 1½¢ per lb. over the Chicago market quotation for 92 score butter. The Wisconsin Creamery Company's "base quotation" as determined under subparagraphs (1) (i) of this paragraph would, therefore, be 46¢ which is the Chicago Market quotation for 92 score butter.

(ii) He shall then determine his "price differential." His "price differential" shall be the difference in cents or fractions thereof between the price of an actual sale of a butter item to a particular class of purchasers on any day during the month of September and October, 1942 and the market quotation for the same day for the city, and butter score with respect to which, during the months of September and October, he based his price.

Example: During October 1942 the Wisconsin Creamery Company made three sales of Grade A butter in paper cartons to the Chicago Retail Store: namely, on October 9 at 47½¢ per lb. when the market quotation for Chicago for 92 score butter was 45¾¢ per lb.; on October 16 at 47¼¢ when the Chicago market quotation for 92 score butter was 45¾¢; on October 22 at 47¼¢ per lb. when the Chicago market quotation for 92 score butter was 45¾¢ per lb. His "price differential" can be either 1¾¢ or 1½¢.

If the Wisconsin Creamery Company had sold its Grade C butter in boxes to the Joliet Wholesale Company at less than the market quotation for 92 score butter on these three days: namely, at 45½¢, 45¼¢, and 45¼¢ respectively, its "price differential" would be either ¼¢ or ½¢.

(iii) If the manufacturer or wholesaler sold the butter item to a particular class of purchaser at "price differentials" above the market quotation in one of the cities listed in Table F during September and October, 1942, his maximum selling price for that butter item to that class of purchaser shall be the "base quotation" plus his largest "price differential" during such months.

(iv) If the manufacturer or wholesaler sold the butter item to a particular class of purchaser at "price differentials" below the market quotation in one of the cities listed in Table F during September and October, 1942, his maximum selling price for that butter item to that class of purchaser shall be the "base quotation" minus his smallest "price differential" during such months.

Example: The Wisconsin Creamery Company sold during October its Grade A butter in paper cartons to the Chicago Retail Store at prices 1¾¢ and 1½¢ per lb. above the Chicago market quotation for 92 score butter. The "price differentials" would therefore be 1¾¢ and 1½¢ per lb. Its maximum selling price would then be the "base quotation" of 46¢ for the Chicago market of 92 score butter as set forth in Table F plus 1¾¢ which is the largest "price differential". Its maximum selling price would therefore be 47¾¢ per lb.

If during October, the Wisconsin Creamery Company had sold its Grade C butter in boxes at ¼¢ and ½¢ below the Chicago market quotation for 92 score butter, its "price differentials" would be ¼¢ and ½¢. Its maximum selling price for Grade C butter in boxes to the Joliet Wholesale Company would then be the "base quotation" for 92 score butter of 46¢ (see Table F) less the smallest differential of ¼¢, giving a maximum price of 45¾¢ per lb.

If during the month of October the Wisconsin Creamery Company had quoted its price for its Grade A butter in paper cartons to the Chicago Retail Store with respect to a 90 score butter, its "price differential" would be figured with reference to the "base quotation" listed for Chicago for 90 score butter, in Table F.

Thus, if during October, it sold such butter item at 2½¢ per lb. above the Chicago market quotation for 90 score butter on that day, it would add 2½¢, the "price differential" to 45½¢, the "base quotation" listed in Table F for 90 score butter sold in Chicago.

(2) If a manufacturer or a wholesaler is unable to determine his maximum selling price under the foregoing, his maximum selling price shall be the maximum selling price of his most closely competitive seller of the same class for the particular grade and "package type" of butter to a purchaser of the same class.

(3) Customary allowances and discounts. Every manufacturer and wholesaler of butter shall continue his discounts, allowances, or other price differentials customarily given in connection with the sale of butter.

(b) Sales and deliveries of butter by retail route-sellers. (1) A "retail route-seller" is a person who customarily makes sales of butter at retail directly from a truck or wagon operated by a driver-salesman over a regular route. A "retail route-seller" shall include dairy companies operating delivery routes through driver-salesmen, but shall not include grocery stores or meat markets which deliver butter.

(2) The maximum price for which any grade and package type of butter may be sold or delivered at retail by a retail route-seller, shall be 6½¢ plus the following:

Such seller's net cost, delivered at his customary receiving point less all discounts allowed him, except the discount for prompt payment; however, no charge for local unloading or local trucking shall be included.

(c) Deliveries or transfers of butter by printing plant divisions of retail organizations. (1) In order that retailers, whose stores or retail routes are supplied with butter by the retailers' own butter print division, may have a maximum selling price on the basis of which to figure their retail prices under any maximum price regulation covering retail sales of butter including paragraph (b) of this section, it is provided that:

(i) Deliveries and transfers from the butter print divisions of a retail organization shall be deemed "sales" by wholesalers, the maximum prices for which shall be determined under the provisions of this section.

(d) Definitions—(1) Butter. "Butter" means the food product commonly known as butter, and which is made exclusively from milk or cream or both, with or without the addition of common salt or coloring matter, and containing not less than 80% by weight of milk fat, all tolerance being allowed for. Such percentage of milk fat requirement shall equal that determined by the method prescribed in Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists, 5th Edition, 1940.

(2) Butter item. "Butter item" refers to the particular grade and package type of butter.

(3) Market quotation. "Market quotation" means the wholesale selling prices of creamery butter, as published in the daily market reports of the Agricultural Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture.

(4) Butter score. "Butter score" means the grade of butter determined in accordance with the United States Standards for Quality of Creamery Butter issued by the United States Department of Agriculture.

(4) Purchaser of the same class. "Purchaser of the same class" refers to the practice adopted by the seller in setting different prices for commodities or services for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers (for example, manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber, retailer, government agency, public institution, individual consumer) or for purchasers located in different areas or for different quantities or under different conditions of sale.

(5) Wholesaler. A person who sells "at wholesale" as defined in paragraph (a) (2) of § 1351.1517 is a wholesaler within the meaning of this § 1351.1520 even though he prints the butter he sells.

(b) Exempt sales—(1) Sales at retail. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales of butter at retail except as provided above in paragraph (b) of this section with respect to sales and deliveries at retail by retail route-sellers. All other sales at retail, except sales of "farm butter" shall be priced under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 268.

(2) Sales of farm butter. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to any sale of "farm butter". "Farm butter" means any butter produced by a farmer on his farm from milk produced solely on his farm. The price for all sales and deliveries of "farm butter" shall be determined under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280.

(3) The sales exempted under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph are in addition to the sales exempted by the application of certain provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation as provided in § 1351.1511 hereof.

§ 1351.1521 Maximum prices for evaporated milk—(a) Sales and deliveries of evaporated milk by manufacturers. (1) The maximum prices for sales and deliveries of evaporated milk by manufacturers thereof shall be the following prices, delivered to the buyer's customary receiving point.

If delivered in	Carton of 48 14½ oz. cans	Carton of 48 6 oz. cans	Carton of 96 6 oz. cans	Carton of 6 8 lb. cans
	Per carton	Per carton	Per carton	Per carton
Zone 1	$4.10	$2.05	$4.10	$4.10
Zone 2	4.20	2.10	4.20	4.20
Zone 3	4.20	2.10	4.20	4.20

(i) These shall be the maximum prices to any class of purchasers and for any quantity sold. But these prices must be reduced by the seller's customary discounts or allowances for cash or prompt payment. However, any discount, allowance, or other price differential may always be given where it results in a price less than the maximum price.

The above zones are:

Zone 1. Virginia (except the city of Alexandria), West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, Colorado, New Mexico, Wyoming; and Armstrong, Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, Fayette, Greene, Mercer, Lawrence, Washington, Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Clarion, Clearfield, Crawford, Elk, Erie, Forest, Indiana, Jefferson, Somerset, Venango and Westmoreland Counties of Pennsylvania; and Allegany and Garrett Counties of Maryland.

Zone 2. District of Columbia, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, all of the counties of Pennsylvania and Maryland not included in Zone 1, and the city of Alexandria, Virginia.

Zone 3. Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah and Washington.

(2) If evaporated milk is delivered to the following points within Zones 1 and 2, ten cents per carton may be added to the respective prices set forth in the above table.

Zone 1. Deliveries to all of New Mexico except Clayton, Dawson, Raton, Artesia, Carlsbad, Roswell and Hobbs; and deliveries to Sheridan, Greybull and Worland in Wyoming.

Zone 3. Deliveries to all of Arizona, except Yuma; deliveries to Needle, El Portal and Alturas in California; deliveries to Montana; and deliveries to Boulder City, Ely, McGill and Las Vegas in Nevada.

(b) Exempt sales. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales of evaporated milk at wholesale or at retail. Sales at wholesale shall be priced under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 237;[9] sales at retail shall be priced under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 238.[10]

(c) Definitions—Evaporated milk. "Evaporated milk" means evaporated milk as defined in "Standards of Identity of Evaporated Milk" promulgated by the Food and Drug Administration and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 2, 1940, 5 F.R. 2444.

§ 1351.1522 Maximum prices for bulk powdered skim milk for human consumption. (a) The maximum prices for sales and deliveries of bulk powdered skim milk for human consumption shall be as follows:

(1) By manufacturers to the United States Government or any agency thereof f. o. b. manufacturers plant, located:

	Spray process	Roller process
	Cents per lb.	Cents per lb.
In Zone A	14½	12½
In Zone B	14¾	12¾

(2) By manufacturers to wholesalers for "deliveries to wholesalers" the following prices less 5%:

	Spray process	Roller process
	Cents per lb.	Cents per lb.
For deliveries in Zone A	15½	13½
For deliveries in Zone B	15¾	13¾

(3) By manufacturers and wholesalers for deliveries to any consumer other than the United States Government or any agency thereof:

	Spray process	Roller process
	Cents per lb.	Cents per lb.
For deliveries in Zone A	15½	13½
For deliveries in Zone B	15¾	13¾

(4) By wholesalers for deliveries to the United States Government or any agency thereof:

	Spray process	Roller process
	Cents per lb.	Cents per lb.
For deliveries in Zone A	15½	13½
For deliveries in Zone B	15¾	13¾

(5) (i) Zone B shall be Pennsylvania, New York, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Vermont, Maine and the District of Columbia.

(ii) Zone A shall be all states not included in Zone B.

[9] 7 F.R. 9637.

[10] 7 F.R. 8209, 8808.

(6) The above prices are for any quantity of bulk powdered skim milk, but these prices must be reduced by the seller's customary discounts or allowances for cash or prompt payment. However, any discount, allowance or other price differential may always be given when it results in a price less than the maximum price.

(7) These prices are for bulk powdered skim milk packed in barrels double crepe lined. They shall be reduced for any less expensive packing by the net difference in packing costs, between the double crepe lined barrels and the less expensive packing.

(8) These prices shall be increased ½¢ for all bulk powdered skim milk packed in customary 95 pound containers. These prices shall be increased 1¢ for all bulk powdered skim milk packed in customary 50 pound containers.

(b) Definitions—(1) Powdered skim milk. "Powdered skim milk," also known as "Dried skim milk" or "skim milk powder" means powdered skim milk as defined in the "Standards of Identity for Dried Skim Milk, Powdered Skim Milk, Skim Milk Powder" promulgated by the Food and Drug Administration and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 12, 1940, 5 F.R. 2543.

(2) Bulk powdered skim milk. "Bulk powdered skim milk" means all "powdered skim milk", other than "packaged skim milk". "Packaged" means packaged for sale at retail in a container of any sort holding 25 pounds or less regardless of where the packaging was done. Such packaged sales of powdered skim milk shall be subject to the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280.

(3) "For deliveries." The phrase "for deliveries" refers to deliveries at the buyer's customary receiving point. In the case of deliveries to wholesalers, it shall also include direct deliveries to the customary receiving point of any person designated by the wholesaler to receive delivery.

(c) Reference to Maximum Price Regulations covering powdered skim milk not covered in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 289:

(1) Packaged powdered skim milk when sold by manufacturers is covered under Maximum Price Regulation No. 280.

(2) Packaged powdered skim milk when sold by wholesalers is covered under Maximum Price Regulation No. 237.

(3) Packaged powdered skim milk when sold by retailers is covered under Maximum Price Regulation No. 238.

(4) All powdered skim milk sold for animal feed is covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 280.

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

LEON HENDERSON,
Administrator.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 291]

CERTAIN SYRUPS AND MOLASSES

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary to stabilize prices for syrups and molasses in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250. The present prices for syrups and molasses are governed by the General Maximum Price Regulation[1] which fixes the maximum prices as the highest prices each seller received for these commodities in March 1942. Since these products are produced seasonally, this "freeze" technique has not in all cases proved satisfactory. Consequently, it becomes necessary to issue this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 setting specific prices which in the judgment of the Price Administrator, are fair and equitable to both producer and consumer and which effectuate the purposes of the Act.

The Price Administrator has advised and consulted, so far as practicable, with members of the industry who will be affected by this regulation. The Price Administrator has also ascertained and determined that the maximum prices established for the agricultural commodities covered by this regulation, will reflect to producers a price equal to or higher than the prices specified in the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended and Executive Order No. 9250.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* The Price Administrator has consulted with the Secretary of Agriculture, and has obtained his approval for the agricultural commodities covered herein.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Act and Executive Order cited above, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1351.1351 to 1351.1369 inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1351.1351 Kinds of syrups and molasses covered by the regulation—(a) Louisiana cane syrup. Louisiana cane syrup is "cane syrup" produced in a mill comprised of six or more rollers with a twenty-four hour grinding capacity of 250 or more tons of cane. "Cane syrup" is the juice of sugar cane clarified and evaporated to a density of not less than 39° Baumé at 20° centigrade and contains not more than 2.5 per cent ash. It may or may not contain sulphur dioxide, used as a clarifying and bleaching agent.

(b) Georgia cane syrup. Georgia or "country" cane syrup is "cane syrup" produced in a mill comprised of 6 or fewer rollers, with a twenty-four hour grinding capacity of less than 250 tons of cane.

§ 1351.1352 Prohibition against dealing in syrups and molasses above maximum prices. (a) On and after December 24, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver syrups or molasses specified in this regulation and no person shall in the course of trade or business buy or receive such syrups or molasses at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in this regulation.

(b) No person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of syrups or molasses specified in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 to a purchaser, if prior to the effective date for such syrup or molasses, it has been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller for shipment to such purchaser.

§ 1351.1353 Maximum prices for syrups and molasses. (a) Producers' and packers' maximum prices for sales and deliveries of "Louisiana cane syrup" are listed in § 1351.1367.

(b) Producers', accumulators' and packers' maximum prices for sales and deliveries of "Georgia cane syrup" are listed in § 1351.1368.

§ 1351.1354 Sales at less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those referred to in § 1351.1353 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1351.1355 Exempt sales. The following sales are exempt from this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 in addition to those exempted by the application of certain provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation as provided in § 1351.1365 hereof.

(a) Sales of Louisiana and Georgia cane syrup at wholesale and retail. Maximum prices for sales of Georgia and Louisiana cane syrup at wholesale and retail are established in Maximum Price Regulation Nos. 237[3] and 238[4] respectively.

§ 1351.1356 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to syrups or molasses, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding or otherwise. Specifically, the provisions of §§ 1351.1367 and 1351.1368 shall not be evaded by a producer selling syrups and molasses in tank cars, tank trucks or barrel lots at prices provided for packers by temporarily storing and repacking syrups and molasses which he would ordinarily have delivered at producers' prices after production.

§ 1351.1357 Records and reports. (a) Every seller who makes sales of syrups and molasses after the effective date of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 shall make and preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, a record of all sales made showing the quantity sold, terms of sale, price received, and name and address of the purchaser, as well as all records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for any of such items sold after the effective date of this regulation.

(b) Every person making sales of syrups and molasses pursuant to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1351.1358 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business or stock in trade of a seller of syrups and molasses are sold or otherwise transferred on or before the effective date of this regulation for each kind of syrup or molasses specified in § 1351.1351, and the transferee continues the business, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those which the transferor would have been subject to if no transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify these prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or shall turn over to the transferee, all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions contained in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291.

§ 1351.1359 Enforcement. Any person who violates a provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided by Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1351.1360 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[5] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1361 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to the level of, and not in excess of, the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery. In appropriate situations, where a petition for amendment requires extensive consideration, the Price Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1351.1362 Export sales. The maximum prices at which a person may export syrups and molasses shall be determined in accordance with the Revised Maximum Export Regulation[6] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1351.1363 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 shall be applicable to the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1351.1364 Federal and State taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, processing, or use of syrups or molasses imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any State or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such syrups or molasses and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect prior to the effective date of this regulation for each kind of syrup and molasses. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price prior to the effective date for such item the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such a case shall include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291.

(2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291.

(b) As to a tax or an increase in a tax which becomes effective after the effective date of this regulation for each kind of syrup and molasses. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor, and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1351.1365 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. (a) This Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 supersedes the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to the sales of syrups and molasses for which maximum prices are established by this regulation: Provided, That the following sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation and the amendments thereto, and Revised Supplementary Regulation 4[7] shall be applicable to every person making sales and deliveries covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291.

1. 1499.14 (Sales slips and receipts.)
2. 1499.15 (Registration.)
3. 1499.16 (Licensing.)
4. 1499.29 (a) (5) (Developmental contracts.)
5. 1499.29 (a) (6) (Secret contracts.)
6. 1499.29 (a) (7) (Emergency purchases.)
7. 1499.29 (a) (15) (Sales or deliveries of the War Department or the Department of the Navy through such Department's sales stores.)

§ 1351.1366 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 291, the terms:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, legal successor, or representatives of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, or any agency thereof, any other Government, or any of its political subdivisions and any agency of any of the foregoing.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to other terms used herein.

maximum prices for Louisiana cane syrup. (1) "Producer of Louisiana cane syrup" means any person who manufactures "Louisiana cane syrup" as defined in § 1351.1351 hereof. Producers' maximum prices for Louisiana cane syrup to all classes of purchasers shall be:

$.35 per gallon, net, f. o. b. producers' mill or factory in tank cars or tank trucks supplied by the buyer.

$.35½ per gallon, net, f. o. b. producers' mill or factory in barrels or half-barrels supplied by the buyer.

(2) The term "barrel" used in this section means a wooden container for liquids having a capacity of approximately 55 gallons. The term "half-barrel" used in this section means a wooden container for liquids having a capacity of approximately 33 gallons.

(b) Packers' maximum prices for Louisiana cane syrup. "Packer of Louisiana cane syrup" means any person who customarily stores and repacks or reloads "Louisiana cane syrup" with or without processing, mixing or blending.

(1) (i) Packers' maximum prices at the factory for bulk sales of Louisiana cane syrup in tank cars, barrels, or other large containers, to all classes of purchasers, shall be:

$.40 per gallon in tank cars furnished by the seller.

$.54 per gallon in barrels furnished by the seller.

$.58 per gallon in half-barrels furnished by the seller.

$.62 per gallon in 10-gallon cans furnished by the seller.

$.64 per gallon in 5-gallon cans furnished by the seller.

Provided, That the syrup sold has been stored by the packer and repacked or reloaded by him into the above cars, barrels or cans.

(ii) All discounts and other allowances including those for prompt payment shall be continued.

(2) Packers' maximum prices at the factory for Louisiana cane syrup packaged in cases for the wholesale and chain store trade in less than carload lots shall be:

$3.25 per case of 6 No. 10 cans.
$3.50 per case of 12 No. 5 cans.
$3.75 per case of 24 No. 2½ cans.
$4.25 per case of 48 No. 1½ cans.
$3.25 per case of 36 No. 1½ cans.
$2.18 per case of 24 No. 1½ cans.

If the packer has established differentials for any other class of purchaser or for larger quantity purchases, he shall continue such differentials. All discounts and other allowances including those for prompt payment shall also be continued.

(3) The prices set forth in this paragraph (b) shall also apply to Louisiana cane syrup which has been enriched by the addition of cane sugar syrup.

(c) Packers' maximum delivered prices for Louisiana cane syrup. Packers' maximum delivered prices for Louisiana cane syrup shall be the prices listed in the preceding paragraph (b), plus the lowest available freight rate from New Orleans, Louisiana, to point of destination. In no case shall the purchaser be required to pay more than the packers' factory price plus the lowest available freight rate from New Orleans to point of destination.

(d) Maximum prices for the producer-packer. "Producer-packer of Louisiana cane syrup" means any producer who also customarily performs the function of a packer, i. e. he stores and repacks cane syrup with or without processing, mixing or blending. A producer-packer when performing the functions of a producer shall determine his maximum price under paragraph (a) of this section and when performing the functions of a packer under the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c).

(e) Prohibition against addition of credit or commission charges. The maximum prices established by this section shall not be increased (1) by any charges for the extension of credit; or (2) by commissions or any other charges.

§ 1351.1368 Maximum prices for Georgia cane syrup—(a) Producers' maximum prices for Georgia cane syrup. (1) "Producer of Georgia cane syrup" means any person who manufactures "Georgia cane syrup". Producers' maximum prices for Georgia cane syrup to all classes of purchasers shall be:

60¢ per Georgia gallon, net, f. o. b. accumulator's shipping point in barrels supplied by the seller for highest grade A–1 syrup.

57¢ per Georgia gallon, net, f. o. b. accumulator's shipping point in barrels supplied by the seller for 2nd grade, No. 1 syrup.

50¢ per Georgia gallon, net, f. o. b. accumulator's shipping point in barrels supplied by the seller for 3rd grade, No. 2 syrup.

(2) Highest grade A–1 Georgia syrup is that Georgia syrup which has (i) good body, (ii) good flavor, (iii) good color, and (iv) is free from dregs. If one of these qualities is lacking, it is 2nd grade or No. 1 syrup. If two of these qualities are lacking, it is 3rd grade, or No. 2 syrup.

(3) The term "barrel" used in this section means a wooden container for liquids having a capacity of approximately 35 gallons.

(4) A Georgia gallon at 39° Baumé at 20° centigrade weighs 10.847 pounds. A standard U. S. gallon of Georgia cane syrup at 39° Baumé at 20° centigrade is equal to 1.05 Georgia gallons of Georgia cane syrup.

(b) Accumulator's maximum prices for Georgia cane syrup. "Accumulator of Georgia cane syrup" means any person who collects the barrels of cane syrup manufactured by Georgia cane syrup producers for resale in original packages.

Accumulator's maximum prices for Georgia cane syrup to all classes of purchasers shall be:

61¢ per Georgia gallon, net, f. o. b. accumulator's shipping point in barrels supplied by the seller, for highest grade A–1 syrup.

58¢ per Georgia gallon, net, f. o. b. accumulator's shipping point in barrels supplied by the seller, for 2nd grade, No. 1 syrup.

51¢ per Georgia gallon, net, f. o. b. accumulator's shipping point in barrels supplied by the seller for 3rd grade, No. 2 syrup.

(c) Packers' maximum prices for Georgia cane syrup. "Packer of Georgia cane syrup" means any person who customarily stores and repacks or reloads "Georgia cane syrup" with or without processing, mixing or blending.

(1) Packers' maximum prices for Georgia cane syrup delivered to all places in the "Southern Zone" shall be as follows:

$4.70 per case of 6 No. 10 cans.
$4.95 per case of 12 No. 5 cans.
$5.20 per case of 24 No. 2½ cans.
$5.70 per case of 48 No. 1½ cans.
$2.90 per case of 24 No. 1½ cans.

The "Southern Zone" includes the states of Georgia, Alabama, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas, and Texas.

(2) Packers' maximum prices for Georgia cane syrup delivered in all places outside the "Southern Zone" shall be the following, f. o. b. Cairo, Georgia prices, plus the lowest available freight rates to point of destination.

$4.45 per case of 6 No. 10 cans.
$4.70 per case of 12 No. 5 cans.
$4.95 per case of 24 No. 2½ cans.
$5.45 per case of 48 No. 1½ cans.
$2.77 per case of 24 No. 1½ cans.

All of the above prices in this paragraph (c) shall be for carload lots to the wholesale and chain store trade. If the packer has established any differentials for other classes of purchasers or for smaller or larger quantity sales, he shall continue such differentials. All discounts and other allowances including those for prompt payment shall also be continued.

(d) Producer-packers' maximum prices for Georgia cane syrup. "Producer-packer of Georgia cane syrup" means any producer who also customarily performs the function of a packer, i. e. he stores and repacks cane syrup with or without processing, mixing or blending. A producer-packer when performing the function of a producer shall determine his maximum price under paragraph (a) of this section and when performing the functions of a packer, under the provisions of paragraph (c).

(e) Prohibition against addition of credit or commission charges. The maximum prices established by this section shall not be increased (1) by any charges for the extension of credit; or (2) by commissions or any other charges.

§ 1351.1369 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 291 (§§ 1351.1351 to 1351.1369, inclusive) shall become effective December 24, 1942.

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

Part 1499—Commodities and Services

[Supp. Reg. 14[1] of GMPR,[2] Amendment 82]

ACCOMMODATION SALES AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new subparagraph (51)is added to § 1499.73 (a) as set forth below:

§ 1499.73 Modification of maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of General Maximum Price Regulation for certain commodities, services and transactions. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the commodities, services and transactions listed below are modified as hereinafter provided:

* * * * *

(51) Accommodation sales at retail. (i) The maximum price for an accommodation sale at retail of any commodity by a seller who, in March 1942, had the fixed practice of making such accommodation sales, shall be the seller's maximum price for such commodity determined in accordance with the provisions of § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation or the actual cost of the commodity, whichever is higher.

(ii) As used in this subparagraph:

(a) "Accommodation sale" means a sale made entirely without profit, solely for the benefit or convenience of the purchaser—for example, a sale by an employer to his employees, or by a school to its students—and not for the purpose of promoting trade. It does not include sales by cooperative, non-profit or other organizations which make sales, initially above cost, but later give refunds, bonuses, dividends, or other allowances to purchasers.

(b) If the seller manufactures or produces the commodity, "cost" means the actual cost of manufacturing or producing the commodity, determined in the same manner as the seller normally determines his actual costs. If the seller does not manufacture or produce the commodity, "cost" means invoice cost, plus any transportation charges paid by the seller, less any discounts allowed to the seller, in connection with his purchase of the commodity. But in no case shall "cost" exceed the seller's lowest maximum price for such commodity for sales other than accommodation sales.

(b) Effective dates. * * *

(83) Amendment No. 82 (§ 1499.73 (a) (51)) to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 shall become effective December 29, 1942.

Part 1499—Commodities and Services

[Supp. Reg. 15[1] of GMPR[2], Amendment 3]

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES OF CERTAIN METALS, MINERALS AND PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1499.75 is amended by adding subparagraph (a) (4) to read as set forth below.

§ 1499.75 Adjustment of maximum prices. (a) * * *

(4) Certain metals, minerals and products. The following adjustment provisions (subdivisions (i) and (ii)) permit the granting of relief to producers of certain commodities (listed in subdivision (iv)) who are unable to maintain or expand their production under their existing maximum prices whenever, under (i), there is a general shortage in the essential supply of the commodity, or, under (ii), the loss of the seller's production would result in higher prices to consumers. The extent of relief to be granted under each provision is set forth therein.

(i) Whenever it appears that a shortage exists or threatens to exist in the essential supply of a commodity listed in subdivision (iv), and that a producer of such commodity is unable to maintain or expand his production at his maximum price or prices, the Office of Price Administration may, either on application for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 or on its own motion, adjust his maximum price or prices by an amount necessary to insure the maintenance or expansion of such production upon a reasonable operating margin. In determining such margin, consideration will be given to such factors as:

(a) Revenue from sales of such commodity and from all other sources, and

(b) Production, mining, development, milling, processing, and transportation costs, administrative and sales expenses, depreciation and depletion charges, taxes (excluding Federal and State income taxes), and capital investment.

(ii) Whenever it appears that the loss of a seller's production of any commodity listed in subdivision (iv) would force his customers to resort to higher priced sources of supply and that the seller is unable to maintain his production at his maximum price or prices, the Office of Price Administration may, either on application for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[3] or on its own motion, adjust his maximum price or prices by an amount adequate to cover his operating costs: Provided, however, That in no instance will the seller's maximum price be increased to a price in excess of the general level of prices prevailing for alternative sources of the supply of the commodity. The term "operating costs" shall include the cost of labor, maintenance, supplies, power, taxes, insurance, workmen's compensation, royalties, and other direct expenses, depreciation and depletion (wherever practicable as determined by the Bureau of Internal Revenue in the computation of the Federal income tax), and reasonable costs of selling and administration.

(iii) Before filing an application for adjustment under the provisions of subdivision (i) or (ii), it is suggested that each applicant obtain from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a statement of the specific information that will be necessary in order that his application may receive prompt action.

(iv) Commodities subject to the provisions of this Amendment No. 3 to Supplementary Regulation No. 15 of the General Maximum Price Regulation include nonferrous metals, ferro-alloying metals, and nonmetallic minerals, their ores, concentrates, and products, for which a shortage exists in the essential supply, and for which no other price regulation is in effect at the time an application for adjustment is filed hereunder. Such commodities include, but are not limited to, the nonferrous metals, ferro-alloying metals, and nonmetallic minerals, their ores, concentrates, and products, of which the available supply is listed as inadequate for war and essential civilian uses in the Material Substitution and Supply List, issued by the Conservation Division of the War Production Board, that is in effect at the time an application for adjustment is filed hereunder.

(v) This amendment No. 3 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(b) Effective dates. * * *

PART 1340—FUEL

[MPR 137,[1] Amendment 14]

PETROLEUM PRODUCTS SOLD AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1340.86 (c) is amended and paragraph (d) is added to such section; in § 1340.90 (a) subparagraph (16) is amended and in § 1340.91, paragraph (c) is amended, as set forth below:

§ 1340.86 Statement and posting of maximum prices of motor fuels sold at retail establishments. * * *

(c) Any person subject to the provisions of this section may mark or post maximum prices for commodities for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, either in accordance with the provisions of this section or with the provisions of § 1499.13 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(d) (1) Any seller who takes advantage of § 1340.91 (f) and after October 4, 1942, increases the price charged for a particular grade of motor fuel above the level that he would otherwise be permitted to charge shall file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board of the Office of Price Administration within five days after making such adjustment, an affidavit setting forth the following with respect to such grade:

(i) the seller's maximum price as determined by § 1340.91 (a), (b) and/or (c) and his delivered cost at the time the adjustment is made;

(ii) The exact extent of the margin enjoyed by him during the major portion of the period October 1-15, 1941;

(iii) The prices charged by him for the particular grade of motor fuel at that retail establishment during the major portion of the period October 1-15, 1941;

(iv) The delivered cost of the particular grade of motor fuel on which the margin enjoyed during the major portion of the period, October 1-15, 1941, was calculated.

(2) Any seller who makes an initial increase after October 4, 1942, in the price charged for a particular grade of motor fuel under § 1340.91 (f), and reports that increase under (1) above, may hereafter have a further adjustment in price, either by being required to lower the price or by raising the price upon being granted permission for an increase. In the case of either such adjustment the seller shall file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board of the Office of Price Administration, within five days after such adjustment is required or made, a statement setting forth his delivered cost at the time the adjustment in his selling price is made, and his new maximum price.

(3) Any seller who increases his price upon the basis of § 1340.91 (c) for a particular grade of motor fuel shall at the time he makes his initial increase file a statement setting forth his maximum price for that grade prior to the increase and his delivered cost at the time the adjustment is made. The statement shall be filed with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board of the Office of Price Administration within five days after the seller makes such increase. If the seller increases his price upon more than one grade, the seller may file either separate statements or one combined statement.

(4) Any seller who increases or decreases his price under § 1340.91 (c), after reporting an initial increase under (3) above, shall file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board within five days thereafter a statement setting forth his delivered cost at the time the increase or decrease is made, and his new maximum price.

§ 1340.90 Definitions. (a) * * *

(16) "Delivered cost" for the purposes of paragraphs (c) and (f) of § 1340.91 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 shall consist of one of the following:

(i) In the case of tank wagon buyers, the net price charged to such buyer.

(ii) In the case of tank car or transport truck buyers who buy on a delivered basis, (a) the net laid-down cost at the point of buyer's central storage, and (b) the actual cost of transportation from the buyer's point of central storage to the buyer's retail establishment.

(iii) In the case of tank car or transport truck buyers who buy f. o. b. a shipping point, (a) the net f. o. b. shipping point price, (b) the actual cost of transportation to the point of buyer's central storage, and (c) the actual cost of transportation from the point of buyer's central storage to the buyer's retail establishment.

(iv) In the case of a retail establishment operated by a supplier who is a refiner, the net tank wagon price charged by the supplier to undivided dealers in the tank wagon circuit in which the particular retail establishment is located.

* * * * *

§ 1340.91 Appendix A: Maximum prices for petroleum products sold at retail establishments. * * *

(c) A seller of motor fuel at a retail establishment may, at any time, choose his maximum price for any particular grade in either one of two ways:

(1) He may accept the maximum price as determined under the other provisions of § 1340.91.

(2) He may fix a maximum price at the particular retail establishment which will permit him a margin of 3 cents a gallon. His "margin" shall be computed as defined in § 1340.90 (a) (15).

A maximum price fixed upon the basis of a 3 cent margin will change automatically as the seller's margin is affected by changes in the delivered cost. When the delivered cost goes up thus reducing a seller's margin below 3 cents a gallon, then the maximum price will go up by the amount the margin is reduced below 3 cents. When the delivered cost goes down, then the maximum price will go down by the amount the margin exceeds 3 cents a gallon, except that the seller does not have to reduce his maximum price below that provided for in other provisions of this § 1340.91. For the purposes of this provision, the margin is deemed to change not at the time the delivered cost changes, but only after the seller has sold an amount equal to that volume on hand at the time the change in the delivered cost occurs. Any seller who increases or decreases his price upon the basis of this 3-cent margin provision shall file a statement as provided in § 1340.86 (a) (3) and (4).

Illustration: A service station operator's maximum price on December 1 was 19 cents a gallon. On that date he received at his station a delivery by tank wagon of 500 gallons at a delivered cost of 16.5 cents a gallon. He had on hand 500 gallons. Prior thereto his delivered cost had been 15.5. After he has sold 500 gallons at a price no higher than 19 cents a gallon he may increase his price to 19.5 cents a gallon.

Assuming that he increases his price to 19 cents a gallon, the tank wagon price may later be reduced. Suppose that he has 400 gallons on hand on December 28, and that the tank wagon price is then reduced to 16.2 cents a gallon. After he sells 400 gallons, he is required to reduce his price to 19.2 cents a gallon or less.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 5C,[1] Amendment 7]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of § 1394.7808 are amended; and a new paragraph (g) to § 1394.8352 is added; as set forth below:

Transport Rations

§ 1394.7808 Temporary transport rations. (a) Any person requiring gasoline for the operation of a commercial motor vehicle who has made application for a certificate of war necessity but who has received no certificate and no notice that the application has been denied; or who has received a certificate of war necessity, transport ration or temporary transport ration insufficient to satisfy his requirements through January 31, 1943, may apply (between November 23, 1942, and January 31, 1943, inclusive) for a temporary transport ration pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section. If application is made on the ground that the certificate allows insufficient gallonage, the applicant shall present the certificate to the board with his application, if it is possible for the applicant to do so.

(b) An application for a temporary transport ration may be made, in duplicate, to any board during the period from November 23, 1942 to January 31, 1943, inclusive. Such application shall be made on Form OPA R-536, and may be made by an agent. The applicant shall state the mileage and gallonage required for the operation of such motor vehicle from the date the ration is required to January 31, 1943, inclusive, and set forth the following:

(1) If no certificate and no notice of denial of a certificate has been received, the applicant shall specify the address of the district office of the Office of Defense Transportation with which the application for a certificate of war necessity has been filed, the date on which such application was filed, and the address of the board with which his application pursuant to § 1394.7804 is to be filed. The applicant shall also state that

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[MPR 165[1] as Amended, Amendment 15]

SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Sections 1499.111 and 1499.113 are amended, all to read as set forth below:

§ 1499.111 Licensing—(a) License required. A license as a condition of selling is hereby required of every person now or hereafter selling any service for which a maximum price is established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as now or hereafter amended, or by any other price regulation, now or hereafter issued or amended, of the Office of Price Administration making applicable by reference the provisions of this § 1499.111. No person whose license is suspended in proceedings under section 205 (f) (2) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall, during the period of suspension, sell any service as to which his license to sell is suspended.

(b) License granted. Every person now or hereafter selling any service for which a maximum price is established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as now or hereafter amended, or by any other price regulation of the Office of Price Administration, now or hereafter issued or amended, making applicable by reference the provisions of this § 1499.111, is hereby granted a license as a condition of selling such service. The provisions of this regulation, and of every price regulation of the Office of Price Administration, to which this Section is now or may hereafter become applicable, shall be deemed to be incorporated in the license hereby granted, and any violation of any provision so incorporated shall be a violation of the provisions of said license. Such license shall be effective on July 1, 1942, the effective date of this regulation, or when any person becomes subject to the maximum price provisions of this or any other such price regulation, and shall, unless suspended in accordance with the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, continue in force so long as and to the extent that this or any other such price regulation, or any amendment or supplement thereto, remains in effect.

(c) Licensing section of the General Maximum Price Regulation superseded. This section supersedes the provisions of § 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation insofar as said section may be applicable to persons selling any service for which a maximum price is established by this regulation, or by any other price regulation of the Office of Price Administration making applicable by reference the provisions of this § 1499.111.

§ 1499.113 Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1499.121a Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(o) Amendment No. 15 (§§ 1499.111 and 1499.113) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, shall become effective December 31, 1942.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1428 Approval of maximum prices for sales of "Keep 'Em Shining"—(a) Sales by Revlon Products Corporation—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales by Revlon Products Corporation of "Keep 'Em Shining" to jobbers and to retailers are established as set forth below:

	To jobbers	To retailers
"Keep 'Em Shining" one-ounce bottle	$.225 each	$.36 each

---

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] F.R. 4734, 5028, 5567, 6428, 6966, 8239, 8431, 8798, 8943, 8948, 9197, 9342, 9343, 9785, 9971, 9972, 10480, 10557.

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Revlon Products Corporation shall apply to the maximum prices set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for its sales of "Keep 'Em Shining" all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of transportation costs, and any other customary discounts or allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on its sales of the Revlon Plastic Case Lipstick.

(b) Sales by jobbers—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum price for sales by jobbers of "Keep 'Em Shining" is established as set forth below:

	Each
"Keep 'Em Shining" one-ounce bottle	$0.36

When used in this order the term "jobber" means any barber and beauty supply jobber or other person who buys "Keep 'Em Shining" and resells it, without substantially changing its form, to retailers.

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Any jobber making sales of "Keep 'Em Shining" shall apply to the maximum price set forth for such sales in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of shipping charges, and other customary discounts or allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on sales by the jobber of the Revlon Plastic Case Lipstick, or on his sales of the lipstick most nearly comparable to the Revlon Plastic Case Lipstick if the jobber did not sell the Revlon Plastic Case Lipstick in March, 1942.

(c) Sales by retailers—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum price for sales by any retailer of "Keep 'Em Shining" is established as set forth below:

	Each
"Keep 'Em Shining" one-ounce bottle	$0.60

When used in this order the term "retailer" means any beauty shop, drug store, department store, or other person who buys "Keep 'Em Shining" and resells it directly to consumers.

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Any retailer making sales of "Keep 'Em Shining" shall apply to the maximum price set forth for such sales in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph all quantity differentials, discounts for purchasers of different classes, trade practices, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of shipping charges, and other customary discounts or allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on sales by the retailer of the Revelon Plastic Case Lipstick, or the lipstick most nearly comparable to the Revelon Plastic Case Lipstick if the retailer did not sell the Revelon Plastic Case Lipstick in March, 1942.

(d) Marking package with retail ceiling price. Revelon Products Corporation shall mark each package of "Keep 'Em Shining" sold by it with words "Ceiling Price 60¢." These words shall be printed or stamped in a color contrasting with the label in letters of sufficient size to be clearly legible to the consumer on the package in which "Keep 'Em Shining" is sold by the retailer to the consumer. No retailer shall make sales of "Keep 'Em Shining" unless the package in which the product is sold is marked with the ceiling price as required by this paragraph.

(e) Notification of maximum prices—(1) By Revelon Products Corporation to direct-buying retailers. Revelon Products Corporation shall supply to each retailer before or at the time of its first delivery of "Keep 'Em Shining" to such retailer a written statement as follows:

> The OPA has authorized us to charge 36 cents each for "Keep 'Em Shining" subject to all customary discounts and allowances. Your ceiling price is authorized to be 60 cents each for "Keep 'Em Shining." OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(2) By Revlon Products Corporation to jobbers and to retailers via jobbers. Revlon Products Corporation shall supply to each jobber before or at the time of its first delivery of "Keep 'Em Shining," and in addition shall include with each shipping unit of such product for a period of three months, a written notification. If such notification is enclosed in a shipping unit, a legend shall be affixed outside of such unit to read "Retailer's Notice Enclosed." The written notification shall read as follows:

> The OPA has authorized us to charge 22½ cents each for "Keep 'Em Shining" subject to all customary discounts and allowances. Jobbers are authorized to establish a ceiling price of 36 cents each for this item subject to all customary discounts and allowances. Retailers are authorized to establish a ceiling price of 60 cents each for this item. A copy of this notice is included in every customary shipping unit. If the initial sale to a retailer is a split-case sale, the jobber is required to provide such retailer with a copy of this notice. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(f) Definitions. When used in this order the term:

(1) "Keep 'Em Shining" means a one fluid ounce bottle, with a plastic cap and an applicator brush attached to the cap, of clear enamel distributed by Revlon Products Corporation for application as a protective coating to metal insignia and buttons.

(2) As used in this order, "Revlon Plastic Case Lipstick" means a cream cosmetic lipstick mass enclosed in a plastic cylinder having a device for extruding the cream cosmetic lipstick mass distributed by Revlon Products Corporation, designed to sell for 60 cents at retail.

(g) This Order No. 192 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(h) This Order No. 192 (§ 1499.1428) shall become effective on December 31, 1942.

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter II—Corps of Engineers, War Department

PART 204—DANGER ZONE REGULATIONS

MACHINE GUN STRAFING RANGE AND BOMBING TARGET AREA IN VICINITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE, FLA.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917 (40 Stat. 266; 33 U.S.C. 1), the following regulations are hereby prescribed to govern the use and navigation of the waters of the Atlantic Ocean, in two areas in the vicinity of St. Augustine, Florida, comprising a machine gun strafing range and a bombing target area for United States Navy aircraft.

---

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F.R. 5909, 6268, 6744, 8023, 8358, 8947, 9195, 10231, 10790.

§ 204.82a Waters of Atlantic Ocean; U. S. Navy, aerial machine gun strafing range and bombing target area, in vicinity of St. Augustine, Florida—(a) The danger zones—(1) The machine gun strafing range.[1] A target cluster 150 feet by 300 feet composed of 6 rafts, 7 feet square, placed on two lines and spaced 150 feet apart, will be located with its center at north latitude 30°01′ and west longitude 81°17′. The restricted area is rectangular, 4 nautical miles in a north and south direction and 5½ nautical miles in an east and west direction. The westerly and easterly sides will be ½ nautical mile west and 5 nautical miles east of the center of the target cluster; the northerly and southerly sides will be 2 nautical miles north and 2 nautical miles south of the center of the target cluster.

(2) The bombing target area. This area is circular, with a radius of one nautical mile, the center being located at north latitude 29°52′ and west longitude 81°12′. A target 11 feet square, 10 feet high at the 4 corners, and 15.5 feet high at its center point, will be located at the center of the circular area.

(b) The regulations. (1) The danger areas are open to navigation except when target practice is being conducted, when no vessel or other craft shall enter or remain within these areas except as provided in paragraph (b) (4).

(2) Since aerial target practice will take place in these areas at frequent and irregular intervals throughout the year, regardless of season, advance notice shall be given of the date on which the first of such activities will begin. At intervals of not more than three months thereafter, notice will be sent out that target practice is continuing. Such notices will appear in the local newspapers and in the "Notice to Mariners".

(3) Prior to conduct of each target practice the area will be patrolled by naval aircraft which will warn navigation to leave the area by "zooming" a safe distance to the side. Upon receiving this signal any watercraft within the danger zone shall leave it and no craft shall enter this area until practice has ceased.

(4) These regulations shall not deny access or egress from harbors contiguous to these danger zones by regular cargo-carrying vessels, nor shall they deny traverse of portions of the danger areas by regular cargo-carrying vessels proceeding on established steamer lanes. In case of the presence of any such vessel in the danger areas, the officer in charge of gunnery operations shall cause the cessation or postponement of fire until the vessel has cleared the area. The vessel shall proceed on its normal course and shall not delay its progress.

(5) No marking of these areas is proposed. It is considered that the targets erected as described for each area will constitute sufficient marking for identification of the danger zones.

(6) These regulations shall be enforced by the Commandant, United States Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Florida, and such agencies as he may designate.

(Sec. 7, River and Harbor Act, August 8, 1917, 40 Stat. 266, 33 U.S.C. 1) [Regs. October 15, 1942, (CE 800.2121 (Atlantic Ocean, Fla.)—SPEON)]

Major General,
The Adjutant General.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 25—MEDICAL

HOSPITALIZATION AND DOMICILIARY CARE

Revision of § 25.6050.

§ 25.6050 Utilization of facilities other than those under direct and exclusive jurisdiction of the Veterans Administration. For the purposes of § 35.10, paragraph XIX, defining "Veterans Administration facilities", the following provisions will govern in authorizing admissions to facilities other than those under the direct and exclusive jurisdiction of the Veterans Administration:

* * * * *

(b) (1) Private facilities will not be used for hospitalization of beneficiaries except when facilities under direct and exclusive jurisdiction of the Veterans Administration or other Federal hospitals are not feasibly available, or when the physical or mental condition of beneficiaries will not allow of their transfer from a private, State, or municipal hospital to a Federal hospital. Except for treatment of an emergent condition arising from a service-connected disorder, hospitalization of a male beneficiary will not be authorized in any private, State, or municipal hospital, whether under or not under contract. In such medically emergent cases, authorization of admission to a private, State or municipal hospital may be given, subject to the conditions stipulated in paragraph (2) hereof: and, when so given, will be authority for payment of vouchers covering the cost of such hospitalization.

(2) The chief medical officer or his designate, of the regional office or facility with regional office having jurisdiction of the territory in which the concerned private, State, or municipal hospital, contract or non-contract, is located, when informed of the emergent condition of the entitled beneficiary in time to authorize the hospital admission, or when requested to issue authorization to cover a hospital admission already effected, will at once notify the superintendent of such hospital as follows:

(i) That payment cannot be made by the Veterans Administration for any hospital service or supplies furnished prior to the date that authorization for admission had been issued, and that such authorization cannot be retroactively dated when issued; except that authorization may be made retroactive to include a period not exceeding twenty-four hours beginning with the hour that admission to the hospital is authorized by the Veterans Administration.

(ii) That—if the hospital concerned is under contract with the Veterans Administration—all services and supplies furnished the beneficiary must be charged for and paid only at rates in accordance with the terms of the contract.

(iii) That—if the hospital concerned is not under contract—all services and supplies can be paid for only at rates in accordance with the schedule of fees, Veterans Administration.

(iv) That, when possible, prior authority will be requested by the hospital for the furnishing of services or supplies other than those included in a contract, or other than those comprehending ordinary items.

(v) But when the procurement of such prior authority is not possible, or when the emergent condition of the beneficiary is too urgent for delay, the hospital may furnish such necessary services or supplies, with the understanding that charges therefor will be subject to determination as to their reasonable necessity by the chief medical officer or his designate. (See also §§25.6140 to 25.6148.) (December 28, 1942.) (48 Stat. 9; 38 U.S.C. 706)

No change in (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h) and (i).

Administrator.

Subchapter C—Carriers by Water

PART 325—PRESERVATION AND DESTRUCTION OF RECORDS

DESTRUCTION OF CERTAIN RECORDS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of December 1942.

The matter of the regulations to govern the destruction of records of carriers by water to be prescribed for and kept by carriers by water being under consideration by the Division, pursuant to the authority of section 313 of Part III of the Interstate Commerce Act, and upon consideration of the matters and things involved, and the Division having found that the regulations to govern the destruction of records of carriers by water, issue of 1943, hereto attached and made a part hereof, are necessary for purposes of administration of the provisions of Part III of the Act; It is ordered:

Sec.
325.0 Regulations prescribed.
325.1 Authority to destroy certain records.
325.2 Preservation of other records; special permission to destroy.
325.3 Officer having supervision of destruction.
325.4 Written authority of officer having supervision of destruction.
325.5 Certificates of destruction.
325.6 Committee for destruction of certain records.
325.7 Joint bureaus and agencies.
325.8 Nonoperating companies.

325.10 Accidental destruction of accounts, records, and memoranda.
325.11 Duplicate accounts, records, and memoranda.
325.12 List of accounts, records, and memoranda, and periods of retention.

AUTHORITY: §§ 325.0 to 325.12, inclusive, issued under Sec. 313 (g), 54 Stat. 945, 49 U.S.C. 913.

§ 325.0 Regulations prescribed. (a) Every carrier by water subject to the provisions of part III of the Interstate Commerce Act, and every trustee, executor, administrator, or assignee of any such carrier by water, are hereby required to comply with the regulations to govern the destruction of records of carriers by water, issue of 1943, in the destruction and retention of their operating, accounting and financial papers, records, books, blanks, tickets, stubs, and documents of carriers by water.

(b) Effective date and supersedure. The issue of 1943, regulations to govern the destruction of records of carriers by water, shall become effective on January 1, 1943, and the order and regulations issued and prescribed June 17, 1913, shall thereupon be canceled and superseded.

And it is further ordered, That a copy of this order and the regulations to govern the destruction of records of carriers by water herein prescribed shall be served upon every carrier by water subject to Part III of the Act and every trustee, executor, administrator, or assignee of any such carrier by water, and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives.

By the Commission, Division 1.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL,
Secretary.

Special Note

The following extracts from sections 317 and 313 of part III of the Interstate Commerce Act are here quoted for convenient reference thereto by carriers:

SECTION 317 (d). Any water carrier or other person, or any officer, agent, employee, or representative thereof, who shall willfully fail or refuse to make a report to the Commission as required by this part, or to make specific and full, true, and correct answer to any question within thirty days from the time it is lawfully required by the Commission so to do, or to keep accounts, records, and memoranda in the form and manner prescribed by the Commission, or shall willfully falsify, destroy, mutilate, or alter any report, account, record, memorandum, book, correspondence, or other document, required under this part to be kept, or who shall willfully neglect or fail to make full, true, and correct entries in such accounts, records, or memoranda of all facts and transactions as required under this part, or shall willfully keep any accounts, records, or memoranda contrary to the rules, regulations, or orders of the Commission with respect thereto, or shall knowingly and willfully file with the Commission any false report, account, record, or memorandum, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States of competent jurisdiction within the district in which such offense was in whole or in part committed, be subject for each offense to a fine or not more than $5,000. As used in this subsection, the word "keep" shall be construed to mean made, prepared, or compiled, as well as retained.

SECTION 313 (g). The Commission may issue orders specifying such operating, accounting, or financial papers, records, books, blanks, tickets, stubs, correspondence, or documents of water carriers or lessors as may, after a reasonable time, be destroyed, and prescribing the length of time the same shall be preserved.

The regulations set forth in this order pertain only to the accounts, records, and memoranda named or described herein. All accounts, records, and memoranda not indicated in the regulations remain under the prohibition of destruction contained in section 317 (d) of the Act.

It is not intended that these regulations shall be interpreted as requiring that the records herein named shall be installed, when such records are not already kept by a carrier. The following Regulations to Govern the Destruction of Records of Carriers by Water subject to part III of the Interstate Commerce Act are in lieu of Part 110, Subpart F and Part 116 of Title 49, Code of Federal Regulations.

Regulations to Govern the Destruction of Records of Carriers By Water

§ 325.1 Authority to destroy certain records. Each and every carrier by water subject to part III of the Interstate Commerce Act and each and every trustee, executor, administrator or assignee of any such carrier, is permitted to destroy the accounts, records, and memoranda named or described in these regulations, after preserving the same for the periods of time respectively specified and upon complying with the requirements of the regulations.

§ 325.2 Preservation of other records; special permission to destroy. All accounts, records, and memoranda of such carriers, other than those the destruction of which is permitted in these regulations, shall remain under the prohibition of destruction contained in section 317 (d) of part III of the Interstate Commerce Act. However, in case any such carrier desires to destroy any accounts, records, or memoranda other than those hereinafter named it may petition the Commission to that effect, exhibiting a full and detailed description of the accounts, records, or memoranda in question, clearly explaining their character, their use, and their purpose; it being understood that any order entered by the Commission on any such petition shall, unless otherwise provided, be limited in its force and effect to the particular carrier presenting such petition.

§ 325.3 Officer having supervision of destruction. (a) An officer, or, where necessities require, two officers, shall be appointed by the board of directors to have supervision of the destruction of accounts, records, and memoranda. Carriers operated as sole proprietorships or partnerships shall appoint one or two persons to have supervision over the destruction of accounts, records, and memoranda. Such officer or officers or other persons may be given (1) general supervision of the destruction of all accounts, records, and memoranda the destruction of which is permitted by these regulations, or (2) authority over the destruction of such of these accounts, records, and memoranda as may be specified by the board of directors, the sole proprietor, or partners. Pending action by the board of directors, an appointment by an executive committee or by a similarly authorized committee of the board of directors, shall have the same effect as if made by the board of directors.

(b) If the property of a carrier is in the hands of a trustee, executor, administrator, or assignee, the officer or officers to have supervision of the destruction of accounts, records, and memoranda shall be designated by the trustee, executor, administrator, or assignee.

(c) In designating an officer to have general supervision of the destruction of accounts, records, and memoranda it would be preferable to designate by title only, rather than by name and title, and thus obviate the necessity of filing a new resolution each time a successor in the office is appointed.

§ 325.4 Written authority of officer having supervision of destruction. (a) When any accounts, records, or memoranda are to be destroyed, an officer having supervision of the destruction of accounts, records, or memoranda (as designated in compliance with § 325.3 (a) and § 325.3 (b)) shall issue a written authority naming the person or persons by whom the accounts, records, or memoranda are to be destroyed (except as provided in § 325.11).

(b) The written authority (1) may be confined to certain accounts, records, and memoranda which have been retained for the periods of time specified in these regulations and which the carrier then desires to destroy, in which case it shall indicate:

(i) A list of the accounts, records, or memoranda to be destroyed, expressed either in form numbers or by descriptive titles; and

(ii) The period or periods covered by the accounts, records, or memoranda the destruction of which is authorized; or (2) may be of continuing effect, applying to any or all of the accounts, records, and memoranda named herein as the periods of retention of such accounts, records, or memoranda attain the limits specified herein.

(c) Such written authority, or a certified copy thereof, shall be filed in the office of the issuing officer as a permanent part of the carrier's records. It is not required that copies of the written authorities be filed with the Commission.

§ 325.5 Certificates of destruction. (a) The person or persons upon whom devolves the duty of the direct supervision of the destruction of the accounts, records, or memoranda under the authority referred to in § 325.4 (a) and § 325.4 (b) shall make certificate (except as provided in § 325.5 (d) and § 325.11) setting forth that the accounts, records, or memoranda listed in the said authority have been destroyed and that no other accounts, records, or memoranda than those so listed have been destroyed therewith.

(b) If an authority as referred to in § 325.4 (b) is given, a certificate of destruction shall be made listing either by form numbers or descriptive titles the accounts, records, and memoranda destroyed, naming the period or periods covered by the accounts, records, or memoranda, and stating that no other accounts, records, or memoranda than those so listed have been destroyed therewith. Either (1) a separate certificate shall be made each time any accounts, records, or memoranda are destroyed, or (2) cumulative certificates shall be made, with entries each time any accounts, records, or memoranda are destroyed.

(c) Certificates of destruction shall be forwarded promptly to the officer having supervision of the destruction of accounts, records, and memoranda who issued the written authority and shall be retained in his office as a permanent part of the carrier's records. In case cumulative certificates are made they shall be forwarded to such officer periodically, but at least once every six months. It is not required that copies of the certificates of destruction be filed with the Commission.

(d) Certificates of destruction need not be made for accounts, records, and memoranda, the destruction of which, in the list in § 325.12 hereof, is made optional with the carrier, but a written authority, either for specific records or of continuing effect (except as provided in § 325.11), shall be issued by the officer having supervision of the destruction of such accounts, records, and memoranda.

§ 325.6 Committee for destruction of certain records. At the option of the carrier the board of directors may from time to time name a committee to destroy canceled stock certificates, bonds, or other records covered by item 5 of § 325.12 in lieu of delegating the authority for the destruction to an officer, as provided in § 325.3 (a). Certificates of destruction giving full descriptive reference to the documents destroyed shall be made by the person or persons appointed by the officer having supervision of the destruction of records or by this committee, and such certificates shall be permanently retained by the carrier. When documents represent debt secured by mortgage, the certificates of destruction shall also be authenticated by representatives of the trustees acting in conjunction with this committee or shall have the trustees' acceptance thereon.

§ 325.7 Joint bureaus and agencies. These regulations apply also to the destruction of accounts, records, and memoranda of traffic associations, demurrage bureaus, and other joint agencies maintained by or on behalf of carriers by water. The manager, chairman, or other officer in charge of the association, bureau, etc., may be delegated by the designated officer of each of the carriers to have supervision of the destruction of accounts, records, and memoranda of the association, etc., and in that event he shall issue all authorities for such destruction, and certificates of destruction shall be filed with him. Otherwise a written authority shall be secured from the proper officer of the member carriers concerned each time any of the accounts, records, or memoranda are to be destroyed, and a certificate of destruction shall be filed with each such officer.

§ 325.8 Nonoperating companies. A company owning or controlling water line property which it does not operate but which it leases to others for operating purposes shall observe these regulations in case it desires to destroy any of its corporate or financial accounts, records, or memoranda.

§ 325.9 Method of destruction. (a) The precise method of the destruction of accounts, records, or memoranda is not prescribed. The Commission is not concerned with the method of destruction, whether by fire, sale or otherwise, so long as the destruction is authorized and a certificate of destruction is filed as required by these regulations.

(b) If the accounts, records, and memoranda are not actually destroyed by the carrier, but are disposed of by sale or otherwise, the certificate of destruction shall so state. Attention is called to section 317 (f) of part III of the Interstate Commerce Act, which provides that a carrier shall not divulge to any person information concerning the business of a shipper or consignee which may be used to the detriment of such shipper or consignee. Responsibility for possible infringement of this provision of the law by disposing of its records by other than actual destruction would rest with the carrier.

§ 325.10 Accidental destruction of accounts, records, and memoranda. If any accounts, records, or memoranda are destroyed accidentally by fire, flood, or other casualty a statement shall be prepared listing so far as may be possible the records destroyed and detailing the circumstances in connection with the fire or other casualty. This statement shall be authenticated by an officer or some responsible employee of the carrier and shall be filed with the officer having supervision of the destruction of accounts, records, and memoranda. A copy of the statement shall be filed promptly with the Commission.

§ 325.11 Duplicate accounts, records, and memoranda. Provision is made in item 64 of § 325.12 for the optional destruction of duplicate copies of accounts, records, and memoranda when such copies are not specifically provided for elsewhere in these regulations and when they contain no information not shown on the originals. In destroying such copies carriers may dispense with the written authorities and the certificates of destruction. The originals (or one true copy) shall be retained for the respective periods named for such records in the regulations.

§ 325.12 List of accounts, records, and memoranda, and periods of retention. The following list[1] is indicative of accounts, records, and memoranda of carriers by water specifically referred to by the regulation embodied in § 325.1. The classification of the accounts, records, and memoranda enumerated below under the various headings is merely for convenient reference and is more or less arbitrary. The regulations are intended to apply to the items as named or described, regardless of the classification and regardless of where filed. Of the accounts, records, and memoranda which are to be retained permanently only the more important are indicated in the list, such specific mention being made so that they may not be confused with any accounts, records, or memoranda for which permission to destroy is given herein.

501.166 Submission of plans.
501.167 Records and reports.
501.168 Suspension of provisions.
501.169 Communications.
501.170 Effective date.

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.160 to 501.170, inclusive, issued under E.O. 8989, 9156 and 9214; 6 F.R. 6725, 7 F.R. 3349, 6097.

§ 501.160 Definitions. As used in this order (§§ 501.160 to 501.170, inclusive), or in any order, permit, or regulation issued hereunder, the term:

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, joint-stock company, business trust, or other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or of any other government, the Insular Government of Puerto Rico, or any political subdivision or agency thereof, or any trustee, receiver, assignee or personal representative;

(b) "Intercity service" means all transportation of passengers, except (1) operations performed wholly within any urban zone and an area extending 8 air kilometers from the boundaries thereof, or between contiguous urban zones, and (2) round-trip schedules the principal traffic of which consists of the movement of workers en route between their homes and their places of employment, or the movement of persons between military or naval establishments and nearby urban zones;

(c) "Intercity passenger vehicle" means any rubber-tired vehicle propelled or drawn by mechanical power when used upon the streets or highways (but not on rails) in the transportation of passengers in intercity service;

(d) "Common carrier" means any person that holds itself out to the general public to engage in transportation of passengers by intercity passenger vehicle for compensation;

(e) "Seat kilometers" means the number of kilometers operated by an intercity passenger vehicle in intercity service (including kilometers operated without revenue passengers by extra vehicles in connection with regular schedules) multiplied by the seating capacity of the vehicle;

(f) "Passenger kilometers" means the number of kilometers traveled by revenue passengers in intercity passenger vehicles operated in scheduled intercity service, including extra vehicles;

(g) "Round-trip schedule" means the regular operation of an intercity passenger vehicle (including any extra vehicle or vehicles operated in connection therewith) at a stated time over a fixed route, from the starting point where passengers are first permitted to board the vehicle to the point served most distant therefrom, and return to the starting point;

(h) "Limited schedule" means a schedule which does not serve by regular stop or flag stop at least 90.per cent of the urban zones authorized to be served by the carrier on that route.

§ 501.161 Applicability. This order shall be applicable only within the Island of Puerto Rico.

§ 501.162 General Order ODT 11 superseded in Puerto Rico. The provisions of this order, on the effective date hereof, shall supersede the provisions of General Order ODT 11[1] in the Island of Puerto Rico.

§ 501.163 Elimination of waste. On and after the effective date of this order, every common carrier in the operation of intercity passenger vehicles shall:

(a) Eliminate waste in operations and duplication of parallel services, and curtail schedules and services to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of this order;

(b) Conserve and properly maintain tires, vehicle equipment and other facilities necessary in conducting the business of such common carrier.

§ 501.164 Operating requirements. On and after the effective date of this order, no common carrier in the operation of intercity passenger vehicles shall:

(a) Operate a limited schedule in intercity service;

(b) Operate a round-trip schedule in intercity service where it is reasonable to believe, in the light of experience and prospective travel, that during any calendar month the number of passenger kilometers on such schedule will be less than 40 per cent of the number of seat kilometers;

(c) Extend or inaugurate intercity service, without the prior approval of the Office of Defense Transportation, over a route not being served by the carrier on the effective date of this order;

(d) Operate intercity service for the primary purpose of supplying transportation to or from a golf course, athletic field, race track, theatre, dancing pavilion or other place conducted primarily for purposes of amusement or entertainment;

(e) Operate any intercity passenger vehicle without distinctly marking such vehicle to indicate that it is engaged in intercity service;

(f) Operate any intercity passenger vehicle for any purpose, including social or recreational purposes, personal to the driver or operator.

§ 501.165 Special and general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permits issued by the Office of Defense Transportation to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances, or to prevent undue hardships.

§ 501.166. Submission of plans. (a) Wherever two or more common carriers by intercity passenger vehicles engage in competitive intercity service over the same or closely parallel routes, they or their representatives shall meet for the purpose of formulating a plan of joint action to the end that maximum utilization of equipment and facilities may be effected during the period of the emergency, by one or more of the following methods:

(1) Pooling or joint use of equipment or other facilities;

(2) Pooling or division of traffic, service, or revenues;

(3) Alternation or staggering of schedules between any two or more points;

(4) Mutual honoring of one another's tickets at the option of the passenger;

(5) Suspension, lease, exchange, or joint use of operating rights.

(b) Within 30 days after the effective date of this order, such carriers shall jointly submit to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico, any plan of joint action so formulated, or a statement setting forth the reasons why no plan of joint action has been agreed upon: Provided, however, That nothing in this order shall be construed to authorize carriers to engage in joint action by any of the methods described in this § 501.166 unless directed so to do by specific order of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.167 Records and reports. Every common carrier engaged in the operation of any intercity passenger vehicle shall prepare and maintain a record showing for each round-trip schedule in intercity service the number of passenger kilometers and seat kilometers, and the percentage of passenger kilometers to seat kilometers, for each calendar month. Within 30 days after the end of each calendar month, each such common carrier shall report to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico, a brief description of each such schedule where such percentage was less than 40 per cent, and a statement that such schedule has been withdrawn or the reasons why it has been continued. Every such common carrier shall prepare and maintain such other records, and make such reports, as the Office of Defense Transportation may hereafter require for the purpose of this order, and shall keep all records required hereunder available and open for inspection by authorized representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation at all reasonable times.

§ 501.168 Suspension of provisions. The provisions of this order or any part thereof may be suspended, from time to time, by order of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.169 Communications. Communications concerning this order should refer to "General Order ODT 27", and should be addressed to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

§ 501.170 Effective date. This General Order ODT 27 shall become effective January 15, 1943, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of December 1942.

JOSEPH B. EASTMAN,
Director of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.191 Applicability. The provisions of this order shall be applicable only within the Island of Puerto Rico.

§ 501.192 General Order ODT 20 superseded in Puerto Rico. The provisions of this order, on the effective date hereof, shall supersede the provisions of General Order ODT 20, as amended,[1] in the Island of Puerto Rico.

§ 501.193 Certain operations prohibited. No person shall engage in taxi service unless, on the effective date of this order, there was in force with respect to such person a license, permit, or other grant of authority issued by the Insular Government of Puerto Rico, or governmental subdivision thereof, authorizing such person to engage in such taxi service.

§ 501.195 Loading requirements. No person shall drive or operate a taxicab:

(a) For any purpose, including social or recreational purposes, personal to the driver or operator;

(b) For the purpose of making commercial deliveries of property;

(c) More than 8 kilometers beyond the limits of the urban zone or contiguous urban zones in which the trip originated;

(d) For the purpose of securing passengers while cruising;

(e) On any trip that exceeds 20 kilometers from point of origin to point of destination;

(f) Without distinctly marking every such taxicab to indicate that it is a taxicab.

§ 501.195. Loading requirements. No person shall drive or operate a taxicab in any urban zone who does not participate in any group riding plan for taxicabs that is lawfully in effect within such urban zone and in which it is practicable for him to participate.

§ 501.196 Special and general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permit issued by the Office of Defense Transportation to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances, or to prevent undue hardships.

§ 501.197 Suspension of provisions. The provisions of this order or any part thereof may be suspended, from time to time, by order of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.198 Records and reports. Every person engaged in taxi service shall keep a daily record of the number of kilometers and hours each taxicab used in such service is operated, the number of passengers carried, and the gallons of fuel transferred to its fuel tank, and shall keep such other records and make such reports as may be required by the Office of Defense Transportation. Such records shall be kept available for inspection by authorized representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation at all times.

§ 501.199 Exemptions. The provisions of this order shall not apply:

(a) To a person transporting by automobile passengers to and from funerals or interments;

(b) To the transportation of passengers incidental to emergencies arising from an accident, sickness, death, public calamity, or military necessity; Provided, however, That with respect to all such transportation the person driving or operating the taxicab shall within 48 hours make a report in writing to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico, explaining in full the emergency necessitating the transportation.

§ 501.200 Communications. Communications concerning this order should refer to "General Order ODT 29" and should be addressed to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

§ 501.201 Effective date. This General Order ODT 29 shall become effective January 15, 1943.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of December 1942.

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.210 to 501.224, inclusive, issued under E.O. 8989, 9156 and 9214; 6 F.R. 6725, 7 F.R. 3340, 6097.

§ 501.210 Definitions. As used in this order, (§§ 501.210 to 501.224, inclusive), or in any order, permit or regulation issued hereunder, the term:

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, joint-stock company, business trust, or other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or of any other government, the Insular Government of Puerto Rico, or any political subdivision or agency thereof, or any trustee, receiver, assignee or personal representative;

(b) "Property" means anything, except passengers, capable of being transported by motor truck;

(c) "Common carrier" or "carrier" means any person that holds itself out to engage in the transportation of property for the general public in over-the-road service by motor truck for compensation, regardless of the designation of such person under any Federal or Insular statute;

(d) "Motor truck" or "truck" means either (1) a straight truck, (2) a combination truck-tractor and semi-trailer, (3) a full trailer, (4) or any combination thereof, (5) or any other rubber-tired vehicle propelled or drawn by mechanical power when used in the transportation of property;

(e) "Gross weight" means the aggregate weight of a motor truck and its lading;

(f) "Rated load carrying ability" as applied to a truck means the weight which the tires mounted on the load bearing wheels of such truck are capable of carrying as determined in the manner set forth in Appendix No. 1 of this order;

(g) "Capacity load" or "loaded to capacity" as applied to a truck means either (1) the quantity of property, by weight, which may be carried in said truck, determined by deducting the weight of said truck from its rated load carrying ability, or (2) the maximum quantity of property, by volume, which may be stowed by efficient methods and safely transported in the load bearing space of the truck, whichever quantity is the lesser in weight;

(h) "Over-the-road service" means all operations of a motor truck except operations (1) wholly within any urban zone and an area extending 24 air kilometers from the boundaries thereof, or (2) wholly within and between contiguous urban zones; or (3) not more than 24 kilometers in length;

(i) "Highway" means any road, highway, street, or way in the Island of Puerto Rico;

(j) "Circuitous route" means any highway route or routes or combination thereof, the mileage of which exceeds the mileage of the most direct highway route by 10 percent or more; and highway mileage of such route shall be as shown in the current edition of Mapa Itinerario de las Carreteras Insulares de Puerto Rico, approved by Comisionado del Interior of Puerto Rico;

(k) "Special equipment" means any low-bed motor truck, or any motor truck the primary carrying capacity of which is occupied by mounted machinery.

§ 501.211 Applicability. The provisions of this order shall be applicable only within the Island of Puerto Rico.

§ 501.212 General Order ODT 3, Revised, superseded in Puerto Rico. The provisions of this order, on the effective date hereof, shall supersede the provisions of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended,[1] in the Island of Puerto Rico.

§ 501.213 Elimination of waste. Every common carrier shall:

(a) Eliminate wasteful operation and duplication of parallel services, and curtail schedules and services to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of this order;

(b) Conserve and properly maintain tires, motor trucks, and other facilities necessary in conducting the business of such common carrier;

(c) Lease or rent motor trucks whenever practicable and to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of this order.

§ 501.214 Loading and operating requirements. (a) No common carrier shall operate any motor truck in over-the-road service unless it is loaded to capacity, except as follows:

(1) A motor truck, while outbound from the origin point of a trip to the point most distant therefrom to which the truck is operated on such trip, and also while inbound, may be operated on a portion of the route or routes traveled while empty or partially laden, if, during the course of the outbound or inbound movement, the truck is laden with a capacity load while operated over a considerable portion or segment of the route or routes traveled in over-the-road service, and if the carrier uses due diligence as hereinafter provided in maintaining a capacity load upon the truck at all times while en route.

(2) No carrier shall be deemed to have used due diligence as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (a) in loading or maintaining a capacity load upon a truck unless, consistent with any prior commitments involving the use of said truck en route, the carrier and its representatives, including the representative in immediate control and possession of the truck, shall have endeavored in good faith, prior to its departure from any point with less than a capacity load, to obtain sufficient freight for loading the truck with a capacity load at such point, and, failing in this, shall have endeavored in good faith to secure as much freight as possible for loading on said truck at such point, by making appropriate inquiry at and registering at the local office of the Office of Defense Transportation at or near such point, and, if there be no such office at or near such point, by making appropriate inquiry of other carriers at their office or terminals, or both, located at such point. Nor will due diligence be deemed to have been used unless, consistent with prior commitments involving the use of the truck en route, the carrier and his said representative or representatives shall have accepted for shipment and transported to the load capacity of the truck all freight found to have been available by such inquiry, for transportation to the point of destination of the motor truck or to any point intermediate to or beyond such destination point, nor unless, when a truck has been discharged of all lading at any point on a trip and upon such inquiry no freight is found available for transportation on said truck pursuant to the provisions of said subparagraph (1), the carrier shall have endeavored in good faith to lease or rent such truck, consistent with prior commitments involving the use of the truck en route, to another person for transportation of property.

(3) Nothing in this order contained shall be construed to require the loading of a motor truck to such an extent that the gross weight of the truck will exceed the actual safe capacity of any bridge or other structure en route, as determined by Insular or local authorities, or will exceed the maximum gross weight limitations prescribed by the applicable Insular law, proclamation, or regulation, Federal statute, or Executive Order, whichever is currently controlling, but such truck shall be loaded as nearly to the extent required by this order as may be consistent with such applicable limitations.

(4) A motor truck which has been so disabled en route that a capacity load cannot be transported or carried thereon may be operated in over-the-road service empty or partially laden to the nearest point where the common carrier operating said truck maintains, provides, or can obtain repair services.

(b) No common carrier shall:

(1) Operate in over-the-road service any motor truck, the gross weight of which exceeds its rated load-carrying ability; or

(2) Accept or receive any property for transportation over any circuitous route, except when no adequate common carrier service over a direct route is available, or except when the direct route is unsafe or unusable or is more destructive to tires or motor trucks.

(c) The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any common carrier to perform any transportation service, the performance of which by it is not authorized or sanctioned by law or to render any such service beyond its transportation capacity.

§ 501.215 Exemptions. (a) The provisions of paragraph (a) of § 501.214 of this order shall not apply to or include the following:

(1) Any motor truck while actually transporting exclusively any explosives, materials and accessories, such as ammunition, black powder, low explosives, liquid nitroglycerine, fireworks, smokeless powder, cordeau detonant, fuzes, igniters, primers or other like explosives, materials and accessories, or blasting agents and blasting accessories necessary for the use of any of said explosives;

(2) Any motor truck while operated under direction of the armed forces of the United States or the armed forces of Puerto Rico organized pursuant to section 61 of the National Defense Act, as amended;

(3) Any motor truck when engaged exclusively in the transportation of repair or service men and their supplies or equipment;

(4) Any motor truck operated exclusively in connection with the construction and maintenance of essential telegraph, telephone, organized radio communications, electric light and power, gas, and water supply utilities, and pipelines, railroads, street railways and public highways;

(5) Any motor truck operated in emergencies exclusively for the purpose of making deliveries of medicines or other supplies or equipment necessary for the protection or preservation of life, health or public safety;

(6) Any motor truck operated exclusively for the purpose of collecting and disposing of sewage or garbage or rendering other sanitation services, pursuant to governmental order, regulation or contract;

(7) Any special equipment.

(b) The provisions of § 501.213, paragraph (a) and subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) of § 501.214, and §§ 501.219 and 501.222 of this order shall not apply to:

(1) Any motor truck, the primary carrying capacity of which is occupied by a mounted tank or tanks;

(2) Any motor truck controlled and operated by any person or persons principally engaged in farming, when used in the transportation of agricultural commodities and products thereof, from a farm or farms, or in the transportation of farm supplies to a farm or farms.

§ 501.216 Special or general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permit issued by the Office of Defense Transportation to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances, or to prevent undue hardship.

§ 501.217 Suspension of provisions. The provisions of this order or any part thereof may be suspended, from time to time, by order of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.218 Submission of plans for joint action. Whenever joint action between two or more common carriers is contemplated in order to accomplish any of the purposes of this order, such common carriers may formulate and submit to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico, for consideration, a plan or plans designed to accomplish such purposes by one or more of the methods described below:

(a) Alternate or stagger motor truck schedules between two or more points;

(b) Reciprocally exchange shipments of property between two or more points;

(c) Pool traffic, revenues, or both, between two or more points;

(d) Jointly load for transportation or operate a motor truck or trucks between two or more points;

(e) Divert traffic, operate joint terminals or joint pick-up or delivery vehicles;

(f) Establish arrangements with other carriers for the interchange of equipment;

(g) Appoint one of their own number or any other person or carrier to act as its or their individual, common or joint agent, to concentrate, receive, load, forward, carry, unload, distribute, and deliver property; receive, account for, and distribute gross or net revenues therefrom, or otherwise handle or conduct the carrier's business as common carriers of property upon just and reasonable terms and conditions: Provided, however, That this order shall not be construed to authorize any common carrier or carriers to operate in any of the methods described in this § 501.218 unless directed so to do by the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.219 Interchange of traffic; holding shipments; billing and rates applicable. (a) Every common carrier whether by rail, motor, water, or otherwise, shall accept and receive from any common carrier as defined herein and transport all shipments of every kind. Such shipments shall be handled and transported in the same expeditious and efficient manner as shipments of a like nature received from any other source.

(b) No common carrier shall hold, carry over, store, or warehouse any shipment at any one station, except the final destination of the shipment, for longer than 24 hours, or at two or more such stations for an aggregate period of more than 48 hours, except where there is no other common carrier by rail, motor, water, or otherwise, capable of transporting the shipment consistent with the provisions of this order.

(c) Whenever a shipment is interchanged or diverted pursuant to the provisions of this § 501.219 the shipment shall be accepted and received by the carrier with which interchange is made, or to which diverted, at the connecting or diverting carrier's station or at the consignor's door, as the case may be, and such carrier shall load, transport, forward, or deliver, as the case may be, such shipment on the bill of lading and billing and at the rates, rules and regulations of the carrier issuing the bill of lading, which rates, rules and regulations shall be those which would have applied if the shipment had not been interchanged or diverted pursuant to the provisions of this § 501.219: Provided, That if the Insular Government of Puerto Rico, or any agency thereof, in respect of transportation in Puerto Rico, has prescribed or shall prescribe regulations governing the method of determining the rates, rules and regulations to apply on shipments interchanged or diverted pursuant to the provisions of this order, such regulations shall apply.

[1] 7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694.

(d) Whenever the bill of lading carrier has in effect a one-factor local rate and is also a party to a one-factor joint rate for the transportation of a shipment from its origin to its destination, the carrier to whom such shipment is diverted, if a party to such one-factor joint rate, shall be compensated by the bill of lading carrier upon the basis of the one-factor joint rate from point of origin to destination.

§ 501.220 Records and reports. Every common carrier shall prepare and maintain such records, and make such reports, as the Office of Defense Transportation may hereafter require for the purpose of this order, and keep such records available for inspection at all reasonable times by authorized representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.221 Carrier liability. Common carrier responsibility to the owner of any property being transported, and among the carriers participating in such transportation, shall be as provided by law for initial, terminating, intermediate, or delivering carriers.

§ 501.222 Division of revenues. Every common carrier by rail, motor, water, or otherwise, shall establish just, reasonable and equitable divisions of revenues derived from transportation performed pursuant to this order. Unless the division of revenues from any interchanges or division of shipments made pursuant to the provisions of this order shall have been agreed upon by the interested carriers, or shall have been prescribed by the proper Insular authority, such revenues shall be divided as the Office of Defense Transportation shall order.

§ 501.223 Communications. Communications concerning this order should refer to "General Order ODT 30" and should be addressed to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

§ 501.224 Effective date. This General Order ODT 30 shall become effective January 15, 1943, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of December 1942.

JOSEPH B. EASTMAN,
Director of Defense Transportation.

APPENDIX 1

Under the terms of § 501.210 (f) of this order, the rated load carrying ability of the tires mounted on the running wheels of a motor truck shall be determined by multiplying the number of tires mounted on the running wheels of such motor truck, of the size and description actually used, by the number of pounds appearing opposite the description of such tires in this Appendix.

Example: A motor truck uses 10 running tires, size 9.00–20, ten ply. The rated load carrying ability of each such tire, in pounds per tire, as shown in this Appendix is 3450. Multiply 10 (number of tires) by 3450 (rated load carrying ability of each tire). The result is 34,500 pounds, which is the "rated load carrying ability" of the motor truck as defined in § 501.210 (f).

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.235 to 501.247, inclusive, issued under E.O. 8989, 9156 and 9214; 6 F.R. 6725, 7 F.R. 3349, 6097.

§ 501.235 Definitions. As used in this order, (§§ 501.235 to 501.247, inclusive), or in any order, permit or regulation issued hereunder, the term:

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, joint-stock company, business trust, or other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or of any other government, the Insular Government of Puerto Rico, or any political subdivision or agency thereof, or any trustee, receiver, assignee or personal representative;

(b) "Property" means anything, except passengers, capable of being transported by motor truck;

(c) "Motor carrier" or "carrier" means any person, other than a person that holds itself out to the general public to engage in the transportation of property for compensation, that engages in the transportation of property by motor truck in over-the-road service, and includes contract carriers by motor truck and private carriers by motor truck;

(d) "Motor truck" or "truck" means either (1) a straight truck, (2) a combination truck-tractor and semi-trailer, (3) a full trailer, (4) or any combination thereof, (5) or any other rubber-tired vehicle propelled or drawn by mechanical power or animals when used in the transportation of property, other than a vehicle engaged primarily in the transportation of passengers;

(e) "Operating unit" means that portion of the motor truck operations conducted by any motor carrier from any given terminal, base of operation, or urban zone, and the total operating units of any motor carrier shall include all operations conducted by such motor carrier;

(f) "Gross weight" means the aggregate weight of a motor truck and its lading;

(g) "Rated load carrying ability" as applied to a truck means the weight which the tires mounted on the load bearing wheels of such truck are capable of carrying as determined in the manner set forth in Appendix 1 of this order;

(h) "Capacity load" or "loaded to capacity" as applied to a truck means either (1) the quantity of property, by weight, which may be carried in said truck, as determined by deducting the weight of said truck from its rated load carrying ability, or (2) the maximum quantity of property, by volume, which may be stowed by efficient methods and safely transported in the load bearing space of the truck, whichever quantity is the lesser in weight;

(i) "Delivery" means the operation of a motor truck by a motor carrier from any one point to any other point for the purpose of enabling such motor carrier to relinquish possession of property after transportation, or to take possession of property for transportation, or both, and includes an offer or attempt so to relinquish or take possession of such property;

(j) "Special delivery" means a delivery other than one made in the course of a normal delivery service;

(k) "Call back" means any call made by a motor truck of a motor carrier at any given premises, other than for the purpose of making a delivery or for the purpose of repairing, servicing or maintaining such a truck;

(l) "Over-the-road service" means all operations of a motor truck except operations (1) wholly within any urban zone and an area extending 24 air kilometers from the boundaries thereof, or (2) wholly within and between contiguous urban zones; or (3) not more than 24 kilometers in length;

(m) "Special equipment" means any low-bed motor truck, or any motor truck the primary carrying capacity of which is occupied by mounted machinery.

§ 501.236 Applicability. The provisions of this order shall be applicable only within the Island of Puerto Rico.

§ 501.237 General Order ODT 17 superseded in Puerto Rico. The provisions of this order, on the effective date hereof, shall supersede the provisions of General Order ODT 17, as amended,[1] in the Island of Puerto Rico.

§ 501.238 Elimination of waste. Every motor carrier shall:

(a) Eliminate wasteful operation and duplication of parallel services, and curtail schedules and services to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of this order;

(b) Conserve and properly maintain tires, motor trucks, and other transportation facilities necessary in conducting the business of such carrier;

(c) Lease or rent its motor trucks whenever practicable and to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of this order.

§ 501.239 Special deliveries, call backs, number of deliveries. Except as provided in § 501.241 of this order, no person shall cause to be made by motor truck, and no motor carrier when operating a motor truck shall make:

(a) Any special delivery except to hospitals;

(b) Any call backs;

(c) More than one delivery from any one point of origin to any one point of destination during any calendar day except:

(1) When the property to be delivered exceeds the capacity load of the motor truck engaged in the delivery thereof, in which event each delivery, except the final delivery, shall be a capacity load delivery; or

(2) One additional delivery when the property to be delivered requires the use of a motor truck, other than the type used in making the first delivery, specially adapted for and used exclusively in the transportation of such property; or

(3) One additional delivery when made for the purpose of picking up empty containers, if such additional delivery is made without increasing the mileage of any motor truck; or

(4) One additional delivery on the day next preceding a national holiday when such holiday falls on a Saturday, or on the Saturday next preceding a national holiday when such holiday falls on a Monday, provided such motor carrier does not make any delivery on such holiday.

§ 501.240 Loading and operating requirements. (a) No motor carrier shall operate any motor truck unless it is loaded to capacity, except as follows:

(1) A motor truck, while outbound from the origin point of a trip to the point most distant therefrom to which the truck is operated on such trip, and also while inbound, may be operated on a portion of the route or routes travelled while empty or partially laden, if, during the course of the outbound or inbound movement, the truck is laden with a capacity load while operated over a considerable portion or segment of the route or routes travelled in over-the-road service, and if the carrier uses due diligence in maintaining a capacity load upon the truck at all times while en route.

(2) Each motor carrier and its representatives, including the representative in immediate control and possession of the truck, shall endeavor in good faith, prior to the departure of the truck from any point when empty, to lease or rent such truck, consistent with any prior commitments involved in its use en route, to another person for the transportation of property. In endeavoring to lease or rent such truck, each such carrier and its representative or representatives shall inquire at and register with the local office of the Office of Defense Transportation located at or near such point, and if there be no such office at or near such point, shall make appropriate inquiries of other carriers at their offices or terminals, or both, located at such point.

[1] 7 F.R. 5678, 5839, 7694, 9623.

(3) Nothing in this order contained shall be construed to require the loading of a motor truck to such an extent that the ~~gross~~ weight of the truck will exceed the actual safe capacity of any bridge or other structure en route, as determined by Insular authorities, or will exceed the maximum gross weight limitations prescribed by the applicable Insular law, proclamation, or regulation, Federal statute, or Executive Order, whichever is currently controlling, but such truck shall be loaded as nearly to the extent required by this order as may be consistent with such applicable limitations.

(4) A motor truck which has been so disabled en route that a capacity load cannot be transported or carried thereon may be operated in over-the-road service empty or partially laden to the nearest point where the carrier operating said truck maintains, provides, or can obtain repair services.

(b) No motor carrier shall operate in over-the-road service any motor truck, the gross weight of which exceeds its rated load-carrying ability.

(c) The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any motor carrier to perform any transportation service, the performance of which by it is not authorized or sanctioned by law or to render any such service beyond its transportation capacity.

§ 501.241 Exemptions. (a) The provisions of paragraphs (a) and (c) of § 501.239, and paragraph (a) of § 501.240 of this order shall not apply to or include the following:

(1) Any motor truck while actually transporting exclusively any explosives, materials and accessories, such as ammunition, black powder, low explosives, liquid nitroglycerine, fireworks, smokeless powder, cordeau detonant, fuzes, igniters, primers or other like explosives, materials and accessories, or blasting agents and blasting accessories necessary for the use of any of said explosives;

(2) Any motor truck when engaged exclusively in the transportation of repair or service men and their supplies or equipment;

(3) Any motor truck operated exclusively for the purpose of collecting and disposing of sewage or garbage or rendering other sanitation services, pursuant to Government order, regulation, or contract;

(4) Any motor truck operated exclusively in connection with the construction and maintenance of essential telegraph, telephone, organized radio communications, electric light and power, gas and water supply utilities, and pipe lines, railroads, street railways, and public highways;

(5) Any motor truck while operated under the direction of the armed forces of the United States, or the armed forces of Puerto Rico organized pursuant to section 61 of the National Defense Act, as amended;

(6) Any motor truck operated in emergencies exclusively for the purpose of making deliveries of medicines or other supplies or equipment necessary for the protection or preservation of life, health, or for public safety;

(7) Any motor truck operated exclusively for the purpose of making deliveries of telegraph, radio, and cable communications or the United States mail;

(8) Any special equipment.

(b) The provisions of §§ 501.238 and 501.239 and of paragraph (a) of § 501.240 of this order shall not apply to or include the following:

(1) Any motor truck, the primary carrying capacity of which is occupied by a mounted tank or tanks:

(2) Any motor truck controlled and operated by any person or persons principally engaged in farming, when used in the transportation of agricultural commodities and products thereof, from a farm or farms, or in the transportation of farm supplies to a farm or farms;

(3) Any motor truck engaged in the transportation of property wholly within the boundaries of any industrial or manufacturing plant, or between units of such plant separated only by a public highway, when such transportation is an integral part of the business of such industrial or manufacturing plant.

(c) The provisions of this order shall not apply to or include any motor truck controlled or operated by the armed forces of the United States, or the armed forces of Puerto Rico organized pursuant to section 61 of the National Defense Act, as amended.

§ 501.242 Special or general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permit issued by the Office of Defense Transportation to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances, or to prevent undue hardships.

§ 501.243 Suspension of provisions. The provisions of this order or any part thereof may be suspended, from time to time, by order of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.244 Submission of plans for joint action. (a) Whenever joint action between two or more motor carriers, other than private carriers by motor truck, is contemplated in order to accomplish any of the purposes of this order, such carriers may formulate and submit to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico, for consideration a plan or plans designed to accomplish such purposes. No action shall be taken in furtherance of such plan or plans except in compliance with a specific order or orders issued by the Office of Defense Transportation.

(b) All joint and collective action taken by private carriers by motor truck to accomplish any of the purposes of this order shall be in conformity with the terms and provisions of the joint statement issued by the Office of Defense Transportation and the Department of Justice, dated March 12, 1942, a copy of which statement is set forth in Appendix 2 of this order. In accordance with such statement, proposed plans for pooled or cooperative deliveries, for curtailing services, or for entering into other arrangements involving joint action may, if desired, be submitted to the Office of Defense Transportation (through its Regional Director at San Juan, Puerto Rico) for consideration and approval, but action taken in furtherance of such plans shall not require the prior approval of the Office of Defense Transportation by order or otherwise. In order, however, that the Office of Defense Transportation may be informed concerning plans which have been or hereafter are placed in operation, a copy of each such plan shall be filed with the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

§ 501.245 Records and reports. Every motor carrier shall prepare and maintain records showing for each calendar month the mileage of each motor truck operated by such carrier, and shall prepare and maintain such logs and other records, and make such reports, as the Office of Defense Transportation may hereafter require for the purpose of this order. All such records shall be kept available and open for inspection at all reasonable times by authorized representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.246 Communications. Communications concerning this order should refer to "General Order ODT 31" and should be addressed to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

§ 501.247 Effective date. This General Order ODT 31 shall become effective January 15, 1943, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of December 1942.

JOSEPH B. EASTMAN,
Director of Defense Transportation.

APPENDIX 1

Under the terms of § 501.235 (h) of this order, the rated load carrying ability of the tires mounted on the running wheels of a motor truck shall be determined by multiplying the number of tires mounted on the running wheels of such motor truck, of the size and description actually used, by the number of pounds appearing opposite the description of such tires in this Appendix.

Example: A motor truck uses 10 running tires, size 9.00–20, ten ply. The rated load carrying ability of each such tire, in pounds per tire, as shown in this Appendix is 3450. Multiply 10 (number of tires) by 3450 (rated load carrying ability of each tire). The result is 34,500 pounds, which is the "rated load carrying ability" of the motor truck as defined in § 501.235 (h).

APPENDIX 2

JOINT STATEMENT BY OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION AND DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE RELATIVE TO LOCAL DELIVERY SERVICE BY MOTOR VEHICLE

The Office of Defense Transportation and the Department of Justice are currently receiving many requests from business enterprises concerning ways of conserving rubber and other vital materials in making local deliveries. Inquiries addressed to the Office of Defense Transportation ask for help and advice. The Department of Justice is receiving inquiries as to the bearing of the anti-trust laws upon voluntary collective action to conserve these materials, and likewise complaints from consumers and competitors who believe that some program proposed or already in use violates these laws.

The Office of Defense Transportation and the Department of Justice are united in a desire to expedite such conservation programs and to assure their development along lines which will avoid abuse.

The Office of Defense Transportation will give advice and assistance in the development of such programs. The Department of Justice will facilitate this development by reviewing such programs in advance when they are submitted to it by the Office of Defense Transportation and by indicating in advance its approval of programs which appear to be lawful under the anti-trust laws. It will likewise be available to prosecute any cases in which such programs are abused or perverted contrary to their original intent.

The two agencies will act in close cooperation in order that the readjustment of delivery systems may be as rapid and as free from abuse as possible.

PROCEDURE FOR SUBMISSION OF PROPOSED PLANS TO THE OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION

It is of paramount importance that rubber, motor vehicle equipment, and other vital materials used in the rendition of local delivery service be conserved to the greatest extent possible at the earliest possible date. Therefore, the Office of Defense Transportation recommends that the procedure outlined below be followed in establishing plans or programs which have as their sole purpose the conservation of such materials;

1. In the development of such programs the fullest possible consultation should be had with all interested or affected parties including consumer groups (insofar as they are organized).

2. In the event a joint voluntary plan of action has been adopted by any group (which plan of action in all instances should be reduced to writing and signed by all persons party thereto) and such persons desire that such plan shall be cleared by the Office of Defense Transportation and the Department of Justice, prior to the effectiveness thereof, such clearance may be procured in the following manner:

a. The plan so adopted should be immediately forwarded to Mr. John L. Rogers, Director, Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Room 4211, Interstate Commerce Commission Building, Washington, D. C.

b. The plan so submitted will be reviewed by the Director and any questions which it raises under the anti-trust laws will be discussed with the Department of Justice. If the Director approves the plan and the Department of Justice sees no legal obstacle to carrying it out, it will be cleared and the persons party thereto so advised. If the plan contains provisions which the Director does not approve or which appear to violate the anti-trust laws, such persons will be advised in order that the plan may be improved and reconsidered.

3. In the event that any group desires to establish a plan for the conservation of rubber, motor vehicle equipment, or other vital materials in connection with local delivery service but are unable to agree upon the terms and provisions of such a plan, they may, if they so desire, submit such matter to the Office of Defense Transportation for such consideration and action as it shall determine to be necessary or advisable in the premises.

The Office of Defense Transportation is presently engaged in establishing regional field offices in certain of the principal cities throughout the country. As soon as such offices have been established any such conservation plan may be submitted to the Office of Defense Transportation either through such field offices or directly to the Office of the Director of its Motor Transport Division in Washington. Until such time as such field offices have been established all such plans should be submitted directly to the Director of the Division of Motor Transport.

The Office of Defense Transportation is hopeful that all parties interested in local delivery service by motor vehicle will recognize the seriousness of the existing situation as it affects such local delivery service and that they will take prompt and effective steps in consonance of the foregoing statement in order to alleviate such situation.

APPLICABILITY OF THE ANTI-TRUST LAWS

Views of the Department of Justice

To aid business enterprises in working out ways to meet the shortage of facilities for the operation of local delivery systems, the Office of Defense Transportation has established a procedure for clearance of plans for the conservation of materials necessary in local delivery services.

Any action taken in accordance with a plan approved by the Office of Defense Transportation cannot be prosecuted under the anti-trust laws. It is not a conspiracy so long as it follows a plan approved or requested by the appropriate Government agency. The emergency requires that the decision of the Office of Defense Transportation that this procedure is in the interest of efficient transportation during the period of national emergency be taken as final.

Inasmuch as action to combine the operation of local delivery services must be taken quickly and often before consultation with the Office of Defense Transportation, the following statement as to the application of the anti-trust laws in such situations may be taken as a guide prior to official request or approval.

Even without specific approval, programs established during the emergency for the sole purpose of conserving rubber and other scarce materials used in local delivery services are obviously not violations of the anti-trust laws. Such violations would arise only if such programs included unreasonable restraints of trade not logically related to conservation, such as price fixing, elimination of independent businessmen, or perpetuation of inefficient systems of distribution. Certain safeguards which will make it easier to avoid unreasonable restraints of trade are set forth below in statements concerning the two most common methods used to conserve tires.

(1) Pooling of delivery service. This method involves joint use of the same truck to deliver goods sold by competitors each of whom formerly made separate arrangements for delivery. It eliminates duplicate mileage of delivery trucks down the same street in residential areas.

The mere establishment of a jointly used facility by a group of rival businessmen does not necessarily violate the anti-trust laws. Jointly maintained inspection departments, statistical bureaus, and similar agencies have long been operated in many industries; and in some cities large department stores have maintained a joint system of package delivery for many years. The Department of Justice sees no reason to regard joint systems of delivery during the emergency as violations of the anti-trust laws if they are established for the sole purpose of conserving rubber and are so organized that they do not in fact accomplish additional purposes of restraining trade, however:

(a) Competitors should not be excluded from the market or handicapped in their access to it by discrimination in the use of joint systems of delivery. Under ordinary circumstances, any competitor is free to set up his own delivery system or to hire the service of a commercial trucking company. The present emergency has destroyed or severely limited these alternatives. Therefore, in any situation in which the market is so small or the competitors so few that the maintenance of two or more joint delivery systems is not practicable, exclusion of any competitor from the right to use a joint system probably would amount to his exclusion from the market, and discrimination against him in service rendered or charge imposed probably would amount to joint activity to handicap him in the market. Such exclusions or handicaps probably would be in violation of the anti-trust laws.

(b) Joint delivery should not be made the excuse for joint selling activities. The merger of delivery service does not require the merger of the facilities which produce or sell the goods, the setting up of joint sales agents, nor the adoption of a single brand name to replace the separate brands formerly sold by business rivals. To extend a program of joint action in these directions is to raise issues under the anti-trust laws which are irrelevant to the central need to conserve rubber. Trades which have been accustomed to use the deliveryman as salesman and collection agent may be under especial temptation to delegate to the drivers of jointly operated trucks the functions of jointly representing concerns in selling as well as delivery. However, other arrangements for sales promotion can be worked out which involve less risk of conspiracy to raise prices; and if such joint selling schemes are adopted and unreasonable restraints upon commerce ensue, the restraints cannot be regarded as a reasonable result of the rubber shortage.

(2) Diminishing the frequency of delivery service. Such a program is often practicable only when jointly undertaken, because any competitor who made deliveries more frequently than his competitors would enjoy a substantial advantage which would enable him to divert trade to himself. Where such a restriction of delivery service contains no other feature than a plan to conserve rubber during the emergency by reducing tire mileage, the Department of Justice does not regard it as an unreasonable restraint of trade within the meaning of the anti-trust laws. Care should be taken, however, to avoid making this program a basis for the accomplishment of restraints not logically involved in it.

(a) Specifically, no immunity under the anti-trust laws would be afforded a group which adopted a schedule for delivery deliberately selected to handicap certain competitors by avoiding the times or dates at which these competitors would find it easiest to make deliveries.

(b) Neither would immunity be afforded a group which adopted a delivery schedule deliberately intended to handicap one group of consumers for the benefit of another. The Department would be concerned about the possibilities of abuse in plans which involved discrimination as to delivery service among groups of customers upon the basis of their wealth, past volume of purchases, or similar considerations irrelevant to the question of conserving rubber.

In the development of such programs, the fullest possible consultation with all interested competitors and with consumer groups, insofar as they are organized, in a sincere effort to take account of their needs is a persuasive indication of good faith.

(3) In any program for the conservation of tires, or other scarce materials, whatever the means which may be used, those involved should avoid an effort to use the power they attain by joint action as a basis for an organized attack upon persons who do not participate in the program. The Department would be concerned about the possibilities of abuse in plans which involved any of the following administrative characteristics:

(a) Collective attack upon other groups of retailers who, in good faith, are using different devices to conserve rubber and other scarce materials. It is clear that the reduction in delivery mileage may be achieved by various means, and that the effect to achieve it by joint action should not become an excuse for private groups to coerce their competitors into using only a single method of accomplishing this result or to deny consumers the right to favor whatever method may prove to be most convenient.

(b) Procedures to secure compliance with the conservation program which result in the coercion of a business man by his competitors or in the imposition of penalties upon him by his competitors.

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.258 to 501.269, inclusive, issued under E.O. 8989, 9156 and 9214; 6 F.R. 6725, 7 F.R. 3349, 6097.

§ 501.258 Definitions. As used in this order (§§ 501.258 to 501.269, inclusive), or in any order, permit or regulation issued hereunder, the term:

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, joint-stock company, business trust, or other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or of any other government, the Insular Government of Puerto Rico or any political subdivision or agency thereof, or any trustee, receiver, assignee or personal representative;

(b) "Vehicle" means any rubber-tired vehicle propelled or drawn by mechanical power or by animals;

(c) "Local carrier" includes every person engaged in the transportation of property by vehicle for compensation, or in the furtherance of or incidental to any commercial enterprise, (1) wholly within any urban zone and an area extending 24 air kilometers from the boundaries thereof; or (2) wholly within and between contiguous urban zones, or (3) in making hauls not exceeding 24 kilometers in length;

(d) "Special delivery" means a delivery by vehicle made at the special instance or request of a particular person other than as a part of a regular scheduled delivery service;

(e) "Call backs" mean every call by a vehicle of a local carrier at the premises of any one person subsequent to the first call on any given day, and includes calls made for the sole purpose of picking up property for return to the consignor, or for making collections;

(f) "Gross weight" means the aggregate weight of a vehicle and its lading;

(g) "Rated load carrying ability" as applied to a vehicle means the weight which the tires mounted on the load-bearing wheels of such vehicle are capable of carrying as determined in the manner set forth in Appendix 1 of this order.

§ 501.259 Applicability. The provisions of this order shall be applicable only within the Island of Puerto Rico.

§ 501.260 General Order ODT 6 superseded in Puerto Rico. The provisions of this order, on the effective date hereof, shall supersede the provisions of General Order ODT 6, as amended,[1] in the Island of Puerto Rico.

§ 501.261 Special deliveries, call backs, number of deliveries. No person shall cause to be made, and no local carrier shall make:

(a) Any special deliveries except to hospitals, the armed forces of the United States, or the armed forces of Puerto Rico organized pursuant to Section 61 of the National Defense Act, as amended, and except deliveries of medicines and other supplies necessary for the protection in emergencies of the public health, life, and safety;

(b) Any call backs;

(c) More than one delivery between any one point of origin and any one point of destination, in any one calendar day, except:

(1) Special deliveries authorized by paragraph (a) of this § 501.261: Provided, however, That when one day's shipment or shipments to any one person exceed the capacity of a single vehicle, deliveries of such shipment or shipments shall be considered as one delivery;

(2) One delivery (in addition to the delivery authorized by the provisions of paragraph (c) of this § 501.261) of any commodity, the transportation of which requires the use of special equipment, in a vehicle specially constructed and adapted for and used exclusively in the transportation and delivery of such commodity.

§ 501.262 Special or general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permit issued by the Office of Defense Transportation to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances, or to prevent undue hardships.

§ 501.263 Suspension of provisions. The provisions of this order or any part thereof may be suspended, from time to time, by order of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.264 Loading and operating requirements. No local carrier shall operate any vehicle the gross weight of which exceeds its rated load carrying ability.

§ 501.265 Proposed plans for joint action. All joint and collective action taken by local carriers in compliance with this order shall be in conformity with the terms and provisions of the joint statement issued by the Office of Defense Transportation and the Department of Justice dated March 12, 1942, a copy of which statement is set forth in Appendix 2 of this order. In accordance with such statement, proposed plans for pooled or cooperative deliveries, for curtailing services, or for entering into other arrangements involving joint action by local carriers may, if desired, be submitted to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico, for consideration and approval. In order, however, that the Office of Defense Transportation may be informed concerning plans which have been or are hereafter placed in operation without such prior submission for consideration and approval, a copy of each such plan shall be filed with said Regional Director.

§ 501.266 Records and reports. (a) Every local carrier subject to the provisions of § 501.261 of this order shall prepare and maintain records as to mileage performed and steps taken to comply with the requirements of that section.

(b) Every local carrier subject to this order shall prepare and maintain such records and make such reports as the Office of Defense Transportation may require.

(c) All records required by this § 501.266 shall be kept available for inspection by authorized representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.267 Exemptions. (a) The provisions of this order shall not apply to vehicles controlled or operated by the armed forces of the United States, or the armed forces of Puerto Rico organized pursuant to section 61 of the National Defense Act, as amended.

(b) The provisions of § 501.261 of this order shall not apply:

(1) To vehicles operated exclusively in connection with the construction and maintenance of essential telegraph, telephone, organized radio communications, electric light and power, gas, water supply, sewage disposal, garbage disposal, and sanitation services;

(2) To a vehicle controlled and operated by any person or persons principally engaged in farming when used in the transportation of agricultural commodities and products thereof from a farm or farms, or in the transportation of farm supplies to a farm or farms;

(3) To that portion of the business of any local carrier rendered in performing pick-up and delivery service for line-haul motor, rail, express, air and water carriers, or for freight forwarders;

(4) To any motor truck while actually transporting exclusively any explosives, materials and accessories, such as ammunition, black powder, low explosives, liquid nitroglycerine, fireworks, smokeless powder, cordeau detonant, fuzes, igniters, primers or other like explosives, materials and accessories, or blasting agents and blasting accessories necessary for the use of any of said explosives;

(5) To vehicles operated exclusively for the purpose of providing pick-up and delivery of telegraphic, radio, and cable communications, and the United States mail.

§ 501.268 Communications. Communications concerning this order should refer to "General Order ODT 32" and should be addressed to the Regional Director, Office of Defense Transportation, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

§ 501.269 Effective date. This General Order ODT 32 shall become effective January 15, 1943, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of December 1942.

JOSEPH B. EASTMAN,
Director of Defense Transportation.

APPENDIX 1

Under the terms of § 501.258 (g) of this order, the rated load carrying ability of the tires mounted on the running wheels of a vehicle shall be determined by multiplying the number of tires mounted on the running wheels of such vehicle, of the size and description actually used, by the number of pounds appearing opposite the description of such tires in this Appendix.

Example: A vehicle uses 10 running tires, size 9.00–20, ten ply. The rated load carrying ability of each such tire, in pounds per tire, as shown in this Appendix is 3450. Multiply 10 (number of tires) by 3450 (rated load carrying ability of each tire). The result is 34,500 pounds, which is the "rated load carrying ability" of the vehicle as defined in § 501.258 (g).

APPENDIX 2

JOINT STATEMENT BY OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION AND DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE RELATIVE TO LOCAL DELIVERY SERVICE BY MOTOR VEHICLE

The Office of Defense Transportation and the Department of Justice are currently receiving many requests from business enterprises concerning ways of conserving rubber and other vital materials in making local deliveries. Inquiries addressed to the Office of Defense Transportation ask for help and advice. The Department of Justice is receiving inquiries as to the bearing of the anti-trust laws upon voluntary collective action to conserve these materials, and likewise complaints from consumers and competitors who believe that some program proposed or already in use violates these laws.

The Office of Defense Transportation and the Department of Justice are united in a desire to expedite such conservation programs and to assure their development along lines which will avoid abuse.

The Office of Defense Transportation will give advice and assistance in the development of such programs. The Department of Justice will facilitate this development by reviewing such programs in advance when they are submitted to it by the Office of Defense Transportation and by indicating in advance its approval of programs which appear to be lawful under the anti-trust laws. It will likewise be available to prosecute any cases in which such programs are abused or perverted contrary to their original intent.

The two agencies will act in close cooperation in order that the readjustment of delivery systems may be as rapid and as free from abuse as possible.

PROCEDURE FOR SUBMISSION OF PROPOSED PLANS TO THE OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION

It is of paramount importance that rubber, motor vehicle equipment, and other vital materials used in the rendition of local delivery service be conserved to the greatest extent possible at the earliest possible date. Therefore, the Office of Defense Transportation recommends that the procedure outlined below be followed in establishing plans or programs which have as their sole purpose the conservation of such materials:

1. In the development of such programs the fullest possible consultation should be had with all interested or affected parties including consumer groups (insofar as they are organized).

2. In the event a joint voluntary plan of action has been adopted by any group (which plan of action in all instances should be reduced to writing and signed by all persons party thereto) and such persons desire that such plan shall be cleared by the Office of Defense Transportation and the Department of Justice, prior to the effectiveness thereof, such clearance may be procured in the following manner:

a. The plan so adopted should be immediately forwarded to Mr. John L. Rogers, Director, Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Room 4211, Interstate Commerce Commission Building, Washington, D. C.

b. The plan so submitted will be reviewed by the Director and any questions which it raises under the anti-trust laws will be discussed with the Department of Justice. If the Director approves the plan and the Department of Justice sees no legal obstacle to carrying it out, it will be cleared and the persons party thereto so advised. If the plan contains provisions which the Director does not approve or which appear to violate the anti-trust laws, such persons will be advised in order that the plan may be improved and reconsidered.

3. In the event that any group desires to establish a plan for the conservation of rubber, motor vehicle equipment, or other vital materials in connection with local delivery service but are unable to agree upon the terms and provisions of such a plan, they may, if they so desire, submit such matter to the Office of Defense Transportation for such consideration and action as it shall determine to be necessary or advisable in the premises.

The Office of Defense Transportation is presently engaged in establishing regional field offices in certain of the principal cities throughout the country. As soon as such offices have been established any such conservation plan may be submitted to the Office of Defense Transportation either through such field offices or directly to the Office of the Director of its Motor Transport Division in Washington. Until such time as such field offices have been established all such plans should be submitted directly to the Director of the Division of Motor Transport.

The Office of Defense Transportation is hopeful that all parties interested in local delivery service by motor vehicle will recognize the seriousness of the existing situation as it affects such local delivery service and that they will take prompt and effective steps in consonance of the foregoing statement in order to alleviate such situation.

APPLICABILITY OF THE ANTITRUST LAWS

Views of the Department of Justice

To aid business enterprises in working out ways to meet the shortage of facilities for the operation of local delivery systems, the Office of Defense Transportation has established a procedure for clearance of plans for the conservation of materials necessary in local delivery services.

Any action taken in accordance with a plan approved by the Office of Defense Transportation cannot be prosecuted under the anti-trust laws. It is not a conspiracy so long as it follows a plan approved or requested by the appropriate Government agency. The emergency requires that the decision of the Office of Defense Transportation that this procedure is in the interest of efficient transportation during the period of national emergency be taken as final.

Inasmuch as action to combine the operation of local delivery services must be taken quickly and often before consultation with the Office of Defense Transportation, the following statement as to the application of the anti-trust laws in such situations may be taken as a guide prior to official request or approval.

Even without specific approval, programs established during the emergency for the sole purpose of conserving rubber and other scarce materials used in local delivery services are obviously not violations of the anti-trust laws. Such violations would arise only if such programs included unreasonable restraints of trade not logically related to conservation, such as price fixing, elimination of independent businessmen, or perpetuation of inefficient systems of distribution. Certain safeguards which will make it easier to avoid unreasonable restraints of trade are set forth below in statements concerning the two most common methods used to conserve tires.

(1) Pooling of delivery service. This method involves joint use of the same truck to deliver goods sold by competitors each of whom formerly made separate arrangements for delivery. It eliminates duplicate mileage of delivery trucks down the same street in residential areas.

The mere establishment of a jointly used facility by a group of rival businessmen does not necessarily violate the anti-trust laws. Jointly maintained inspection departments, statistical bureaus, and similar agencies have long been operated in many industries; and in some cities large department stores have maintained a joint system of package delivery for many years. The Department of Justice sees no reason to regard joint systems of delivery during the emergency as violations of the anti-trust laws if they are established for the sole purpose of conserving rubber and are so organized that they do not in fact accomplish additional purposes of restraining trade, however:

(a) Competitors should not be excluded from the market or handicapped in their access to it by discrimination in the use of joint systems of delivery. Under ordinary circumstances, any competitor is free to set up his own delivery system or to hire the service of a commercial trucking company. The present emergency has destroyed or severely limited these alternatives. Therefore, in any situation in which the market is so small or the competitors so few that the maintenance of two or more joint delivery systems is not practicable, exclusion of any competitor from the right to use a joint system probably would amount to his exclusion from the market, and discrimination against him in service rendered or charge imposed probably would amount to joint activity to handicap him in the market. Such exclusions or handicaps probably would be in violation of the anti-trust laws.

(b) Joint delivery should not be made the excuse for joint selling activities. The merger of delivery service does not require the merger of the facilities which produce or sell the goods, the setting up of joint sales agents, nor the adoption of a single brand name to replace the separate brands formerly sold by business rivals. To extend a program of joint action in these directions is to raise issues under the anti-trust laws which are irrelevant to the central need to conserve rubber. Trades which have been accustomed to use the deliveryman as salesman and collection agent may be under especial temptation to delegate to the drivers of jointly operated trucks the functions of jointly representing concerns in selling as well as delivery. However, other arrangements for sales promotion can be worked out which involve less risk of conspiracy to raise prices; and if such joint selling schemes are adopted and unreasonable restraints upon commerce ensue, the restraints cannot be regarded as a reasonable result of the rubber shortage.

(2) Diminishing the frequency of delivery service. Such a program is often practicable only when jointly undertaken, because any competitor who made deliveries more frequently than his competitors would enjoy a substantial advantage which would enable him to divert trade to himself. Where such a restriction of delivery service contains no other feature than a plan to conserve rubber during the emergency by reducing tire mileage, the Department of Justice does not regard it as an unreasonable restraint of trade within the meaning of the anti-trust laws. Care should be taken, however, to avoid making this program a basis for the accomplishment of restraints not logically involved in it.

(a) Specifically, no immunity under the anti-trust laws would be afforded a group which adopted a schedule for delivery deliberately selected to handicap certain competitors by avoiding the times or dates at which these competitors would find it easiest to make deliveries.

(b) Neither would immunity be afforded a group which adopted a delivery schedule deliberately intended to handicap one group of consumers for the benefit of another. The Department would be concerned about the possibilities of abuse in plans which involved discrimination as to delivery service among groups of customers upon the basis of their wealth, past volume of purchases, or similar considerations irrelevant to the question of conserving rubber.

In the development of such programs, the fullest possible consultation with all interested competitors and with consumer groups, insofar as they are organized, in a sincere effort to take account of their needs is a persuasive indication of good faith.

(3) In any program for the conservation of tires, or other scarce materials, whatever the means which may be used, those involved should avoid an effort to use the power they attain by joint action as a basis for an organized attack upon persons who do not participate in the program. The Department would be concerned about the possibilities of abuse in plans which involved any of the following administrative characteristics:

(a) Collective attack upon other groups of retailers who, in good faith, are using different devices to conserve rubber and other scarce materials. It is clear that the reduction in delivery mileage may be achieved by various means, and that the effort to achieve it by joint action should not become an excuse for private groups to coerce their competitors into using only a single method of accomplishing this result or to deny consumers the right to favor whatever method may prove to be most convenient.

(b) Procedures to secure compliance with the conservation program which result in the coercion of a business man by him by his competitors or in the imposition of penalties upon him by his competitors.

[Docket No. C-23]

THE GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY CO.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the application of The Great Northern Railway Company for exemption pursuant to section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

An application for a determination of the status of the coal produced at Giffen Mine of The Great Northern Railway Company in District No. 22 having been filed by the above-named applicant pursuant to the second paragraph of section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on February 11, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section of the Division will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Mitchell or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

[1] 7 F.R. 5194.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said applicant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person or entity desiring to be admitted as a party to the proceedings herein and eligible under section VII (i) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division shall file a petition for intervention not later than fifteen (15) days after the date of the issuance of this notice of and order for hearing.

Notice is hereby given that:

(1) Within fifteen (15) days from the date of the issuance of this notice of and order for hearing, the applicant or other party shall file with the Division a concise statement in writing of the facts expected to be proved at the hearing. Other interested parties shall also file a written intervention in compliance with Rule VIII of the aforesaid Rules of Practice and Procedure. The statement of facts shall be considered as a pleading and not as evidence of the facts therein stated. The affirmative evidence adduced by the parties at the hearing shall be limited to the said statement of facts;

(2) If no written statement of the facts expected to be proved at the hearing is filed by the applicant within the fifteen-day period, in the absence of extenuating circumstances, the application shall be deemed to have been withdrawn on the expiration of said period in accordance with the provisions of section VII (g) of the aforesaid Rules of Practice and Procedure;

(3) If the applicant does not appear and offer evidence in support of its statement of facts, in the absence of extenuating circumstances, the application shall be deemed to have been withdrawn in accordance with the provisions of section VII (g) of the aforesaid Rules of Practice and Procedure;

(4) The burden of proof in this proceeding shall be on the applicant.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the application, other matters incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the application, petitions of intervention, or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this application.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the application of The Great Northern Railway Company pursuant to the second paragraph of section 4-A of the Act for a determination of the status of the coal produced at its Giffen Mine in District No. 22. The said applicant alleges that such coal is exempt from section 4 of the Act because it is coal produced, transported and consumed by the applicant within the meaning of section 4 II (1) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: December 24, 1942.

Jewelry Manufacturing Industry

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW CAUSE

In the matter of the restriction of industrial home work in the jewelry manufacturing industry—Proposed amendment to Title 29, Chapter V, Code of Federal Regulation, Part 607 and § 607.100 with respect to clients of State vocational rehabilitation agencies and sheltered workshops.

Whereas, the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor by Part 607, Chapter V, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, issued a wage order for the jewelry manufacturing industry, establishing for such industry a minimum wage rate of 40 cents per hour, effective November 3, 1941, published in the Federal Register October 18, 1941; and

Whereas, the Administrator by §§ 607.100 to 607.112, Chapter V, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, issued regulations applicable to the employment of industrial home workers in the jewelry manufacturing industry, pursuant to sections 8 (f) and 11 (c) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, effective November 3, 1941, published in the Federal Register on October 18, 1941; and

Whereas, the above-mentioned wage order provides in § 607.3 as follows:

> No work in the jewelry manufacturing industry, as defined herein, shall be done in or about a home, apartment, tenement, or room in a residential establishment, except by such persons as have obtained special home-work certificates issued pursuant to applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division, authorizing industrial home work by any worker who was engaged in industrial home work in the jewelry manufacturing industry prior to July 1, 1941, and is unable to adjust to factory work because of age or physical or mental disability or is unable to leave home because his presence is required to care for an invalid in the home;

and

Whereas, the above-mentioned regulations provide for the issuance of certificates authorizing employment in industrial home work in the jewelry manufacturing industry to any worker who, in accordance with § 607.103 thereof, is unable to adjust to factory work because of age or physical or mental disability or is unable to leave home because his presence is required to care for an invalid in the home, provided such worker

(1) Was engaged in industrial home work in the jewelry manufacturing industry prior to July 1, 1941;

and

Whereas, the Sheltered Workshop Advisory Committee has petitioned the Administrator to allow the issuance of certificates authorizing employment in industrial home work in the jewelry manufacturing industry to any worker who is under the supervision of a State Vocational Rehabilitation Agency or of a sheltered workshop in accordance with the above-mentioned wage order and regulations, notwithstanding that such worker was not employed in industrial home work in the jewelry manufacturing industry prior to July 1, 1941, as required by §§ 607.3 and 607.103 (1) thereof, respectively; and

Whereas, provisions similar to those requested by the Sheltered Workshop Advisory Committee have been incorporated in the wage order for, and regulations applicable to the employment of home workers in, the Women's Apparel Industry (Part 605 and § 605.100, Chapter V, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations), knitted outerwear industry (Part 617 and § 617.100, Chapter V, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations), gloves and mittens industry (Part 621 and § 621.100, Chapter V, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations) and button and buckle manufacturing industry (Part 625 and § 625.100, Chapter V, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations):

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given to all interested persons of the opportunity to show cause on or before January 21, 1943, why § 607.3 of the wage order for, and § 607.103 of the regulations applicable to the employment of home workers in the jewelry manufacturing industry should not be amended as follows:

§ 607.3 Restriction of home work. No work in the jewelry manufacturing industry, as defined in §§ 607.5 and 607.6, shall be done in or about a home, apartment, tenement, or room in a residential establishment, except by such persons as have obtained special home work certificates issued pursuant to applicable regulations of the Wage and Hour Division, authorizing industrial home work by any worker who was engaged in industrial home work in the jewelry manufacturing industry prior to July 1, 1941, or is at any time engaged in such industrial home work under the supervision of a State Vocational Rehabilitation Agency or of a Sheltered Workshop, as defined in § 525.1, and who is unable to adjust to factory work because of age or physical or mental disability or is unable to leave home because his presence is required to care for an invalid in the home;

§ 607.103 Terms and conditions for the issuance of certificates. If the application is in proper form and sets forth facts showing that the worker

(a) (1) Was engaged in industrial home work in the jewelry manufacturing industry prior to July 1, 1941; or

(2) Is or will be engaged in such industrial home work under the supervision of a State Vocational Rehabilitation Agency or of a Sheltered Workshop, as defined in § 525.1; and

(b) Is unable to adjust to factory work because of age or physical or mental disability; or

(c) Is unable to leave home because the worker's presence is required to care for an invalid in the home, a certificate may be issued authorizing the applicant employer to employ the worker in industrial home work in the jewelry manufacturing industry.

No home worker shall perform industrial home work for more than one employer in the jewelry manufacturing industry, but home work employment in another industry shall not be a bar to the issuance of a certificate for the jewelry manufacturing industry.

All objections, protests, or any statements in opposition to or in support of the proposed amendments should be addressed to the Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, 165 West 46th Street, New York, New York, and should be filed with the Administrator not later than January 21, 1943.

Signed at New York, N. Y., this 23d day of December 1942.

BOARD OF ECONOMIC WARFARE

F AND B MANUFACTURING CO., ET AL.

ORDER DENYING LICENSING PRIVILEGES

Pursuant to Part 807 of the Regulations adopted under section 6 of the Act of July 2, 1940, the Chief of the Trade Intelligence Division of the Export Control Branch, Office of Exports, has charged the F & B Manufacturing Company, Automotive Export Association, Inc., W. J. O'Hara, Export Manager, and Julio Carrillo, Export Manager (hereinafter referred to as respondents) with violations of proclamation number 2475 authorizing the control of certain exports issued in part under the authority of said section, in matters relating to export control and within the jurisdiction of the Board of Economic Warfare. The respondents have filed a written answer to the charges above set out.

The Compliance Commissioner, duly designated under § 807.1 of the aforesaid regulations, has reviewed the record and filed his findings of fact and recommendations in the matter. The following facts have been found:

That F & B Manufacturing Company is engaged in the business of manufacturing automotive replacement parts. It has its principal place of business at 4248 West Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

W. J. O'Hara and Julio Carrillo are export managers for said company.

That Automotive Export Association, Inc., is a corporation, having its principal place of business at 2305 North Crawford Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. It is the agent in charge of the foreign business of F & B Manufacturing Company; W. J. O'Hara is the export manager of said corporation.

The F & B Manufacturing Company filed applications for licenses to export ignition contact sets for the account of Sr. N. Glezer as follows:

(a) Application No. 498233, dated April 11, 1942, for permission to export 1,000 replacement Ford ignition sets, valued at $380. This application was rejected on April 16, 1942.

(b) Application No. 527901, dated April 21, 1942, for exportation of 5,000 Tungsten point contact sets for Ford motor vehicles, no value given. This application was rejected on April 28, 1942.

Under date of May 7, 1942, Jose G. Merino, Mexican agent of the respondents, wrote F & B Manufacturing Company, as follows:

In order to have my order book correctly numbered I have assigned Number 83 to the order which Mr. N. Glezer placed with you during his visit in Chicago and of which your letter of May 1 is the contract, according to copy which you sent me.

I hope that as per this his letter, you can send all the articles together, although, if this is not possible, by parcel post and in limited quantities so that you do not run the risk of having the license cancelled. * * *

Under date of May 14, 1942, Jose G. Merino wrote F & B Manufacturing Company as follows:

Thank you for the copy of your letter dated the 8th of the present month, addressed to Mr. N. Glezer, Mexico, advising him that, in accordance with his instructions, you will ship twice a week under license G-17, parcels of plates in the amount of $25.00, having already made the first shipment as per copy of your invoice No. 2062.

I see that if this procedure is all right, we must follow it until completing at least the orders that we have in the mail for so many customers, since Washington has refused permits for large parcels.

Since we see that this procedure is the best that there is, I have just talked with Mr. Casso who tells me to request you to also send plates 70-71-738 twice a week and others that they have on order at your factory in the amounts of $25.00, allowing you to draw a check for that value, or else you can send them directly and tell them the amount of the invoice and then they will send a check immediately for each invoice. He says that he approves in advance and without hesitation anything that you do and hope that Mr. Carrillo will do his best, but that plates be sent him by mail in that manner, twice or three times a week.

Miguel Acevedo, whose order you have there, also tells me that he approves that his order be sent by mail in $25.00 lots each week. Therefore, I beg that you begin to send to these customers and if possible to others also. Since we know that when least expected, we may be completely cut off, it is best that our customers be sent their orders in that manner. For others send by mail to the Bank with draft on sight. * * *.

Under date of May 21, 1942, Jose G. Merino received the following letter in reply to his communication of May 14, 1942:

This is in reply to yours dated May 14, in which you suggest that the orders for Mr. Casso, for which licenses were rejected, be sent by parcel post at a value of not more than $25.00 each. This is very well and I will keep it in mind, but at the moment we shall wait to see if we are granted the license which we requested the second time writing Washington a long letter with all sorts of explanation. If they reject it, then we will begin to send by parcel post.

* * * * *

The shipments by parcel post to Glezer have continued without interruption. Tomorrow I will make the fifth one and will send him five invoices to Long Beach and, upon receipt of the payment, I will send your commission check.

The F & B Manufacturing Company filed applications for licenses to export auto ignition parts for the account of Productos Casso as follows:

Application No. 525968, dated April 21, 1942, for exportation of 700 ignition contact point sets, valued at $248.00. This application was rejected on April 25, 1942.

Application No. 538755, dated April 23, 1942, for exportation of 23 voltage regulators and 5 coils, valued at $77.25. This application was rejected on May 4, 1942.

Application No. 565120, dated April 30, 1942, for exportation of 700 ignition contact sets, valued at $248.50. This application was rejected on May 18, 1942.

Application No. 566442, dated May 2, 1942, for exportation of 600 ignition contact sets valued at $237. This application was rejected on May 21, 1942.

The F & B Manufacturing Company filed applications for licenses to export auto ignition parts for the account of Benito Singer-Continental Autometriz as follows:

Application No. 603655, dated May 12, 1942, for exportation of ignition contact points, starter points, brush sets, bushings, coils and distributor caps, valued at $167.76. This application was rejected on May 19, 1942.

Application No. 657654, dated May 26, 1942, for exportation of 500 ignition contact points for Fords, and 60 ignition coils for Fords, valued at $311.60. This application was rejected on June 19, 1942.

Under date of May 22, 1942, F & B Manufacturing Co. wrote Jose G. Merino as follows:

I refer to your letter of the 14th with reference to the orders for which licenses have been rejected. We also had thought of making shipments of these orders by mail and we are already preparing to carry them out.

We shall wait to have Washington receive the resolutions since all those rejections are immediately appealed. Therefore, as soon as we receive definite answer, we shall proceed to comply with shipments by mail if the appeals are rejected, or by freight or according to your instructions if the appeals are granted. Within about ten days, therefore, we hope to begin the arduous task of dividing the orders into packages of $25.00 in order to be able to ship them. * * *

Under date of May 29, 1942, Jose G. Merino wrote F & B Manufacturing Company, attention Mr. Carrillo, which letter reads inter alia as follows:

I have received your letter dated the 22nd in which you tell me that if the orders that were rejected and on which there was an appeal made, are not granted, then you will ship beginning this week, all of this in $25.00 packages. I am aware of the arduous work that all these restrictions have made for you, and I greatly appreciate in advance, friend Carrillo, your help so that we can begin to ship everything that is pending before they raise the ante on us on G-17 since the number of parcel post packages that are reaching the Mexican market through this route and by this regulation is so large that soon it is going to be noticed and they might make some amendments. Before it happens one must take advantage from day to day, moment after moment, of this value that has permitted an exit for our orders. * * *

Under date of June 20, 1942, a communication was addressed to Jose G. Merino, which sets forth inter alia the following:

Received complaint from Postal Department which indicates that the F & B misinterpreted the law since they have been shipping too many packages by parcel post at $25.00 when they should not send more than one package to each customer per month and then these should be complete orders, that is, that an order of $300.00 can not be divided into 12 orders but that 12 orders of $25.00 each must be received.

He says that since everything seems to be in such a muddle and since the date of writing is Saturday that they will have to wait until Monday to start an investigation at his end as soon as possible. He also advises that all importers, especially Ford and Chevrolet agents, get together and present a strong protest.

The Compliance Commissioner has found that F & B Manufacturing Company, Automotive Export Association, Inc., W. J. O'Hara, Export Manager, Julio Carrillo, Export Manager, respondents in the above entitled case, violated section 6 of the Act of July 2, 1940, and the Export Control Regulations of the Board of Economic Warfare, in particular subparagraph c, of paragraph d, page 79 of Comprehensive Export Control Schedule No. 7, by filling orders for ignition parts in excess of $25.00 by partial shipments of thirty-seven (37) packages by registered parcel post under general license G-17, between the dates of May 7, 1942, and June 15, 1942, to Sr. N. Glezer, Bucareli #137, Mexico City, Mexico, Srs. Casa Corona, Bucareli #55, Mexico City, Mexico, Sr. Benito Singer, Continental Automotriz, Corregidora #142, Mexico City, Mexico, and Srs. Productos Casso, 4a Milan #44, Mexico City, Mexico.

Upon consideration of the record, Findings of Fact and Recommendations, in this matter, It is hereby ordered, That:

F & B Manufacturing Company, Automotive Export Association, Inc., W. J. O'Hara, Export Manager, and Julio Carrillo, Export Manager, and any person, association, or organization acting on behalf of, or for the account of them, are denied the privilege of obtaining individual export license and the use of any general or unlimited license for any exportation whatsoever from the United States, until January 16, 1943.

The Respondents may appeal in writing to the Assistant Director in charge of the Office of Exports provided the appeal is taken within ten (10) days after receipt of this order.

[Docket No. G-428]

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS COMPANY

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

DECEMBER 23, 1942.

Notice is hereby given that on November 16, 1942, Northern Natural Gas Company filed an application with the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, requesting a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the sale of natural gas to Northern States Power Company for mixing with artificial gas and resale in the cities of St. Paul, South St. Paul, West St. Paul and Rosetown, Minnesota.

This service is now being rendered, and it replaces the reduction of approximately 500,000 cubic feet of gas per day in Northern Natural Gas Company's supply of coke oven gas obtained from Koppers Company.

Any protests to the granting of this application should be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D. C., on or before January 8, 1943.

CERTAIN REAL PROPERTY IN OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, OWNED BY GIACOMO GUERRINI AND DOMENI GUERRINI

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding that the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and estate, both legal and equitable, of Giacomo Guerrini and Domeni Guerrini, his wife, and each of them, the last known address of both of whom was represented to the undersigned as being in Italy, in and to that certain real property, together with all fixtures, improvements and appurtenances thereto, in the City of Oakland, County of Alameda, State of California, and particularly described as follows:

Lots 9 and 10 in block 630, as said lots and block are shown on the "Map of Adeline Street Lots, being Redivision of Blocks 630 and 631, City of Oakland", filed November 29, 1875, in the office of the County Recorder of Alameda County, is property within the United States owned or controlled by nationals of a designated enemy country (Italy), and determining that to the extent that either or both of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Italy), and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

93.33% OF THE CAPITAL STOCK OF M. A. IRMISCHER, INC.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding:

(a) That the property described as follows:

84 shares (which constitute a substantial part, namely, 93.33%, of all outstanding shares) of no par value common capital stock of M. A. Irmischer, Inc., a New York corporation, New York, New York, which is a business enterprise within the United States, which shares are registered in the names of the following persons as trustees for Walter F. Irmischer:

Names:	Number of shares
Hubert Kolip	40
Max A. Irmischer	44
Total	84

is owned by or held for the benefit of Walter F. Irmischer, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Saalfeld, Thueringia, Germany, and therefore is property of, and represents control of said business enterprise which is, a national of a designated enemy country (Germany); and

(b) That the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of Max A. Irmischer, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Saalfeld, Thueringia, Germany, in and to all indebtedness, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to him by said M. A. Irmischer, Inc., including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all of such indebtedness and the right to sue for and collect such indebtedness, is an interest in the aforesaid business enterprise held by a national of an enemy country, and also is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Germany); and determining that to the extent that any or all of such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany), and having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests such property in the Alien Property Custodian, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

70% OF THE CAPITAL STOCK OF AMERLUX STEEL CORPORATION

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

(a) Finding that Comptoir Metallurgique Luxembourgeois "Columeta" (hereinafter referred to as "Columeta"), whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Luxembourg, G. D., is owned and controlled by the Societte des Aliers Réunies de Burbach Eich Dudelange (hereinafter referred to as "Arbed") whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Luxembourg, G. D., and that Hector Dieudonne, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Luxembourg, G. D., is controlled by or acting or purporting to act directly or indirectly for the benefit or on behalf of Columeta or Arbed;

(b) Finding that said Arbed is controlled by or acting or purporting to act directly or indirectly for the benefit or on behalf of or as a cloak for a designated enemy country (Germany) or a person within such country, and therefore determining that Arbed is a national of said designated enemy country (Germany);

(c) Determining, therefore, that Columeta and Hector Dieudonne are nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

(d) Finding that said Columeta and Hector Dieudonne are the owners of 699 shares and 1 share, respectively, of $100 par value common stock of Amerlux Steel Corporation, a California corporation, San Francisco, California, which is a business enterprise within the United States and which 700 shares constitute a substantial part, namely, 70%, of the outstanding capital stock of said business enterprise and represent control thereof, and therefore determining that such business enterprise is a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

(e) Determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

(f) Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and

(g) Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the shares of stock described in subparagraph (d), to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

(c) Finding that said Dr. Ferdinand A. Kertess is the owner of 30 shares of $100 par value Class A common stock of Eastern Tricosal Company, Incorporated, a New York corporation, New York, New York, which is a business enterprise within the United States and which 30 shares constitute all the outstanding voting stock of said corporation, and therefore determining that such business enterprise is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

(d) Determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

(e) Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the shares of stock described in paragraph (c), to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

(f) Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive Order.

ALL OF THE CAPITAL STOCK OF PROTINOL PRODUCTS, INCORPORATED

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

(a) Finding that Dr. Ferdinand A. Kertess, New York, New York, is controlled by or acting or purporting to act directly or indirectly for or on behalf of or as a cloak for a designated enemy country (Germany) or a person within such country;

(b) Determining, therefore, that said Dr. Ferdinand A. Kertess is a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country;

(c) Finding that said Dr. Ferdinand A. Kertess is the owner of 100 shares of no par value common stock of Protinol Products, Incorporated, a New York corporation, New York, New York, which is a business enterprise within the United States and which 100 shares constitute all the outstanding capital stock of said corporation, and therefore determining that such business enterprise is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

(d) Determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

(e) Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the shares of stock described in paragraph (c), to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

(f) Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

(a) Finding that Arthur Leverkus, whose last known address was represented to the undersigned as being Cologne, Germany, is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

(b) Finding that Arthur Leverkus is the owner of 200 shares of no par value capital stock of The Ultra Corporation, a New York corporation, New York, New York, which is a business enterprise within the United States, and which 200 shares of stock constitute all of the outstanding capital stock of said business enterprise and represent ownership thereof; and therefore determining that such business enterprise is a national of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

(c) Determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of the aforesaid designated enemy country (Germany);

(d) Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and

(e) Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby (i) vests in the Alien Property Custodian the shares of stock described in subparagraph (b), to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States, and (ii) undertakes the direction, management, supervision and control of such business enterprise to the extent deemed necessary or advisable from time to time by the undersigned.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, or to vary the extent of such direction, management, supervision or control or to terminate the same, if and when it should be determined that any of such action should be taken.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. [Amendment 5 to Administrative Notice 1]

OLIVER FARM EQUIPMENT CO.

ORDER GRANTING EXCEPTION

During the fall and winter of 1941-1942, when the Office of Price Administration requested manufacturers of a wide variety of machines and parts not to increase prices, such manufacturers were advised that exceptions would be considered where maintenance of requested prices caused undue hardship. A certain number of exceptions have been granted to manufacturers filing applications supported by proper data. A list of these exceptions is contained in Administrative Notice No. 1 and four amendments thereto.

By inadvertence Oliver Farm Equipment Company, Charles City, Iowa was not included in the Administrative Notice and the amendments thereto.

Pursuant to authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, As Amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, It is hereby ordered, That:

An exception be granted to Oliver Farm Equipment Company, Charles City, Iowa permitting that Company to sell, offer to sell and deliver the following industrial tractors and power units at the maximum prices set forth below:

Product	List No.	Maximum prices
Tractor Engines when sold as complete power units.	PD-404	January 1, 1942 Prices.
Model "35" industrial tractor.	PD-413	February 2, 1942 Prices.
Model "25" industrial tractor.	PD-414	February 3, 1942 Prices.
Model "50" industrial tractor.	PD-420	February 14, 1942 Prices.

The Price Administrator hereby confirms the granting of this exception.

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

[Order 103 Under MPR 188]

Cast Iron Fireplace Grates

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 103 Under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188—Manufacturer's Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods Other Than Apparel.

Temporary maximum prices for cast iron fireplace grates first sold after December 21, 1942.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order No. 9250, § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, and § 1499.3 (c) of General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered:

(a) This Order No. 103 sets maximum prices for sales of cast iron fireplace grates first sold after December 21, 1942. The Order is temporary. No sales or deliveries may be made under its authority after the 1st day of April, 1943.

Listed below are the maximum prices for sales by manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers. The grates are classified according to weight. Fractions of pounds are to be rounded up or down to the nearest pound, in applying the table.

Weight of grate	Factory to jobber price	Factory to retailer price	Wholesale price	Retail price
28–30 lbs. (inclusive)	$2.90	$3.60	$3.80	$7.00
25–27 lbs. (inclusive)	2.60	3.25	3.45	6.25
22–24 lbs. (inclusive)	2.30	2.90	3.05	5.60
19–21 lbs. (inclusive)	2.00	2.50	2.65	4.85
15–18 lbs. (inclusive)	1.70	2.15	2.30	4.15

(1) The price listed under "factory to jobber" in the above table is the maximum price for sales by the manufacturer to wholesalers or jobbers. The price is f. o. b. factory.

(2) The price listed under "factory to retailer" in the above table is the maximum price for sales by the manufacturer to retailers. The price is f. o. b. factory.

(3) The maximum price listed under "wholesale price" in the above table is the maximum price for sales at wholesale by a person other than the manufacturer. The price is f. o. b. the seller's point of shipment.

(4) The price listed under "retail price" in the above table is the maximum price for sales at retail.

(b) Before delivery to any purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall attach to each grate a tag or label which plainly states the retail ceiling price of the grate. For example, a statement in the following form on a grate weighing thirty pounds would be sufficient: "Retail Ceiling Price $7.00. Selling Price --------." The tag or label shall not be detached until the grate has been delivered to the consumer.

(c) At or prior to the first invoice to each purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser of the maximum price set by this Order for resales by the purchaser. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(d) This Order No. 103 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the terms used herein.

(f) This Order No. 103 shall become effective on the 24th day of December 1942, and shall terminate on the 1st day of April 1943.

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

[Order 104 Under MPR 188]

Iron and Steel Fireplace Grates

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 104 Under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188—Manufacturers' Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods Other Than Apparel Materials.

Maximum prices for fireplace grates made of welded steel or iron scrap.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order No. 9250, § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, and § 1499.3 (c) of General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered:

(a) This Order No. 104 applies to all fireplace grates made of welded steel or iron scrap which weigh 26 to 30 pounds, inclusive. Set forth below are the maximum prices for sales by the manufacturer, wholesalers, and retailers. However, these prices may be charged only if the manufacturer attaches to the grate the written warranty described in paragraph (b). If the manufacturer does not make the warranty, the maximum prices for sales by the manufacturer, wholesalers, and retailers shall be computed by deducting 15% from the prices set forth below.

(1) For sales by the manufacturer, the maximum price is $5.00, f. o. b. factory.

(2) For sales at wholesale by a person other than the manufacturer, the maximum price is $6.25, f. o. b. seller's point of shipment.

(3) For sales at retail, the maximum price is $10.00.

(b) The maximum prices set forth above can be charged only if the manufacturer sells the grate with a written warranty in the following form:

--,
(Insert name of manufacturer)
the manufacturer of this grate, warrants to the retailer and to any person buying from him that it is fit for burning coal or wood in a fireplace.

The warranty shall be attached to the grate by the manufacturer and shall not be detached until after the grate has been delivered to the consumer.

(c) Before delivery of a grate to any purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall attach a tag or label which plainly states that the retail ceiling price of the grate is $10.00. The tag or label shall not be detached until the grate has been delivered to the consumer.

(d) At or prior to the first invoice to each purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser of the maximum price set by this Order for resales by the purchaser. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) This Order No. 104 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to terms used herein.

(g) This Order No. 104 shall become effective on the 24th day of December 1942 and shall terminate on the 1st day of April 1943.

Issued this 24th day of December 1942.

Masteller Coal Company

ORDER GRANTING ADJUSTMENT

Revised Order No. 7 Under Maximum Price Regulation No. 120—Bituminous Coal Delivered from Mine or Preparation Plant—Docket Nos. 1120-6-P and 1120-56-P.

Granting adjustment to Masteller Coal Company and closing the Protest Docket 1120-56-P.

Order No. 7 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 120 is hereby revised and amended to read as set forth below:

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with § 1340.207 (a) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120, It is ordered:

(a) Granting adjustment. (1) Coal in Size Groups 1, 3 and 4 produced by the Masteller Coal Company, Keyser, West Virginia, at its Hampshire No. 9 Mine (Mine Index No. 196), District No. 1, may be sold and purchased for shipment by all methods of transportation except truck or wagon at prices per net ton, f. o. b. the mine, not to exceed $3.25, $2.95 and $2.85, respectively;

(2) Within 30 days from the effective date of this Revised Order, the said Masteller Coal Company shall notify all persons purchasing its coal of the adjustments granted by paragraph (a) of this Revised Order, and shall include a statement that if the purchaser is subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 in the resale of coal the adjustments granted in this Revised Order do not authorize any increase in the purchaser's resale price except in accordance with and subject to conditions stated in Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(b) Closing protest docket. Since the adjustment made by paragraph (a) of this Revised Order grants all the relief requested in Docket No. 1120-56-P, the said Docket is hereby closed;

(c) This Revised Order No. 7 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time;

(d) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1340.208 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120 shall apply to the terms used herein;

(e) This Revised Order No. 7 shall become effective this 28th day of December 1942.

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion issued simultaneously herewith and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with § 1340.207 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120, It is ordered:

(a) Coals in Size Groups 2, 3, 4 and 5 produced by Hunter Coal Company, Antrim, Pennsylvania, at its Antrim Mine (Mine Index No. 572) and No. 1 Bloss Drift Mine (Mine Index No. 841), District No. 1, may be sold and purchased for rail shipment f. o. b. the mine at prices not to exceed the following respective prices per net ton:

Size group	Antrim mine	Bloss drift mine
2	$3.25	$3.55
3	[1] 2.75	3.40
4	2.90	3.30
5	2.90	3.30

[1] This maximum was established by Order No. 50 and is not changed by Revised Order No. 50; it is lower than the presently applicable minimum, and consequently § 1340.210 (a) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120 applies.

(b) Within thirty (30) days from the effective date of this Order, the said Hunter Coal Company shall notify all persons purchasing its coals of the adjustments granted by paragraph (a) of this Order, and shall include a statement that if the purchaser is subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 in the resale of coal the adjustments granted in this Order do not authorize any increase in the purchaser's resale price except in accordance with and subject to the conditions stated in Maximum Price Regulation No. 122;

(c) This Order No. 50 may be revoked or amended by the Administrator at any time;

(d) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1340.208 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120 shall apply to terms used herein;

(e) This Order No. 50 shall become effective December 28, 1942.

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

LEON HENDERSON,
Administrator.

CAMPBELL COAL CO., RANDALL BROTHERS, INC., AND ATLANTIC CO.

ORDER GRANTING ADJUSTMENT

Order No. 38 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 122—Solid Fuels Delivered From Facilities Other Than Producing Facilities—Dealers—Docket Nos. 3122-97, 3122-98, and 3122-99.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with § 1340.257 (a) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, it is hereby ordered:

(a) Dockets numbered 3122-97, 3122-98, and 3122-99 are herewith consolidated and disposed of pursuant to this Order;

(b) Campbell Coal Company, Randall Brothers, Inc., and Atlantic Company, each of Atlanta, Georgia, may sell and deliver 2″ nut and slack coal to commercial and industrial contract purchasers and such purchasers may buy and receive said coal from said three companies at prices no higher than those set forth in paragraph (c) below:

(c) The maximum prices for the sales described in paragraph (b) above shall consist of the prices indicated opposite the name of the seller in the table following:

Seller	Maximum price for carload lots (per ton)	Maximum price for less than carload lots (per ton)
Campbell Coal Co.	$5.89	$6.04
Randall Brothers, Inc.	5.89	6.04
Atlantic Co.	6.00	6.15

(d) Provided, That in the event the delivered cost of 2″ nut and slack coal decreases below $4.70 per ton in the cases of Campbell Coal Company and Randall Brothers, Inc. and below $4.86 per ton in the case of Atlantic Company, then the maximum prices set forth in paragraph (c) above shall be forthwith reduced by each of said companies in an amount equal to the decrease in delivered cost to it;

(e) This Order No. 38 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time;

(f) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1340.258 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall apply to the terms used herein;

(g) This Order No. 38 shall become effective December 28, 1942.

[Order 6 Under MPR 157]

DARLINGTON FABRICS CORP.

ORDER DENYING APPLICATION FOR ADJUSTMENT

Order No. 6 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 157—Sales and Fabrication of Textiles, Apparel and Related Articles for Military Purposes—Docket No. 3157-31.

On October 29, 1942, Darlington Fabrics Corporation, 180 Madison Avenue, New York, New York, pursuant to Supplementary Order No. 9 and Procedural Regulation No. 6, filed an application for the adjustment of its maximum price for 8.2 oz. combed uniform twill manufactured pursuant to Quartermaster Corps tentative specifications P. Q. D. 33A. Due consideration has been given to this application and an opinion in support of this order has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion, under the Authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended and Executive Order No. 9250, and pursuant to Procedural Regulation No. 6, it is ordered that Application No. 3157-31 be, and it hereby is, denied.

Any contract entered into by Darlington Fabrics Corporation at the price requested in the Application or at any price in excess of the maximum price permissible under Maximum Price Regulation No. 157, shall be revised in accordance with the terms of this order, any payment made to Darlington Fabrics Corporation in excess of the permissible price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 157 shall be refunded to the purchaser, and, within 30 days after the date on which this order is mailed to it, Darlington Fabrics Corporation shall file a statement with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., showing that such contracts were revised in accordance with the terms of this order and, wherever required, refunds were made.

Issued and effective this 26th day of December 1942.

LEON HENDERSON,
Administrator.

[Order 98 Under MPR 188]

TEMPORARY MAXIMUM PRICES FOR CERTAIN NEW FIREPLACE GRATES MANUFACTURED FROM SUBSTITUTE MATERIALS

Order No. 98 under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188—Manufacturers' Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods Other Than Apparel Materials.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation

No. 188, and § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered:

(a) This Order No. 98 sets temporary maximum prices for sales of certain new fireplace grates manufactured from substitute materials. It applies only to the grates which have been described in applications submitted by the manufacturers to the Office of Price Administration. The Order is temporary. No sales or deliveries may be made under its authority after the 1st day of April 1943.

Listed below are the maximum prices for sales by the manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers. The prices listed below may be charged only if the manufacturer attaches to the grate the written warranty described in paragraph (b). If the manufacturer does not make the warranty, the maximum prices for sales by the manufacturer, wholesalers, and retailers shall be computed by deducting 15% from the prices listed in the table.

Name of manufacturer	Factory to jobber price	Factory to retailer price	Wholesale price	Retail price
Victory Grate Co., Caldwell, N. J.	$3.98	$4.77	$5.30	$7.95
Hillcrest Fuel Oil Corporation, Jamaica, N. Y.	4.98	5.50	6.63	9.95
Hilo Insulation Co., Boston, Mass.	8.48	9.25	11.30	16.95
Palmer Battaline, West Hartford, Conn.	8.25	9.08	11.00	16.50
E. S. Grant, Wethersfield, Conn.	8.25	9.08	11.00	16.50
The Coxhead Organization, Winsted, Conn.	5.48	6.02	7.30	10.95
Duplex Electric, 71 Grand St., New York City:
Leg type:
Unpainted	7.98	8.69	10.63	15.95
Painted	8.48	9.44	11.30	16.95
Andiron type:
Unpainted	7.25	7.96	9.67	14.50
Painted	7.98	8.62	10.63	15.95
Heating Maintenance Corp., 220 E. 138 St., N. Y. C.	6.75	7.50	9.00	13.50
International Casting Co., 11 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.	6.75	7.50	9.00	13.50

(1) The price listed under "factory to jobber" in the above table is the maximum price for sales by the named manufacturer to wholesalers or jobbers. The price is f. o. b. factory.

(2) The price listed under "factory to retailer" in the above table is the maximum price for sales by the manufacturer to retailers. The price is f. o. b. factory.

(3) The price listed under "wholesale price" in the above table is the maximum price for sales at wholesale by a person other than the manufacturer. The price is f. o. b. the seller's point of shipment.

(4) The price listed under "retail price" in the above table is the maximum price for sales at retail.

(b) The maximum prices set forth in the table contained in paragraph (a) can be charged only if the manufacturer sells the grate with a written warranty in the following form:

> (Insert name of manufacturer), the manufacturer of this grate, warrants to the retailer and to any person buying from him that it is fit for burning coal or wood in a fireplace. If the manufacturer desires to do so, he may add: "This warranty, however, does not protect against rough handling by the consumer."

The warranty shall be attached to the grate by the manufacturer and shall not be detached until after the grate has been delivered to the consumer.

(c) Before delivery of a fireplace grate to any purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall attach a tag or label which plainly states the retail ceiling price of the grate. A statement in the following form on a grate sold by Victory Grate Company would be sufficient: "Retail Ceiling Price $7.95". The tag or label shall not be detached until the grate has been delivered to the consumer.

(d) At or before the time of first delivery after the effective date of this Regulation the manufacturer shall notify in writing every person who buys from him of the maximum price set by this Order No. 98 for resales by the purchaser. This written notice may be given in any convenient manner; for example, it may be shown on or attached to the invoice, or packed with the merchandise.

(e) Within fifteen days after March 1, 1943, each manufacturer shall prepare and mail to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a report covering his operations during the sixty-day period which ends February 28, 1943. The report shall contain the following information:

The number of units manufactured during the period, the number of units sold, total gross sales, total returns and allowances, and costs per unit for materials, direct labor, and factory overhead. The method of computation of costs should be explained and supporting details should be furnished.

(f) This Order No. 98 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to terms used herein.

(h) This Order No. 98 shall become effective on the 31st day of December 1942, and shall terminate on the 1st day of April 1943.

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

VINCENT-MCCALL CO.

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM F. O. B. FACTORY, L. C. L. PRICES

Order No. 3 under § 1365.61 (a) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 213[1]—Coil and Flat Bedsprings with Non-Steel Frames.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and by virtue of the authority vested in the Price Administrator under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, It is hereby ordered:

(a) The Vincent-McCall Company, of Kenosha, Wisconsin, may sell and deliver the 3000 units which it has on hand of its Class "B", No. 6106 bedspring with a wood frame, including two pairs of stabilizers, and the special webbing, full platform top at a price no higher than $8.20, f. o. b. Factory, L. C. L.

(b) Any person may sell at wholesale and deliver the Vincent-McCall Company's No. 6106 bedspring with a wood frame, including two pairs of stabilizers and the special webbing full platform top at a warehouse or delivered price no higher than $8.20, plus the dollar amount by which such seller's warehouse or delivered price respectively exceeded the manufacturer's f. o. b. Factory, L. C. L. price for the most comparable bedspring with a steel frame during March, 1942, under the same conditions of sale.

(c) Any person may sell at retail and deliver The Vincent-McCall Company's No. 6106 bedspring with a wood frame, including two pairs of stabilizers and the special webbing full platform top at a price no higher than $14.15 plus $0.50 for a sale at retail in the Far West Zone.

(d) The maximum prices set forth in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) hereof shall be subject to the same discounts, allowances, terms and differentials as the seller had in effect for the most comparable bedspring with a steel frame during March 1942.

(e) The Vincent-McCall Company shall notify in writing each person selling the No. 6106 bedsprings of the maximum prices established in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) hereof upon the first sale of such bedspring to such seller.

(f) Before making delivery of a No. 6106 bedspring with a wood frame, The Vincent-McCall Company must attach securely to such bedspring so that it is clearly visible a durable tag containing in easily readable lettering the statement in the following form:

> The Office of Price Administration has established a Retail Ceiling Price of (insert $14.15 or $14.65, whichever is correct) for this bedspring. Lower prices may be charged. This tag may not be removed until after delivery to the consumer.

(g) This Order No. 3 may be revoked or amended by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

(h) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in Maximum Price Regulation No. 213 shall apply to the terms used herein.

(i) This Order No. 3 under § 1365.61 (a) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 213 shall become effective December 28, 1942.

Issued this 26th day of December 1942.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

J. MORTON STEINER CO.

FINDINGS AND ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 19th day of December, A. D. 1942.

In the matter of J. Morton Steiner, doing business as J. Morton Steiner Company, 42 Broadway, New York, New York.

On May 5, 1942, the Commission ordered a hearing to determine whether or not it should revoke the registration of the respondent, J. Morton Steiner, doing business as J. Morton Steiner Company, as a broker and dealer under section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. After appropriate notice a hearing was duly held, and the trial examiner filed an advisory report containing his specific findings of fact.

No objection or exception to the report of the trial examiner has been filed. The Commission affirms and adopts the findings of fact set forth therein. On the basis of these findings, and upon an independent review of the record, the Commission finds and concludes:

1. That the respondent, knowing that there was a demand for preferred and common stock of Metropolitan Personal Loan Corporation ("Metropolitan"), induced certain holders of said stock to dispose of their holdings to respondent at prices substantially below the prevailing market, by falsely representing to such holders, inter alia:

(a) That Metropolitan had gone out of business;

(b) That there was no market for Metropolitan stock;

(c) That Metropolitan stock was worthless; and

(d) That certain exchanges of Metropolitan stock for other securities would be effected by respondent at the best possible market price for the customer.

2. That such representations were known to respondent to be false at the time they were made, and were for the purpose of inducing investors to part with Metropolitan stock at depressed prices bearing no reasonable relation to the prevailing market, and to facilitate the sale to such customers of other securities at an unreasonable mark-up over the prevailing market.

3. That respondent did in fact induce numerous customers to purchase securities other than Metropolitan stock, and to accept securities in exchange for Metropolitan stock, at excessive prices having no reasonable relation to the prevailing market in such securities, and failed to disclose either the extent of its mark-ups in such transactions or the market quotations pertaining to the securities sold or exchanged.

4. That many of the foregoing transactions were effected by respondent through use of the mails.

5. That respondent has willfully violated section 17 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and section 15 (c) (1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and that it is in the public interest to revoke respondent's registration as a broker and dealer pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

On the basis of the foregoing, and pursuant to Section 15 (b) of said Act,

It is ordered, That respondent's registration as a broker and dealer be, and it hereby is, revoked.

By the Commission (Chairman Purcell and Commissioners Healy, Pike, and Burke) Commissioner O'Brien being absent and not participating.

Secretary.

GENERAL GAS AND ELECTRIC CORP. AND SOUTHERN ELECTRIC UTILITIES CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION, ETC.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23rd day of December, 1942.

Order granting application and permitting declaration to become effective, and separating matter from consolidated proceedings.

In the matters of General Gas & Electric Corporation, Southern Electric Utilities Company; and General Gas and Electric Corporation.

General Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, and its wholly owned subsidiary, Southern Electric Utilities Company, having jointly filed an application and declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and particularly sections 9 (a), 10, and 12 (f), and Rule U-43 promulgated thereunder, regarding the transfer of all the assets and liabilities of said subsidiary to its parent and the dissolution of said subsidiary; and

The Commission having ordered the said proceedings (File No. 70-649) consolidated with the proceedings pending under section 11 (b) (2), directed against General Gas & Electric Corporation, and the proceedings on the plan submitted by the said company under section 11 (e) (File Nos. 59-19 and 54-34); and

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice, the Commission having considered the record in this matter, and having made and filed its Findings and Opinion therein;

It is ordered, That the transfer by Southern Electric Utilities Company of all its assets and liabilities to General Gas & Electric Corporation, in exchange for all the outstanding securities of said subsidiary, is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; and

The assets of Southern Electric Utilities Company to be transferred to General Gas & Electric Corporation are:

102,683 shares of $5 Dividend Series Preferred stock of Associated Gas and Electric Company;

713,014 shares $4 Cumulative Preference stock of the same;

367,825 shares $6 Cumulative Preference stock of the same; together with all accounts receivable on the books of said subsidiary; and

The securities of and claims against Southern Electric Utilities Company to be surrendered for cancellation, are:

10 shares $1.00 par value common stock;

Convertible Obligations, 6%, due March 1, 1963, in the principal amount of $47,000,000;

Open account indebtedness in the amount of $362,181.01; and

An account receivable in the amount of $41.10.

It is further ordered, That, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the said Act, the said joint application and declaration be, and hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 of the General Rules and Regulations.

It is further ordered, That the proceedings concerning the said joint declaration and application (File No. 70-649) be, and hereby are, separated from the consolidated proceedings under section 11 (b) (2), directed against General Gas & Electric Corporation, and concerning the plan submitted by the said company under section 11 (e) (File Nos. 59-19 and 54-34).

THE LEHMAN CORPORATION

ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 22d day of December, A. D. 1942.

An application duly filed by The Lehman Corporation on December 21, 1942 pursuant to section 23 (c) (3) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 for an order permitting applicant to purchase a total of 5,000 shares of its capital stock at a price of 23⅜ per share has been noticed for hearing before the Commission on December 28, 1942. Applicant on December 22, 1942 duly filed another application pursuant to section 23 (c) (3) of the Act for an order permitting it to purchase a total of 1,000 shares of its capital stock at a price of 23⅜ from Adele R. Levy and Albert K. Orschel, Trustee, pursuant to an agreement, dated December 21, 1942, between the above named vendors and the applicant; and

It appearing to the Commission that said applications present questions of fact common to each of said applications;

It is ordered, That the proceedings in the matter of the applications of The Lehman Corporation be and the same are hereby consolidated;

It is further ordered, That a hearing on the matters of the aforesaid applications be held on December 28, 1942 at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day in the Securities and Exchange Commission Building, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise interested parties where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend, Esquire, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing on such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under sections 4J and 42 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and to Trial Examiners under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

Notice is hereby given to the applicant and to any other persons whose participation in such proceedings may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

NIAGARA HUDSON POWER CORPORATION, ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 24th day of December, 1942.

In the matter of Niagara Hudson Power Corporation, Northern Development Corporation and Hudson Valley Fuel Corporation.

Niagara Hudson Power Corporation, a subsidiary of The United Corporation, a registered holding company, and Northern Development Corporation and Hudson Valley Fuel Corporation, wholly-owned subsidiaries of Niagara Hudson Power Corporation, having filed a joint declaration and application, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 7, 10 and 12 (f), and Rule U-43 thereunder, regarding the following transactions:

1. Northern Development proposes to issue and sell, and Niagara Hudson Power Corporation proposes to purchase, 24,500 additional shares of common stock, without par value, at a price of $100 per share, the proceeds, in the amount of $2,450,000 to be applied to the full payment of cash advances heretofore made by Niagara Hudson Power Corporation to Northern Development Corporation in the amount of $2,450,000;

2. Hudson Valley Fuel Corporation proposes to issue and sell, and Niagara Hudson Power Corporation proposes to purchase, 27,000 additional shares of common stock, without par value, at a price of $100 per share, the proceeds in the amount of $2,700,000 to be applied to the full payment of cash advances heretofore made by Niagara Hudson Power Corporation to Hudson Valley Fuel Corporation in the amount of $2,700,000;

Said joint application and declaration having been filed on December 14, 1942, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed in Rule U-23, promulgated pursuant to said Act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said application and declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and the applicants and declarants having requested that the Commission advance the effective date of said application and declaration; and

The Commission finding that the requirements of section 7, 10, and 12 (f) of said Act, and Rule U-43, are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers to grant said application and to permit said declaration to become effective, and that the date thereof should be advanced;

It is hereby ordered, pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said Act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the aforesaid application be and hereby is granted forthwith, and the aforesaid declaration be and hereby is permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission (Commissioner Healy dissenting for the reasons set forth in his memorandum of April 1, 1940).

Notice is hereby given that a joint declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Northern States Power Company (Delaware), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) also a registered holding company; and Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 30, 1942, at 4:00 P. M., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter, such declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and 100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration, which is on file in the office of the said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

The aforesaid companies propose that all payments on the principal of the open account indebtedness owing by Northern States Power Company (Delaware) to Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) now due or to become due up to June 30, 1943 be postponed until that date by which date it is contemplated that a plan filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of said Act for the dissolution of Northern States Power Company (Delaware) which plan provides for the disposition of said indebtedness will be acted upon by this Commission; that pending action on the plan or until June 30, 1943 (whichever date be earlier) the Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) will segregate on its books $345,650 of its earned surplus as not being available for the declaration of dividends on its common stock; and that Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) waive all interest due on said indebtedness for the period from December 31, 1942 to June 30, 1943.

By the Commission.

SOUTH CAROLINA ELECTRIC AND GAS COMPANY ET AL.

INTERIM ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATIONS TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23rd day of December, 1942.

In the matter of South Carolina Electric & Gas Company, Lexington Water Power Company and General Gas & Electric Corporation.

General Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, and its subsidiaries, South Carolina Electric & Gas Company and Lexington Water Power Company, having filed joint applications-declarations wherein, among other things, it is proposed that Lexington Water Power Company and South Carolina Electric & Gas Company be merged into a consolidated corporation; and that General Gas & Electric Corporation deliver to the consolidated corporation $612,700 principal amount of Lexington Water Power Company, First Mortgage 5% Gold Bonds, series due January 1, 1968, and $2,311,900 principal amount of Lexington Water Power Company 5½% Convertible Sinking Fund Gold Debentures, due January 1, 1953, as part consideration for certain securities to be issued by the consolidated corporation; and

A hearing having been held on September 23, 1942 on such joint applications-declarations; and

It appearing that the contemplated merger cannot be effected prior to January 1, 1943; and

An amendment to the joint applications-declarations having been filed as declarations pursuant to sections 12 (b) and 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rules U-42 and U-45 promulgated thereunder, wherein General Gas & Electric Corporation proposes to contribute to Lexington Water Power Company, on or before January 1, 1943, $108,300 principal amount of Lexington Water Power Company, First Mortgage 5% Gold Bonds, series due January 1, 1968, and $125,000 principal amount of Lexington Water Power Company 5½% Convertible Sinking Fund Gold Debentures, due January 1, 1953, to enable Lexington Water Power Company to meet its sinking fund requirements due January 1, 1943; and

The declarants having requested that, if the contemplated merger is subsequently consummated, the securities of Lexington Water Power Company presently proposed to be contributed to it shall constitute a part of the consideration which General Gas & Electric Corporation proposes to deliver in exchange for securities of the consolidated corporation; and

Such amendment to the joint applications-declarations having been filed on December 8, 1942, and notice of the filing of said amendment having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said Act and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said amendment within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise; and

The Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to permit the said amendment pursuant to Rules U-42 and U-45 to become effective, and finding that the requirements of sections 12 (b) and 12 (c) are satisfied;

It is hereby ordered, That the aforesaid amendment to the joint applications-declarations as declarations, pursuant to sections 12 (b) and 12 (c) and Rules U-42 and U-45 promulgated thereunder, be and hereby is permitted to become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to determine, in the event that the proposed merger of Lexington Water Power Company and South Carolina Electric & Gas Company into a consolidated corporation is consummated, whether or not it is fair and equitable to the persons affected and in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers that the contribution of the $108,300 principal amount of Lexington Water Power Company, First Mortgage 5% Gold Bonds, series due January 1, 1968, and the $125,000 principal amount of Lexington Water Power Company 5½% Convertible Sinking Fund Gold Debentures, due January 1, 1953, shall constitute a part of the consideration of $612,700 principal amount of Lexington Water Power Company, First Mortgage 5% Gold Bonds, series due January 1, 1968, and $2,311,900 principal amount of Lexington Water Power Company 5½% Convertible Sinking Fund Gold Debentures, due January 1, 1953, which General Gas & Electric Corporation proposes, in the original joint applications-declarations filed in this matter, to deliver in exchange for securities of the consolidated corporation.

By the Commission.

TRI-CITY UTILITIES COMPANY AND ASSOCIATED ELECTRIC COMPANY

ORDER PERMITTING AMENDMENT NUMBER 4 TO DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23rd day of December, 1942.

Associated Electric Company, a registered holding company, and Tri-City Utilities Company, a subsidiary thereof, having filed Amendment Number 4 to the above-captioned declaration, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly section 12 thereof, and Rules U-42 and U-43 thereunder, regarding the sale by Associated Electric Company and the purchase by Tri-City Utilities Company, for retirement and cancellation, of shares of common stock of Tri-City Utilities Company, in an aggregate par amount equal to the net proceeds from the sale of the Ohio River Electric division properties of Tri-City Utilities Company, estimated at $202,000; the declaration embracing the sale of the Ohio River electric division properties having been permitted to become effective by the Commission's order dated December 2, 1942 (Holding Company Act Release No. 3951);

Said Amendment Number 4 to the declaration having been filed on December 12, 1942, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said Act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said Amendment Number 4 within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The above-named parties having requested that the effective date of said amendment be advanced; and

The Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to permit the said amendment pursuant to section 12 and Rules U-42 and U-43 to become effective, and being satisfied that the effective date of such amendment should be advanced;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said Act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the aforesaid Amendment Number 4 to the above-captioned declaration be, and hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION.

[Directive No. XVI]

TRANSFER AND RELEASE OF FEDERAL EMPLOYEES

MISCELANEOUS AMENDMENTS

To all departments and agencies of the executive branch of the Federal Government, concerning transfer and release of Federal employees.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Chairman of the War Manpower Commission by Executive Orders Nos. 9139[1] and 9243,[2] War Manpower Commission Directive No. X,[3] entitled "Directive with respect to transfer and release of Government employees," is hereby amended, effective as of September 27, 1942, as follows:

I. At the end of paragraph IV thereof, add the following additional paragraph:

An employee who has been released from a Federal position pursuant to paragraph II of this directive for employment in an essential activity carried on by a private or public enterprise and who, while on a leave-without-pay status from such Federal position enlists in, is inducted into, or otherwise enters active military service with the armed forces, shall be entitled to the same reemployment benefits, if any, with respect to the Federal position from which he was released, as those to which he would have been entitled, had he enlisted in, been inducted into, or otherwise entered active military service while employed in such Federal position. An employee who would have been entitled to the reemployment benefits provided for in this paragraph but for his failure to make suitable application therefor within the period allowed for such applications, shall nevertheless become entitled thereto if suitable application therefor is filed on or before February 1, 1943.

II. Delete paragraph II thereof and substitute therefor the following:

Whenever the Civil Service Commission shall find that a civilian employee of any department or agency of the executive branch of the Federal Government is qualified to perform work in a critical war occupation (as defined in the Essential Activities and Essential Occupations Directive) and can make a more effective contribution to the war effort in an essential activity carried on by a private or public enterprise, including an activity carried on by a State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or by any political subdivision thereof, or by any agency or instrumentality of a State, Territory, or possession of the United States or of their political subdivisions, the Commission, with the consent of the employee, but with or without the consent of the department or agency in which he is employed, shall, upon request of such private or public enterprise, authorize the release of such employee to such private or public enterprise for work in such critical war occupation in such essential activity. An employee whose release has been authorized pursuant to this paragraph shall be carried on a leave-without-pay basis from his Federal position for the period of such employment with such private or public enterprise, except that such leave-without-pay status shall not continue beyond six months after the end of the war.

III. Substitute for the phrase "private enterprise," wherever such phrase occurs in paragraphs III to XI thereof, the phrase "private or public enterprise."

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9290

Suspension of Eight-Hour Law as to Laborers and Mechanics Employed by the War Department on Public Works Within the United States

WHEREAS the War Department is engaged in public-work activities within the United States (including the storage and movement of war materials and the embarkation of troops) which are essential to the prosecution of the war; and

WHEREAS there exists an acute shortage of laborers and mechanics; and

WHEREAS the efficient and speedy accomplishment of such activities requires that laborers and mechanics therefor be employed in excess of eight hours a day; and

WHEREAS, by section 1 of the act of August 1, 1892, 27 Stat. 340, as amended by the act of March 3, 1913, 37 Stat. 726 (U.S.C., title 40, sec. 321), the services of all laborers and mechanics employed by the Government of the United States upon any public work of the United States is limited to eight hours in any one calendar day, except in case of extraordinary emergency; and

WHEREAS I find that by reason of the foregoing an extraordinary emergency exists:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 1 of the said act of August 1, 1892, as amended by the said act of March 3, 1913, and as President of the United States, I hereby suspend for the duration of the emergencies proclaimed by me on September 8, 1939, and May 27, 1941, the above-mentioned provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours of labor in one day by laborers and mechanics employed by the Government of the United States as to all work performed by laborers and mechanics employed by the War Department on any public work within the United States which is essential to the prosecution of the war: Provided, that the wages of all laborers and mechanics so employed by the War Department shall be computed on a basic day rate of eight hours of work with overtime to be paid at time and one-half for all hours of work in excess of eight hours in any one day.

prior to January 1, 1934, and containing a tax-free covenant. In the case of interest on obligations of the United States or any agency, or instrumentality thereof, regardless of the date of issuance thereof, ownership certificates shall be filed by such citizens, residents, fiduciaries and partnerships only in the case of interest paid on or after January 1, 1942 and prior to January 1, 1943.

2. By striking out the second sentence of the third paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

* * * The ownership certificate is required in such cases whether or not the obligation contains a tax-free covenant.

3. By amending the last sentence of the third paragraph to read as follows:

* * * Ownership certificates (Form 1001) shall also be filed in the case of interest paid on or after January 1, 1942, on obligations of the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, regardless of the date of issuance of such obligations, if such obligations are owned by the persons described in the first sentence of this paragraph.

4. By inserting in the sixth paragraph immediately after the word "monthly" the following: "(quarterly, for the calendar year 1943 and subsequent calendar years)".

PAR. 3. Section 19.143-7, as amended by Treasury Decision 5174, is further amended as follows:

1. By inserting immediately after the sixth sentence the following:

* * * However, for the calendar year 1943 and subsequent calendar years the withholding agent shall make a quarterly return on Form 1012 on or before the last day of the month following the termination of the quarter for which the return is made. The ownership certificates, Forms 1000 and 1001, must be forwarded to the Commissioner with the quarterly return. Forms 1001 should be listed on the quarterly return. While Forms 1000 need not be listed on the return, the number of such forms submitted and the total amount of interest paid and of the tax withheld on such of the forms as report interest from which the tax is to be withheld should be entered in the spaces provided.

2. By inserting in the fourth sentence of the second paragraph immediately after the word "monthly" the following: "(quarterly, for the calendar year 1943 and subsequent calendar years)".

PAR. 4. Section 19.143-9 is amended by adding after "14" the following: "(and, for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1942, the victory tax imposed by section 450)".

PAR. 5. Section 19.147-4, as amended by Treasury Decision 5103, is further amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:

(As to the requirements of filing ownership certificates for bond interest generally in the case of a nonresident alien, a nonresident partnership composed in whole or in part of nonresident aliens, a nonresident foreign corporation or where the owner is unknown, and with respect only to interest on obligations containing a tax-free covenant and issued prior to January 1, 1934, in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States, a resident partnership and nonresident partnership all of the members of which are citizens or residents of the United States, see § 19.143-4.)

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1595]

PART 321—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 1

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of Carrolltown Coal Company, a corporation, for approval of its agreement with Frank B. Wood, an individual trading and doing business as F. B. Wood Coal Mining Company to purchase the entire production of the Foxburg No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 1685, and other coal; for a change in shipping point, and for permission to mix coals of Mine Index Nos. 582 and 1685.

An original petition having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting the approval of an agreement attached thereto and requesting temporary and permanent relief to load and mix the coals produced by Mine Index No. 582 with the coals of Mine Index No. 1685; and

It appearing that Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, the district in which the code members involved herein are located, has intervened in the above-entitled matter and requested that a temporary order be entered approving the agreement above referred to and that the reference to the

Foxburg No. 1 Mine, in the original petition filed herein be corrected to read "Mine Index No. 1685," which is the correct designation thereof, which correction has been made in the supplement hereinafter referred to; and

It further appearing that the proposed agreement attached to the original petition does not comply with the Marketing Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Division; it appearing, however, that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for granting temporary relief in the manner and to the extent hereinafter set forth; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is therefore ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief be, and the same hereby is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof, and commencing forthwith the Freight Origin Group numbers and shipping points appearing in the aforesaid Supplement R for the mines mentioned therein are effective in lieu of the Freight Origin Group numbers and shipping points heretofore established for these mines and the mixing of the coals of Mine Index No. 582 with the coals of Mine Index No. 1685 is hereby approved.

It is further ordered, That the relief requested in said petition shall be, and the same hereby is granted in the manner and to the extent indicated herein, and that, in all other respects, said request for relief shall be, and the same hereby is, denied.

It is further ordered, That nothing in this order shall be construed as approval of the contract attached to the original petition inasmuch as the said contract does not comply with the Marketing Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Division.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petitions in the above-entitled matters, and applications to stay, terminate, or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure Before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless otherwise ordered.

Dated: December 15, 1942.

PART 321—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 1

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 1 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for rail and truck shipments and for change in shipping point for the coals of a certain mine in District No. 1.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 1 and for a change in shipping point for the coals of the Rockhill No. 10 mine, Mine Index No. 612 of the Rockhill Coal Company; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 321.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 321.24 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof; and commencing forthwith the shipping point and Freight Origin Group number appearing in the aforesaid Supplement R for the said Rockhill No. 10 mine are effective in place of the shipping point and Freight Origin Group number heretofore established for this mine.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to Section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

PART 322—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 2

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order of consolidation and order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petitions of District No. 2 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 2.

Original petitions having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 2; and

It appearing that the above-entitled petitions raise similar and related issues and that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That the above-entitled petitions be, and the same hereby are, consolidated.

It is further ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief be, and the same hereby is, granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 322.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-I, § 322.9 (Special prices—(c) Railroad fuel) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R-II, and § 322.23 (General prices) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petitions in the above-entitled matter, and applications to stay, terminate, or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless otherwise ordered.

Dated: December 15, 1942.

PART 322—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 2

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 2 for establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for coals produced at the Mammoth (D) Mine, Mine Index No. 2266 of the Mammoth Coal & Coke Company.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Mammoth (D) Mine, Mine Index No. 2266 of the Mammoth Coal & Coke Company, located in District No. 2; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 322.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–I, and § 322.9 (Special prices—(c) Railroad fuel) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–II, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: December 12, 1942.

PART 807—DENIAL OF LICENSING PRIVILEGES[1]

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 807.6 Written answer is hereby amended by changing the title thereof and amending the same to read as follows:

§ 807.6 Answer, etc. (a) The respondent may answer the charges made against him in writing by submitting the same, in duplicate, to the Office of Exports, Board of Economic Warfare, Washington, D. C., within the time limited by the notification to respondent.

(b) The respondent shall be permitted to answer the charges made against him orally if he indicates his desire to do so by letter, in duplicate, submitted to the Office of Exports, Board of Economic Warfare, Washington, D. C., within the period limited by the notification to respondent.

2. Section 807.7 Oral answer is hereby amended by changing the title thereof and amending the same to read as follows:

§ 807.7 Hearing. (a) At the time and place specified in the notification to respondent the evidence material to the inquiry shall be taken by a reporter before the Compliance Commissioner. The respondent may be represented by counsel. The respondent shall be informed that he is under no obligation to answer questions.

The evidence shall be transcribed by the reporter, filed with the Compliance Commissioner and the respondent shall be given an opportunity to examine the transcript.

The respondent may prepare and file with the Compliance Commissioner a bill of exceptions to such transcript which shall thereafter accompany the transcript. Such bill of exceptions shall be filed within such time as the Compliance Commissioner shall fix at the conclusion of the hearing.

3. Section 807.8 Consolidation is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 807.8 Consolidation. The opportunity to answer charges may, at the discretion of the Compliance Commissioner, be consolidated with any similar opportunity afforded the respondent by any other government agency with respect to charges upon the same or a related subject matter.

4. Section 807.9 Reports and communications by Compliance Commissioner is hereby amended to read as follows:

Compliance Commissioner shall consider the record, including any bill of exceptions filed by the respondent, and shall prepare a written report which shall consist of his findings of fact, including a finding whether or not a violation has occurred, and his recommendations. If the Commissioner finds that a violation has been committed his recommendation for action shall be advisory only. The report, transcript, and bill of exceptions, if any, shall be transmitted to the Chief of Office, Office of Exports.

5. Section 807.10 Disposition is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 807.10 Disposition. The Chief of Office, Office of Exports, shall review the record, consider the recommendations of the Compliance Commissioner, and determine the disposition of the case. In any case where the Commissioner has found that a violation has been committed, the Chief of Office, Office of Exports, may issue an order denying the respondent's privilege to obtain export licenses for such periods of time and on such terms and conditions as he may prescribe and take any other appropriate action. In any case where the Commissioner has found that no violation has been committed, the Chief of Office, Office of Exports, shall enter an order dismissing the charges. In all cases the respondent shall be notified promptly of the action taken. An order denying the privilege to obtain export licenses shall contain a notification to the respondent of his right to appeal.

APPEALS FROM REJECTIONS OF APPLICATIONS, ETC.

Section 804.9 Appeals from rejections of applications[1] is hereby amended by changing the title thereof and amending the same to read as follows:

§ 804.9 Appeals from rejections of applications for export licenses, extensions thereof, and revocations. (a) Any person whose application for export license or application for extension of export license has been rejected and any person whose export license has been revoked may appeal from such rejection or revocation subject to the provisions of this section.

(b) Appeals shall be filed with the Office of Exports, Board of Economic Warfare, Washington, D. C.

(c) An appeal shall be filed within 60 days from the date of the rejection of the application for export license or extension thereof or the date of revocation of an export license.

(d) The rejected application for export license, the rejected application for the extension of export license, or the revoked export license, as the case may be, shall be forwarded to the Office of Exports as a part of an appeal. Photostatic or certified copies of any papers may be furnished in lieu of the originals.

(e) The case number on appeal shall be the same as that originally assigned to the matter, if one has been assigned.

(f) An acknowledgment card in the form prescribed by the Office of Exports shall accompany the appeal.

(g) Only one appeal may be taken from a rejection or revocation.

(h) An "Appeal Letter" shall be submitted setting forth the reasons why the appellant believes his application or the revocation of his license should be reconsidered. This letter must contain, or have attached thereto, any additional information or documents not previously submitted which the appellant feels are pertinent to his appeal.

(i) In the case of rejection of part of an application or the revocation of a license in part, the appellant may appeal only as to the items rejected or revoked.

Paragraph (c) of § 809.8 Appeals for higher ratings[2] is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) Only one appeal for any particular shipment may be taken. This amendment shall become effective January 1, 1943.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-191]

NATIONAL WHOLESALE ELECTRIC CO.

National Wholesale Electric Company, Los Angeles, California, a partnership composed of B. R. Vancott and Beulah Vancott, is engaged in the business of distributing electrical supplies, and is a warehouse as defined in General Preference Order M-9-a. From February 9 to September 21, 1942, the Company sold and delivered substantial quantities of copper wire and other wire or brass mill products to fill orders bearing no preference ratings. From May 9 to September 14, 1942, the Company sold and delivered substantial quantities of copper wire and other wire or brass mill products to fill orders bearing preference ratings lower than A-1-k. During this time the Company was familiar with the restrictions contained in General Preference Order M-9-a as amended February 6, 1942, and May 7, 1942, and the foregoing deliveries constituted wilful violations of that order.

From January 19 to June 17, 1942, the Company applied preference ratings of A-10 under Preference Rating Order P-100 to purchase orders for various materials, certifying that such materials were for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies. These materials were not used or intended to be used by the Company for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies and the Company had not received rated orders from its customers to support its application of these ratings. Therefore, its use of the A-10 preference rating constituted wilful violations of Preference Rating Order P-100 and misrepresentations to the War Production Board.

These violations of General Preference Order M-9-a and Preference Rating Order P-100 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.191 Suspension Order S-191. (a) Deliveries of material to B. R. Vancott, and Beulah Vancott individually or doing business as National Wholesale Electric Company or otherwise, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries to B. R. Vancott and Beulah Vancott, individually or doing business as National Wholesale Electric Company or otherwise, by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to B. R. Vancott, and Beulah Vancott, individually or doing business as National Wholesale Electric Company or otherwise, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve B. R. Vancott, and Beulah Vancott, individually or doing business as National Wholesale Electric Company or otherwise, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on January 2, 1943, and shall expire on April 2, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 28th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Regulation 1 as Amended Dec. 29, 1942]

Part 944, Priorities Regulation No. 1, is hereby amended in the following respect:

Section 944.11 is amended to read as follows:

§ 944.11 Use of material obtained under allocation or preference rating. Any person who obtains a delivery of any material with priorities assistance or pursuant to an order of the Director General for Operations must use such material, or an equivalent amount thereof, for the purpose for which it was obtained. If it cannot be used for such purpose, either because of the revocation of an applicable preference rating or for any other reason, such person shall use or dispose of the material, or any item into which it has been incorporated, only as follows:

(1) To fill, in accordance with this regulation, rated contracts or purchase orders placed with him and bearing a rating of AA-5 or higher, or a rating at least as high as that upon which the material was obtained if it was obtained with a rating lower than AA-5, provided such use is permissible under Priorities Regulation No. 13 and any other regulations or orders controlling the production or distribution of the particular material or item; or

(2) For his own needs, if he has been duly authorized to obtain material for such use by applying or extending a preference rating of AA-5 or higher, and such use is permissible under applicable regulations and orders; or

(3) By redelivering the material to the person who originally delivered it to him.

If and to the extent that such person is not able to use or dispose of such materials or items as permitted above, he may file with the regional office of the War Production Board for the region in which the materials or items are located a report describing the same, so that they can be redistributed.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 29th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

PART 962—IRON AND STEEL

[General Preference Order M-21 as Amended Dec. 29, 1942]

Whereas the national defense requirements have created a shortage of steel, as hereinafter defined, for defense, for private account, and for export and it is necessary, in the public interest and to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution thereof;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 962.1 General Preference Order M-21—(a) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision thereof may be inconsistent herewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Steel" means all carbon and alloy steel castings, ingots, blooms, slabs, billets, forgings, and all other semifinished and finished rolled or drawn carbon and alloy steels.

(2) "Iron products" means iron castings, gray and malleable (including all items of ferrous foundry manufacture not classified as steel), wrought iron products, and cast iron pipe.

(3) "Producer" means any person who produces steel or iron products.

(c) Purchasers' statements. (1) The filing of form PD-73 is not required with orders for steel for delivery on or after June 1, 1942, or with orders for iron products. On orders for steel for delivery on or before May 31, 1942, form PD-73 shall be filed as heretofore.

(2) Except as permitted by this paragraph (c), on and after June 1, 1942, no producer shall accept an order for steel or iron products from or deliver steel or iron products to any person unless such person has endorsed on his purchase order a statement in the following form, signed by an official duly authorized for such purpose, specifying the name of the appropriate group classification as described in Schedule A hereto, and no purchase order shall include material for more than a single group classification:

The undersigned certifies to the producer and to the War Production Board that the material ordered herein is to fill orders in group classification ________________.

Name of Purchaser

Authorized Official

Title

(3) Except for orders in group classifications, lend-lease, other export, and warehouse, on orders placed on or before May 31, 1942, with deliveries to be made after that date, a purchaser's statement in the above form must be filed with the producer on or before May 31, 1942, together with a description of the purchase orders to which each such statement applies.

(4) On export sales (except lend-lease sales and sales to purchasers in the Dominion of Canada) the purchaser's statement may be furnished by the accredited agent of the purchaser or by the export division of the producer.

(5) On shipments by a producer direct to the customer of a warehouse the purchaser's statement shall be furnished to the producer by the customer and not by the warehouse.

(d) Producers' reports. Each producer shall file with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Reference: M-21, reports at such times and on such forms as may from time to time be prescribed.

(e) Restriction on deliveries. No person shall deliver steel or iron products except:

(1) Any person may make delivery on orders bearing a preference rating of A-10 or higher.

(2) Warehouses and dealers may make delivery to the extent permitted by the provisions of Supplementary Order M-21-b, as from time to time amended.

(3) Any person may make delivery as permitted by the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 13, as from time to time amended.

(4) Any person may make delivery of fireplace dampers or of fireplace grates, not exceeding 30 pounds per grate, on unrated orders.

(5) Any person may make a delivery specifically authorized or directed by the Director General for Operations.

(f) Specific directions. The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue specific directions to any person or persons as to the type, description, amount, source, or destination of steel or iron products to be produced, delivered, or acquired by such person or persons.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 29th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

SCHEDULE A—GROUP CLASSIFICATIONS

Army. Orders for steel and iron products to be delivered, or physically incorporated into material to be delivered, to the War Department (including the Panama Canal), including construction and maintenance of plants owned by the War Department.

Navy. Orders for steel and iron products to be delivered, or physically incorporated into material to be delivered, to the Navy Department (including the Marine Corps and Coast Guard), including construction and maintenance of plants owned by the Navy Department.

Maritime. Orders for steel and iron products to be delivered, or physically incorporated into material to be delivered, to the Maritime Commission, or to commercial shipyards (CSY) for ship repair under the supervision of the Coordinator for Ship Repair and Conversion, including construction and maintenance of plants owned by the Maritime Commission.

Defense Projects. Orders for steel and iron products for construction and maintenance of defense plants or projects under preference ratings, including, but not limited to, ratings assigned by preference rating orders in the P-19 series, and not included in other classifications.

Lend-Lease. Orders for steel and iron products for export on lend-lease contracts placed by any U. S. government agency, identified by the symbol "DA" on the order form.

Other Export. Orders for steel and iron products for export (except to U. S. possessions and off-shore bases), not included in the Lend-Lease classification.

Railroad. Orders for steel and iron products to be delivered, or physically incorporated into material to be delivered, to U. S. railroads.

Warehouse. Orders for steel and iron products for warehouses for resale (except CSY orders).

All Other. Other orders for steel and iron products which cannot be identified under any of the preceding classifications.

INTERPRETATION 1

The terms "steel" and "iron products" as defined in General Preference Order M-21, as amended (§ 962.1), do not include salvaged or used materials. (Issued September 2, 1942.)

[F. R. Doc. 42-14082; Filed, December 29, 1942; 11:28 a. m.]

PART 997—PRODUCTION AND DELIVERY OF MACHINE TOOLS

[General Preference Order E-1-b as Amended Dec. 29, 1942]

§ 997.2 General Preference Order E-1-b—(a) Definitions. (1) "Machine tools" include the products listed in schedule hereto attached and marked Exhibit A[1] and divided into two groups designated Group I and Group II for the purpose of this order as hereinafter specified. The term "tool" means a machine tool. Each machine tool includes not only the basic machine but also all fixtures, equipment and tooling covered by the original purchase order which are required to be delivered with the tool to make it usable in production for the purposes intended, but does not include any replacements, or spare parts or equipment, or extra tooling, ordered by the purchaser.

(2) "Producer" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other form of enterprise engaged in producing any products listed in Exhibit A.

(3) "Service purchasers" means those whose preference rating certificates, or whose endorsed purchase orders, show that the preference rating applied to such delivery was assigned thereto by an original Preference Rating Certificate PD-3, PD-3A, or PD-4, or by Preference Rating Order P-19-h, calling for delivery to a supply arm or bureau of the Army or Navy, or to the United States Maritime Commission, or to one of their prime contractors, or to a subcontractor of such a prime contractor.

(4) "Foreign purchasers" means those whose purchase orders show that the tool is to be delivered to or for the account of a foreign country (other than Canada), or a subdivision, agency, or instrumentality thereof: Provided, That such purchase orders have been placed by the Ordnance Department (Army) or by the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, with or without a preference rating certificate; or, in the case of purchase orders placed prior to May 1, 1942 by a purchasing or procurement agent of a foreign country, where such purchase orders have been scheduled pursuant to a preference rating certificate, a Special Allocation Order No. 1, or General Preference Order No. E-3.

(5) "Other purchasers" means all purchasers other than service purchasers and foreign purchasers, to whose purchase orders a preference rating has been assigned, including Canadian.

(6) "Class" when used herein means one of the foregoing three classes of purchasers: namely, service purchasers, foreign purchasers, or other purchasers.

(7) "Size" as used herein may include all of those dimensions or variations of a particular type of tool which can be used interchangeably for production purposes.

(b) Revocation of previous order. General Preference Order No. E-1-a Revised, including the Numerical Master Preference List, Revision No. 1, is revoked as of May 1, 1942 as to machine tools, and shall thereafter be of no further force or effect with respect to machine tools except as present schedules and urgency standings are continued by paragraph (c) of this order. Makers of gages and chucks will continue to schedule their production according to General Preference Order No. E–1–a, Revised, until further order of the Director General for Operations.

[1] Not filed as part of the original document.

(c) Production and delivery of machine tools during November 1942 and until further notice. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, each producer shall schedule 75 percent of his production and delivery of each size of each type of machine tool during the balance of the calendar month of November 1942 and each month thereafter as follows, until further notice:

(1) Each producer forthwith shall divide into two types all purchase orders placed by each of the seven groups of Service purchasers (Bureau of Ships, Bureau of Ordnance, Ordnance Department, Air Services, Miscellaneous Bureaus and Branches, Maritime Commission, and Signal Corps) which specify as the required delivery date the month being scheduled or a previous month, such types being designated as Type 1 orders and Type 2 orders. The "required delivery date" is the date specified on the endorsement accompanying the purchase order, as changed by any subsequent instruction given on Form WPB–27, Form WPB–1588, or otherwise, by the War Production Board, or by any postponement thereof by the purchaser.

Type 1 orders shall include the following:

(i) Any purchase order for delivery to any Service Purchaser in the "Air Services" group (called "Air Forces" in Exhibits A and B to General Preference Order E–1–b). "Air Services" includes the Army Air Forces, the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics, their respective prime contractors and subcontractors, and the U. S. Corps of Engineers with respect to purchases made for the account of the Army Air Forces; and in addition thereto,

(ii) Any purchase order for delivery to any prime contractor listed on the preferred customers list (Exhibit C attached to this order) or any subcontractor of such a prime contractor. No purchase order from a prime contractor on the preferred customers list, or from his subcontractors, shall be classed as a Type 1 order, however, unless the endorsement required by paragraph (h) of this order to be placed by such purchaser on his purchase order, or the preference rating certificate itself if transferred to the producer, shows that the machine tool ordered is for use on the prime contract specified opposite the prime contractor's name on such Preferred Customers List.

Type 2 orders shall include all other purchase orders placed by Service purchasers which do not fall in Type 1 orders.

(2) The producer shall total all Type [illegible] orders from Service purchasers for the size and type of tool being scheduled, which specify as the required delivery date the month being scheduled or a previous month. Where 75 percent of the production of the size and type of tool being scheduled for delivery in any month is greater than the total Type 1 orders received from all Service purchaser groups specifying that month or a previous month as the required delivery date, all such Type 1 orders shall be scheduled for delivery in that month regardless of the effect on any Type 2 orders. The residue of such 75 percent shall be scheduled for delivery against Type 2 orders from the remaining Service purchaser groups in accordance with the percentage quotas established by Exhibit A to this order, the "Air Services" quota becoming an unabsorbed quota distributable in accordance with paragraph (e) (5) of this order.

(3) Where 75 percent of the production of the size and type of tool being scheduled for delivery in any month is less than the total Type 1 orders received from all Service purchaser groups specifying that month or a previous month as the required delivery date, no Type 2 orders shall be scheduled for delivery in that month. Where the Type 1 orders in such case are from more than one Service purchaser group, the distribution of such 75 percent of production between the Type 1 orders from such groups shall be determined as follows: The percentage which 75 percent of the production for that month constitutes of the total Type 1 orders from all such Service purchaser groups shall be determined. Such percentage shall then be applied to the number of such Type 1 orders from each Service purchaser group involved, and the resultant number of Type 1 orders shall accordingly be scheduled for delivery to such group. The particular Type 1 orders to be scheduled for each such Service purchaser group and the sequence of their delivery shall be determined by the Numerical Master Preference List, as amended by Revision No. 4 and corrections and additions thereto, the operation of which is set forth in paragraph (i) of this order.

(4) 25 percent of each producer's production for each month of each size of each type of tool shall continue to be scheduled for delivery to foreign purchasers and other purchasers in accordance with the other provisions of this order.

(5) Immediately upon scheduling machines for delivery in accordance with paragraphs (c) (2), (c) (3), and (c) (4) of this order, each producer shall notify all purchasers of the new scheduled delivery dates which fall within the period ending February 28, 1943.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph (c), the War Production Board from time to time may issue specific scheduling instructions to any producer.

(7) The four months rule established by paragraphs (d) (4) and (e) (5) of this order, and the thirty and sixty day "frozen" periods established by paragraph (l) of this order, shall not be applied to Type 1 orders. All Type 1 orders on hand on November 5, 1942 or received in the future shall immediately be scheduled for delivery on their required delivery dates or as soon thereafter as possible without retarding production. All Type 2 orders remain subject to the terms of this General Preference Order E–1–b except as the delivery dates on such orders may be extended by the rescheduling of Type 1 orders in accordance with this paragraph (c).

(8) All other provisions of this General Preference Order E–1–b not modified by this paragraph (c) shall remain in full force and effect.

(d) Allocation of production to service purchasers and to foreign and other purchasers. (1) Except as provided in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, each producer shall schedule his production for each calendar month so as to deliver 75 per cent of his production of each size of each type of tool which he produces in that month to service purchasers.

(2) Except as provided in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, each producer shall schedule his production for each month so as to deliver 25 per cent of his production of each size of each type of tool in the aggregate to foreign purchasers and other purchasers.

(3) A producer may schedule for delivery to service purchasers more than 75 per cent of his production of any size of a type of tool in a given month, to the extent that he has failed to receive purchase orders for foreign purchasers and rated purchase orders from other purchasers for tools of such size and type prior to the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery.

(4) A producer may likewise schedule for delivery to foreign purchasers and other purchasers more than 25 per cent of such production of any size of a type of tool in a given month, to the extent that he has failed to receive rated purchase orders from service purchasers for tools of such size and type, prior to the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery.

(5) In preparing his schedules as aforesaid, a producer shall fix the dates of his deliveries of tools to service purchasers, to foreign purchasers and to other purchasers within a given month so that each class will receive its percentage of tools equitably in point of time within the month.

(e) Distribution of 75 per cent of production among Service purchasers. (1) Service purchasers are hereby subdivided into seven groups consisting of the following, and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors: Bureau of Ships (Navy), Bureau of Ordnance (Navy), Ordnance Department (Army), Air Services, Miscellaneous Branches and Bureaus, the Maritime Commission, and the Signal Corps. The fourth group, designated "Air Services," includes the Army Air Forces and the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors. The fifth group, designated "Miscellaneous Branches and Bureaus," includes the Quartermaster Corps, the Corps of Engineers, the Army Medical Department, the Chemical Warfare Service, the Bureau of Yards and Docks, the Marine Corps, and the Transportation Service of the Services of Supply, together with any other corps, department, bureau or service of the Army and Navy not heretofore specifically designated as a separate group, and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors.

(2) Exhibit A specifies a percentage of each type of tool which is to be delivered each month to each different group of service purchasers. The aggregate of such percentages is 75 per cent.

(3) The stated percentage for each group where applied to a producer's production of each size of a given type of tool in a specified month, establishes the "quota" for that group of that size and type during that month.

(4) During each calendar month, each producer shall deliver to each group of service purchasers the number of tools of each size of a given type which equals the quota of the group for that size and type.

(5) If a producer does not have on hand on the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery, rated purchase orders from the Bureau of Ships (Navy) group equal to that group's quota of a size of a given type of tool for that month, the producer shall schedule purchase orders received from the Bureau of Ordnance (Navy) group for the balance of the Bureau of Ships (Navy) group quota of that size and type for delivery during that month. Similarly, if the producer does not have orders on hand from the Bureau of Ordnance (Navy) group equal to its quota, he shall schedule purchase orders received from the Bureau of Ships (Navy) group for the balance of the Bureau of Ordnance (Navy) group's quota.

If a producer does not have on hand on the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery, rated purchase orders from the Bureau of Ships group plus the Bureau of Ordnance group equal to their combined quotas of a size of a given type of tool for that month, or if he does not have on hand on such date rated purchase orders from any other single group of service purchasers equal to that group's quota of a size of a given type of tool for that month, the producer shall schedule purchase orders received from members of other groups of service purchasers for that size and type for delivery during that month. Where members of two or more other groups have placed purchase orders aggregating more than such unordered balance of the combined quotas of the Bureau of Ships and Bureau of Ordnance, or of any other single group's quota, the producer must first schedule the purchase orders of those purchasers who are members of the group having the greatest ratio of:

(i) Unfilled purchase orders, specifying required delivery dates in said month of delivery and in preceding months, but not scheduled for delivery in said months to;

(ii) The number of tools to which said group is entitled under its quota, until that ratio has been reduced to or below the ratio of another group or groups, after which the producer shall schedule the purchase orders of members of the group or groups which then have the greatest ratio, and shall continue to schedule in this manner until the unordered balance has been entirely distributed. Where several groups have the same ratio, and there are not sufficient undistributed tools to schedule one for each group, preference shall be given to the groups having the lower percentage quotas.

(6) Likewise, if a producer does not have on hand on the first day of the fourth month preceding the month of delivery, rated purchase orders from foreign and other purchasers equal to 25 percent of his production of a size of a given type of tool for that month, the producer shall schedule purchase orders received from service purchasers for that type and size for delivery during that month, in the manner provided in paragraph (e) (5) hereof.

(7) A purchase order which has been scheduled as provided in subparagraphs (5) and (6) hereof shall represent an addition to the quota of the group of which the service purchaser in question is a member, and such purchase order shall not thereafter be affected by the receipt of a purchase order from a member of any other group, irrespective of the urgency standing of the latter.

(8) In preparing his schedules of deliveries for a given month for service purchasers, a producer shall fix the dates of his deliveries to the different groups so that each group will receive its percentage of tools equitably in point of time within the month.

(f) Distribution of 25 per cent of machine tools among foreign and other purchasers. Foreign purchasers and other purchasers shall be treated as one group, and each producer shall schedule his orders for each size of each type for delivery each month, within their aggregate 25 per cent of production for that month, in accordance with the sequence of deliveries determined as hereinafter specified in paragraph (i): Provided, however, That if the purchase orders from foreign purchasers and other purchasers with any producer with required delivery dates in any one month, aggregate more than 25 per cent of his production for any size of a given type during such month, such producer shall immediately file with the War Production Board a report stating the size and type of tool, showing all such purchase orders and designating for each order the required delivery date, the name of the purchaser, or the foreign country in the case of foreign purchasers, the purpose for which the tool is to be used in the case of other purchasers and the required delivery dates. The Director General for Operations, or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him, will thereupon examine such report and issue directions as to which purchase orders shall be eliminated in order to bring the aggregate within the 25 per cent allocation, or such other directions as he may deem necessary.

(g) Treatment of fractions. Where the number of tools which results from the use of a percentage to be applied under this order contains a fraction of more than one-half, the fraction shall be counted as a whole tool. A fraction under one-half shall be disregarded, except that where the computation results in a fraction only (less than one whole tool) for any one month, and such fraction is less than one-half it shall be counted in computing the next month's quota. Where each of the computations of two or more different quotas for the same month shows a fraction of one-half, and there is only one remaining tool to which such fractions can apply, such tool shall be allotted to the group having the highest percentage quota, and the other fractions of one-half shall be disregarded for that month, but shall be counted in computing the other quota or quotas for the next month.

(h) Necessity for preference ratings. (1) Except in the case of purchase orders of foreign purchasers, no purchase order for any machine tool shall be given priority standing in production schedules, and no machine tool shall be sold or delivered, unless a preference rating of A–10 or higher has been assigned thereto by a Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A, by a Preference Rating Certificate PD–3A, by a Preference Rating Certificate in the PD–408 series, or by a Preference Rating Order No. P–19–h.

In placing the endorsement required by Priorities Regulation No. 3 on the purchase order there must also be included therein or set forth in a separate endorsement on the purchase order:

(i) The urgency standing of the purchaser, if any;

(ii) The required delivery date of the tool;

(iii) A statement as to whether the purchaser is a "Service purchaser," a "foreign purchaser," or an "other purchaser," and

(iv) In the case of Service purchasers, the Supply Arm or Bureau of the Army or Navy, or the Maritime Commission, which placed the prime contract, the number of the prime contract, and the name of the prime contractor;

(v) In the case of foreign purchasers, the foreign country for which the tool is purchased; and

(vi) In the case of other purchasers, a statement as to the product or production program for which the tool is to be used.

In addition to making the endorsement upon his purchase order as required, any person placing such an order after December 25, 1942 shall furnish to the producer a photostatic copy (or another copy accompanied by his sworn statement that it is a true copy) of the Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A, PD–3A, PD–408, or Preference Rating Order P–19–h. Reproduction of any of the foregoing preference rating certificates or orders for the foregoing purposes is hereby permitted.

(i) Operation of Numerical Master Preference List, and preference ratings. (1) All purchase orders of foreign purchasers are hereby assigned a rating of A–1–a for the purposes of this General Preference Order E–1–b. The Numerical Master Preference List. (Exhibit B)[1] attached to this order, herein called "the list" shall determine the sequence of deliveries as between service purchasers as hereinafter set forth, but shall have no effect upon foreign purchasers or other purchasers.

[1] Not filed as part of the original document.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this order, as amended, the sequence of deliveries of machine tools among each group of service purchasers within its respective percentage quota shall be determined without regard to preference ratings as follows:

(i) Deliveries to service purchasers who are either on the list or are subcontractors of persons on the list shall be preferred to and shall take precedence over deliveries to service purchasers who are not on the list.

(ii) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates to be made to two or more service purchasers, both on the list, deliveries shall be made according to their respective urgency standings specified on such list. The highest urgency standing in each group is No. 1.

(iii) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates to be made to two or more service purchasers, neither of whom is on the list, the sequence of deliveries shall be determined by the respective dates on which the producer receives the photostatic or certified copy of the preference rating certificate. The delivery for which such photostatic or certified copy was first received takes precedence except that orders received prior to December 25, 1942 shall not be rescheduled according to such rule but shall be delivered in the sequence theretofore scheduled.

(iv) A delivery to a subcontractor who is not specifically named on the list shall take the urgency standing of his prime contractor; the urgency standing of the prime contractor must be endorsed in writing on the subcontractor's preference rating certificate by an officer designated for such purpose by the supply arm or bureau concerned.

(3) The sequence of deliveries of machine tools among foreign and other purchasers within the portion of production allocated to such purchasers shall be determined as follows:

(i) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates and which bear different preference ratings, delivery shall be made according to the preference ratings of the respective purchasers.

(ii) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates and which bear the same preference rating, the sequence of deliveries shall be determined by the respective dates on which the producer received the photostatic or certified copy of the preference rating certificate. The delivery for which the preference rating certificate was first received, takes precedence except that orders received prior to December 25, 1942 shall not be rescheduled according to such rule but shall be delivered in the sequence theretofore scheduled.

(j) Additions to list. Additions to, withdrawals from, and other changes may be made in the Numerical Master Preference List from time to time by the Director General for Operations or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him. Where it is desired to assign an urgency standing between existing urgency standings, the new urgency standing will consist of a number including a decimal. Such an urgency standing will take a position in the sequence of deliveries as indicated by the following example: Urgency Standing 792.1 will be scheduled after 792 and before 793.

(k) Revision of scheduled deliveries. (1) On or before June 1, 1942, with respect to machine tools designated as Group I on Exhibit A and on or before July 1, 1942, with respect to machine tools designated as Group II on Exhibit A, each producer shall revise his schedule of deliveries for each type of tool to conform to the percentage allocations and quotas of the various classes and groups of purchasers and in accordance with the sequences determined by urgency standings and preference ratings, to the extent that he can do so without seriously delaying his production line, and without postponing the date of completion of any particular tool which was 50 per cent or more completed on May 1, 1942, beyond the earliest date when such tool can be 100 per cent completed.

(2) After the date specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the producer shall make deliveries of tools in accordance with his revised schedules.

(l) Postponement of new purchase orders. Unless the Director General for Operations specifically orders otherwise, and notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, no higher preference rating or urgency standing shall operate to postpone or in any way affect any delivery under a purchase order already scheduled where such delivery, in the case of tools designated as Group I on Exhibit A is to be made within 30 days of receipt of such higher preference rating or urgency standing, or in the case of tools designated as Group II on Exhibit A, is to be made within 60 days of receipt of such higher preference rating or urgency standing.

(m) Specific modifications of schedules. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, the Director General for Operations, or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him, may allocate to another purchaser, or otherwise divert, any machine tool scheduled for production and delivery pursuant to this order. Except as expressly provided in this order, no one other than the Director General for Operations or his duly authorized representative, may give directions respecting sequences of deliveries. No interpretations, instructions, or directions respecting any of the provisions of this order shall be issued without the approval of the Director General for Operations or such other official as may be specifically authorized by him; and no producer shall accept or give effect to any interpretation, instruction, or direction, which is not issued in accordance with the foregoing provisions.

(n) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(o) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order, and all transactions affected thereby, are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(p) Reports and other communications. All reports which may be required to be filed, and all other communications concerning this order, should be addressed to: War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: E–1–b.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 29th day of December 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

INTERPRETATION 1

The term "purchase order," as used in General Preference Order E–1–b, means a firm order for a machine tool which is accompanied either by specifications or by other description of the tool in sufficient detail to enable the producer to place the tool in his production schedules. (Issued May 15, 1942)

INTERPRETATION 4

An urgency standing should not be used in connection with a Preference Rating Certificate PD–1A. General Preference Order E–1–b defines as service purchasers those whose preference rating certificates or whose endorsed purchase orders show that the preference rating was assigned by an original Preference Rating Certificate PD–3, PD–3A, or PD–4, or by Preference Rating Order P–19–h. Hence, the holder of a PD–1A Certificate cannot be a service purchaser as he is excluded from the definition.

Urgency standings govern the sequence of deliveries of machine tools as between service purchasers of the same group within their respective percentage quotas. If a person seeking to procure a machine tool is not a service purchaser he cannot be a member of one of the service purchasers groups, and the urgency standing therefore has no effect upon the delivery of the tool to him. The tool must come out of the 25 percent quota assigned to foreign and other purchasers, and the sequence of its delivery will be determined solely by its required delivery date and its preference rating, in the absence of a specific direction of the Director General for Operations. (Issued August 10, 1942)

PART 3118—CONSUMERS' GOODS INVENTORIES

[Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L–219]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of consumers' goods for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order, limiting consumers' goods receipts and providing for inventory reports, is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3118.1 Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L–219—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Consumers' goods" means goods suitable in form and type for sale to individual ultimate consumers for personal or household use, including but not limited to goods on List B, attached to Order L–219. Consumers' goods do not include producers' goods such as farm implements, goods used in rendering personal services such as shoe repairing, or goods sold for consumption on the vendor's premises such as fountain and restaurant fare. Consumers' goods shall not include any food or beverage for human or animal consumption, or any fuel oil, gasoline, motor oil, grease, or allied petroleum products.

(2) "Mercantile inventory" means the stock of consumers' goods held for sale by a person engaged in marketing such goods, including goods he has purchased for resale, goods he has manufactured for sale, stock consigned to him for sale, and stocks held by him on memorandum for sale.

(i) Mercantile inventories shall not include factory inventories. A "factory inventory" is an inventory of consumers' goods which are stored by the manufacturer of such goods at, or in the immediate vicinity of the place where their manufacture was completed, and which are not being offered for sale to individual ultimate consumers.

(ii) Stocks on consignment or on memorandum for sale are to be included in the inventory of the person actually holding them for sale, and in such case are to be excluded from the inventory of the owner. Stocks on consignment or on memorandum to a person not holding them for sale are to be included in the inventory of the owner.

(iii) Goods in transit may be included in or excluded from inventory: Provided, That in all computations, records, reports, and other matters pursuant to this order, they are consistently treated by the merchant in accordance with his prior accounting or income tax return practice. Goods shall cease to be considered in transit not later than the day after they are delivered to a merchant on his premises, to his warehouse, or to a commercial warehouse for his account.

(iv) Goods are held for sale and are considered as part of "inventory" even though they are not currently offered for sale, but are stored in a warehouse or elsewhere, with a view to sale at some future time, e. g., seasonal goods during the off season and goods held for speculative purposes. Goods held on the "lay-away" plan pending payment of the purchase price may be included in or excluded from inventory: Provided, That in all computations, records, reports and other matters pursuant to this order, they are consistently treated by the merchant in accordance with his prior accounting or income tax practice.

(3) "Merchant" means any person engaged in retailing, wholesaling, jobbing or otherwise marketing consumers' goods, either of his own or another's manufacture, who maintains a mercantile inventory.

(4) "Controlled merchant" means any merchant, not in any of the exempt categories established by paragraph (b), who:

(i) On or after November 30, 1942, had a mercantile inventory of consumers' goods having a cost value of $50,000 or more at the end of any quarter of any of his federal income tax years, and also

(ii) During the twelve months preceding the end of the same quarter of his federal income tax year had net sales of consumers' goods of $200,000 or more.

Any merchant who is or becomes a "controlled merchant" within the foregoing definition shall cease to be a "controlled merchant" if at the end of each of any four consecutive quarters thereafter either his mercantile inventory has a cost value of less than $50,000 or he has failed during the preceding twelve months to make net sales of consumers' goods of $200,000 or more.

(5) "Net sales" means the amount of a merchant's gross sales of goods in dollars, including sales of goods shipped direct from a vendor to the merchant's customer, less all returns, allowances, rebates, discounts and other proper deductions. In the case of a merchant who is also engaged in manufacturing, his net sales shall not include any sales made, as a manufacturer, out of his factory inventory.

(6) "Cost value" or "cost" of goods received, sold, or in inventory means the value in dollars of such goods computed by any single method of valuation which meets the requirements of generally accepted accounting practice or which is consistently used by the merchant for valuation of inventory for balance sheet and profit and loss statement purposes. Goods held for sale on consignment and on memorandum are to be valued at not less than the amount which the person holding them for sale would be obligated to remit to the owner if all of them were sold. Incoming transportation costs and workroom charges shall also be included in the value of goods on consignment or on memorandum if they are included in the cost value of comparable purchased goods in the inventory of the person holding them for sale. Retail merchants who consistently employ what is known as the "retail method" of pricing inventories may reduce their inventories to cost by the method prescribed for federal income tax purposes.

(7) "Inventory year" of a merchant means the recurrent twelve calendar month period beginning either December 1, January 1, or February 1, of each year, whichever corresponds with the beginning date of a quarter of his federal income tax year. An inventory year is designated by the number of the calendar year in which most of its months fall. For example, whichever of the inventory years commencing December 1, 1942, January 1, 1943, and February 1, 1943, is selected by a merchant, is his 1943 inventory year within the meaning of this order. Each inventory year shall consist of four "quarterly periods" of three calendar months each, except that any merchant who keeps his books of account on the basis of an annual fiscal period divided into thirteen periods of four weeks each or divided into four thirteen-week quarters may adopt an inventory year of four thirteen-week "quarterly periods," each divided into one five-week and two four-week "months." Any merchant who keeps his accounts on the basis of either of these types of fiscal year may use a date other than December 1, January 1, or February 1, as the first day of his inventory year: Provided, That the date selected is as near as possible to the beginning date of a quarter of his federal income tax years.

(8) "Base period" means a period of three inventory years, commencing with the beginning date of the merchant's 1939 inventory year. Ordinarily, this date will be December 1, 1938, January 1, 1939, or February 1, 1939. Any controlled merchant who lacks records for part or all of the base period so computed shall use as his special base period all the complete consecutive quarterly periods between December 1, 1938, and February 1, 1942, for which he has records. If the number of such quarterly periods is less than four, additional periods shall be taken from his 1942 inventory year sufficient to complete a single year. His treatment of inventory and sales data for such special base period shall conform as strictly as possible to the treatment of inventory and sales data for the base period prescribed in Appendix A attached to Order L–219. If a going business has changed owners since the commencement of the period which, but for such change, would have been its base period, and if the current owner possesses or can obtain the necessary data concerning his predecessor's operations, he shall compute the normal inventory of such business as if he had been its owner throughout. A controlled merchant who is unable to establish a base period, including 1942, of at least four consecutive quarterly periods, shall apply to the Director General for Operations for instructions, stating his monthly sales and inventories.

(9) "Normal inventory" means a mercantile inventory at the beginning of a quarterly period with a cost value no larger in relation to a merchant's projected sales during that quarterly period than he would carry at the beginning of that quarterly period when following his normal base period merchandising practices. In no event shall the normal inventory figure used by a merchant in determining his inventory limit exceed a figure correctly computed from his past inventory and sales experience by the method described and illustrated in Appendix A attached to Order L–219, and employed on Forms PD–689 and PD–690.

(10) "Allowable receipts" during a quarterly period means the cost value of the consumers' goods which a merchant will need during any quarterly period to complete his anticipated sales during that quarterly period and to begin the next succeeding quarterly period with his normal inventory, less the cost value of the mercantile inventory which he has at the beginning of the quarterly period. Except for merchants who elect under paragraph (l) to use the "retail method," the allowable receipts calculated by a merchant shall not exceed the larger of the following:

(i) A figure correctly computed from the merchant's previous experience with respect to sales and cost of goods sold by the method described and illustrated in Appendices A and C attached to Order L–219, and employed on Form PD–690, or

(ii) A figure equal to one-third of the cost of goods sold during the preceding quarterly period.

(11) "Cost of goods sold" means the cost value of goods removed from mercantile inventory by sale, spoilage, shrinkage reserve, consignment to another person or other proper deduction in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice consistently used by the merchant, plus the cost value of goods shipped direct from a vendor to the merchant's customers.

(12) "Receipts of consumers' goods" means the cost value of consumers' goods acquired by a merchant by purchase, consignment, memorandum, or otherwise, in such a way and to such an extent that they became part of the merchant's mercantile inventory, plus the cost value of consumers' goods shipped direct from a vendor to the merchant's customers. Goods manufactured by a merchant are to be included in his receipts when they are transferred to his mercantile inventory.

(13) "Frozen goods" means those consumers' goods in the mercantile inventory of a controlled merchant which he is selling at a substantially less rapid rate than normal, due to governmental regulations which specifically restrict the sale of those consumers' goods, such as typewriters and automobile tires, to preferred classes of persons based upon special need.

(b) Exemption of certain types of business. The provisions of paragraph (d) and paragraph (e) of this order shall not apply to any merchant in any of the following exempt categories.

(1) Any merchant more than fifty per cent of whose aggregate net sales of all kinds of goods during his most recently completed inventory year were sales of goods listed on List A.

(2) Any merchant engaged in retailing, wholesaling, jobbing or otherwise marketing consumers' goods entirely outside the limits of the United States.

(3) Any governmental corporation or agency, including any United States Army or Marine Corps Post Exchange and any United States Navy Ship's Service Department.

(c) Calculation of inventory limit. (1) As used in paragraph (d) and paragraph (e), the "inventory limit" of a controlled merchant at the beginning of any quarterly period of his inventory year shall mean his normal inventory as of the beginning of that quarterly period plus the percentage of such normal inventory to which he is entitled as tolerance, computed by the method described and illustrated in Appendix B attached to Order L–219, and employed on Form PD–690. The percentage of tolerance with respect to mercantile inventories in the Eastern and Central Time Zones shall be 10% at the beginning of the second quarterly period of the 1943 inventory year, and 5% at the beginning of each quarterly period thereafter. The percentage of tolerance with respect to mercantile inventories in the Mountain and Pacific Time Zones shall be 15% at the beginning of the second quarterly period of the 1943 inventory year, and 10% at the beginning of each quarterly period thereafter.

(2) The Director General for Operations may issue specific instructions increasing or decreasing the percentage of tolerance of particular controlled merchants.

(d) Restrictions on receipts of consumers' goods. (1) No controlled merchant whose mercantile inventory is greater than his inventory limit at the beginning of any quarterly period, other than the first quarterly period of the 1943 inventory year, shall have receipts of consumers' goods during the quarterly period in excess of his allowable receipts for such quarterly period.

(2) No controlled merchant whose mercantile inventory is greater than his inventory limit at the beginning of any quarterly period, other than the first quarterly period of the 1943 inventory year, shall receive more than one-third of his allowable receipts for such quarterly period during the first month, or more than two-thirds during the first two months, of such quarterly period.

(3) The Director General for Operations may issue specific instructions increasing or decreasing the allowable receipts of particular controlled merchants.

(e) Special reports. Any controlled merchant having a mercantile inventory which is greater than his inventory limit at the beginning of any quarterly period, except the first quarterly period of his 1943 inventory year, shall fill out in duplicate, and mail to the War Production Board one copy of each of the following reports, retaining the other copy of each in his possession.

(1) Form PD–690, on or before the twenty-fifth day of the first month of such quarterly period, together with Form PD–689. (Form PD–689 is to be submitted once only, at the time of the first filing of Form PD–690.)

(2) Form PD–713, on or before the twenty-fifth day of the second month of such quarterly period.

(3) Form PD–713, on or before the twenty-fifth day of the third month of such quarterly period.

(4) Form PD–690, on or before the twenty-fifth day of the first month of the following quarterly period.

(f) Corporate combinations and similar enterprises—(1) Consolidated inventories and reports. Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (g) and (h), every person affected by this order shall, when computing the quantity of his sales, his mercantile inventories, his receipts, and other matters pursuant to this order, include the sales, mercantile inventories, receipts and other matters of all stores, branches, divisions and sections of his enterprise and of any other enterprise under common ownership or control with his enterprise. Moreover, the reports relating to such sales, inventories and other matters shall be consolidated and shall include the sales, inventories and other matters of all branches, divisions, or sections of all enterprises under common ownership or control without regard to corporate or other distinctions between such enterprises. Concessions and leased departments shall be treated as enterprises separate from the business of the merchant whose premises they occupy, unless under common ownership or control with such business.

(2) Intra-company and inter-company sales. In all computations and reports pursuant to this order, transactions within the enterprise of a single person or between stores, branches, divisions or sections of enterprises subject to common ownership or control shall not be counted as sales or as receipts of goods, even though designated on the books of such enterprise or enterprises as sales or receipts, with the following single exception: If one or more of the establishments under common ownership or control engages in manufacturing, then transfer of consumers' goods from factory inventory to mercantile inventory shall constitute a receipt of such goods.

(g) Separate accounting for company stores. (1) If any person, as an incident of his principal business, carries on a business enterprise consisting of one or more company stores, commissaries, industrial stores, or other similar type of business enterprise marketing consumer goods chiefly to the employees of such person and their families, then that person shall determine whether such incidental enterprise is a controlled merchant as defined in paragraph (a) (4) of this order and not exempt under paragraph (b) when separately considered.

(2) If such incidental enterprise is, in itself, a controlled merchant, then, even though the principal business of that person may consist of sales of goods on List A, such person shall keep the records, report the inventories, and restrict the receipts of goods of such incidental enterprise as a separate entity. Such person shall exclude the sales, inventories, and receipts of goods of such incidental enterprise from computations and other matters respecting his principal business.

(h) Separate accounting for ownership groups. If a controlled merchant consists of a number of establishments, each of which would be a controlled merchant if considered separately, which are substantially independent with respect to merchandising, buying, warehousing, selling, advertising, management, and accounting, and in the operation of which the controlled merchant does not practice centralized buying for, centralized storage for, or interchange of stocks among the constituent establishments, such controlled merchant may elect by written notice to the War Production Board, mailed before February 1, 1943, to keep the records report the inventories, and restrict the receipts of goods of each such constituent establishment as a separate entity.

(i) Segregation of consumers' goods from other goods. Any merchant who is engaged in marketing both consumers' goods and other goods may include such other goods with consumers' goods in calculating inventories, sales, receipts of goods, and all other matters under this order if such other goods are consistently included and if their exclusion would be impracticable. The exclusion of such goods from consumers' goods may be considered impracticable only when such exclusion would require the compilation of data respecting the base period which that merchant does not already have available and which could be compiled, if at all, only by re-examining his original records of sales, purchases and inventories during the base period.

(j) Consistency in accounting. In the valuation of inventories, in the computation of net sales and costs of goods sold, and in all other matters of accounting under this order, unless otherwise specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations, a merchant must use those accounting methods and figures which are in accordance with his books of account or his income tax returns, which meet the requirements of generally accepted accounting practice for the particular purpose, and which he has consistently employed since the beginning of his base period. If, since that date, there has been a material change or inconsistency in his accounting practice affecting valuation of inventories, computation of his net sales, cost of goods sold, or other matters of accounting under this order, or if his customary accounting methods do not meet the requirements of accepted accounting practice, he shall apply by letter to the Director General for Operations for specific instructions concerning the adjustments, if any, to be made, stating in such letter the nature of the change or inconsistency, or the variance from accepted practice.

(k) Inter-relation with Suppliers' Inventory Limitation Order L–63. Nothing in this order shall be construed to relieve any person of the duty of complying with § 1046.1, Suppliers' Inventory Limitation Order L–63. Any controlled merchants who market supplies, as defined in Order L–63, and who are not exempt from this order by virtue of paragraph (b) (1), shall not only comply with any restrictions of Order L–63 applicable to their operations but shall also comply with the provisions of this order without distinction between those consumers' goods which are supplies and other consumers' goods.

(l) Optional use of the "retail method." Any retail merchant who employed during his base period what is known as the "retail method" of pricing inventories may elect to value his mercantile inventory and to compute his allowable receipts at retail, rather than at retail reduced to "cost" or "cost value," on the following conditions:

(1) He shall employ a percentage of tolerance two per cent lower than he would otherwise be entitled to use under the provisions of paragraph (c) (1).

(2) He shall consistently value his goods at retail wherever the provisions of this order specify the use of "cost value" or "cost," except for the purpose of determining whether he is a controlled merchant under paragraph (a) (4).

(3) His allowable receipts at retail shall not exceed the larger of the following:

(i) A figure correctly computed from the merchant's previous experience with respect to sales and markdowns by the method described and illustrated in Appendix D attached to Order L–219, and employed on Form PD–690, or

(ii) A figure equal to one-third of his net sales during the preceding quarterly period.

(4) His markdowns at retail used in computing his allowable receipts at retail shall not be a greater percentage of his projected sales than his markdown percentage in the corresponding quarterly period of the preceding inventory year.

(m) Deduction of surplus inventory of "frozen goods". Except for the purpose of determining whether he is a controlled merchant, a controlled merchant may deduct from the cost value of his mercantile inventory on hand at the beginning of any current quarterly period an amount in dollars equal to:

(1) The cost value on that date of his mercantile inventory of any kind of "frozen goods" which he has had in his mercantile inventory more than four months, minus

(2) The cost value of the "frozen goods" of that kind sold by him during the immediately preceding quarterly period.

(n) Officers' uniforms. Except for the purpose of determining whether he is a controlled merchant, any controlled merchant authorized to accept delivery of officers' uniforms produced under Section 1243.1, Preference Rating Order P–131, may exclude his current receipts, sales, and inventories of such uniforms in any computations, reports and other matters under this order requiring the use of current data, provided he does so consistently.

(o) Miscellaneous reports. Merchants shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and answers to questionnaires as the Director General for Operations may from time to time request, including reports concerning the sales and inventories of subsidiaries, branches or sales units, or of separate retailing or wholesaling divisions, or of particular departments or lines of merchandise.

(p) Records. (1) Every merchant shall preserve those records concerning his operations necessary to determine whether he is a controlled merchant.

(2) Every controlled merchant shall preserve his records concerning sales and inventories during the base period until further notice. Complete and accurate records kept on Form PD–689 will satisfy this requirement.

(3) Every controlled merchant shall prepare and preserve for a period of at least two years accurate and complete records concerning his sales, inventories, cost of goods sold, and receipts of goods in such form that the extent of his compliance with this order can readily be ascertained. Complete and accurate records kept on Forms PD–689, PD–690 and such other forms as are issued from time to time will satisfy this requirement.

(q) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(2) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(3) Appeals. Any person subject to any requirement of this order, who feels that compliance therewith would work an exceptional or unreasonable hardship upon him, may appeal by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control or allocation and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports, when ordered to be filed, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be sent to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–219.

APPENDIX A

COMPUTATION OF A NORMAL INVENTORY

I. Computation of the normal quarterly inventory-sales ratio, using the second quarterly period ratio as an example.

A. Add the mercantile inventories for the quarterly periods of the base period years corresponding to the quarterly period for which the normal inventory is being computed.

Example

1939 Beginning 2nd quarterly period inventory	$----
1940 Beginning 2nd quarterly period inventory	----
1941 Beginning 2nd quarterly period inventory	----
Total A	$----

B. Add the net sales for the quarterly periods of the base period years corresponding to the quarterly period for which the normal inventory is being computed.

Example

1939 sales 2nd quarterly period	$----
1940 sales 2nd quarterly period	----
1941 sales 2nd quarterly period	----
Total B	$----

C. Divide Total A by Total B, computing to three decimal places.

$\frac{\text{Total A}}{\text{Total B}}$ = normal inventory-sales ratio for all second quarterly periods.

II. Computation of projected sales, using the second quarterly period of 1943 as an example.

A. In computing the projected sales for a quarterly period, divide the net sales during the second preceding quarterly period by the net sales during the quarterly period of the previous year corresponding to the second preceding quarterly period, computing to three decimal places.

Example

$\frac{\text{Sales 4th quarterly period 1942}}{\text{Sales 4th quarterly period 1941}}$ = Sales ratio for 2nd quarterly period 1943.

B. Then multiply the sales ratio for the quarterly period by the net sales during the corresponding quarterly period of the preceding year.

Example

Sales ratio 2nd. qt. '43 × sales 2nd qt. '42 = Projected sales 2nd qt. '43.

III. Computation of the normal inventory, using the second quarterly period of 1943 as an example.

Multiply the projected sales during the quarterly period by the normal inventory-sales ratio for that quarterly period.

Example: Projected sales 2nd qt. '43 × normal inventory-sales ratio for all 2nd qts. = normal inventory beginning 2nd qt. '43.

APPENDIX B

COMPUTATION OF INVENTORY LIMIT

I. Computation of the inventory limit using as an example the second quarterly period of 1943 of a merchant in the Eastern Time Zone operating on the cost method.

A. Compute the tolerance by multiplying the normal inventory for the beginning of the quarterly period by the appropriate percentage of tolerance.

Example

Normal inventory beginning 2nd qt. '43 x .10 = Tolerance beginning 2nd qt. '43.

B. Add the tolerance thus secured to the normal inventory.

Example

Tolerance beginning 2nd quarterly period '43	$----
Normal Inventory beginning 2nd quarterly period '43	----
Inventory Limit	$----

APPENDIX C

COMPUTATION OF ALLOWABLE RECEIPTS AT COST VALUE ON THE BASIS OF PROJECTED SALES

I. Computation of the cost of projected sales for a quarterly period, using the second quarterly period of 1943 as an example.

A. Divide the cost of goods sold during the corresponding quarterly period of the preceding year by the net sales during the corresponding quarterly period of the preceding year.

Example

Cost of goods sold 2nd qt. '42 ÷ Net sales 2nd qt. '42 = Cost ratio for 2nd qt. '43.

B. If such data are not available, use the cost of goods sold and net sales on the most recent federal income tax return.

Example

Cost of goods sold during taxable year 1942 ÷ Net sales during taxable year 1942 = Cost ratio for any qt. of '43.

C. Multiply the projected sales for the quarterly period computed in accordance with Appendix A, by the cost ratio for the quarterly period.

Example

Cost ratio × projected sales 2nd qt. '43 = Cost of projected sales for 2nd qt. '43

II. Computation of allowable receipts for a quarterly period, using the second quarterly period of 1943 as an example.

A. Add the cost of projected sales for the quarterly period to the cost value of a normal inventory at the beginning of the next quarterly period.

Example

Cost of Projected sales 2nd qt. '43	$----
Normal inventory beginning 3rd qt. '43	-----
Total A	-----

B. Subtract from the sum thus secured the mercantile inventory on hand at the beginning of the current quarter.

Total A	$----
(Minus) Mercantile inventory beginning 2nd qt. '43	-----
Allowable Receipts during 2nd qt. '43	$----

APPENDIX D

COMPUTATION OF ALLOWABLE RECEIPTS AT RETAIL VALUE USING PROJECTED SALES

I. Computation of allowable receipts for a quarterly period, using the second quarterly period of 1943 as an example.

A. Add the projected sales and the projected markdowns for the quarterly period to a normal inventory at retail value at the beginning of the next quarterly period.

Example

Projected Sales 2nd qt. '43	$----
Projected Markdowns at Retail 2nd qt. '43	-----
Normal Inventory at Retail beginning 3rd qt. '43	-----
Total A	$----

B. Subtract from the sum thus secured the mercantile inventory, at retail, on hand at the beginning of the quarterly period.

Example

Total A	$----
(Minus) Mercantile inventory at retail value beginning 2nd qt. '43	-----
Allowable Receipts at retail during 2nd qt. '43	$----

PART 3139—ASPHALT AND TARRED ROOFING PRODUCTS AND ASPHALT SHINGLES

[Interpretation 1 of General Limitation Order L–228]

ASPHALT AND TARRED ROOFING PRODUCTS AND ASPHALT SHINGLES

The following official interpretation is hereby issued with respect to General Limitation Order L–228—Asphalt and Tarred Roofing Products and Asphalt Shingles.[1]

The order does not limit the manufacture of asphalt or tarred materials other than asphalt and tarred roofing products and asphalt shingles produced for application to exterior surfaces of buildings for the purpose of weather proofing.

Therefore, special asphalt or tarred saturated or coated products are not within the limitations of the order when made for an industrial use, such as pipe coverings; when made to be combined with other materials to make another product, such as combination flashing material; when made for use in the shoe industry; when made for use in the manufacture of automobile and motor truck bodies; when produced for use in the manufacture of freight cars.

Further, the order does not limit the manufacture of building papers.

(P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 29th day of December 1942.

PART 1340—FUEL

[RPS 88,[1] Amendment 51]

PETROLEUM AND PETROLEUM PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Subdivisions (i), (ii) and (iii) of § 1340.159 (d) (2) are amended as set forth below:

§ 1340.159 Appendix A: Maximum prices for petroleum and petroleum products. * * *

(d) Petroleum gas; natural gas. * * *

(2) Dry gas. (i) Where a contract for the sale of dry gas was in effect on May 1, 1942, the seller's maximum price to the same purchaser for deliveries of dry gas produced from the same source or sources as the dry gas covered by the contract shall not exceed the price that could be charged for such deliveries under the terms of the contract that was in effect on May 1, 1942.

(ii) Where a seller had contracts in effect on May 1, 1942 for the sale of dry gas but did not then have a contract with a particular purchaser for dry gas produced from the same source or sources as the dry gas covered by those contracts, the seller's maximum price to that purchaser for deliveries of dry gas shall not exceed the highest price that could be charged for such deliveries under (i) to a purchaser of the same class. If the seller had no contracts in effect on May 1, 1942 with purchasers of the same class, then, his maximum price shall be determined under (iii) below.

(iii) Where a seller cannot determine his maximum price under (i) or (ii) above, then his maximum price for deliveries of dry gas shall be the highest maximum price of his most closely competitive seller of the same class to a purchaser of the same class as determined under (i).

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[MPR 161,[2] Amendment 5]

WEST COAST LOGS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new paragraph (f) is added to § 1381.160; a new paragraph (e) is added to § 1381.159a; and subparagraph (8) of § 1381.160 (e) is amended as set forth below:

§ 1381.160 Appendix A: Maximum delivered prices for West Coast logs. * * *

(e) * * *

(8) The Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., may by letter or telegram grant exceptions from the strict requirements of this paragraph (e) when a company which has previously had its name published as an overtime company, and which is in good faith attempting to operate on a regular overtime basis, finds that in a particular month it is impossible to meet the requirements of this paragraph (e) due to weather conditions or other circumstances beyond its control. The request for such an exception must show not that regular overtime operation would have been inconvenient or costly by peacetime standards, but that it was impossible in the light of the standards of operation demanded by wartime conditions and in the light of the critical lumber requirements of the military services.

(f) In the case of sales by mills or other users of West Coast logs pursuant to an order or direction of a Government agency requiring the allocation or requisitioning of such logs, the maximum price shall be the sum of the following:

(1) Maximum delivered price to the first buyer as established by this Maximum Price Regulation 161;

(2) Actual cost of transportation which has been incurred from the point at which delivered price was computed, sorting, booming, rafting, scaling, reloading, and such other direct costs incurred by the first buyer which are necessary to the proper preparation of the logs for resale or transfer; and

(3) Overtime additions actually paid by the first buyer to a seller who has been permitted to charge the overtime addition pursuant to an order of the Office of Price Administration under § 1381.160 (e) of this regulation.

The resulting maximum price is f. o. b. the reseller's mill or plant, and the second buyer shall bear the cost of transporting the logs to his own plant.

Provided, That sales under such Government orders or directions by persons who will not replace such stock of logs shall not be subject to this Regulation, but are subject to the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 204,[2] Idle or Frozen Material Sold under Priorities Regulation No. 13.

§ 1381.159a Effective dates of amendments. * * *

(e) Amendment No. 5 (§§ 1381.159a and 1381.160 (e), (f)) shall become effective January 2, 1943.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 5C,[1] Amendment 8]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Amendment 1 to Order 167 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

ELI LILLY AND COMPANY

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, paragraphs (a) and (e) of § 1499.1183 of Order No. 167 are amended and a new paragraph (i) is added to § 1499.1183 to read as set forth below:

§ 1499.1183 Approval of maximum prices for sales of "Becotin"—(a) Sales by Eli Lilly and Company—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for sales by Eli Lilly and Company of "Becotin" are established as set forth below:

	Maximum price per package
Size of package:	To wholesalers	To retailers for account of wholesalers
30 capsules	$1.45	$1.74
100 capsules	4.50	5.40
1,000 capsules	42.00	50.40

(2) Discounts, allowances, and price differentials. Eli Lilly and Company shall apply to the maximum prices set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for its sales of "Becotin" all quantity differentials, discounts for different classes of wholesalers, trade practices, credit terms, practices relating to the payment of transportation costs, and any other customary allowances which were in effect in March, 1942, on its sales of "Betalin Compound."

* * * * *

(e) Notification of maximum prices—(1) By Eli Lilly and Company to wholesalers. Eli Lilly and Company shall supply to each wholesaler before or at the time of its first delivery of "Becotin" a written notification of the maximum prices established by this order for sales by Eli Lilly and Company and by wholesalers. The written notification shall read as follows:

> The OPA has authorized us to charge $1.45 for each package of 30 capsules of "Becotin", $4.50 for each package of 100 capsules of "Becotin", and $42.00 for each package of 1,000 capsules of "Becotin", subject to all customary discounts and allowances to different classes of wholesalers. Wholesalers are authorized to establish ceiling prices of $1.74 for each package of 30 capsules of "Becotin", $5.40 for each package of 100 capsules of "Becotin", and $50.40 for each package of 1,000 capsules of "Becotin", subject to all customary cash discounts and allowances.

(2) By Eli Lilly and Company to retailers via wholesalers. Eli Lilly and Company shall include with each shipping unit of "Becotin" for a period of three months a written notification. If such notification is enclosed in a shipping unit a legend shall be affixed outside of such unit to read "Retailer's Notice Enclosed." If the initial sale by a wholesaler to a retailer is a split-case sale, the wholesaler is required to provide such retailer with a copy of this notice. The written notification shall read as follows:

> The OPA has authorized wholesalers to charge $1.74 for each package of 30 capsules of "Becotin", $5.40 for each package of 100 capsules of "Becotin", and $50.40 for each package of 1,000 capsules of "Becotin", subject to all customary cash discounts and allowances. Retailers are authorized to establish ceiling prices of $2.61 for each package of 30 capsules of "Becotin", $8.10 for each package of 100 capsules of "Becotin", and $75.60 for each package of 1,000 capsules of "Becotin", except for sales on prescription. The maximum prices for sales on prescription shall be determined under section 3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that no report of the maximum price need be filed. If the initial sale by a wholesaler to a retailer is a split-case sale, the wholesaler is required to provide such retailer with a copy of this notice. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

(3) By Eli Lilly and Company to retailers. Eli Lilly and Company shall supply to each retailer before or at the time of its first delivery of "Becotin" to such retailer a written statement as follows:

> The OPA has authorized us to charge on deliveries to retailers for the account of wholesalers $1.74 for each package of 30 capsules of "Becotin", $5.40 for each package of 100 capsules of "Becotin", and $50.40 for each package of 1,000 capsules of "Becotin". Your ceiling prices are authorized to be $2.61 for each package of 30 capsules of "Becotin", $8.10 for each package of 100 capsules of "Becotin", and $75.60 for each package of 1,000 capsules of "Becotin", except for sales on prescription. Maximum prices for sales on prescription must be determined under section 3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that no report of the maximum price need be filed. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 193 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

CORSAN PRODUCTS, INC.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1429 Authorization of maximum prices for sales of "Venoka" a liquid flavoring manufactured and sold in 3 ounce, 8 ounce, 1 gallon, 5 gallon, 30 gallon and 50 gallon sizes by Corsan Products, Inc., New York, New York. (a) On and after December 29, 1942, the maximum selling prices for "Venoka" for sale by Corsan Products, Inc., New York, New York, shall be:

3 ounce bottles, per dozen	$2.16
8 ounce bottles, per dozen	4.02
1 gallon jugs, per gallon	2.76
5 gallon demi-johns, per gallon	2.76
30 gallon barrels, per gallon	2.67
50 gallon barrels, per gallon	2.61

delivered at purchasers' stations.

The maximum prices established above for 3 ounce and 8 ounce bottles shall be subject to a discount of 5 percent for service allowance and a discount of 2 percent for prompt payment. Maximum prices established herein for 1 gallon, 5 gallon, 30 gallon and 50 gallon sizes shall be subject to a discount of 20 percent for wholesaler's commission and 2 percent for prompt payment.

(b) Sellers at wholesale shall determine their maximum selling prices for "Venoka" by adding to their net cost for each size a maximum markup of 25 percent of this net cost. The unit on which a wholesaler shall calculate his maximum price shall be one dozen of the 3 ounce and 8 ounce bottles, and one only of the 1 gallon, 5 gallon, 30 gallon and 50 gallon containers. Where a maximum price determined by the provisions of this paragraph is a fractional cent price and the fraction of a cent is less than one-half cent, the price shall be lowered to the next lower cent. If the fraction is one-half cent or larger the wholesaler is permitted to increase his maximum price to the next higher cent.

Net cost for a wholesaler as mentioned in this paragraph shall be his invoice price for "Venoka" delivered in a customary quantity for this type of item by the customary mode of transportation to his customary receiving point, less all discounts allowed him, except the discount for prompt payment. No drayage, loading or unloading shall be included in the net cost.

(c) Sellers at retail shall determine their maximum delivered selling prices for "Venoka" per container or bottle by adding to their net cost per dozen for each size, a maximum profit margin of 40 percent of this net cost and dividing the figure so obtained by twelve. Where a maximum price determined by the provisions of this paragraph is a fractional cent price and the fraction of a cent is less than one-half cent, the price shall be lowered to the next lower cent. If the fraction is one-half cent or larger the retailer is permitted to increase his maximum price to the next higher cent.

Net cost to a retailer as mentioned in this paragraph shall be his invoice price for "Venoka" delivered to his customary receiving point in a customary quantity of this type of commodity from his customary supplier and by the customary mode of transportation, less all discounts allowed him, except the discount for prompt payment. No charge for drayage, loading or unloading shall be included as part of the net cost.

(d) No seller at wholesale shall change his customary allowances, discounts and price differentials applying to comparable items of flavorings, or flavoring extracts in making sales of "Venoka" unless such change in these customary allowances, discounts and price differentials results in lower selling prices.

(e) On and after December 29, 1942, Corsan Products, Inc. shall supply a written notification to each wholesaler before or at the time of first delivery of "Venoka" to such wholesaler, and for a period of three months thereafter shall include with each shipping unit of "Venoka" a written notification to retailers. If such retailer notification is enclosed in a shipping unit, a legend shall be affixed outside of such unit to read "Retailer's Notice Enclosed." The written notification for each type of purchaser, shall include the following appropriate statements:

> Notification from Corsan Products, Inc. to wholesalers: The OPA has authorized us to charge wholesalers the following prices for "Venoka":
> | | |
> |---|---|
> | 3 ounce bottles, per dozen | $2.16 |
> | 8 ounce bottles, per dozen | $4.02 |
> | 1 gallon jugs, per gallon | $2.76 |

> | 30 gallon barrels, per gallon | $2.67 |
> | 50 gallon barrels, per gallon | $2.61 |
>
> subject to the following discounts:
> For 3 ounce and 8 ounce bottles—5 percent for service allowance and 2 percent for prompt payment;
>
> For 1 gallon, 5 gallon, 30 gallon and 50 gallon sizes—20 percent for wholesaler's commission and 2 percent for prompt payment.
>
> Wholesalers are authorized to establish maximum delivered selling prices by adding to their net cost of these items 25 percent of such net cost. The unit on which a wholesaler shall calculate his maximum price shall be one dozen of the 3 ounce and 8 ounce bottles, and one only of the 1 gallon, 5 gallon, 30 gallon and 50 gallon containers. Net cost is invoice cost at the customary receiving point, less all discounts, other than for prompt payment, and excluding charges for local hauling. Retailers shall establish maximum delivered selling prices per container or bottle by adding to their net cost per dozen for each size 40 percent of such net cost and dividing by twelve. Each individual ceiling price determined by any seller shall be figured to the nearest cent (raise one-half cent fractions to the next even cent). A copy of a notification to retailers is included in or on every shipping unit of this item. If the initial sale of this item to any retailer is a split case sale, wholesalers are required to provide such retailer with a copy of the retail notification so enclosed. OPA requires that you keep this notice for examination.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Order 194 Under § 1499.3 (b) of GMPR]

SELLERS OF TOILET TISSUE

For reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1430 Authorization to sellers of special packs of toilet tissue, put up in special waterproof jackets or envelopes, in accordance with specifications provided by the United States Army and made exclusively for the United States Army. Specific authorization is hereby given to any producer of toilet tissue put up in special waterproof jackets or envelopes for the United States Army to determine the maximum price for such items produced by him and for which the maximum price cannot be established under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation by the following formula:

(a) The manufacturer's maximum price for any given amount of any product described in this section shall not exceed the sum of the following factors calculated for the amount of the product being priced:

(1) Raw material costs. The delivered purchase price at which the raw materials are acquired by a converting plant, or the transfer price of an integrated mill to its converting plant, neither of which shall in any event exceed the maximum prices established for such raw materials by the Office of Price Administration. In computing such transfer price the manufacturer shall use the same method, classifications and differentials, as were used by such manufacturer in computing such transfer price during March, 1942.

(2) Applicable conversion charges. Charges for hand and/or machine operations incident to the fabrication, assembly and packing shall not be computed in excess of the same hourly, piece and setting up rates and shall be based on the same standards of production as were in effect during March, 1942 and which were used in normally determining the selling prices of industrial toilet tissue contracted to be sold at a definite price during such period.

(i) "Industrial toilet tissue" includes products which are sold to industrial, institutional or commercial users and not for resale.

(3) Margin. The margin is to be computed on a percentage basis and shall not exceed the margin used by the manufacturer during March, 1942 in determining the selling price f. o. b. shipping point for the industrial toilet tissue of which the seller delivered the largest number of units during March, 1942.

(4) Charges for delivery. Actual freight charges to the point of delivery may be added to the maximum price which is calculated in accordance with paragraph (a) (1), (2) and (3) of this section.

(b) Within ten days after a maximum price has been determined in accordance with this order, the manufacturer shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the maximum price as computed by it. The report shall set forth in detail the computation of direct costs and of the maximum price.

(c) Any selling price determined under this order shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

(d) This Order No. 194 may be revoked or amended by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

(e) This Order No. 194 (§ 1499.1430) shall become effective January 2, 1943.

PART 1314—RAW MATERIALS FOR SHOES AND LEATHER PRODUCTS

[MPR 145, Amendment 4]

PICKLED SHEEPSKINS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1314.161[1] paragraph (a) is amended by adding a new subparagraph 5 and the Table in paragraph (b) of § 1314.64[2] is amended by changing the ocean freight rate and prices of all brands of New Zealand pickled skins.

§ 1314.161 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 145, the terms:

* * * * *

(5) "War risk insurance" means the premiums actually paid for war risk insurance with respect to the pickled sheepskins imported but shall in no case exceed the War Shipping Administration's war risk insurance premium rate on an identical shipment. For the purpose of this subparagraph the War Shipping Administration's war risk insurance premium rate shall include in addition to the basic rate, the premium rate for extended transshipment coverage.

§ 1314.164 Appendix B: Maximum prices for certain brands of New Zealand pickled sheepskins—(a) Pickled sheepskins sold after arrival or subject to arrival in the United States. The maximum prices for pickled sheepskins of the brands enumerated in Column A sold after arrival or subject to arrival in the United States are specified in Column B. These prices are prices per dozen skins c. and f. port of entry, including all commissions and other charges except that the charge actually paid for war risk and marine insurance may be added. The maximum prices specified in Column B are based on an ocean freight charge of $11.66 per cask of pickled sheepskins, and if the charge should be more or less the prices must be adjusted upward or downward by the amount of the difference.

PART 1367—FERTILIZERS

[Revised MPR 135]

MIXED FERTILIZER, SUPERPHOSPHATE AND POTASH

The title, preamble and section numbers of Maximum Price Regulation 135—Mixed Fertilizer, Superphosphate and Potash,[1] are amended, and renumbered to read as set forth herein.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate and potash which differ, for certain grades and in certain areas of the country, from those heretofore established by applicable maximum price regulations. All of the grades of mixed fertilizer permitted to be manufactured under War Production Board Conservation Order M-231 as amended are covered by this single maximum price regulation.

The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate and potash prevailing between October 1 and 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been prepared, issued simultaneously herewith, and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1367.31 to 1367.46, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1367.31 Sales of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate and potash at higher than maximum prices prohibited. On and after January 4, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver to a consumer or a dealer, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive, mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash at prices higher than the maximum prices established herein, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to make such a sale, purchase or delivery.

§ 1367.32 To what transactions, products and persons this regulation applies—(a) What transactions are covered. This regulation unlike the previous fertilizer regulation (Maximum Price Regulation 135) is not limited to sales in quantities of 250 pounds or more to consumers.

It covers all sales by manufacturers to dealers and consumers, and by dealers to consumers.

(b) What products are covered. This Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135 covers all mixed fertilizer, superphosphate and potash of whatsoever kinds and grades.

(c) What persons are covered. Manufacturers and their agents and dealers making the sales covered by this regulation are subject to it.

§ 1367.33 Manufacturers' maximum prices. (a) A manufacturer's maximum prices shall be the prices set forth in the written or printed price schedule or list last issued by the manufacturer, prior to February 21, 1942, and effective for any portion of the period from February 16 to 20, 1942 inclusive, except for any manufacturer making a delivery to a place in Florida east of the Apalachicola River, whose maximum price for such delivery shall be the price set forth in his written or printed price schedule or list effective on July 31, 1941, irrespective of whether or not it was still effective during the period February 16 to 20, 1942, and as those prices may be increased for the places of delivery and in the manner and amounts set forth in Appendix A incorporated herein as § 1367.44, for a sale (1) to a consumer or dealer in the same locality, (2) of the same quantity, grade and kind of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, (3) delivered in the same type of container or bag (except as hereinafter provided), (4) under the same terms of payment (time, cash, discounts, etc.), and (5) by the same means and under the same conditions of delivery.

(b) If the manufacturer cannot establish his maximum price under paragraph (a), or under Appendix B incorporated herein as § 1367.45, then his maximum price shall be determined as follows: He shall submit to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., a proposed maximum price, showing the calculations by which the proposed maximum price was determined by the manufacturer. Such proposed maximum price must be in line with the manufacturer's level of maximum prices established under paragraph (a), for a comparable quantity, grade and kind of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash sold by the manufacturer to a consumer or dealer in the same locality under the same conditions in the same or comparable type of containers or bags; or in the event the manufacturer had established no prices under paragraph (a) then such proposed maximum price shall not be higher than the general level of maximum prices established under paragraph (a), and the proposed maximum price to consumers shall provide no greater margin between dealer and consumer prices than is provided in the manufacturer's own consumers' price schedule or, in the absence of such schedule of his own, no greater margin than is provided in such a schedule of his most closely competitive seller of the same class. If within 10 days of the registered mailing of such proposed maximum price it has not been disapproved by the Office of Price Administration, the manufacturer may sell, offer for sale, and deliver such mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash at the proposed maximum price. Notwithstanding that the Office of Price Administration does not disapprove such price within such 10 day period, it may at a later time disapprove such price or require a modification thereof on such terms and conditions as it deems advisable. All deliveries to a consumer or dealer, or shipments received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the person making the sale (including a dealer, agent or other person) after the expiration of such 10 day period but prior to such disapproval or requirement of modification, shall not be affected by such later action on the part of the Office of Price Administration disapproving or modifying such maximum price.

§ 1367.34 Dealers' maximum prices. A dealer's maximum price to a consumer shall be determined as follows: (a) To the dealer's net delivered cost established herein there may be added the "suggested" or "recommended" margin specified for that dealer's sales area in the price schedule or list last issued by the manufacturer prior to February 21, 1942, and effective for any portion of the period from February 16 to February 20, 1942 inclusive, or (b) if the manufacturer's price schedule in effect during such period for the dealer's sales area provided "suggested" consumer prices or prices at which the manufacturer might make sales to consumers, then those "suggested" or effective consumer prices as those prices may be increased for the places of delivery and in the manner and amounts set forth in Appendix A incorporated herein as § 1367.44, shall be the dealer's maximum consumer prices; or (c) if the manufacturer, during such period, had no consumer prices in effect and provided no "suggested" or "recommended" consumer prices or dealer margins for the dealer's sales area, then the dealer's maximum prices to consumers shall be calculated as specified in Appendix C incorporated herein as § 1367.46.

§ 1367.35 Terms of payment and conditions of delivery. Terms of payment or conditions of delivery to a consumer or to a dealer shall not be more onerous than those in effect and applicable to such consumer or dealer for the period from February 16 to February 20, 1942 inclusive, except that terms of payment on sales made between July 1 and December 1 of any calendar year hereafter shall not be more onerous than those in effect and applicable to such consumer or dealer for the period from October 1 to October 15, 1941, inclusive.

§ 1367.36 Federal, state and municipal taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, processing, or use of the mixed fertilizers, superphosphate and potash, imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such commodity and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect from February 16 to February 20, 1942 inclusive. If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price from February 16 to February 20, 1942 inclusive, the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall be regarded as having included such amount in determining the maximum price under this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135.

In all other cases if, at the time the seller determined his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax did not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller did state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective after February 20, 1942. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased; except that the tax on transportation imposed by § 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for the purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity subject to this regulation, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by any person transporting the commodity for hire, and it shall not be treated under any provision of this regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price.

§ 1367.37 Prohibited practices—General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars and cents price is as much a violation of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135 as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to changes in credit practices and cash discounts, and to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings and the like.

§ 1367.38 Records and reports. (a) Every person (including a dealer, agent or other person) making a sale of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, in quantities of 250 pounds or more, to a consumer or dealer, after January 4, 1943 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended is in effect, complete and accurate records of each sale, showing the date thereof; and name and address of the buyer, of the person (including an agent) making the sale, and of the manufacturer of the mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash; the quantity, grade and kind of the mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash sold; the bags or containers in which delivered; the price charged or received therefor; the terms of payment (time, cash, discounts, etc.); and the method and conditions of delivery.

(b) (1) Not later than January 15, 1943, every manufacturer of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, who is engaged in the business of selling the same to consumers and dealers, whether by or through any agent or other person, except those manufacturers who have heretofore done so, shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., one copy of each and every written or printed price schedule, whether temporary or permanent, issued by him in connection with the sale thereof to consumers and dealers from and after July 1, 1941, together with all written or printed amendments and supplements to any such schedules; but if a manufacturer has not heretofore issued a written or printed price schedule, he shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., a list of maximum prices charged by seasons from and after October 1, 1941, for the grades and kinds of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash sold to consumers and dealers showing types of bags, terms of payment and conditions of delivery; and each manufacturer shall continue, until further notice, to file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., one copy of any and all subsequent price schedules and supplements and amendments, at least ten (10) days prior to the proposed effective date thereof. Each such price schedule, supplement or amendment hereafter filed with the Office of Price Administration shall be accompanied by a statement of all changes made wherein that price schedule, supplement or amendment differs from the price schedule in effect at the time of filing.

(2) In accordance with request addressed to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., copies of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135 will be furnished each manufacturer for distribution to his agents and dealers.

(3) Each dealer or agent shall post at his place of business a list of his consumers' maximum prices.

(4) Each manufacturer selling direct to consumers shall post at his office, plant and warehouse his consumer's price list in effect for the area served by each such office, plant, or warehouse.

(c) Persons affected by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135, shall submit such other information to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended.

§ 1367.39 Enforcement and licensing. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and proceedings for revocation of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Regulation or of any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration are urged to communicate with the nearest field, state, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

(c) The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are applicable to every person subject to this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135 selling at retail any mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash covered by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135. When used in this section, the term "selling at retail" has the definition given to it by § 1499.20 (o) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Said registration and licensing provisions became effective as to persons selling at retail on May 18, 1942.

§ 1367.40 Petitions for amendment—(a) Amendments. Persons seeking any modification of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135 or an adjustment or exception not provided for herein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Government contracts. (1) The term "government contracts" is here used to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the government or any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States." It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(2) Any person who has made or intends to make a "government contract" and who thinks that a maximum price in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation 135 is impeding or threatens to impede production of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6.[4] A copy can be had at any office of the Office of Price Administration.

(3) As soon as the application is filed, deliveries may be made at the requested price, subject to refund if the requested price is disapproved or lowered. The seller must tell the buyer that the delivery is made subject to this refund.

§ 1367.41 Relation to other regulations—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation. Any sale or delivery covered by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135 is not subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.[5]

(b) Maximum Export Price Regulation. The maximum price for export sales of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash is governed by the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[6]

§ 1367.42 Definitions. (a) When used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, farmers' or consumers' cooperative or other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Manufacturer" means a person who produces, mixes, or processes, or who markets for his own account and under his own brand or trade name, mixed fertilizer, superphosphate, potash or nitrogenous material for use as an aid to the growth of crops or plants.

(3) "Dealer" means a person who purchases mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash and resells it to a consumer.

(4) "Consumer" means a person purchasing mixed fertilizer, superphosphate, or potash for use in aiding the growth of crops or plants (and not for resale) and also includes Agricultural Adjustment Agency of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(5) "Mixed fertilizer" means any substance containing any two or more, of potash, superphosphate, and nitrogenous material, when marketed or sold as an aid to the growth of crops or plants.

(6) "Superphosphate" means any product which is obtained by mixing rock phosphate with either sulphuric acid or phosphoric acid or with both acids, when marketed or sold as an aid to the growth of crops or plants.

(7) "Potash" means muriate, chloride, or sulphate of potash, manure salts, and any other substance containing potassium oxide (K_2O), when marketed or sold as an aid to the growth of crops or plants.

(8) "Nitrogenous material" means any organic or inorganic substance containing nitrogen, when marketed or sold as an aid to the growth of crops or plants, except when so marketed or sold without the admixture of any potash or superphosphate.

(9) "Chemical nitrogen" means any nitrogen, other than natural organic nitrogen, including, but not limited to, ammonium sulfate, sodium nitrate, calcium cyanamid, urea and nitrogen-bearing solutions.

(10) "Natural organic nitrogen material" means a fertilizer material of vegetable or animal origin containing nitrogen, including, but not limited to, animal, fish, and other tankages, castor pomace, tobacco stems, cotton seed meal, peanut meal, soybean meal, sewage sludge and cocoa shell meal.

(11) "Grade" means the minimum guarantee of the plant food content of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate, or potash, expressed in terms of nitrogen, available phosphoric acid, and water soluble potash, e. g. 4-8-4, 3-8-5, etc.

(12) "Kind" as distinguished from the term "grade" refers only to mixed fertilizer and means the substances, and the proportions thereof, containing the guaranteed plant food content of mixed fertilizer—as, for example, in the case of nitrogenous material, 80% inorganic and 20% insoluble organic nitrogen; or in the case of potash, 75% sulphate of potash and 25% muriate of potash.

(13) "Price schedule" means any price list or statement, irrespective of form, issued by the seller, setting forth the prices, grades, kinds, terms of payment, types of containers or bags, method and conditions of delivery, and any other provisions relating to sales, of the commodities being priced.

(14) "Place of delivery" means rail or truck destination for goods sold under a price schedule quoting delivered prices, or f. o. b. plant for goods sold under a price schedule quoting f. o. b. plant prices.

(15) "Net to manufacturer" means the amount received by a manufacturer for a sale after deducting discounts and agent's compensation, if any, from his sales price.

(16) "Net delivered cost" means the manufacturer's price to the dealer of the mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash being sold, plus the dealer's transportation costs.

(17) "Margin" means the amount of markup which may be added to the dealer's net delivered cost.

(18) "Spring season" means the fertilizer selling season from December 1 of any calendar year to and including June 30 of the next succeeding calendar year.

(19) "Fall season" means the fertilizer selling season from July 1 to November 30, inclusive, of any calendar year.

(20) "Victory Garden Fertilizer" means a 3-8-7 grade of mixed fertilizer containing 2½ units of organic nitrogen and ½ unit of chemical nitrogen.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1367.43 Effective date. (a) This Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135 (§§ 1367.31 to 1367.46 inclusive) shall become effective January 4, 1943.

(b) If mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash has been received before January 4, 1943 by a carrier, other than one owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to a buyer, that shipment remains subject to the terms of the earlier version of this regulation (Maximum Price Regulation No. 135 as amended).

(c) During the period of thirty days next following the effective date of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135, a manufacturer or dealer may offer or agree to adjust prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum price established hereunder, but after such thirty day period has elapsed the manufacturer or dealer may offer or agree to adjust prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. Where a petition for amendment or for adjustment requires extended consideration, the Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

(ii) $2.15 per unit of organic nitrogen for the amount of organic nitrogen derived from cotton seed meal, soybean meal or peanut meal guaranteed to be in a particular grade and kind of mixed fertilizer.

(iii) $3.80 per unit of organic nitrogen derived from natural organic materials other than cotton seed meal, soybean meal or peanut meal when used to replace chemical nitrogen in a particular grade and kind of mixed fertilizer.

(iv) $4.65 per unit of organic nitrogen derived from cotton seed meal, soybean meal or peanut meal when used to replace chemical nitrogen in a particular grade and kind of mixed fertilizer.

(v) If a manufacturer wishes to reduce the amount of organic nitrogen guaranteed to be in a particular grade and kind of mixed fertilizer after having increased his price according to subparagraphs (i), (ii), (iii), or (iv) above, his price of that grade and kind of mixed fertilizer shall be reduced by deducting for the amount of natural organic nitrogen replaced by chemical nitrogen at the rates specified in (iii) or (iv) above for the types of natural organic nitrogen replaced by chemical nitrogen.

Bags. To a manufacturer's established maximum prices for sales in 200-pound burlap bags, there may be added for sales in cotton bags:

$1.15 per ton for sales in 200-pound cotton bags.

$1.65 per ton for sales in 100-pound cotton bags.

For sales in 100-pound paper bags, deduct $1.15 per ton from the 200-pound cotton bag price as determined above.

(g) Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Missouri.

Bags. To a manufacturer's established maximum prices for sales in 100-pound paper bags, there may be added for sales in cotton bags:

$1.10 per ton for sales in 200-pound cotton bags.

$1.35 per ton for sales in 125-pound cotton bags.

$1.60 per ton for sales in 100-pound cotton bags.

(h) Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona, Colorado, Nevada, Idaho, Utah, Wyoming, Montana.

No amounts per ton may be added to manufacturer's established maximum prices.

2. Use of natural organic nitrogen materials. Except for deliveries in Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona, Colorado, Nevada, Utah, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming and Florida east of the Apalachicola River, amounts may be added to manufacturer's prices for use of natural organic nitrogen materials in mixed fertilizers as specified below:

(a) $2.00 per unit of organic nitrogen derived from natural organic materials other than cotton seed meal, soybean meal or peanut meal when used to replace chemical nitrogen in a particular grade and kind of mixed fertilizer.

(b) $4.20 per unit of organic nitrogen derived from cotton seed meal, soybean meal or peanut meal when used to replace chemical nitrogen in a particular grade and kind of mixed fertilizer.

(c) $2.20 per unit of organic nitrogen derived from cotton seed meal, soybean meal or peanut meal when used to replace other natural organic nitrogen materials in a particular grade and kind of mixed fertilizer.

(d) On and after the effective date of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 135, no existing provision in any price schedule or list for adding to prices on account of the use of oil seed meals and other natural organic nitrogen materials in the manufacture of mixed fertilizer, inconsistent with the foregoing subparagraphs ((i), (ii) and (iii)) shall be effective or valid.

TITLE 41—PUBLIC CONTRACTS

Chapter II—Division of Public Contracts

PART 201—PROCEDURE FOR THE STIPULATION OF CONDITIONS IN GOVERNMENT PURCHASE CONTRACTS

INSERTION OF STIPULATIONS, AMENDMENT

Amendment to regulations for administration of the Act of June 30, 1936, Public No. 846, 74th Congress.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 4 of the Act approved June 30, 1936, 49 Stat. 2036, 41 U.S.C., secs. 35–45, I hereby amend Article 1, Regulations No. 504, prescribed by the Secretary of Labor under Public Act No. 846, Seventy-fourth Congress (Series A), by adding the words "or incorporated by reference" following the words "the contracting officer shall cause to be inserted" in the first paragraph of the Article, so that this paragraph, as amended, will read as follows:

§ 201.1 Insertion of stipulations. Except as hereinafter directed, in every contract made and entered into by an executive department, independent establishment, or other agency or instrumentality of the United States, or by the District of Columbia, or by any corporation all the stock of which is benefically owned by the United States, for the manufacture or furnishing of materials, supplies, articles, and equipment, with respect to which invitations for bids are issued on or after September 28, 1936, the contracting officer shall cause to be inserted or incorporated by reference in such invitation or the specifications and in such contract, the following stipulations:

* * * * *

Dated: December 28, 1942.

FRANCES PERKINS,
Secretary of Labor.

[1] Frequencies are listed for information purposes only. Indented frequencies indicate assigned center frequencies of communication bands not in accordance with the approximate 0.1% frequency separation scale, while bracketed frequencies show the allocated center frequencies of communication bands covering more frequency space than the approximate 0.1% frequency separation plan provides. The term "General Communication" is used only as a designation for non-Government frequencies which have not been assigned to any specific service. Section 305 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, states as follows:

"Radio stations belonging to and operated by the United States shall not be subject to the provisions of sections 301 and 303 of this Act. All such Government stations shall use such frequencies as shall be assigned to each or to each class by the President. All such stations, except stations on board naval and other Government vessels while at sea or beyond the limits of the continental United States, when transmitting any radio communication or signal other than a communication or signal relating to Government business, shall conform to such rules and regulations designed to prevent interference with other radio stations and the rights of others as the Commission may prescribe."

For more detailed information regarding restrictions on the use of non-government frequencies consult the part of the Rules and Regulations of this Commission covering the service or class of station to which the frequency is allocated.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter II—Office of Defense Transportation

[General Order ODT 11, Amendment 1]

PART 501—CONSERVATION OF MOTOR EQUIPMENT

SUBPART H—INTERCITY COMMON CARRIERS OF PASSENGERS BY BUS

Pursuant to Executive Orders Nos. 8989 and 9156, General Order ODT 11[1] is hereby amended by adding paragraphs (i), (j) and (k) to § 501.45 and by adding paragraph (c) to § 501.46, and by adding paragraph (e) to § 501.47, the amendments to read as follows:

§ 501.45 Definitions. * * *

(i) The term "rated load carrying ability" as applied to a bus means the weight which the tires mounted on the load bearing wheels of such bus are capable of carrying as determined in the manner set forth in Appendix No. 1 attached hereto.

(j) The terms "load to capacity" or "loaded to capacity" as applied to a bus mean either (1) the aggregate weight of the passengers, baggage and express, who or which may be transported in said bus, determined by deducting the weight of said bus from one hundred twenty (120) per cent of its rated load carrying ability, or (2) the maximum number of passengers and amount of baggage or express, who or which may be safely and efficiently transported within a bus when their aggregate weight does not load a bus to capacity as determined by (1) above.

(k) The term "gross weight" means the aggregate weight of a bus and its passengers, baggage and express.

§ 501.46 Elimination of waste; loading requirements. * * *

(c) Load to capacity any bus being operated in intercity service whenever passengers, baggage or express are available for transportation, except a bus which has become disabled en route and the operation thereof empty or partially laden is required to reach the nearest point at which such carrier maintains, provides, or can obtain repair services: Provided, That nothing in this subpart contained shall be construed to require the loading of a bus to such an extent that the gross weight of the bus will exceed the actual safe capacity of any bridge or other structure en route, as determined by State or local authorities, or will exceed the maximum gross weight limitations prescribed by the applicable State law, proclamation, or regulation, Federal statute, or Executive Order, whichever is currently controlling, but such bus shall be loaded as nearly to the extent required by this subpart as may be consistent with such applicable limitations.

§ 501.47 Operating requirements. * * *

(e) Operate a bus in intercity service, the gross weight of which exceeds its gross weight when loaded to capacity as provided by § 501.46 (c).

This amendment shall become effective January 1, 1943. (E.O. 8989, 9156; 6 F.R. 6725; 7 F.R. 3349.)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of December 1942.

JOSEPH B. EASTMAN,
Director of Defense Transportation.

APPENDIX NO. 1

Under the terms of § 501.45 (i) of this subpart, the rated load carrying ability of the tires mounted on the running wheels of a bus shall be determined by multiplying the number of tires mounted on the running wheels of such bus, of the size and description actually used, by the number of pounds appearing opposite the description of such tires in this Appendix.

Example: A bus uses 10 running tires, size 9.00-20, ten ply. The rated load carrying ability of each such tire, in pounds per tire, as shown in this Appendix, is 3450. Multiply 10 (number of tires) by 3450 (rated load carrying ability of each tire). The result is 34,500 pounds, which is the "rated load carrying ability" of the bus as defined in § 501.45 (i).

WIND RIVER RESERVATION, WYOMING

ORDER RESTORING LANDS TO TRIBAL OWNERSHIP

Whereas pursuant to the provisions of the Act of March 3, 1905 (33 Stat. 1016), the Shoshone-Arapaho Tribes of Indians in Wyoming ceded to the United States a large area of their reservation in the State of Wyoming, established under the Treaty of July 3, 1868 (15 Stat. 673), and

Whereas there is now remaining undisposed-of within the ceded or "opened" portion of the Wind River Reservation, an area estimated to be slightly in excess of 1,000,000 acres of such ceded lands, most of which is urgently required as grazing land for the use of the Shoshone-Arapaho Tribe of Indians in order properly to support and develop their greatly expanded cattle industry, and

Whereas the Superintendent of the Wind River Reservation and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs have recommended restoration to tribal ownership of all the undisposed-of ceded lands within the following described land use districts, of which no part of the land is under lease or permit to non-Indians:

WIND RIVER MERIDIAN

LAND USE DISTRICT NO. 10

T. 5 N., R. 5 W.,
  Sec. 4, Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, S/2 N/2 and the N/2 SW/4,
  Sec. 5, Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, S/2 N/2, SW/4 and the N/2 SE/4,
  Sec. 6,
  Sec. 7, Lots 1, 2, 3, 9, NE/4 NW/4 and the NW/4 NE/4.
T. 6 N., R. 5 W.,
  Secs. 19, 20, 21, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 and 33.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by section 5 of the Act of July 27, 1939 (53 Stat. 1128–1130), I hereby find that restoration to tribal ownership of the lands within the area described above, which are classified as undisposed-of ceded land of the Wind River Reservation, Wyoming, will be in the tribal interest, and they are hereby restored to tribal ownership for the use and benefit of the Shoshone-Arapaho Tribes of Indians of the Wind River Reservation, Wyoming, and are added to and made a part of the existing Wind River Reservation, subject to any valid existing rights.

HAROLD L. ICKES,
Secretary of the Interior.

[Rationing Order C, Supplementary Order 2]

RATIONING OF FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

NEW FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

Pursuant to § 2.212 of Rationing Order C, [7 F.R. 9647] It is hereby ordered, That:

(1) Any manufacturer from its stocks in its branch houses, transfers, and with transfer agents, and from its stocks on consignment with dealers or educational institutions may transfer all Schedule II equipment and may transfer Schedule I equipment listed in the appendix to this Supplementary Order 2: Provided, That such equipment at the close of business October 31, 1942, was in the physical possession of such manufacturer in stocks in its branch houses, transfers, or with transfer agents, or was in the physical possession of a dealer or educational institution to which such equipment had been consigned by such manufacturer, or such equipment had been consigned to such manufacturer's stocks in such manufacturer's agencies described herein, and such equipment was at the close of business October 31, 1942, in the hands of a carrier for delivery to such manufacturer's stocks in such manufacturer's agencies described herein.

Any distributor or any mail order house may transfer all Schedule II equipment and may transfer Schedule I equipment listed in the appendix to this Supplementary Order No. 2: Provided, That such equipment at the close of business October 31, 1942, was in the physical possession of such distributor or such mail order house or had been consigned to such distributor or to such mail order house and was at the close of business October 31, 1942, in the hands of a carrier for delivery to such distributor or to such mail order house.

Persons making transfers authorized by this paragraph (1) shall comply with the provisions of this Supplementary Order No. 2 and with the provisions of Rationing Order C.

Any machinery and equipment transferred, other than for use, by a manufacturer from stocks described herein, or by a distributor, pursuant to this Supplementary Order No. 2 shall be distributed to persons who do business in the same geographical area as those persons to whom such manufacturer and such distributor made transfers of the same type of machinery and equipment during the period November 1, 1940, through October 31, 1941. Each such manufacturer and each such distributor shall prorate to such areas the distribution of each type of the machinery and equipment authorized to be transferred by this order on the basis of the percentage of such manufacturer's or such distributor's total distribution during said period which such manufacturer or distributor distributed to each such area during said period, except that any manufacturer or distributor may revise the distribution plan provided for it by this paragraph if it deems such revision necessary in order to avoid transfer to an area of items of any type of the machinery and equipment described in this order where known stocks in dealers' hands are excessive in comparison with dealers' stocks in other areas of comparable need. The authority granted by this Supplementary Order No. 2 shall not be deemed to authorize any manufacturer, distributor, mail order house or dealer to transfer any machinery and equipment which was or is manufactured under War Production Board Order L–170 [7 F.R. 8460, 9863] or which was in manufacturer's factory and plant stocks at the close of business October 31, 1942. Nothing in this paragraph (1) shall be construed to authorize the transfer for use of any item of Schedule I equipment except pursuant to a purchase certificate issued in accordance with the provisions of Rationing Order C.

(2) Manufacturers, mail order houses, distributors and dealers may accept transfers of machinery and equipment authorized for transfer pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) above and may transfer any machinery and equipment authorized for transfer in said paragraph (1) above to any other manufacturer, distributor, mail order house or dealer. Such acceptances of transfers and such transfers may be made without a purchase certificate, provided such acceptances and such transfers are not for use. Such manufacturers, distributors, mail order houses and dealers may transfer the Schedule I equipment authorized for transfer by this Supplementary Order No. 2 to any person for use by the transferee if a proper purchase certificate is presented and may transfer all Schedule II equipment authorized for transfer by this Supplementary Order No. 2 for use by the transferee without presentation of a purchase certificate.

(3) Each manufacturer, distributor, and mail order house shall keep records disclosing the number of items of each type of machinery and equipment which he has transferred other than for use by the transferee pursuant to this Supplementary Order No. 2. Such records shall disclose the persons to whom said machinery and equipment was transferred and such persons' addresses. Such records need not be kept on a specified form but may be kept in any manner which best meets the business practices of the persons affected as long as the records disclose the information requested by this paragraph.

(4) This Supplementary Order No. 2 shall be deemed to be a part of Rationing Order C, and any violation of this Supplementary Order No. 2 shall constitute a violation of Rationing Order C.

(5) This Supplementary Order No. 2 to Rationing Order C shall become effective January 1, 1943.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of December 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[Order 4 Under MPR 260]

H. FENDRICH, INC.

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICE

Order No. 4 Under § 1358.102 (e) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 260—Cigars.

Maximum prices for Concha and Panatela Sizes La Cubavana Brand Cigars.

H. Fendrich, Inc. of Evansville, Indiana hereinafter called "Applicant" has made application under § 1358.102 (e) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 260—Cigars, for determination of the maximum list price, schedule of discounts and allowances and the maximum retail price of two new cigars which it proposes to manufacture and sell as "Concha" and "Panatela" sizes under the brand name "La Cubavana".

Due consideration has been given to the application and an opinion in support of this Order issued simultaneously herewith has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For reasons set forth in the opinion and under authority vested in the Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and in accordance with § 1358.102 (e) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 260, It is hereby ordered: Authorization of Maximum Prices for Cigars Manufactured by H. Fendrich, Inc., as "Concha" and "Panatela" sizes of La Cubavana brand.

(a) On and after December 29, 1942, Applicant and any wholesaler or retailer of "Concha" and "Panatela" sizes of La Cubavana Brand Cigars may sell and deliver and any person may buy and receive such cigars at prices not in excess of the following:

Manufacturer's and wholesalers' list price:	Retailers' maximum price
$75.00	10 cents each

The manufacturer's and wholesalers' list price is based upon the sale of one thousand cigars packed fifty to the individual container. Manufacturer's and wholesalers' price differentials in packings allowed in March 1942 on cigars of the same price class shall not be reduced. Manufacturer's and wholesalers' price differentials in packings charged in March 1942 on cigars of the same price class shall not be increased. Discounts applicable to the sales of said cigars by Applicant to wholesalers shall not be less than 12% plus such additional discount for payment as Applicant allowed in March 1942 to purchasers of the same class. Discounts applicable to sales of said cigars by Applicant to retailers, and to sales thereof by wholesalers to any purchasers shall not be less than those prevailing in March 1942 on sales of cigars of the same price class to the same class of purchasers.

(b) "Concha" and "Panatela" sizes of La Cubavana Brand Cigars shall contain respectively not less than 20½ and 18 pounds 9 ounces of tobacco per thousand. Filler, binder and wrapper shall be made of the brands, types, quantities, and quality of tobacco set forth in said application. Depreciation of the specified quality of "Concha" and "Panatela" sizes of La Cubavana Brand cigars except as the result of normal variation is hereby prohibited.

(c) Applicant shall state in plainly visible numerals upon each box or container of "Concha" and "Panatela" sizes of La Cubavana Brand Cigars sold or delivered by it, the exact maximum retail price thereof as set forth in this Order. On or before the first delivery of any "Concha" and "Panatela" sizes of La Cubavana Brand Cigars to any purchaser, Applicant and every wholesaler shall notify the purchaser of the exact amount of the maximum retail price as set forth in this Order by delivering to such purchaser a written notice as follows:

> On our size (describe size) La Cubavana Cigar, the Office of Price Administration has authorized us to establish a maximum list price of $75.00 per thousand and a maximum retail price of 10 cents each. Our maximum list price is based on sales of one thousand cigars packed 50 to the individual container. Manufacturer's and wholesalers' discounts to purchasers may not be less than their discounts in March 1942, on sales of cigars of the same price class to the same class of purchasers. Such discounts may not be reduced. Price differentials in packings allowed in March 1942 on cigars of the same price class may not be reduced. Price differentials in packings charged in March 1942 on cigars of the same price class may not be increased. Wholesalers receiving this notice are required to give similar written notice to each person to whom they sell or deliver (describe size) La Cubavana Cigar at or before the first delivery of such cigars to the purchaser. The Office of Price Administration requires you to keep this notice for examination.

(d) The provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 260 as now in force or as hereinafter amended or revised are incorporated in this Order to the extent consistent herewith.

(e) This Order No. 4 may be revoked or amended by the Administrator at any time.

(f) This Order No. 4 shall become effective December 29, 1942.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.)

(9) "Rolls" shall include plain white rolls and buns of the semi-bread dough type, such as soft rolls, hamburger, hot dogs, Parkerhouse, etc.; hard rolls, such as Vienna, Kaiser, etc., all made without fillings or icing, but shall not include yeast raised sweet rolls or sweet buns (cinnamon rolls or buns, butterfly rolls, etc.).

(10) "Enriched" means that the bread has been made from enriched flour containing the ingredients in the quantities required by the regulations under the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, or that equivalent ingredients have been added to plain flour during the mixing of the dough.

(b) Restrictions. (1) No baker may perform the process of twisting, crosspanning, or doughbraking in the manufacture of any pan bread except that this restriction shall not be applicable to the baking of twin loaves.

(2) No baker shall make or sell any sliced bread except that bread weighing two pounds or more per loaf may be sliced for a period of sixty days from the effective date of the order.

(3) No baker may prepare or deliver any bread or rolls packaged in more than one thickness of wrapping material except as permitted by the provisions of subparagraph (4), and except that double thickness is permitted on the areas of closure, and where necessary in the packaging of rolls with cardboard bottoms or ends, or cardboard trays.

(4) No baker or other seller of bread shall use inserts, outserts, or end labels on any bread except that inserts and outserts may be used with unprinted wrappers where such insert or outsert provides the only label identification or required label correction, such insert or outsert not to exceed three inches in width, and except, further, that supplies of paper in the hands of bakers on the date of the issuance of this order may be used for providing inserts in connection with the wrapping of sliced loaves, to the extent that slicing is permitted under the terms of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, until sixty days after the effective date of this order.

(5) No baker or other seller of bread or rolls, baking company, its officers, agents, employees, subsidiaries, affiliates, or any person acting for or under subsidy from any baker or baking company shall sell on consignment, or shall deliver or otherwse distribute for sale any bread or rolls and agree in any manner to accept the return, resume possession, or give refund, credit, exchange, or allowance in connection therewith.

(6) No baker shall make more varieties of bread or rolls than he made during the first week of December 1942 and, in any case, the maximum number of varieties of bread and rolls which may be made or sold by any baker during any one week shall be (a week shall begin at 12:01 a. m. Sunday):

(i) Bread for sale to or distribution through retail stores (not including multiple unit bakeries, restaurants, hotels, and institutions. (a) Six varieties of machine molded bread, of which not more than three shall be white pan bread;

(b) Ten varieties of hand molded bread; and

(c) Three varieties of rolls.

(ii) Bread for sale to restaurants, hotels, and institutions. (a) Ten varieties of bread, of which not more than three shall be white pan bread; and

(b) Nine varieties of rolls.

(iii) Bread for direct sale to consumers. (a) Fifteen varieties of bread, of which not more than three shall be white pan bread; and

(b) Nine varieties of rolls.

The provisions of this order shall not apply to religious ritual breads when sold for and on the occasion of the religious holidays to which they are appropriate.

(7) No baker shall procure, use, or cause to be used for his account, any new plates for printing of bread wrappers which require the use of more than two colors, or any new plates which cover more than twenty percent of the exposed area of the wrapper.

(8) No baker shall provide or furnish racks, stands, or other equipment to any person, nor shall replace racks, stands or other equipment heretofore provided or furnished.

(9) All white bread shall be enriched, shall contain not less than 3 parts nor more than 4 parts of milk solids to 100 parts of flour, and shall contain not more than 2 parts of shortening and not more than 4 parts of sugar or other related fermentable carbohydrate solids. All parts shall be determined by weight of material used.

(c) Reports. Bakers and other sellers of bread or rolls to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the Department of Agriculture such reports as said Department may from time to time require.

(d) Records. Bakers shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production, and sales.

(e) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the Department of Agriculture.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(h) Delegation of authority. The Food Distribution Administration is hereby designated as the agency within the Department to administer the provisions of this order.

(i) Communications to Department of Agriculture. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD–1.

(j) Effective date. This order shall become effective as of 12:01 a. m., E. W. T., January 18, 1943, except as otherwise provided herein.

Chapter X—Areas Restricted for National Defense Purposes

[Public Proclamation No. 3]

PART 105—ESTABLISHMENT OF MILITARY AREAS

PROHIBITED AND RESTRICTED ZONES: EASTERN MILITARY AREA

DECEMBER 21, 1942.

Headquarters, Eastern Defense Command and First Army, Governors Island, New York.

To: The people within the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, part of the State of Florida and the District of Columbia.

Whereas, the Eastern Military Area was prescribed by Public Proclamation No. 1,[1] this Headquarters, dated May 16, 1942, under authority contained in Executive Order of the President, No. 9066, dated February 19, 1942; and

Whereas, the present situation requires as a matter of military necessity that restrictions be imposed and prohibited and restricted zones designated, in addition to restrictions already imposed and zones already designated by Public Proclamations Nos. 1[1] and 2,[2] this Headquarters, dated respectively May 16, 1942 and September 7, 1942;

Now, therefore, I, Hugh A. Drum, Lieutenant General, U. S. Army, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the President of the United States and by the Secretary of War and my powers and prerogatives as Commanding General of the Eastern Defense Command and First Army, charged with the defense of the Eastern Seaboard, do hereby declare, order and proclaim that:

§ 105.3 Additional prohibited and restricted zones; Eastern Military Area. (a) Within the Eastern Military Area there are hereby designated Prohibited Zones A–1000 to A–1503, A–2000 to A–2525, A–3000 to A–3694, A–4000 to A–4156 and A–5000 to A–5020, all numbers inclusive. The location and extent of said prohibited zones shall be described and defined by the posting of appropriate signs at the entrances to and exits from such zones, along the outside boundaries thereof, and at such other places therein as shall give full and complete notice of the area included. Effective from the date of this proclamation, the restrictions governing the right of any person to enter, remain in, or leave said zones are the restrictions already prescribed by paragraphs 9 d, e, f, and g of Public Proclamation No. 2, (§ 105.2 (i) (4), (5), (6) and (7)) as applicable to prohibited zones therein designated.

---

[1] 7 F.R. 3830.

[2] 7 F.R. 7335.

(b) (1) Within the Eastern Military Area, there are hereby designated Restricted Zones B–70, B–71, B–2000 to B–2116, B–3000 to B–3009, B–4000 to B–4009 and B–5000 to B–5015, all numbers inclusive. The location and extent of Restricted Zones B–70 and B–71 are more particularly described and defined in Exhibit No. 1,[3] hereto attached, and are shown on the maps marked Exhibits Nos. 6 and 12, hereto attached. The location and extent of Restricted Zones B–2000 to B–2116, B–3000 to B–3009, B–4000 to B–4009 and B–5000 to B–5015, all numbers inclusive, shall be described and defined in the manner provided in paragraph (a) of this section for the description and definition of the prohibited zones therein designated.

(2) Included in the restricted zones designated by this proclamation are bridges, viaducts, tunnels, railroad yards and operating and maintenance facilities, motor freight areas, airports and air fields, dams, reservoirs, flumes, conduits, coastal areas, harbor facilities and installations, and areas fronting on ports and harbors.

(3) Effective from the date of this proclamation, the restrictions governing the right of any person to enter, remain in, or leave Restricted Zones B–2000 to B–2116, B–3000 to B–3009, B–4000 to B–4009 and B–5000 to B–5015, all numbers inclusive, are the restrictions already prescribed by paragraphs 9 e, (4), (5), (7), (9), (11), 9 f, 9 i, 9 j, 9 l, and 9 m of Public Proclamation No. 2 (§ 105.2 (i) (5) (iv), (v), (vii), (ix) and (xi), (6), (9), (10), (12), and (13)) as applicable to certain zones therein designated, and the restrictions governing the right of any person to enter, remain in, or leave Restricted Zones B–1, and B–4 to B–71 inclusive, are the restrictions already prescribed by paragraphs 9 e (4), (5), (7), (9), (11), 9 f, 9 h, 9 i, 9 j, 9 k, 9 l, and 9 m of Public Proclamation No. 2, (§ 105.2 (i) (5) (iv), (v), (vii), (ix) and (xi), (6), (8), (9), (10), (11), (12), and (13)) as applicable to certain zones therein designated. These restrictions are set forth in Exhibit No. 4, hereto attached.

(c) Effective from the date of this proclamation, the right of any person to enter, remain in, or leave the Eastern Military Area, or any part or zone thereof, shall be subject to the following restriction, which said restriction is hereby promulgated. This restriction is in addition to other restrictions imposed by this and previous proclamations.

No person not authorized by competent military or civil authority shall knowingly have in his possession, alter, display, deface, destroy, post, or remove, or knowingly cause to be altered, displayed, defaced, destroyed, posted or removed, any sign, proclamation, or order, printed, published or posted pursuant to authority or direction contained in any proclamation or order of this Headquarters promulgated or issued under authority contained in Executive Order of the President of the United States, No. 9066, dated February 19, 1942, or any simulation, reproduction, or copy of any such sign.

(d) Current military necessity requiring such action, the location and extent of certain prohibited zones designated by Public Proclamation No. 2, this Headquarters, September 7, 1942, are hereby changed. As so changed, the location and extent of Prohibited Zones A–12, A–27, A–34, A–70, A–111 and A–177 are more particularly described and defined in Exhibit No. 2, hereto attached. As so changed, the location and extent of certain other prohibited zones, designated by Public Proclamation No. 2 [§ 105.2] shall be described and defined in the manner provided in paragraph (a) of this section for the description and definition of prohibited zones therein designated.

(e) Current military necessity requiring such action, the location and extent of Restricted Zones B–3, B–25, B–26, B–36, B–37, B–38, B–40, B–43, B–65, B–66, B–67 and B–69 designated by Public Proclamation No. 2, this Headquarters, September 7, 1942, are hereby changed. As so changed, the location and extent of such restricted zones are more particularly described in Exhibit No. 3, hereto attached, and are shown on the maps hereto attached and marked Exhibits Nos. 5 to 11, inclusive.

(f) Any person who violates any restriction or order issued or adopted by the Commanding General, Eastern Defense Command and First Army, pursuant to the authority cited in the preamble of this Proclamation, applicable to the whole or any part of the Eastern Military Area, is subject to immediate exclusion from the Eastern Military Area, or any part or zone thereof, and to the penalties provided by Title 18, Section 97A, United States Code. In addition, if two or more persons conspire to violate this section and one or more do any act to effect the object of such conspiracy, each of the parties will be subject to the penalties provided by Title 18, section 88, United States Code. In the case of an alien enemy, such person will, in addition, be subject to immediate apprehension and internment.

(g) A copy of this proclamation shall be displayed for public inspection at every Selective Service Local Board; at every Post Office; at every Court House; and at every Town Hall within the Eastern Military Area. It shall be the duty of every person found within the Eastern Military Area to familiarize himself with the terms of every proclamation, announcement, or restriction issued by this Headquarters.

[SEAL] H. A. DRUM,
Lieutenant General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

Confirmed:

J. A. ULIO,
Major General,
The Adjutant General.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Regulations, Serial No. 248]

PART 292—EXEMPTIONS AND CLASSIFICATIONS

CLASSIFICATION AND EXEMPTION OF ALASKAN AIR CARRIERS

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Board held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of October 1942.

The Civil Aeronautics Board, acting pursuant to the authority vested in it by the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, particularly sections 205 (a), 401 (f), and 416 thereof, and in accordance with certain findings and conclusions set forth in its opinion issued concurrently herewith in Alaska Air Transportation Investigation, Docket Nos. 71–401–E–1, et al., relating to Alaskan air carriers, and finding that the present enforcement of all the provisions of Title IV of said Act would be an undue burden on said air carriers by reason of the limited extent of and the unusual circumstances affecting the operations of said air carriers, and would not be in the public interest, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby makes and promulgates the following regulation, amending § 292.2 of the Economic Regulations to read as follows:

§ 292.2 Classification and exemption of Alaskan air carriers—(a) Classification of Alaskan air carriers. There is hereby established, within the meaning of section 416 (a) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, a classification of air carriers which engage solely in air transportation within the Territory of Alaska, said classification to be designated as "Alaskan air carriers."

(b) Termination of existing exemption of Alaskan air carriers. On and after the effective date of this regulation, § 292.1 of the Economic Regulations (formerly designated as Regulation 400–1) temporarily exempting nonscheduled operations from certain provisions of Title IV of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, shall not be applicable to Alaskan air carriers.

(c) Temporary exemption of Alaskan air carriers. Until the Board shall adopt further rules, regulations, or orders, Alaskan air carriers shall be exempted from the provisions of sections 403, 405 (e), and 407 (b) of Title IV of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, and the regulations of the Civil Aeronautics Board promulgated under said Title IV, excepting the following sections of said regulations: § 216.1 Petitions for determination of rates of compensation for transportation of mail; § 228.1 Free travel for postal employees; § 238.1 Applications for Certificates of Public Convenience and Necessity; § 238.6 Temporary suspensions of service; § 248.1 Approvals of interlocking relationships; § 251.1 Filing copies of agreements; § 280.1 Reports of stock ownership by officers and directors of air carriers; and § 285.1 Rules of practice. Said air carriers also shall be exempted from the provisions of sections 401 (a) and 404 (a) of Title IV of the Act insofar as the enforcement of said sections would prevent any such air carrier:

[3] Exhibits mentioned herein were filed as part of the original document.

(1) From providing, over a regular route designated in a certificate of public convenience and necessity, service, of the same types authorized by the certificate, to such additional points not named in the certificate as are situated within the territory which would ordinarily be served by such route;

(2) From transporting mail over postal routes 78182 and 78187 (blanket authorizations of the Postmaster General relating to the transportation of first-class mail) to the extent that mail may be tendered by the postmasters in Alaska for transportation over said postal routes;

(3) From transporting over postal routes designated by the Postmaster General as "gratuitous" routes, such mail as may be tendered by postmasters in Alaska for transportation over such routes; or

(4) From engaging in air transportation required to meet emergencies arising out of the present war, as may be directed by the military authorities.

(d) Charter trips and other special services. Every Alaskan air carrier may make charter trips and render other special services between points on routes which it is authorized by its certificate to serve. Charter trips and other special services may also be rendered to or from any other point: Provided, That such trips originate at or are destined to a point on a route (regular or irregular) the carrier is authorized by its certificate to serve; And provided further, That all such trips are casual, occasional, or infrequent, and are not made in such manner as to result in establishing a regular or scheduled service. The provisions of § 239.1 of the Economic Regulations which require air carriers to secure approval of the Commanding General, The Air Transport Command, or his designee, to operate any charter trip or other special service, shall not apply to Alaskan air carriers until further order of the Board.

This regulation shall take effect on January 12, 1943: Provided, however, That it shall not become effective for a period of 90 days thereafter with respect to air transportation services rendered by any Alaskan air carrier and not authorized by the certificate of public convenience and necessity issued to such carrier or by the provisions of this regulation.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] DARWIN CHARLES BROWN,
Secretary.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter VI—National War Labor Board

[General Order 24]

PART 803—GENERAL ORDERS

AUTHORIZATION TO DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE TO PASS ON WAGE AND SALARY ADJUSTMENTS FOR DESIGNATED EMPLOYEES

§ 803.24 General Order No. 24. (a) The National War Labor Board hereby delegates to the Secretary of Agriculture, to be exercised on his behalf by the Director of Personnel of the Department of Agriculture (hereafter referred to as Agriculture Department Agency), the power to approve or disapprove all applications for wage and salary adjustments (insofar as approval thereof has been made a function of the National War Labor Board) covering employees of the Department of Agriculture, and employees of instrumentalities of the Department of Agriculture, within the continental limits of the United States and Alaska whose wages and salaries are not fixed by statute, including:

(1) Employees and members of Agricultural Conservation Committees,

(2) Employees under cooperative agreements,

(3) Employees of agencies under supervision of the Farm Credit Administration, and

(4) Persons engaged in the administration of marketing agreements, orders, and licenses,

all in accordance with the further provisions of this order.

(b) In the performance of its duties hereunder, the Agriculture Department Agency shall comply with the terms of Executive Order 9250, dated October 3, 1942 and any General Order or policy of the National War Labor Board heretofore or hereafter issued thereunder. The Agriculture Department Agency, without making an initial ruling thereon, may refer to the Board, for decision by the Board, any case which, in the opinion of the Agency presents doubtful or disputed questions of sufficient seriousness and import to warrant direct action by the Board.

(c) The Agriculture Department Agency shall transmit to the Review and Analysis Division of the National War Labor Board monthly reports of its rulings, and copies of its rules of procedure, if any, as they are issued, and such additional data and reports as said Division or the Board may from time to time deem necessary.

(d) Any ruling by the Agriculture Department Agency hereunder shall be deemed to be the act of the National War Labor Board and shall be final, subject to the National War Labor Board's ultimate power to review rulings on its own initiative, and to reverse or modify the same. Any such order of reversal or modification shall not be retroactive and shall allow the Agriculture Department Agency a period of two weeks from the date of the Board's order, within which to comply with the order.

(E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

Adopted December 17, 1942.

PART 803—GENERAL ORDERS

AUTHORIZATION OF TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY TO PASS ON WAGE AND SALARY ADJUSTMENTS OF ITS EMPLOYEES

§ 803.25 General Order No. 25. (a) The National War Labor Board hereby delegates to the Board of Directors of the Tennessee Valley Authority the power to approve or disapprove all applications for wage and salary adjustments (insofar as approval thereof has been made a function of the National War Labor Board) of employees of the Tennessee Valley Authority, in accordance with the further provisions of this order.

(b) In the performance of its duties hereunder the Board of Directors of the Tennessee Valley Authority shall comply with Executive Order 9250, dated October 3, 1942, and all regulations heretofore or hereafter issued thereunder and with the declaration of wage policy of the National War Labor Board dated November 6, 1942. The Board of Directors of the Tennessee Valley Authority, without making an initial ruling thereon may refer to the National War Labor Board, for decision by the Board, any application which in its opinion presents doubtful or disputed questions of sufficient seriousness and import to warrant direct action by the Board.

(c) The Board of Directors of the Tennessee Valley Authority shall transmit to the Review and Analysis Division of the National War Labor Board copies of its rulings, and rules of procedure, if any, as they are issued, and such additional data and reports as said Division or the Board may, from time to time, deem necessary.

(d) Any ruling by the Board of Directors of the Tennessee Valley Authority hereunder shall be deemed the act of the National War Labor Board and shall be final, subject to the National War Labor Board's right to review rulings on its own motion, and to reverse or modify the same. Any such reversal or modification shall not be retroactive and shall allow the Tennessee Valley Authority a period of two weeks for compliance.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A–1736]

PART 329—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 9

AMENDED ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order amending order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 9 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 9.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was filed with the Division by the above-named party, requesting among other things a change in the shipping point for the coals of the Lee & Williams Mine, Mine Index No. 306, of Lee & Williams (Tom Lee), for all shipments except truck.

In an order issued December 1, 1942, 7 F. R. 10427, in the above-entitled matter, temporary relief was granted and provision was made that such relief would become final in sixty (60) days from the date thereof unless it should otherwise be ordered. Among other matters, this order established Dawson Springs, Kentucky, on the Illinois Central Railroad as the rail shipping point for the coals produced by the said mine in place of Daylight, Kentucky.

On December 21, 1942, District Board No. 9 filed a motion requesting that Daylight, Kentucky, be reestablished as the shipping point for the said mine in place of Dawson Springs, Kentucky. In support of its motion, the district board alleges that Lee & Williams, the present operators of Mine Index No. 306, erred in requesting a change in shipping points from Daylight, Kentucky, to Dawson Springs, Kentucky, and that the said operators now request that the former shipping point, Daylight, Kentucky, on the Illinois Central Railroad, be restored.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the order dated December 1, 1942, 7 F.R. 10427, in the above-entitled matter be and it hereby is vacated and set aside to the extent that it pertains to the Lee & Williams Mine, Mine Index No. 306 of Lee & Williams (Tom Lee) and that in all other respects the said order shall remain in full force and effect.

Dated: December 28, 1942.

Director.

[Department Circular 704, 1942]

PART 319—OBLIGATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES AS CREDIT AGAINST VICTORY TAX CREDIT AGAINST VICTORY TAX

DECEMBER 29, 1942.

The following regulations are issued pursuant to Subchapter D, Part I, sec. 453 (a) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by the Revenue Act of 1942, which reads as follows:

> SEC. 453. CREDIT AGAINST VICTORY TAX.
> (a) Allowance of credit. There shall be allowed as a credit against the victory tax for each taxable year: * * *
> (3) The amount by which the amount of obligations of the United States owned by the taxpayer on the last day of the taxable year exceeds the greater of (A) the amount of such obligations owned by the taxpayer on December 31, 1942, or (B) the highest amount of such obligations owned by the taxpayer on the last day of any preceding taxable year ending after December 31, 1942. As used in this paragraph (i) the term "owned by the taxpayer" shall include the amount of the obligations owned solely by the taxpayer and one-half of the amount of the obligations owned jointly by the taxpayer with one other person, but shall not include such obligations acquired by the taxpayer by gift, or inheritance, or otherwise than by purchase; (ii) the term "obligations of the United States" means such obligations of the United States as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe, and as are purchased in such manner and under such terms and conditions as he may specify; and (iii) the term "amount of obligations of the United States" means the amount paid for such obligations.

(1) The following classes of securities issued by the United States are prescribed as "obligations of the United States" within the meaning of such term as used in Subchapter D, Part I, sec. 453 (a) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

United States Savings Bonds, Series E, F, and G.

(2) The right is reserved to amend or supplement this circular, at any time, or from time to time.

PART 1076—PLUMBING AND HEATING SIMPLIFICATION

[Schedule XII to Limitation Order L–42, as Amended December 30, 1942]

PLUMBING FIXTURES

Section 1076.14 Schedule XII to Limitation Order L–42[1] is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1076.14 Schedule XII to Limitation Order L–42—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures, processes or fabricates plumbing fixtures.

(2) "Plumbing fixture" means any bathtub, bidet, bath (foot sitz), drain pool (for a septic tank system), drain board, fountain (drinking, wash), interceptor (grease, oil, plaster), lavatory, laundry tray, sink (except a scullery sink, with or without drain boards), sink and laundry tray combination, sink leg, shower receptor, shower stall and receptor combination, septic tank, trap standard, water closet bowl (including frost proof bowl), urinal, urinal tank, water closet tank (other than a pressure tank for a frost proof closet); but it does not include any plumbing fixture trim not specifically named in this schedule:

(b) Limitations. Pursuant to Limitation Order L–42 the following limitations are established for the manufacture of plumbing fixtures:

No metal may be used in the manufacture of plumbing fixtures except that:

(1) Any person may incorporate into any plumbing fixture the minimum quantity of metal which is required for coating, nuts, bolts, screws, clamps, rivets and other items of joining hardware, excluding chair carriers, which are necessary for the construction, assembly or installation of the plumbing fixture, provided that such use is not prohibited by any other order of the Director General for Operations.

(2) In addition, any person may incorporate into any of the following named plumbing fixtures the metals specified in quantities not exceeding those designated, provided that such use is not prohibited by any other order of the Director General for Operations:

(i) Into any wash fountain, 36 inches or more in diameter, including reinforcing mesh and rods, trap, column, fixture trim and internal piping, twenty-five pounds of metal (including a maximum of one pound of copper or copper base alloy);

(ii) Into any grease interceptor (excluding flow control device), five pounds of ferrous metal;

(iii) Into any oil interceptor, five pounds of ferrous metal;

(iv) Into any plaster interceptor, eight pounds of ferrous metal;

(v) Into any cement or concrete laundry tray, one ounce of zinc for waste plug in each outlet and ferrous metal as follows: one compartment, one and a half pounds for reinforcement, one and a half pounds for cast-in waste fitting; two compartments, two pounds for reinforcement, two and a half pounds for cast-in twin waste fitting; three compartments, three pounds for reinforcement, four pounds for one single cast-in waste fitting and one cast-in twin waste fitting;

(vi) Into any cement or concrete shower receptor and cast-in drain, six pounds of ferrous metal;

(vii) Into any shower stall and receptor combination, twenty-four pounds of ferrous metal (only secondary quality of sheet steel, including the rejects and trimmings, may be used);

(viii) Into any concrete septic tank, ferrous metal required for reinforcement only, inlet or outlet connection, internal syphon and internal syphon pipe connection;

(ix) Into any water closet bowl that is to be supplied with water through a diaphragm or a piston type flush valve or a pressure tank, one pound of ferrous metal for spud;

(x) Into any water closet bowl that is to be supplied with water from a water closet tank, one pound of ferrous metal for spud, but on and after February 15, 1943, no metal shall be incorporated into any such spud;

(xi) Into any component working parts of any tank for water closet or urinal (other than a pressure tank for a frost proof closet), four pounds of metal; and

(xii) Into any urinal, one pound of ferrous metal for spuds.

(3) The restrictions of this order shall not apply to the use of lead.

(c) General exceptions. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this schedule shall not apply to the use of metal in the manufacture of any plumbing fixture or any part thereof which is being produced:

(1) Under a specific contract or subcontract for use in chemical plants, research laboratories or hospitals, where and to the extent that the physical, chemical and aseptic properties make the use of other materials impracticable. This exception, however, does not include any plumbing fixture used in private rooms or nurses' or attendants' quarters in any plant, laboratory or hospital.

(2) Under a specific contract or subcontract for use as part of the equipment of any aircraft or any vessel other than a pleasure craft where the use of other material is impracticable: Provided, however, That no monel metal shall be used in the manufacture of any trough urinal.

(3) Under a specific contract or subcontract specifying trough urinals for delivery to, or for the account of, the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration for use outside the continental United States (the several States and the District of Columbia): Provided, however, That no monel metal shall be used in the manufacture of any such trough urinal.

(d) Simplified practices; exceptions. No plumbing fixtures which do not conform to the standards established by this schedule shall be produced or delivered by any producer or accepted from any producer except with the express permission of the Director General for Operations: Provided, however, That the foregoing shall not prohibit the delivery by any producer of such plumbing fixtures as were in his stock in finished form on December 30, 1942, nor the receipt of such plumbing fixtures from such producer: Provided, further, That the foregoing shall not prohibit machining or assembling materials put into process prior to December 30, 1942, nor the delivery of the completed plumbing fixtures so produced, nor receipt of such plumbing fixtures from the producer: Provided, That the plumbing fixtures covered by the foregoing exceptions were not processed, produced or delivered in violation of this schedule as in effect prior to December 30, 1942.

(e) Reports. Each producer to whom this schedule applies, shall on or before the 15th day of each month, file with the War Production Board a report on Form PD 727 which shall cover the preceding month or portion thereof.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[MPR 220[1] Amendment 2]

CERTAIN RUBBER COMMODITIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1315.1551 is amended; § 1315.1563 is revoked; a new § 1315.1568 is added and in paragraph (a) of § 1315.1564, subparagraph (4), (5) and (7) are amended and a new subparagraph (8) is added, as set forth below:

§ 1315.1551 Applicability of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 220 and the General Maximum Price Regulation—(a) What commodities must be priced under this regulation. This regulation is applicable to the commodities listed in Appendix A (§ 1315.1568) when they are made in whole or in part of rubber, if their maximum prices would be established by the General Maximum Price Regulation in the absence of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 220. This regulation applies, instead of the General Maximum Price Regulation, to such commodities. However, this Maximum Price Regulation No. 220 is not applicable to any commodity listed in Appendix A if its maximum price is established by any other regulation, issued or which may be issued by the Office of Price Administration. Specifically but not exclusively, this Maximum Price Regulation No. 220 is not applicable to sales or deliveries, the maximum prices of which are established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 136—Machines and Parts, and Machinery Services; Maximum Price Regulation No. 157—Sales and Fabrication of Textiles, Apparel and Related Articles for Military Purposes and Maximum Price Regulation No. 188—Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods other than Apparel. A commodity that must be priced under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 220 will henceforth be referred to as a "rubber commodity."

(b) Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Section 1499.1 to 1499.3, inclusive, §§ 1499.4a, 1499.13, 1499.16, 1499.18, 1499.21 and §§ 1499.23 to 1499.25, inclusive, of the General Maximum Price Regulation are not applicable to sales or deliveries of rubber commodities, except as provided by paragraph (d) of the next section (§ 1315.1552). However, all other sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation, together with existing and subsequent supplementary regulations (including Supplementary Regulation No. 4) and amendments to such sections are applicable to rubber commodities.

§ 1315.1564 Definitions. (a) * * *

(4) "Rubber commodity" means any article listed in Appendix A, incorporated herein as § 1315.1568, when made in whole or in part of rubber, the maximum price for which would be established by the General Maximum Price Regulation in the absence of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 220.

(5) "Rubber" means substitute rubber and all forms and types of rubber, including synthetic, reclaimed and balata rubber.

* * * * *

(7) "Synthetic rubber" means a material obtained by chemical synthesis, possessing the approximate physical properties of natural rubber, when compared in either the vulcanized or unvulcanized condition, which can be vulcanized with sulphur or other chemicals with the application of heat, and which, when vulcanized, is capable of rapid elastic recovery after being stretched to at least twice its length at temperatures ranging from 0° F. to 150° F. at any humidity.

(8) "Substitute rubber" means a substance made in whole or in part by a chemical process or from natural gums, resins or oils which in physical properties sufficiently resembles natural or synthetic rubber to replace either of them for particular uses, including uses where only some and not all of the physical characteristics of natural or synthetic rubber are needed, and which serves the same use as natural or synthetic rubber in the particular application in which it is applied.

§ 1315.1568 Appendix A: Articles covered by the regulations. The following articles, when made in whole or in part of rubber, shall be covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 220:

NOTE: This Maximum Price Regulation No. 220 does not apply to any sale or delivery of the articles listed below for which a maximum price is in effect at the time of such sale or delivery under the provisions of any other price regulation, issued, or which may be issued, by the Office of Price Administration. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 220 applies, instead of the General Maximum Price Regulation, to the articles listed below, when they are made in whole or in part of rubber. However, this Maximum Price Regulation No. 220 does not apply to sales or deliveries of the articles listed below if they have been exempted from the General Maximum Price Regulation by any supplementary regulation thereto. Manufacturers selling articles listed below should, before pricing their products in accordance with this Maximum Price Regulation No. 220 determine: (a) whether price regulations, other than the General Maximum Price Regulations, have been issued with respect to the articles so listed and (b) whether sales or deliveries of the articles listed have been exempted from the General Maximum Price Regulation by any supplementary regulation thereto.

Part 1358—Tobacco

[MPR 260,[1] Amendment 3]

CIGARS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Paragraph (e) § 1358.102 is amended; paragraph (e) of § 1358.102a is amended; § 1358.107 is revoked and a new § 1358.107 is substituted therefor and a new paragraph (c) is added to § 1358.115a, as set forth below:

§ 1358.102 * * *

(e) Maximum prices for new brands of domestic cigars. (1) The maximum list price and the maximum retail price of any new brand or size of domestic cigars which a manufacturer desires to manufacture and sell after January 4, 1943, shall be determined by the manufacturer subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration: Provided, That in the case of any new brand or size of domestic cigars of the same size and quality as a brand of domestic cigars for which maximum prices are established under §§ 1358.102 and 1358.116, Appendix A, the maximum prices of such new brand or size of domestic cigars shall be those established for cigars of that size and quality under §§ 1358.102 and 1358.116 Appendix A.

(2) Any manufacturer who determines the maximum prices of a new brand or size of domestic cigars pursuant to subparagraph (1) shall, within ten days after making such determination, send by registered mail addressed to the Office of Price Administration, Tobacco Section, Washington, D. C., a true and correct written statement setting forth:

(i) The name of such new brand or size of domestic cigars, the maximum list price and the maximum retail price thereof as determined by the manufacturer pursuant to subparagraph (1) and the schedule of discounts and allowances to be applicable to sales thereof by the manufacturer to each class of purchaser.

(ii) The name and the maximum price of the brand of domestic cigars, if any, which the manufacturer considers to be of the same size and quality as such new brand or size of domestic cigars.

(iii) A full and complete description of the kinds and quantities of each grade of tobacco and all other materials to be used in the manufacture and packing of such new brand or size of domestic cigars, and the cost thereof computed on the basis of November 1, 1942 cost of tobacco and materials.

(iv) A full and complete itemization of all costs of labor to be used in the manufacture and packing of such new brand or size of domestic cigars computed on the basis of November 1, 1942 costs of labor.

(3) On and after twenty days from the receipt by the Office of Price Administration of the statement provided for in subparagraph (2), but not before, the manufacturer sending such statement shall be authorized to manufacture and sell, and every wholesaler and retailer may sell, and any purchaser may buy such new brand or size of domestic cigars for prices not in excess of the maximum prices so determined: Provided, that no manufacturer shall be authorized to manufacture and sell a new brand or size of domestic cigars the maximum prices of which have been determined under subparagraph (1) after receipt of written notice of objection to such maximum prices sent by the Office of Price Administration or by any duly authorized officer thereof within said twenty day period.

(4) Manufacturer's and wholesalers' discounts on sales of a new brand or size of domestic cigars shall not be less than those allowed in March 1942 on their sales of cigars in the same price class to the same class of purchasers. Manufacturer's and wholesalers' price differentials in packings charged in March 1942 on sales of cigars in the same price class may be charged on sales of such new brand or size of domestic cigars, but shall not be increased. Manufacturer's and wholesalers' price differentials in packings allowed in March 1942 on sales of cigars in the same price class shall be allowed on sales of such new brand or size of domestic cigars and shall not be reduced. If a new brand or size of domestic cigars is of a price class not previously sold by a particular manufacturer, the maximum discounts on sales thereof shall be those established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 260 for domestic cigars of that price class by the most closely competitive manufacturer thereof and packing differentials charged or allowed shall not be greater or less respectively, than those charged or allowed by such most closely competitive manufacturer on sales of domestic cigars of that price class.

(5) On or before the first delivery of any new brand or size of domestic cigars to any purchaser, every seller (other than a retailer) shall notify the purchaser of the exact amount of his maximum list price and the exact amount of the maximum retail price of the cigars being sold by delivering to such purchaser a written statement as follows:

> On our new brand and/or size (describe cigar) of domestic cigars we are authorized by the Office of Price Administration to establish a maximum list price of $-------- per thousand and a maximum retail price of ------ cents each (or ---- for ---- cents). Manufacturer's and wholesalers' discounts on sales of this brand are to be not less than those allowed in March 1942 on their sales of cigars in the same price class to the same class of purchasers. All packing differentials charged in March 1942 on sales of cigars in the same price class may be charged on sales of this brand and may not be increased. All packing differentials allowed in March 1942 on sales of cigars in the same price class are to be allowed on sales of this brand and may not be reduced. Wholesalers receiving this notice are required to give similar notice to every purchaser to whom they sell or deliver any of this brand of cigars on or before the first delivery to such purchaser. The Office of Price Administration requires you to keep this notice for examination.

(6) Any seller of any brand of domestic cigars other than private brands of a particular size, quality and price class, sold and delivered during March 1942 may sell such brand at the maximum prices established therefor under §§ 1358.102 and 1358.116 Appendix A under a new brand name, private or otherwise, without compliance with subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this section. Any seller of a private brand of domestic cigars of a particular size, quality and price class sold or delivered during March 1942 may sell such private brand at the maximum prices established therefor under §§ 1358.102 and 1358.116 Appendix A under a new private brand name, but only as a private brand, without compliance with subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this section. Any such sellers shall, however, comply with the provisions of subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this section.

(7) The maximum prices of any new brand or size of domestic cigars established pursuant to this paragraph (e) shall be subject to modification by the Office of Price Administration or any duly authorized officer thereof at any time.

§ 1358.102a * * *

(e) Maximum prices for new brands or sizes of imported cigars. (1) The maximum list price and the maximum retail price of any new brand or size of imported cigars which an importer desires to import and sell after January 4, 1943, shall be determined by the importer subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration: Provided, That in the case of any new brand or size of imported cigars of the same size and quality as a brand of imported cigars for which maximum prices are established under §§ 1358.102a and 1358.117 Appendix B, the maximum prices of such new brand or size of imported cigars shall be those established for imported cigars of that size and quality under §§ 1358.102a and 1358.117 Appendix B.

(2) Any importer who determines the maximum price of a new brand or size of imported cigars pursuant to subparagraph (1) shall, within ten days after making such determination, send by registered mail addressed to the Office of Price Administration, Tobacco Section, Washington, D. C., a true and correct written statement setting forth

(i) The name of such new brand or size of imported cigars, the maximum list price and the maximum retail price thereof as determined by the importer pursuant to subparagraph (1) and a schedule of the discounts and allowances to be applicable to the importers' sales thereof to each class of purchasers.

(ii) The name and the maximum prices of the brand of imported cigars, if any, which the importer considers to be of the same size and quality as such new brand or size of imported cigars and the name of the manufacturer and importer thereof.

(iii) The name and address of the manufacturer of said new brand or size of imported cigars and a full and complete itemization of the cost thereof to the importer, including the importer's net landed cost and the manufacturer's net price.

(3) On and after twenty days from the receipt by the Office of Price Administration of the statement provided for in subparagraph (2), but not before, the importer sending such statement shall be authorized to sell, and every wholesaler and retailer may sell, and any person may buy such new brand or size of imported cigars for prices not in excess of the maximum prices so determined: Provided, That no importer shall be authorized to import and sell a new brand or size of imported cigars the maximum prices of which have been determined under subparagraph (1) after receipt of written notice of objection to such maximum prices sent by the Office of Price Administration or by any duly authorized officer thereof within said twenty day period.

(4) Importer's and wholesalers' discounts on sales of a new brand or size of imported cigars shall not be less than those allowed in March 1942 on their sales of imported cigars in the same price class to the same class of purchasers. Importer's and wholesalers' price differentials in packings charged in March 1942 on sales of imported cigars in the same price class may be charged on sales of such new brand or size of imported cigars, but shall not be increased. Importer's and wholesalers' price differentials in packings allowed in March 1942 on sales of imported cigars in the same price class shall be allowed on sales of such new brand or size of imported cigars and shall not be reduced. If a new brand or size of imported cigars is of a price class not previously sold by a particular importer, the maximum discounts on sales thereof shall be those established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 260 for imported cigars of that price class by the most closely competitive importer thereof and packing differentials charged or allowed shall not be greater or less, respectively, than those charged or allowed by such most closely competitive importer on sales of imported cigars of that price class.

(5) On or before the first delivery of any new brand or size of imported cigars to any purchaser, every seller (other than a retailer) shall notify the purchaser of the exact amount of his maximum list price and the exact amount of the maximum retail price of the cigars being sold by delivering to such purchaser a written statement as follows:

> On our new brand and/or size (describe cigar) of imported cigars we are authorized by the Office of Price Administration to establish a maximum list price of $------ per thousand and maximum retail price of ---- cents each (or ---- for ---- cents). Importer's and wholesalers' discounts on sales of this brand are to be not less than those allowed in March 1942 on their sales of imported cigars in the same price class to the same class of purchasers. All packing differentials charged in March 1942 on sales of imported cigars in the same price class may be charged on sales of this brand and may not be increased. All packing differentials allowed in March 1942 on sales of imported cigars in the same price class are to be allowed on sales of this brand and may not be reduced. Wholesalers receiving this notice are required to give similar notice to every purchaser to whom they sell or deliver any of this brand of imported cigars on or before the first delivery to such purchaser. The Office of Price Administration requires you to keep this notice for examination.

(6) Any seller of any brand of imported cigars, other than a private brand of a particular size, quality and price class, sold and delivered during March 1942 may sell such brand at the maximum prices established therefor under §§ 1358.102a and 1358.117 Appendix B under a new brand name, private or otherwise, without compliance with subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this section. Any seller of a private brand of imported cigars of a particular size, quality and price class sold or delivered during March 1942, may sell such private brand at the maximum prices established therefor under §§ 1358.102a and 1358.117 Appendix B under a new private brand name, but only as a private brand, without compliance with subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this section. Any such sellers shall, however, comply with the provisions of subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this section.

(7) The maximum prices of any new brand or size of imported cigars established pursuant to this paragraph (e) shall be subject to modification by the Office of Price Administration or any duly authorized officer thereof at any time.

§ 1358.107 Federal and State taxes. (a) The amount of all Federal taxes in effect on November 2, 1942, with respect to cigars is reflected in the maximum prices for cigars established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 260 and no amount may be added to the maximum price of any seller with respect thereto.

(b) The amount of any State tax incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use of cigars which has customarily been added to the stated retail price thereof may be added to the maximum retail prices for cigars established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 260.

(c) Any seller may at any time add to his maximum prices for cigars established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 260 the amount of any new tax or any increase in an existing tax incident to the sale, delivery, processing or use thereof imposed upon the seller after November 1, 1942 by any statute of the United States or by any statute or ordinance of any State or subdivision thereof: Provided, That such amount has actually been paid or will be payable by the seller to the proper taxing authorities or to any prior vendor with respect to the particular cigars in question.

(d) If the amount of any such new tax, or increase in an existing tax which the seller may add under paragraphs (b) and/or (c) to his maximum prices includes the fractional part of a cent, the maximum price shall be adjusted to the next higher even cent, if the fraction is ½ cent or more, or to the next lower even cent if the fraction is less than ½ cent: Provided, That no retailer shall so adjust a maximum price for a single cigar of any brand to the next higher even cent unless he offers the same brand of cigars for sale in a multiple quantity sufficient to raise the amount of the new or increased tax applicable to such multiple quantity to the next higher even cent.

§ 1358.115a * * *

(c) Amendment No. 3 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 260 (§§ 1358.102 (e), 1358.102a (e), 1358.107, and 1358.115a (c)) shall become effective January 4, 1943.

PART 1412—SOLVENTS

[MPR 295]

WEST COAST ETHYL ALCOHOL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 295 is hereby issued.

Sec.
1412.151	Prohibition against sales of west coast ethyl alcohol above maximum prices.
1412.152	Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation.
1412.153	Applicability of Revised Price Schedule No. 28.
1412.154	Less than maximum prices.
1412.155	Export sales.
1412.156	Adjustable pricing.
1412.157	Petitions for amendment.
1412.158	Licensing.
1412.159	Evasion.
1412.160	Enforcement.
1412.161	Records and reports.
1412.162	Definitions.
1412.163	Geographical applicability.
1412.164	Effective dates.
1412.165	Appendix A: Maximum prices for west coast ethyl alcohol.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1412.151 to 1412.165, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1412.151 Prohibition against sales of west coast ethyl alcohol above maximum prices. (a) On and after December 29, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation:

(1) No person shall sell, deliver, or transfer west coast ethyl alcohol at higher prices than the maximum prices set forth in this regulation.

(2) No person shall buy or receive west coast ethyl alcohol in the course of trade or business at higher prices than the maximum prices set forth in this regulation.

(3) No person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

(b) Any sales or deliveries of west coast ethyl alcohol not specifically referred to in Appendix A (§ 1412.165) shall be subject to the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[2]

§ 1412.152 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Except as provided in § 1412.151 (b) the provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries of west coast ethyl alcohol for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1412.153 Applicability of Revised Price Schedule No. 28.[3] The provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of Revised Price Schedule No. 28 with respect to sales and deliveries of west coast ethyl alcohol.

§ 1412.154 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1412.155 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export west coast ethyl alcohol shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation,[4] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1412.156 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to and at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In appropriate situations where a petition for amendment requires extended consideration, the Price Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1412.157 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revisied Procedural Regulation No. 1.

§ 1412.158 Licensing. The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 11[5] (§ 1305.15) licensing distributors of chemicals and drugs, shall be applicable to every distributor of west coast ethyl alcohol for which maximum prices are established by this regulation. The term "distributor" shall have the meaning given it by such Supplementary Order No. 11.

§ 1412.159 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to west coast ethyl alcohol, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement, or other trade understanding, or by transactions with or through the agency of subsidiaries or affiliates or otherwise.

§ 1412.160 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1412.161 Reports and records. (a) Every person making sales of west coast ethyl alcohol for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, after December 28, 1942, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each purchase or sale, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and the seller, the price contracted for or received, the quantity of each type and grade of such ethyl alcohol purchased or sold, and the type of container in which such ethyl alcohol was purchased or sold.

(b) Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and shall keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1412.162 Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Manufacturer" means a person operating a factory, plant, or distillery which manufactures or produces ethyl alcohol and includes any agent of such manufacturer.

(3) "Primary reseller" means a person who purchases west coast ethyl alcohol in tank cars or carload lots from a manufacturer for resale.

(4) "West coast ethyl alcohol" means ethyl alcohol, whether pure or denatured, of 188 proof or higher produced in California, Oregon, or Washington by fermentation of carbohydrate containing materials.

(5) "Ethyl alcohol" means ethyl alcohol produced in an industrial alcohol plant for sale to any person or ethyl alcohol produced in any other type of plant for sale to the United States or any agency thereof.

(6) "Shipping point" means the point of distribution maintained by a seller from which actual shipment is made.

(7) "Gallon" means a wine gallon of 231 cubic inches unless the context otherwise requires.

(8) "Drum" means a drum having a capacity of 50 gallons or more, unless the context otherwise requires.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1412.163 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable to the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 1412.164 Effective dates. (a) This Maximum Price Regulation No. 295 shall become effective December 29, 1942.

§ 1412.165 Appendix A: Maximum prices for West Coast ethyl alcohol. The following maximum prices are established for West Coast ethyl alcohol. These maximum prices apply to sales of West Coast ethyl alcohol of 188–191.6 proof, except where otherwise specified.

(a) Sales by manufacturers in quantities of 50 gallons or more (except sales by Lac Chemicals, Incorporated, and sales for which maximum prices are established by paragraph (g) below).

All prices listed in this paragraph (a) are f. o. b. works with freight equalized to San Francisco, California, and Los Angeles, California.

(1) Heavy tonnage formulae—(i) Tank cars.

	Per gallon
CD12	$0.405
CD13	.405
CD14	.405
SD1	.38
SD2B	.39
SD3A	.38
SD12A	.40
S23A	.44
SD23G	.40
SD23H	.42
Proprietary name solvent	.42

(ii) Sales other than in tank cars. The following amounts per gallon may be added to the maximum prices established in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph for sales other than in tank cars:

Container	C. L.	Quantity, l. c. l.
		Over 950 gallons	50–950 gallons
Drums	$0.07	$0.09	$0.12
Half drums	.11	.13	.16
Barrels	.15	.17	.20
Half barrels	.22	.24	.27
5 gallon cans or drums	.17	.19	.22
Cans of less than 5 gallons	.22	.24	.27

(2) Other formulae of denatured west coast ethyl alcohol and pure west coast ethyl alcohol—(i) Tank cars—(a) Pure ethyl alcohol: $0.38 per gallon.

(b) Other formulae. The maximum price per gallon for denatured west coast ethyl alcohol of a formula not listed in subparagraph (1) above shall be a price determined as follows:

To the maximum tank car price for 100 gallons of SD2B west coast ethyl alcohol as established by subparagraph (1) (i) of this paragraph, add 115% of the net cost of the denaturants added to 100 gallons of undenatured ethyl alcohol to prepare the formula being priced; divide the sum thus obtained by the number of gallons of denatured ethyl alcohol which result from mixing 100 gallons of undenatured ethyl alcohol with the volume of denaturants added thereto to produce the formula being priced; round the thus determined price per gallon to the nearest half cent, and add $0.01 per gallon. The resulting figure is the maximum price per gallon of the formula of denatured west coast ethyl alcohol being priced.

"Net cost of the denaturants" means the delivered cost to the manufacturer of the denaturants actually used. Such "net cost" shall be determined in accordance with the accounting procedures in use by the manufacturer on September 30, 1942, for computing costs of material used, and shall not exceed the maximum delivered price to such manufacturer for such denaturants as established by any applicable regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(ii) Sales other than in tank cars. The following amounts per gallon may be added to the maximum prices established in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph for sales other than in tank cars:

Container	C. L.	Quantity, l.c.l.
		Over 950 gallons	50–950 gallons
Drums	$0.07	$0.105	$0.135
Half drums	.11	.145	.175
Barrels	.15	.185	.215
Half barrels	.22	.255	.285
5 gallon cans or drums	.17	.205	.235
Cans of less than 5 gallons	.22	.255	.285

(3) Pure and denatured west coast ethyl alcohol of proof higher than 191.6. For sales of pure west coast ethyl alcohol of higher than 191.6 proof and formulae of denatured west coast ethyl alcohol based on west coast ethyl alcohol of higher than 191.6 proof the following amounts may be added to the maximum prices established in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above:

	Per gallon
Over 191.6 and less than 199.5 proof	$0.01
199.5–200 proof	0.04

(b) Sales by Lac Chemicals, Incorporated, in quantities of 50 gallons or over. Lac Chemicals, Incorporated, of Culver City, California, may add $0.06 per gallon to the maximum prices established in paragraph (a) above, except that on sales of pure ethyl alcohol of 199.5–200 proof or denatured ethyl alcohol based on ethyl alcohol of 199.5–200 proof there may be added $0.065 per gallon.

(c) Sales by primary resellers in quantities of 50 gallons or more. For sales by a primary reseller in quantities of 50 gallons or more, the maximum prices, f. o. b. such primary reseller's shipping point, shall be the maximum prices established by paragraphs (a) and (b) above plus an amount equal to the railroad freight for a shipment of the same quantity in the same kind of containers to such primary reseller's shipping point from manufacturer's works.

(d) Containers. No extra charge may be made for containers. The seller may, however, require the buyer to return containers, but where he does so the maximum prices for the contents of any such container as established by paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) above shall be decreased by $1.65 in the case of drums, and in the case of other containers, by an amount equal to the maximum price established by the applicable regulation of the Office of Price Administration for a used container of the same kind in good condition, f. o. b. buyer's plant. Where a seller requires the return of a container, he may charge a reasonable deposit (not to exceed $5.00 in case of drums) for the return of such containers. The deposit must, of course, be repaid to the buyer upon his return of the container in good condition within a reasonable time. Transportation costs with respect to the return of empty containers to the seller shall in all cases be borne by the seller.

(e) Tax paid West Coast ethyl alcohol. The amount of any tax paid under the provisions of section 2800 of the Internal Revenue Code by the seller thereof with respect to any west coast alcohol for which maximum prices are established by paragraph (a), (b), (c) and (d) above, less the amount of any drawback received by such seller with respect to such west coast ethyl alcohol under the provisions of section 2800 of the Internal Revenue Code, may be added by such seller to the maximum prices established by paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) above for such west coast ethyl alcohol.

(f) Credit charges. The maximum prices established by this Regulation shall not be increased by any charges for the extension of credit.

(g) West coast ethyl alcohol produced in converted alcoholic beverage distilleries. (1) Until and including June 30, 1943, the maximum prices for the sale to the United States or any agency thereof of west coast ethyl alcohol of 188 proof or higher produced in a converted alcoholic beverage distillery which prior to July 1, 1942 did not sell ethyl alcohol of 188 proof or higher exclusively, shall be the maximum prices set forth in paragraphs (a) and (d) of this section, or the maximum prices computed pursuant to the following formula:

Maximum price per gallon f. o. b. works shall be the sum of the following cost items per gallon, less the recovered values of dried feed, fusel oil or the like, plus $0.04:

(1) Raw materials, in the case of molasses, not to exceed an amount computed on the basis of $18.00 per ton of 48% sugar content.

(2) Direct labor.

(3) Other conversion costs.

(4) Plant overhead.

(5) General and administrative expense, not in excess of three cents per gallon.

(2) Maximum prices computed pursuant to the formula contained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be determined for each calendar quarterly three month period. For the period after a converted beverage distillery starts production of ethyl alcohol of 188 proof or higher, and until the end of the first full calendar quarterly three month period thereafter, such maximum prices may be computed on the basis of estimated cost items. The prices for each succeeding calendar quarterly three month period, however, shall be computed on the basis of the actual cost items for the preceding period.

(3) Reports of all prices computed pursuant to the formula contained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be submitted to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. on a form to be obtained from that Office upon written request. The report for the first period after a converted alcoholic beverage distillery starts production of ethyl alcohol of 188 proof or higher for which maximum prices are computed pursuant to such formula shall be submitted within twenty days after the first sale of such ethyl alcohol by such producer, and shall show the prices he proposes to charge and the estimated cost items upon which such prices are based. Within twenty days after the end of the first period, and within twenty days after the end of each succeeding period, there shall be submitted a report on such form. Such maximum prices shall be subject to disapproval in writing at any time by the Office of Price Administration, and if a maximum price reported by a producer pursuant to this paragraph is revised downward by the Office of Price Administration, and if any payment has been made at the reported price, the producer may be required to refund the excess.

Issued this 29th day of December 1942.

LEON HENDERSON,
Administrator.

PART 1412—SOLVENTS

[Temporary MPR 24]

SALES OF MOLASSES TO WEST COAST ETHYL ALCOHOL DISTILLERS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, to issue a temporary regulation, establishing as the maximum prices for sales of molasses to ethyl alcohol distillers to be used in West Coast plants, the prices prevailing with respect thereto within the five days prior to the issuance of this regulation.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 24 is hereby issued.

Sec.
1412.201 Prohibition against dealing in molasses sold to ethyl alcohol distillers to be used in West Coast plants at prices above the maximum prices.
1412.202 Maximum prices for sales of molasses to ethyl alcohol distillers to be used in West Coast plants.
1412.203 Less than maximum prices.
1412.204 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation.
1412.205 Records and reports.
1412.206 Evasion.
1412.207 Enforcement.
1412.208 Petitions for amendment.
1412.209 Definitions.
1412.210 Effective dates.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1412.201 to 1412.210, inclusive, issued under Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871.

§ 1412.201 Prohibition against dealing in molasses sold to ethyl alcohol distillers to be used in West Coast plants at prices above the maximum prices. From December 29, 1942, to February 27, 1943, inclusive, regardless of any contract or other obligation: (a) No person shall sell or deliver molasses to an ethyl alcohol distiller to be used in a West Coast plant at prices higher than those established by this regulation.

(b) No distiller of ethyl alcohol shall buy or receive molasses to be used in a West Coast plant at prices higher than those established by this regulation.

(c) No person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

§ 1412.202 Maximum prices for sales of molasses to ethyl alcohol distillers to be used in West Coast plants. (a) A seller's maximum price to a particular ethyl alcohol distiller for molasses to be used in a West Coast plant shall be the price charged by that seller to that buyer for a delivery made during the period December 23, 1942, to December 28, 1942, inclusive.

(b) Where a seller, during the period December 23, 1942, to December 28, 1942, inclusive, did not make a delivery to a particular ethyl alcohol distiller, that seller's maximum price to such buyer for molasses to be used in a West Coast plant shall be the price at which a delivery would have been made to that buyer during the period December 23, 1942, to December 28, 1942.

§ 1412.203 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1412.204 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[2] The provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1412.205 Records and reports. (a) Each person subject to this regulation shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all his existing records relating to sales and deliveries to ethyl alcohol distillers of molasses to be used in West Coast plants.

(b) Each person subject to this regulation shall make and preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration records of the same kind as he has customarily made relating to sales of molasses for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

(c) Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to or in the place of the records required in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1412.206 Evasion. The prices set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to, any molasses for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, alone or in connection with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1412.207 Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1412.208 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

§ 1412.209 Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation the term:

(1) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Ethyl alcohol" means ethyl alcohol, whether pure or denatured, of 188 proof or higher, produced in an industrial alcohol plant for sales to any person or produced in any other type of plant for sale to the United States or any agency thereof.

(3) "West Coast plant" means a plant situated in California, Oregon, or Washington.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1412.210 Effective dates. (a) This regulation shall become effective December 29, 1942, and shall, unless earlier revoked or replaced, expire at 12 o'clock midnight, February 27, 1943.

Issued this 29th day of December 1942.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Ration Order 11,[3] Amendment 18]

FUEL OIL RATIONING REGULATIONS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of § 1394.5201, the phrase "January 7, 1943" is amended to read "December 28, 1942"; in subparagraph (2) of said paragraph (b), the phrase "January 6, 1943" is amended to read "December 28, 1942"; in subparagraph (3) of said paragraph (b), the phrase "January 5, 1943" is amended to read "December 28, 1942"; in subparagraph (4) of said paragraph (b), the phrase "January 3, 1943" is amended to read "December 28, 1942"; and a new subparagraph (5) is added to said paragraph (b); paragraph (a) of § 1394.5707 and paragraph (a) of § 1394.5723 are amended; a new paragraph (d) is added to § 1394.5731 and a new paragraph (r) is added to § 1394.5902; as set forth below:

Coupon Sheets

§ 1394.5201 Class 1 and Class 2 Coupon Sheets. * * *

(b) * * *

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this paragraph, coupons numbered "3" shall be valid from December 23, 1942, in the states of North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky. Such coupons shall expire as specified in subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this paragraph.

Restrictions on Transfers to Dealers and Suppliers

§ 1394.5707 Restriction on transfers. (a) Except as provided in § 1394.5708, on and after November 1, 1942, no primary supplier within or without the limitation area, and no dealer or supplier within the limitation area, shall transfer or offer to transfer fuel oil to any dealer or supplier within the limitation area, and no dealer or supplier within the limitation area shall accept such transfer, except in exchange (made at, or at the option of the transfer or within five (5) days after, the time of the actual transfer of fuel oil or in advance thereof) for valid coupons bearing an inscribed serial number, or for other evidences, equal in gallonage value to the amount of the fuel oil transferred, or (where transfer is regularly made on a temperature adjustment basis) equal in gallonage value to the adjusted amount of fuel oil transferred: Provided, That no dealer or supplier shall knowingly transfer, or accept the transfer of, an amount of fuel oil in exchange for any exchange certificate in excess of the amount of fuel transferred for the coupons or exchange certificates for which such exchange certificate was issued. No exchange of coupons or other evidences shall accompany a transfer of fuel oil directly from without the limitation area to a primary supplier within the limitation area, or a transfer from one primary supplier to another primary supplier.

Use of Coupons and Other Evidences

§ 1394.5723 Exchange of coupons or acknowledgments. (a) A supplier may at any time deliver to any Board in the limitation area coupons or other evidences, including exchange certificates, and obtain in return an exchange certificate or certificates (on Form OPA R-1118) equal to the gallonage value of the coupons or other evidences delivered. Such supplier shall attach to such coupons or other evidences the summary required by § 1394.5722. The Board shall furnish him in return an exchange certificate equal in gallonage value to the value of coupons or other evidences delivered. Exchange certificates shall be prepared in duplicate by the Board and shall be signed both by the supplier and by an authorized agent or member of the Board. The duplicate of such certificate shall be retained for the files of the Board. No supplier shall knowingly accept for exchange certificates delivered to the Board another exchange certificate of a gallonage value in excess of the amount of fuel oil transferred for the coupons or exchange certificates for which such exchange certificates were issued.

Reports, Audits and Inspections

§ 1394.5731 Reports by primary suppliers. * * *

(d) No primary supplier shall knowingly submit with his report to the Control and Audit Unit an exchange certificate of gallonage value in excess of the amount of fuel oil transferred in exchange for the coupons or exchange certificates for which such exchange certificate was issued.

Effective Dates

§ 1394.5902 Effective dates of amendments and corrections. * * *

(r) Amendment No. 18 (§§ 1394.5201 (b), 1394.5707 (a), 1394.5723 (a) and 1394.5731 (d)) to Ration Order No. 11 shall become effective December 24, 1942.

(Pub. Law 671, as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, Pub. Law 421, W.P.B. Directive No. 1, 7 F.R. 562, Supp. Directive No. 1-0, 7 F.R. 8418; E.O. No. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719)

PART 4—RULES GOVERNING BROADCAST SERVICES OTHER THAN STANDARD BROADCAST

INTERNATIONAL BROADCAST STATIONS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 22nd day of December, 1942;

It appearing that the Interdepartmental Committee for International Radiobroadcasting Facilities, with the approval of the Board of War Communications and the Commission, has arranged through the Office of War Information and the Office of Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs to coordinate the operation of all international broadcast stations in the interests of the Government for the conduct of psychological warfare; and

It appearing that international broadcast stations are now under direct supervision of the Government and that the suspension until further order of the Commission of certain sections of the Rules and Regulations of the Commission governing international broadcast stations will insure maximum flexibility of operation.

It is ordered, That the following sections or portion thereof, of the Rules and Regulations of the Commission be, and they are hereby, suspended until further order of the Commission:

1. Paragraph (f) (1), (2) and (3) of § 4.43 which reads as follows:

§ 4.43 * * *

(f) (1) Each licensee of an international broadcast station shall make verbatim mechanical records of all international programs transmitted.

(2) The mechanical records, and such manuscripts, transcripts, and translations of international broadcast programs as are made shall be kept by the licensee for a period of two years after the date of broadcast and shall be furnished the Commission or be available for inspection by representatives of the Commission upon request.

(3) If the broadcast is in a language other than English the licensee shall furnish to the Commission upon request such record and scripts together with complete translations in English.

2. Paragraphs (d) and (e) of § 4.44[1] which read as follows:

§ 4.44 * * *

(d) An international broadcast station will not be authorized to use more than one frequency listed in any group listed in paragraph (a) without a showing of technical necessity.

(e) Not more than one frequency shall be used simultaneously under the same authorization and call letter designation.

3. Section 4.46 which reads as follows:

§ 4.46 * * *

A supplemental report shall be filed with and made a part of each application for renewal of license and shall include statements of the following:

(a) The number of hours operated on each frequency.

---

[1] 6 F.R. 4303, 5455.

(b) A list of programs transmitted of special international interest.

(c) Outline of reports of reception and interference and conclusions with regard to propagation characteristics of the frequency assigned.

PART 13—RULES GOVERNING COMMERCIAL RADIO OPERATORS

RADIOTELEGRAPH OPERATOR'S QUALIFICATIONS

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 22nd day of December, 1942;

The Commission having under further consideration the matter of the shortage of radiotelegraph operators possessing six months' previous service as a qualified operator in a station on board a ship or ships of the United States, and having in mind the related provisions of sections 351 and 353 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and

It appearing that the Commission by Orders Nos. 83, 83-A, and 83-B suspended for the periods July 9, 1941, to January 9, 1942, January 9, 1942, to July 9, 1942, and July 9, 1942, to January 9, 1943, respectively, the requirements of six months' previous service contained in section 353 (b) of said Act and paragraphs (c) (3) and (d) (2) of § 13.61[1] of the Rules and Regulations; and

It appearing further that a shortage of radiotelegraph operators available for assignment as qualified operators on board cargo ships of the United States, who possess six months' previous service, will continue to exist subsequent to January 9, 1943, and accordingly, further suspension of the foregoing requirement is necessary;

It is ordered, That the aforesaid requirements contained in section 353 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and in paragraphs (c) (3) and (d) (2) of § 13.61 of the Rules and Regulations be, and the same are hereby, suspended for a further period beginning January 9, 1943 and ending June 30, 1943.

PART 31—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS CLASS A AND CLASS B TELEPHONE COMPANIES

STANDARD PRACTICES FOR PROPERTY RECORDS OF TELEPHONE COMPANIES

The Commission on December 22, 1942, effective July 1, 1943, amended as follows Standard Practices for the Establishment and Maintenance of Continuing Property Records by Telephone Companies having Average Annual Operating Revenues in Excess of $2,000,000, originally adopted September 15, 1942:

The note on the title page was eliminated and a new paragraph 10 was adopted. The "Standard Practices" therefore reads as follows:

1. Plant or accounting areas. (a) The continuing property record, as related to each primary plant account, shall be classified by subaccounts for each plant or accounting area. Areas already established for administrative, accounting, valuation, or other purposes may be adopted for this purpose when appropriate. In no case shall the boundaries of accounting areas cross State lines. In determining the limit of each area consideration shall be given to the quantities of property, construction conditions, operating districts, county and township lines, taxing district boundaries, city limits, and other political or geographical limits, in order that the property areas adopted may have a maximum adaptability, within the confines of practicability, for both the company's purposes and those of Federal, State, and municipal authorities. Areas once determined shall not be changed without notifying the Commission thirty days in advance of any proposed change in this respect.

(b) Not later than June 30, 1944, there shall be filed with the Commission four copies of a list of accounting areas, to be accompanied by descriptions of the boundaries of each area. Description of all proposed changes in accounting areas shall be submitted in quadruplicate concurrently with notice to the Commission of the change in areas.

2. Property-record units, "retirement units", and minor items. (a) In each of the established area subaccounts the basic units of physical property, hereinafter called "property-record units", in terms of which the perpetual inventory is to be maintained, shall be set forth separately, classified by size and type and with the amount of original (or other appropriate book) cost associated immediately with each such unit. Each company, in submitting the prescribed list of property-record units, shall show with respect to each unit of "depreciable plant" the comprised "units of property" conforming to those listed in Part 32 (Units of Property: Telephone Companies) of the Commission's Rules and Regulations, hereinafter referred to for convenience in distinction as "retirement units". When a list of property-record units has been accepted by the Commission, the property-record units set forth therein shall become the basic units referred to in this statement of standard practices.

(b) With respect to plant classifiable in account 207, "Right of way", or account 211, "Land", the units to be set forth as constituents of the property-record units shall consist of parcels of land (unless the nature of an item included in account 207 makes this provision inapplicable). Each land parcel shall be identified as to function and location. In the continuing property record or in records supplemental thereto there shall be shown with respect to each parcel the area, identity of vendor, grantor, or other conveyer of title or rights, identification of deed, lease, or other instrument, and original cost.

(c) The records shall reveal the essential details of construction and the cost of each building, each central office in each building, and each large private branch exchange. The underlying records of construction cost should be so analyzed and the analyses so maintained that, upon any retirement of one or more retirement units comprising part of a property-record unit, a reasonably accurate estimate of the retirement can be made.

(d) The record shall show the number and nature of items included in account 261, "Furniture and office equipment", and account 264, "Vehicles and other work equipment," whether such items are retired on an average retirement unit cost basis or otherwise.

3. Method of determining original cost of basic property-record units. Original cost of the basic units shall be determined on the completion reports covering the respective construction work orders or authorizations: Provided, That in those cases where the actual original cost of property installed prior to January 1, 1937, by the company maintaining the continuing property records cannot be ascertained, such original cost shall be estimated. Such estimated original cost shall be consistent with the accounting practices in effect at the time of construction of the property. The term "original cost" as used in this statement of standard practices shall mean the actual money cost of (or the current money value of any consideration other than money exchanged for) property at the time when it was first dedicated to the public use, whether by the accounting company or by predecessors. The term "original cost" shall also be used for convenience hereinafter to mean any book cost properly includible in account 100:1, account 100:3, or account 103 under the provisions of Part 31 (Uniform System of Accounts for Class A and Class B Telephone Companies) of the Commission's Rules and Regulations.

4. Average unit costs. (a) With respect to plant consisting of a large number of similar units, such as poles or wire, units of similar size and type within each specified area subaccount may be grouped according to each year of construction subsequent to 1936 and according to such more extended periods (not to exceed three years) prior to 1937 as the Commission may authorize upon a showing sufficient to warrant the adoption of such longer periods, except that the Commission may authorize periods longer than three years with respect to particular accounts. Each such average unit cost for each year (or longer authorized period) shall be set forth in the continuing property record.

(b) The averaging of unit costs permitted under the provisions of the foregoing paragraph is restricted to the averaging of costs incurred within a plant or accounting area of the nature defined in foregoing paragraph 1 (a). The provisions of paragraph 4 (a) shall not be interpreted as permitting the inclusion within such average cost of any unusual or special construction expenditures which would distort the normal unit cost otherwise applicable to the specific year (or authorized extended period) of construction. The units of each size and type to which such unusual or special construction costs are applicable shall be segregated and recorded at actual original cost.

(c) When classes of plant are subdivided between exchange and toll, the bases of the average unit costs shall be confined to items priced in the respective subdivisions.

5. Identification of basic units. There shall be shown in the continuing property record, or in records supplemental thereto, both with respect to property installed or acquired prior to January 1, 1937, and that installed or acquired subsequent to December 31, 1936, a complete description of the basic units in such detail as to identify plainly such units and to permit of a ready estimate of the cost thereof. Such description shall include the identification of the work order under which constructed, the date when charged to the appropriate asset account (unless not determinable at reasonable expense with respect to past acquisitions or installations), the date of installation if substantially different therefrom, the specific location of the property within each plant or accounting area, the manufacturer's or vendor's name and number or other identification imprinted thereon, the accounting company's number or designation, and any other description used in connection with the determination of the original cost. Descriptions of units of similar size and type shall follow prescribed groupings. Identification by manufacturer's serial number may be omitted when not required for a determination of the age of the unit.

6. Reinstalled units. When units with respect to which average unit costs are not applied under the practices herein prescribed are removed or retired and subsequently reinstalled, the date when the unit was first charged to the appropriate plant account shall be shown in addition to the date of reinstallation.

7. Age of property. The continuing property record or records supplemental thereto shall be so maintained (unless the Commission authorizes different treatment with respect to specific periods or accounts) as to permit the determination of the age of existing property and the actual service life of property retired.

8. References to sources of information. There shall be shown by appropriate reference the source of all entries. All drawings, computations, and other detailed records which support either the quantities or the costs included in the continuing property record shall be retained as a part of the continuing property record.

9. Jointly owned property. (a) With respect to jointly owned property there shall be shown:

1. The identity of all joint owners.
2. The percentage of ownership of the physical units vested in the accounting company, with a statement of whether a divided or undivided interest is owned.
3. The percentage of the total cost of the jointly owned property reflected in the continuing property record, with an explanation of any disparity from the percentage shown in compliance with the next preceding subparagraph.

NOTE: The sale of a part interest in a pole shall be recorded by crediting the amount received as a reduction of the gross cost of the pole in place, if the sale is made within the calendar year during which the pole was installed. If the sale is made after the year of installation, it shall be recorded by treating the fractional interest sold as a retirement and the amount received as salvage. The record shall be so maintained as to identify retirements of this nature (showing dates of installation and sale) separately from physical retirements of jointly owned poles.

(b) If jointly owned property is substantial in relation to the total of the same kind of property owned wholly by the company, such jointly owned property shall be appropriately segregated in the continuing property record.

10. These Standard Practices shall become effective July 1, 1943, and shall apply to all telephone companies having average annual operating revenues in excess of $2,000,000. Telephone companies whose average annual operating revenues are not in excess of $2,000,000 need not follow these Standard Practices unless required to do so by a State commission or other regulatory authority.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Bituminous Coal Division.

[General Docket No. 19]

DISTRICT 2

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of promulgating an order making limited prohibitions against the sale of coal for which no minimum prices, temporary or final, have been established.

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 2 requesting that the record in the above-entitled matter be reopened and that the order issued therein on October 9, 1940, and effective on October 14, 1940, be amended;

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on January 20, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Travis Williams, or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, to take evidence, and to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of any appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any such person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with section VIII b of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Division prior to or at the time the above-entitled matter is called for hearing. Such petition of intervention must set forth the grounds of the proposed intervention, the position and interest of the intervenor in the proceeding and, if affirmative relief is sought, it must conform to the requirements of section VI of said Rules of Practice and Procedure.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition filed herein requesting that the order issued in General Docket No. 19 on October 9, 1940, and effective on October 14, 1940, be amended to read substantially as follows:

> That no Code member shall sell bituminous coal produced by such Code member for which minimum prices, temporary or final, have not been established by the Division: Provided, however, That as to coal regarding which a 4 II (d) petition for the establishment of a classification or price has been filed with the Division, this prohibition against the sale of coal shall not be effective after thirty (30) days from the date of filing such petition, and during said thirty (30) days period, such code member may sell coal at prices not less than the minimum prices proposed therefor by the district board of the district in which such code member is a producer: And, provided, further, That as to unpriced coal which is being produced and prepared by new acceptants of the Bituminous Coal Code at the time of filing acceptance thereof, this prohibition against the sale of coal shall not apply after thirty (30) days from the date of filing such acceptance. (Italics indicate amendatory matter.)

CHICAGO RETORT AND FIRE BRICK CO.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the application of Chicago Retort and Fire Brick Company for exemption pursuant to section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

An application for a determination of the status of the coal produced at a mine of Chicago Retort and Fire Brick Company in LaSalle County, Illinois, District No. 10, having been filed by the above-named applicant pursuant to the second paragraph of section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on February 25, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section of the Division will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Travis Williams or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said applicant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person or entity desiring to be admitted as a party to the proceedings herein and eligible under section VII (i) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division shall file a petition for intervention not later than fifteen (15) days after the date of the issuance of this notice of and order for hearing.

Notice is hereby given that:

(1) Within fifteen (15) days from the date of the issuance of this notice of and order for hearing, the applicant and other parties shall file with the Division a concise statement in writing of the facts expected to be proved at the hearing. Other interested parties shall also file a written intervention in compliance with Rule VIII of the aforesaid Rules of Practice and Procedure. The statement of facts shall be considered as a pleading and not as evidence of the facts therein stated. The affirmative evidence adduced by the parties at the hearing shall be limited to the said statement of facts;

(2) If no written statement of the facts expected to be proved at the hearing is filed by the applicant within the fifteen-day period, in the absence of extenuating circumstances, the application shall be deemed to have been withdrawn on the expiration of said period in accordance with the provisions of section VII (g) of the aforesaid Rules of Practice and Procedure.

(3) If the applicant does not appear and offer evidence in support of its statement of facts, in the absence of extenuating circumstances, the application shall be deemed to have been withdrawn in accordance with the provisions of section VII (g) of the aforesaid Rules of Practice and Procedure.

(4) The burden of proof in this proceeding shall be on the applicant.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the application, other matters incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the application, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this application.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the application of Chicago Retort and Fire Brick Company pursuant to the second paragraph of section 4-A of the Act for a determination of the status of the coal produced at a mine of the Chicago Retort and Fire Brick Company in LaSalle County, Illinois, in District No. 10. The said application alleges that such coal is exempt from section 4 of the Act because it is coal produced, transported and consumed by the applicant within the meaning of section 4 II (1) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: December 28, 1942.

DISTRICT BOARD 11

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 11 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for slurry produced at Mine Index Nos. 63, 101, 108 and 112 in District No. 11.

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on February 2, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street, NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That W. A. Cuff or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before January 27, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 11 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices of zero cents per ton for the slurry produced at the New Hope and No. 6 Mines (Mine Index Nos. 63 and 101, respectively) of Linton-Summit Coal Company, Inc., and at the Friar Tuck No. 5 and Robin Hood No. 7 Mines (Mine Index Nos. 108 and 112, respectively) of Sherwood-Templeton Coal Company, Inc., code members in District No. 11, for sale, delivery or disposal to Antioch Power Company, or for the slurry coal or combustible matter reclaimed from said slurry by the Antioch Power Company and used by said Antioch Power Company in the production of electric energy.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Marketing Administration.

HANDLING OF MILK IN BOSTON, MASS. MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF REPORT, ETC.

Notice of report and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect to a proposed marketing agreement, as amended, and to Order No. 4, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area.

Pursuant to § 900.12 (a), General Regulations, as Amended, Agricultural Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, notice is hereby given of the filing with the hearing clerk of this report of the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Administration, with respect to an amended marketing agreement and to an amended marketing order regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area. Interested parties may file exceptions to this report with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1329, Department of Agriculture, Washington D C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proceeding was initiated by the Agricultural Marketing Administration as the result of written applications filed by several producers' cooperative associations, including Northern Farms Cooperative, Inc., and New England Milk Producers' Association, Inc., for a public hearing to receive evidence on several amendments they proposed. Other amendments were proposed by handlers and consumer interests after all interested parties had been notified by letter of the pending petition. It was concluded from consideration of the various proposed amendments that the hearing should be held and a notice of hearing was accordingly issued on September 17, 1942. The hearing was convened September 24, 1942, at Burlington, Vermont, and continued on September 28, 1942, at Boston, Massachusetts. The hearing included consideration of proposals for amendments made by the Dairy and Poultry Branch, Agricultural Marketing Administration.

The major issues developed at the hearing were concerned with (1) the classification of milk actually lost in handling operations (commonly known as shrinkage) and classification of buttermilk, (2) the level of prices for Class I milk both inside and outside the marketing area, (3) differentials to be allowed for cost of handling milk at country plants, (4) differentials to reflect cost of transporting milk to the market, (5) the Class II skim milk price level, and (6) the need for revision of the present plan of payments to cooperative associations from the equalization funds of the market-wide pool. In addition, several proposals of an administrative nature were also considered.

With respect to these issues, it is concluded from the record:

(1) Actual plant shrinkage should be reclassified from the present arrangement, which requires shrinkage associated with the handling of each class of milk to be in the respective class, to an arrangement whereby all actual shrinkage up to 2 percent of the quantity of milk received by handlers shall be Class II milk and the Class I price level should be increased one cent per hundredweight to offset the effect of such reclassification on handlers' net cost for Class I milk.

(2) The Class II price for milk received at country plants should be revised to reflect transportation allowances by 50-mile zones in line with average rates from such zones reflected by the "New England Joint Tariff, M-3," and to reduce the amount now reflected as a plant handling allowance from 21.5 to 20.0 cents per hundredweight.

(3) The Class I transportation differentials should be revised to reflect the lower transportation cost now accomplished by use of railroad tank car shipments which prevails for the hauling of more than 50 percent of the milk that moves to market from country receiving plants located beyond a 40-mile radius from the State House in Boston.

(4) The Class II skim value should be revised to provide a value for skim milk based on prices published by the United States Department of Agriculture for roller process skim milk powder for both human consumption and animal feed, the yield factor and manufacturing cost factor to be as now provided in milk marketing Order No. 27 (New York metropolitan marketing area), except that for the flush production months of April, May, and June the skim value shall be based on an average of such skim powder prices and the price quotations for casein now provided in Order No. 4, as amended.

(5) The separate class for milk manufactured into butter should be revised to allow this class for the months of April, May, and June rather than May, June, and September, and the butterfat portion of the price formula should be revised to provide the average of the highest prices reported daily during the current months by the United States Department of Agriculture for 92-score butter at wholesale in the New York market, minus 5 cents, then plus 20 percent, with the result converted to the milk equivalent of 100 pounds of milk at 3.7 percent butterfat content.

(6) The present requirement that new producers receive the lowest class price for all their milk during the first 2 full months during which they deliver milk to the market should be removed.

(7) Handlers with plants located outside the marketing area and between 14 and 40 miles from the State House in Boston, who receive milk directly at such plants from producers' farms should be allowed to deduct 10 cents per hundredweight from the price of all such milk rather than from only that portion which is sold as Class I in the marketing area.

(8) Administrative amendments should be made to revise the definition of the term "Secretary" to include any person who may be authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary, to amplify the powers of the market administrator to disseminate statistics and information concerning the operation of the order, to amplify the provision relating to the responsibility of handlers in establishing the classification of milk, to clarify the powers of the market administrator with respect to access to books and records necessary to verify reports of handlers, to change the reference to transportation rates from "New England Joint Tariff M-2, as amended," to "New England Joint Tariff M-3," to provide for increases in handler obligations to offset advantages gained from delinquency in paying accounts, to remove a proviso of the provision pertaining to expense of administration which has become inoperative, and to add a new section entitled "Agents," which will allow the Secretary by designation in writing to name any officer or employee of the United States or any division of the United States Department of Agriculture to act as his agent in connection with this regulation.

From the evidence in the record it is concluded that the other proposals for amendments heard at the hearing should not be adopted. These include reclassification of buttermilk from Class I to Class II, permission for a cooperative association to purchase Class II milk including skim milk from handlers and sell such milk for Class II use to persons manufacturing milk products and to provide for pricing of Class I milk sold outside the marketing area at prevailing prices in such outside markets if such prices are different from the Boston price.

On revision of the Class I price level, revision of the plan of payments to cooperatives from the market-wide pool, and revision of receiving plant handling allowances on both Class I and Class II milk, the record has not yet been completely analyzed. The evidence indicates that these points in this order are interrelated. In the present war emergency, maintenance of an adequate level of milk production and conservation of manpower, gasoline, rubber, and strategic material needs to be accomplished by improving efficiency in the assembly and transportation of milk to market. Some revision of these points to increase returns to producers should be made as an aid to maintenance of productiton and accomplishment of more efficient use of existing handling and transportation facilities, either through this order itself or in conjunction with other wartime conservation programs that may be developed. In order to avoid undue delay of other needed changes, recommendation of further revision of these two points is reserved until after a thorough examination of the evidence has been made.

The following proposed amended marketing order prepared by the Administrator pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the General Regulations, as amended, Agricultural Marketing Administration, is recommended as the detailed means by which these conclusions may be carried out. The proposed amended marketing agreement is not included in this report because the provisions thereof will be the same as the provisions of the proposed amended marketing order.

PROPOSED MARKETING ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE GREATER BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA [1]

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the public hearing held at Burlington, Vermont, September 24 and 25, and at Boston, September 28 and 29, 1942:

Findings

1. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 and 8 (e) of said act, 50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 602, 608e, are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk, and that the minimum prices set forth in this order, as amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

2. That the order, as amended by this amendment, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to handlers defined in a marketing agreement, as amended, upon which a hearing has been held; and

3. That the issuance of this amendment to the order, as amended, and all of the terms and conditions of the order, as so amended, tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Provisions

§ 904.3 Definitions—(a) Terms. As used herein the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) The term "act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended.

(2) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is, or who may hereafter be, authorized to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(3) The term "Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area," hereinafter called the "marketing area," means the territory included within the boundary lines of the cities and towns of Arlington, Belmont, Beverly, Boston, Braintree, Brookline, Cambridge, Chelsea, Dedham, Everett, Lexington, Lynn, Malden, Marblehead, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Nahant, Needham, Newton, Peabody, Quincy, Reading, Revere, Salem, Saugus, Somerville, Stoneham, Swampscott, Wakefield, Waltham, Watertown, Wellesley, Weymouth, Winchester, Winthrop, and Woburn, Massachusetts.

(4) The term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

(5) The term "producer" means any person who, in conformity with the health regulations which are applicable to milk which is sold for consumption as milk in the marketing area, produces milk and distributes or delivers to a handler, milk of his own production.

(6) The term "handler" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is a producer or an association of producers, wherever located or operating, who engages in such handling of milk, which is sold as milk or cream in the marketing area, as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce in milk and its products.

(7) The term "producer-handler" means any handler who is also a producer and who receives no milk from other producers and who either:

(i) Has milk receipts from his own production which he does not dispose of in bulk and which average less than 1,000 pounds daily, or

(ii) Processes and packages his milk at a plant located on a farm from which he receives at least 25 percent of the total receipts from his own production which he does not dispose of in bulk.

(8) The term "market administrator" means the person designated pursuant to § 904.4 as the agency for the administration hereof.

(9) The term "delivery period" means the current marketing period from the effective date hereof to and including the last day of that month. Subsequent to that month "delivery period" means the current marketing period from the first to and including the last day of each month.

§ 904.4 Market administrator—(a) Selection, removal, and bond. The market administrator shall be selected by the Secretary and shall be subject to removal by him at any time. The market administrator shall, within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary.

(b) Compensation. The market administrator shall be entitled to such reasonable compensation as may be determined by the Secretary.

(c) Powers. The market administrator shall have power:

(1) To administer the terms and provisions hereof;

(2) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the terms and provisions hereof; and

(3) To prepare and disseminate for the benefit of producers, consumers, and handlers such statistics and information concerning the operation of this order as do not reveal confidential information.

(d) Duties. The market administrator, in addition to the duties hereinafter described, shall:

(1) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for herein;

(2) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary at any and all times;

(3) Furnish such information and such verified reports as the Secretary may request;

(4) Obtain a bond with reasonable security thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(5) Publicly disclose to handlers and producers, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, the name of any person who, within 15 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not (i) made reports pursuant to § 904.7 or (ii) made payments pursuant to § 904.10;

(6) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer the terms and provisions hereof; and

(7) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 904.12, (i) the cost of his bond and of the bonds of such of his employees as handle funds entrusted to the market administrator, (ii) his own compensation, and (iii) all other expenses which will necessarily be incurred by him for the maintenance and functioning of his office and the performance of his duties.

(e) Responsibility. The market administrator, in his capacity as such, shall not be held responsible in any way whatsoever to any handler, or to any other person, for errors in judgment, for mistakes, or for other acts either of commission or omission, except for his own willful misfeasance, malfeasance, or dishonesty.

§ 904.5 Classification of milk—(a) Basis of classification. All milk received by a handler from producers or from his own production shall be classified in the classes set forth in (b) of this section in accordance with its utilization by him: Provided, That, subject to (c) of this section, if milk, including skim milk, is moved to the plant of another person who distributes milk or manufactures milk products, classification of such milk may be in accordance with its utilization by such second person. Any utilization of milk claimed by a handler shall be subject to verification by the market administrator.

(b) Classes of utilization. The classes of utilization of milk shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk the utilization of which is not established as Class II milk.

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk the utilization of which is established:

(i) As being sold, distributed, or disposed of other than as or in milk which contains one-half of 1 percent or more but less than 16 percent of butterfat; and other than as or in chocolate or flavored whole or skim milk, buttermilk, or cultured skim milk, for human consumption; and

(ii) As plant shrinkage not in excess of 2 percent of the volume handled.

(c) Disposition of milk to other markets. (1) Milk received by a handler at one of his plants not subject to the provisions hereof from persons reported by him as under contract to have their milk received and paid for as part of his supply for the marketing area shall be considered as received from producers and classified as Class I milk.

(2) Milk or skim milk disposed of by a handler to any plant not subject to the provisions hereof shall be classified as Class I milk, not to exceed the total quantity of Class I milk or skim milk at such plant.

(d) Responsibility of handlers in establishing the classification of milk. In establishing the classification of any milk received by a handler from producers, the burden rests upon the handler who receives milk from producers to account for the milk and to prove that such milk should not be classified as Class I milk.

§ 904.6 Minimum class prices—(a) Class I prices. Each handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in § 904.10, for Class I milk delivered by them, not less than the following prices:

(1) For milk delivered from producers' farms to such handler's plant located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, the price per hundredweight during each delivery period shall be as set forth in the table in this subparagraph.

92-score butter, wholesale, at New York, average of quotations of the United States Department of Agriculture for 30 days immediately preceding the 25th day of each month	Class I price for the delivery period following the 25th day of each month
Cents per pound	Dollars per cwt.
Under 40	3.64
40 or over	3.87

(2) For milk delivered from producers' farms to such handler's plant located more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, the price per hundredweight during each delivery period shall be the price effective pursuant to (1) of this paragraph minus the amount set forth in (c) of this section for the railroad freight mileage zone for the distance from the railroad shipping point for such handler's plant to such handler's railroad delivery point in the marketing area, or, if the handler has no plant in the marketing area, for the distance to Boston.

(3) For the purpose of this paragraph, the milk which was sold or distributed during each delivery period by each handler as Class I milk shall be considered to have been first, that milk which was received from producers' farms at such handler's plant located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston; then, that milk which was received pursuant to § 904.8 (b) at such handler's plant located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston; and then, that milk which was shipped from the nearest plant located more that 40 miles from the State House in Boston, including milk received at such plant pursuant to § 904.8 (b).

(b) Class II prices. Each handler shall pay producers, in the manner set forth in § 904.10, for Class II milk delivered by them not less than the following prices per hundredweight:

(1) In the case of milk delivered to a handler's plant located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, the price calculated pursuant to (2) of this paragraph for the 201–250 freight mileage zone plus 29 cents.

(2) Except as provided in (3) of this paragraph, in the case of milk delivered to a handler's plant located more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, a price which the market administrator shall calculate by combining in one sum such of the following computations as apply:

(i) Divide by 33.48 the weighted average price per 40-quart can of 40 percent

bottling quality cream in the Boston market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk is delivered, multiply this result by 3.7 and subtract the amount set forth in (c) of this section for the railroad freight mileage zone of the distance from the railroad shipping point for such handler's plant to Boston;

(ii) For any delivery period for which no cream price as described in (i) of this subparagraph is reported, multiply the average price reported for such delivery period by the United States Department of Agriculture for 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market by 1.4; multiply this result by 3.7; and subtract the amount set forth in (c) of this section for the railroad freight mileage zone of the distance from the railroad shipping point for such handler's plant to Boston;

(iii) For all delivery periods, except April, May, and June, compute any plus amount for skim value which results from the following: from the average of all the dry skim milk powder quotations for carlots for "human food products (roller process) in barrels" and for "animal feed products (hot roller) in bags" (using midpoint of any range as one quotation) published during such delivery period by the United States Department of Agriculture for New York City, subtract 4 cents; and multiply this result by 7.5; and

(iv) For the April, May, and June delivery periods, compute any plus amount for skim value which results from the average of the skim value computed pursuant to (iii) of this subparagraph and a value obtained as follows: compute the average of all quotations (using midpoint of any range as one quotation) published during the delivery period in the "Oil, Paint, and Drug Reporter," for domestic 20–30 mesh casein in bags in carlots at New York, subtract 6.6 cents and multiply this result by 2.2; except that if either computation results in a minus amount, the other shall be used in lieu of the average.

(3) In the case of milk, other than route returns, made into butter during the delivery periods from April to September, inclusive, of each year, at a handler's own plant located more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, the minimum price shall be computed by the market administrator as follows: from the average price reported for such delivery period by the United States Department of Agriculture for 92-score butter at wholesale in the New York market deduct 5 cents, add 20 percent, and multiply by 3.7: Provided, That any plus amount shall be added which results from the skim value as computed in (2) of this paragraph.

(c) Combined plant handling and transportation differentials. Differentials provided pursuant to (a) and (b) of this section and pursuant to § 904.10 (e) shall be as set forth in the following table: Provided, that in case the rail tariff for the transportation of milk in carlots in tank cars, as published in the New England Joint Tariff, M–3, is increased or decreased, the differentials set forth in Column B shall be adjusted correspondingly to the nearest one-half cent per hundredweight of such change, effective the first complete delivery period in which such change applies.

(d) Announcement of Class II Prices. On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall publicly announce the Class II prices in effect for such delivery period.

§ 904.7 Reports of handlers—(a) Periodic reports. On or before the 8th day after the end of each delivery period each handler who receives milk from producers shall, with respect to milk or cream which was received by such handler during such delivery period, report to the market administrator in the detail and form prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(1) The receipts at each plant from producers, including the quantity, if any, received from his own production.

(2) The receipts at each plant from any other handler, including any handler who is also a producer.

(3) Receipts at each plant pursuant to § 904.8 (b).

(4) The respective quantities which were sold, distributed, or used, including sales to other handlers, classified pursuant to § 904.5.

(b) Reports of handlers who receive no milk from producers. Handlers who receive no milk from producers shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require.

(c) Reports as to producers. Each handler shall report to the market administrator:

(1) Within 10 days after the market administrator's request, with respect to any producer for whom such information is not in the market administrator's files, and with respect to a period or periods of time designated by the market administrator: (i) the name, post office address, and farm location, (ii) the total pounds of milk delivered, (iii) the average butterfat test of milk delivered, and (iv) the number of days upon which the deliveries were made;

(2) Within 10 days after any producer begins or resumes milk deliveries: (i) the name, post office address, and farm location of such producer, (ii) the date upon which such producer began or resumed milk deliveries, (iii) the plant at which such producer delivered milk, and (iv) the plant, if known, at which such producer delivered milk immediately prior to the beginning of delivery to such handler;

(3) Within 5 days after any producer has failed to make deliveries for 5 consecutive days: (i) the name, post office address, and farm location of such producer, (ii) the date upon which milk was last received, (iii) the plant at which such producer delivered milk, and (iv) the reason, if known, for such failure to deliver;

(4) Within 10 days after any producer moves from one farm to another: (i) the name, post office address, and location of the respective farms operated by such producer, and (ii) the date upon which milk was first received from the new location; and

(5) On or before the 8th day after the end of each delivery period each handler shall report the names of any persons whose milk he is reporting pursuant to §§ 904.5 (c) and 904.8 (b) and include a certification that these persons have contracts as specified therein.

(d) Reports of payments to producers. Each handler shall submit to the market administrator, within 10 days after his request made not earlier than 20 days after the end of the delivery period, his producer pay roll for such delivery period, which shall show for each producer: (i) the daily and total pounds of milk delivered with the average butterfat test thereof and (ii) the net amount of such handler's payments to such producer with the prices, deductions, and charges involved.

(e) Outside cream purchases. Each handler shall report, as requested by the market administrator, his purchases, if any, of bottling quality cream from handlers who receive no milk from producers, showing the quantity and the source of each such purchase and the cost thereof at Boston.

(f) Verification of reports. For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made to the market administrator as required by this order or for the purpose of obtaining the information required in any such report where it has been requested and has not been furnished, each handler shall permit the market administrator or his agent, during the usual hours of business, to:

(1) Examine such books, papers, records, copies of income tax reports, accounts, correspondence, contracts, documents, and memoranda as the market administrator deems relevant and which are within the control (i) of any such handler from whom such report was requested, (ii) of any person having, either directly or indirectly, actual or legal con- trol of or over such handler, or (iii) of any subsidiary of any such handler;

(2) Weigh, sample, and test milk and milk products; and

(3) Make such examination of operations, equipment, and facilities as the market administrator deems necessary.

§ 904.8 Application of provisions—(a) Handlers who receive no milk from producers. The provisions hereof, except as set forth in § 904.7, shall not apply to a producer-handler nor to a handler whose sole source of milk supply consists of receipts from other handlers.

(b) Producers for other markets. Milk received from producers, who are reported by a handler as under contract to have their milk received and paid for as part of that handler's supply for a market other than the marketing area, shall be reported under a separate category, and the provisions of § 904.10 and § 904.11 shall not apply except that such handler shall make payment as provided in § 904.10 (h).

(c) Milk received from producer-handlers. Milk of a producer-handler's own production which is delivered in bulk to another handler shall be considered as being delivered by a producer unless the receiving handler is also a producer-handler.

(d) Handlers with less than 10 percent of total receipts as Class I in the marketing area. In the case of a handler, other than a cooperative association qualified pursuant to § 904.11 (a), who sells or distributes as Class I milk in the marketing area less than 10 percent of his total receipts of milk, the provisions hereof shall not apply except as follows:

(1) The handler shall, with respect to his total receipts and utilization of milk, make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require, and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

(2) The handler shall, with respect to that quantity of milk received from producers and actually sold or distributed as Class I milk in the marketing area, make payments as provided for in §§ 904.10 (g) and 904.12.

(e) Milk subject to the New York order. The provisions hereof shall not apply to the handling of milk received at any handler's plant which is subject to the provisions of the order regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan marketing area (Order No. 27), issued by the Secretary effective as of September 1, 1938, as amended, or of any order superseding or amending such orders.

§ 904.9 Minimum blended prices to producers—(a) Computation of value of milk for each handler. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute, subject to the provisions of § 904.8, the value of milk sold, distributed, or used by each handler, exclusive of milk received from other handlers, or pursuant to § 904.8 (b), in the following manner:

(1) Multiply the quantity of milk in each class by the price applicable pursuant to (a) and (b) of § 904.6; and

(2) Add together the resulting value of each class.

(b) Computation of the basic blended price. The market administrator shall compute the basic blended price per hundredweight of milk delivered during each delivery period in the following manner:

(1) Combine into one total the respective values of milk, computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, for each handler from whom the market administrator has received at his office, prior to the 11th day after the end of such delivery period, the report for such delivery period and the payments required pursuant to (b) (2), (g), and (h) of § 904.10 for milk received during each delivery period since the effective date of the most recent amendment hereof;

(2) Add the total amount of payments required from handlers pursuant to (g) and (h) of § 904.10;

(3) Add the amount of unreserved cash on hand at the close of business on the 10th day after the end of the delivery period from payments made to the market administrator by handlers pursuant to § 904.10;

(4) Add the total net amount of the differentials applicable pursuant to § 904.10 (e);

(5) Divide by the total quantity of milk which is included in these computations, except the quantity of milk included in the computation pursuant to § 904.10 (g) and the quantity of milk received pursuant to § 904.8 (b);

(6) Subtract not less than 5½ cents nor more than 6½ cents for the purpose of retaining a cash balance in connection with the payments and reserves set forth in §§ 904.10 and 904.11. This result shall be known as the basic blended price for milk containing 3.7 percent butterfat.

(c) Announcement of prices. On the 12th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall mail to all handlers who received milk from producers and shall publicly announce:

(1) Such of these computations as do not disclose information confidential pursuant to the act;

(2) The zone blended prices per hundredweight resulting from adjustment of the basic blended price by the differentials pursuant to (e) of § 904.10; and

(3) The names of the handlers who received milk from producers, designating those whose milk is not included in the computations.

§ 904.10 Payments for milk—(a) Advance payments. On or before the 10th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall make payment to producers for the approximate value of milk received during the first 15 days of such delivery period. In no event shall such advance payment be at a rate less than the Class II price for such delivery period.

(b) Final payments. On or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall make payment for the total value of milk received during such delivery period as required to be computed pursuant to § 904.9 (a), as follows:

(1) To each producer at not less than the basic blended price per hundredweight, subject to the differentials set forth in (d) and (e) of this section, for the quantity of milk delivered by such producer;

(2) To producers, through the market administrator, by paying to, on or before the 23d day after the end of each delivery period, or receiving from the market administrator, on or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period, as the case may be, the amount by which the payments required to be made pursuant to (1) of this paragraph are less than or exceed the value of milk as required to be computed for such handler pursuant to § 904.9 (a), as shown in a statement rendered by the market administrator on or before the 20th day after the end of such delivery period.

(c) Adjustments of errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses errors made in payments pursuant to (b) (2) of this section, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within 15 days, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler, the market administrator shall, within 15 days, make such payment to such handler. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment to any producer for milk delivered to any handler discloses payment to such producer of a less amount than is required by this section, the handler shall make up such payment to the producer not later than the time of making final payment for the period in which such error is disclosed.

(d) Butterfat differential. Each handler shall, in making the payments to each producer for milk received from him, add for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content above 3.7 percent or deduct for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content below 3.7 percent an amount per hundredweight which shall be calculated by the market administrator as follows: divide by 33.48 the weighted average price per 40-quart can of 40 percent bottling quality cream in the Boston market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the period between the 16th day of the preceding month and the 15th day inclusive of the delivery period during which such milk is delivered, subtract 1.5 cents and divide the result by 10: Provided, That if no such cream price is reported, multiply the average price reported for such period by the United States Department of Agriculture for 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market by 1.4, subtract 1.5 cents, and divide the result by 10.

(e) Location differentials. The payments to be made to producers by handlers pursuant to (b) (1) of this section, shall be subject to differentials as follows:

(1) With respect to milk delivered by a producer to a handler's plant located more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, there shall be deducted, per hundredweight, 13 cents less than the amount set forth in Column B of the table in (c) of § 904.6 for the railroad freight mileage zone for the distance from the railroad shipping point from such handler's plant to Boston.

(2) With respect to milk delivered by a producer to a handler's plant located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston there shall be added 13 cents per hundredweight.

(3) With respect to milk delivered by a producer whose farm is located more than 40 miles but not more than 80 miles from the State House in Boston, there shall be added 23 cents per hundredweight, unless such addition gives a result greater than the highest Class I price in effect pursuant to (1) of § 904.6 (a), in which event there shall be added an amount which will give as a result such price.

(4) With respect to milk delivered by a producer whose farm is located not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston or whose farm is located in Barnstable or Plymouth Counties, Massachusetts, there shall be added 46 cents per hundredweight, unless such addition gives a result greater than the highest Class I price in effect pursuant to (1) of § 904.6 (a), in which event there shall be added an amount which will give as a result such price.

(f) Other differentials. In making the payments to producers set forth in (b) (1) of this section, handlers may make deductions as follows:

(1) With respect to milk delivered by producers to a plant which is located outside the marketing area and more than 14 miles but not more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, 10 cents per hundredweight; and

(2) With respect to milk delivered by producers to a plant located more than 40 miles from the State House in Boston, at which plant the average daily receipts of milk from producers are: (i) Less than 17,000 but greater than 8,500 pounds, 4 cents per hundredweight and (ii) 8,500 pounds or less, 8 cents per hundredweight.

(g) Payments by handlers with less than 10 percent of total receipts as Class I in the marketing area. Handlers subject to § 904.8 (d) shall pay to producers through the market administrator, on or before the 23d day after the end of the delivery period, the value determined by multiplying the quantity of Class I milk disposed of in the marketing area by the difference between the prices applicable pursuant to § 904.6 (a) and the prices applicable pursuant to (1) and (2) of § 904.6 (b).

(h) Payments for milk received from producers for other markets. On or before the 23d day after the end of each delivery period, handlers who received milk pursuant to § 904.8 (b) shall pay to producers through the market administrator the value determined by multiplying the quantities of such milk in each class by the prices applicable pursuant to § 904.6 and subtracting the value of such milk at the Class II prices in effect for the plants at which such milk is received.

(i) Adjustment of overdue accounts. Any balance due pursuant to this section to or from the market administrator on the 10th day of any month, for which remittance has not been received in, or paid from, his office by the close of business on that day, shall be increased one-half of 1 percent, effective the 11th day of such month.

(j) Statements to producers. In making the payments to producers prescribed by (b) (1) of this section, each handler shall furnish each producer with a supporting statement, in such form that it may be retained by the producer, which shall show:

(1) The delivery period and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The total pounds and average butterfat test of milk delivered by the producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to the producer is required under the provisions of (b), (d), and (e), of this section;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment, if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight of each deduction claimed by the handler, including any deductions claimed under (f) of this section and § 904.11 together with a description of the respective deductions; and

(6) The net amount of payment to the producer.

§ 904.11 Payments to cooperative associations—(a) Eligibility of cooperative associations. Upon application to the Secretary, any cooperative association duly organized under the laws of any State which he determines, after appropriate inquiry or investigation, to be conforming to the provisions of such laws and of the Capper-Volstead Act, as amended, as to character of organization, voting requirements, dividend payments, dealing in products of nonmembers; to be operating as a responsible producer-controlled marketing association exercising full authority in the sale of the milk of its members; to be systematically checking the weights and tests of milk delivered by its members to plants other than those which may be operated by itself; to guarantee payments to its producers; to be maintaining, either individually or in collaboration with other qualified cooperative associations, a competent staff for dealing with marketing problems and providing information to its members with whom close working relationships are constantly maintained; to be collaborating with other similar associations in activities incident to the maintenance and strengthening of collective bargaining by producers and the operation of a plan of uniform pricing of milk to handlers; and to be complying with all provisions of this order applicable to such cooperative association shall be entitled to receive payments in the amount and under the conditions herein specified from the date of qualification, as fixed by the Secretary, until it has been found by the Secretary, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, that it has failed to continue to meet any condition or to maintain and exercise the authority or to perform any of the functions required by this section for the receipt or use of such payments. Any such cooperative association shall be eligible for payment, as follows:

(1) At not more than the rate of 1.5 cents per hundredweight of milk marketed by it on behalf of producers in conformity with the provision of this order, the value of which is determined pursuant to § 904.9 (a), and with respect to which a handler has made payments as required by §§ 904.10 (b) (2) and 904.12: Provided, That the amount paid with respect to milk received at a plant not operated by the cooperative association shall not exceed the amount which handlers are obligated to deduct from payments to members pursuant to (g) of this section. Such monies paid to such a cooperative association are not to be used in paying patronage dividends or other payments to members with respect to milk delivered except in fulfilling the guarantee of payments to producers. In cases where two or more of such cooperative associations participate in the marketing of the same milk, payment under this paragraph shall be available only to the association which the individual producer has made his exclusive agent in the marketing of such milk.

(2) At the rate of 5 cents per hundredweight as provided in (b) of this section on milk received from producers at a plant operated under the exclusive control of member producers or member associations for which it accounts to the market administrator pursuant to § 904.10 (b) (2) and which is sold as Class I to proprietary handlers except stores, handlers in which the cooperative or any of its members or affiliated associations or any other qualified association has any ownership or control, or a handler with which the cooperative has such sales arrangements that its milk not sold as Class I milk to such handler is not available for sale as Class I milk to other handlers.

(b) Computation of amount of payment at 5 cents per hundredweight. The amount due a cooperative association for each delivery period pursuant to (a) (2) of this section shall be computed by the market administrator as follows:

(1) Determine the quantity of Class I milk which it sold to proprietary handlers;

(2) Subtract the quantity of such milk which is not eligible for payment under the provisions of (a) (2) of this section;

(3) Subtract the quantity of milk received by the association other than milk received from producers at plants operated under the exclusive control of member producers or member associations; and

(4) Multiply by 5 cents per hundredweight.

(c) Payment to qualified cooperative associations. The market administrator shall, upon notice of the filing of an application, set aside each pay period from the cash balance created pursuant to § 904.9 (b) (6) such sum as he estimates is ample to make payments to the applicant and hold it in reserve until the Secretary has ruled upon said application and shall, upon claim, in form as prescribed by him, received at his office not later than the 10th day of the second month subsequent to the delivery period to which the claim applies or in which the Secretary's ruling is made, make payment for which a cooperative association is eligible pursuant to (a) of this section or issue credit therefor out of the said cash balance subject to verification of the receipts and other items on which the amount of such payment is based.

(c) Reports. Each cooperative association qualified to receive payments pursuant to this section shall, from time to time, as requested by the market administrator, make reports to him with respect to the use of such payments and the performance of any service or function set forth as the basis for such payment and shall file with him a copy of its balance sheet and operating statement at the close of each fiscal year.

(f) Suspension. The market administrator shall suspend payments upon request by the Secretary or such officer of the Department of Agriculture as he may designate by giving written notice to such association whenever there is reason to believe that a beneficiary of such payments is no longer qualified. Such suspended payments shall be segregated and held in reserve until the Secretary has, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, ruled upon the performance of the cooperative and either ordered the suspended payment to be paid to it in whole or in part or has disqualified such cooperative, in which event the balance of payments held in reserve shall be added to the cash balance, created pursuant to § 904.9 (b) (6).

(g) Authorized member deductions. In the case of producers whose milk is received at a plant not operated by a cooperative association of which such producers are members and which is qualified to receive payments pursuant to this section, each handler shall make such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers pursuant to § 904.10 as may be authorized by such producers and, on or before the 25th day after the end of each delivery period, pay over such deductions to the association in whose favor such authorizations were made.

§ 904.12 Expense of administration—(a) Payment by handlers. As his prorata share of the expense of the administration hereof, each handler, except as set forth in § 904.8 (a), shall on or before the 23d day after the end of each delivery period, pay to the market administrator a sum not exceeding 2.5 cents per hundredweight with respect to all milk received by him during such delivery period from producers and from his own production, the exact sum to be determined by the market administrator subject to review by the Secretary.

(b) Suits by market administrator. The market administrator may maintain a suit in his own name against any handler for the collection of such handler's prorata share of expense set forth in this section.

§ 904.13 Effective time, suspension, or termination—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this order or any provision hereof whenever he finds that this order or any provision hereof obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This order shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, there are any obligations arising hereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(1) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (i) continue in such capacity until removed by the Secretary, (ii) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements, and when so directed by the Secretary deliver all funds on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator or such person, to such person as the Secretary shall direct, and (iii) if so directed by the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

§ 904.14 Agents. (a) The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States, or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

[Order 107 Under MPR 188]

LIGHTWEIGHT FIREPLACE GRATES MADE OF STEEL

ESTABLISHMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 107 under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188—Manufacturers' Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods Other Than Apparel Materials.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order No. 9250, § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, and § 1499.3 (c) of General Maximum Price Regulation, It is ordered:

(a) This Order No. 107 applies to all fireplace grates made of steel which weigh less than five pounds. Set forth below are the maximum prices for sales by the manufacturer, wholesalers, and retailers. However, these prices may be charged only if the manufacturer attaches to the grate the written warranty described in paragraph (b). If the manufacturer does not make the warranty, the maximum prices for sales by the manufacturer, wholesalers, and retailers shall be computed by deducting 15% from the prices set forth below.

(1) For sales by the manufacturer, the maximum price is $1.65 f. o. b. factory.

(2) For sales at wholesale by a person other than the manufacturer, the maximum price is $2.00, f. o. b. seller's point of shipment.

(3) For sales at retail, the maximum price is $3.00.

(b) The maximum prices set forth above can be charged only if the manufacturer sells the grate with a written warranty in the following form:

------------------------------------, the (Insert name of manufacturer)
manufacturer of this grate, warrants to the retailer and to any person buying from him that it is fit for burning coal or wood in a fireplace.

The warranty shall be attached to the grate by the manufacturer and shall not be detached until after the grate has been delivered to the consumer.

(c) Before delivery of a grate to any purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall attach a tag or label which plainly states that the retail ceiling price of the grate is $3.00. The tag or label shall not be detached until the grate has been delivered to the consumer.

(d) At or prior to the first invoice to each purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser of the maximum price set by this order for resales by the purchaser. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) This Order No. 107 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to terms used herein.

(g) This Order No. 107 shall become effective on the 29th day of December 1942, and shall terminate on the 1st day of April 1943.

Issued this 29th day of December 1942.

In the matter of Public Service Company of New Hampshire, the Twin State Gas and Electric Company and New England Public Service Company.

Notice is hereby given that joint declarations and applications have been filed with this Commission by Public Service Company of New Hampshire (Public Service), The Twin State Gas and Electric Company (Twin State) and New England Public Service Company (Nepsco), the last named company being a registered holding company, pursuant to sections 6, 7, 9, 10 and 12 of the Act. All interested persons are referred to said document which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

I

Twin State proposes to sell to Public Service and Public Service proposes to acquire from Twin State (both subsidiaries of Nepsco) the latter's rights and properties used in and pertaining to its electric and gas business in New Hampshire and its electric business in Maine, together with $10,000 principal amount of 3% Deferred Debentures of December 1, 1936 and twenty shares of common stock without par value of Nepsco Appliance Finance Corporation, incidental current assets and incidental other securities and real estate (hereinafter called the "New Hampshire Properties"), for a cash consideration of $4,048,977.02 (plus net current assets). Twin State proposes to use the proceeds from the sale of its New Hampshire Properties to redeem its $2,435,200 outstanding principal amount of First Lien and Refunding Mortgage 5½% Gold Bonds, Series A dated March 2, 1925 and due March 1, 1945 at the current call price (101½% of the principal amount through February 28, 1943 and 101% from March 1, 1943 through February 29, 1944), and to reduce its outstanding bank loans from $2,255,250, to an amount estimated at $429,800.

II

Public Service further proposes to acquire from Nepsco, and Nepsco proposes to sell to Public Service, for cash the assets tabulated below at prices indicated opposite each item:

	Price
(1) The interest held by Nepsco in 1,000 shares of beneficial interest, no par value, of Swans Falls Co	$150,000
(2) The following securities:
Nepsco Appliance Finance Corporation—
10 shares common stock, no par value	100
$20,000 principal amount of 3% deferred debentures due Dec. 1, 1956	*20,000
Nepsco Services, Inc.—
200 shares common stock, $10 par value	2,000
$6,000 principal amount of 5% debentures due Aug. 1, 1956	*6,000
Salmon Falls Water Co.—
715 shares capital stock, $100 par value	18,980
Total	197,080

*Plus accrued interest

Public Service further proposes to issue and sell for cash $22,000,000 principal amount of its First and General Mortgage Bonds, Series A 3¼% due 1973, to be dated January 1, 1943, and to be due January 1, 1973 (hereinafter called the "Bonds"); the Bonds to be issued under and secured by an indenture of Mortgage to Old Colony Trust Company, as Trustee, and to be dated as of January 1, 1943. It is further proposed that the Bonds will be sold, under a firm commitment, to underwriters or investors to be selected by competitive bidding under Rule U-50. Public Service further proposes to issue and sell privately for cash at par $2,500,000 of unsecured notes (hereinafter called the "Notes"), to be dated on a convenient date (not later than the day the notes are issued) in the month of such issue and to mature serially, in amounts of $150,000 semi-annually for the first five years and $100,000 semi-annually for the second five years, after the date borne by the Notes.

Public Service further proposes to issue and sell 3,284 shares of its Common Stock, no par value, to Nepsco, and Nepsco proposes to acquire said stock from Public Service for $197,040 ($60 per share).

Public Service states that under the exemptions contained in paragraphs (a) (2) and (a) (3) of Rule U-50, paragraphs (b) and (c) of said Rule are not applicable to the issue and sale of the Notes and Common Stock.

Public Service proposes to apply the proceeds from the sale of the Bonds, Notes and Common Stock as follows: (a) to redeem and retire the presently outstanding bonds of Public Service in the aggregate principal amount of $18,929,000; (b) to pay the then outstanding bank loans of Public Service; (c) to pay for the New Hampshire properties of Twin State and (d) to pay for the assets to be acquired from Nepsco.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters, that said declarations shall not become effective nor said applications be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

[1] 7 F.R. 10484.

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matters under the applicable provisions of said Act and Rules of the Commission thereunder be held on January 12, 1943 at 10:00 o'clock, a. m., E. W. T., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. At such hearing cause shall be shown why such declarations and applications shall become effective or shall be granted. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above named declarants and applicants and to all interested parties, said notices to be given to said declarants and applicants by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of issues presented by said declarations and applications otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the consideration to be paid by Public Service for the properties to be acquired from Twin State and the assets of Nepsco is reasonable and whether the acquisition of the assets is in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers of Public Service.

2. Whether all acquisitions proposed meet the requirements of section 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and all Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

3. Whether the issuance or sale by Public Service of the aforementioned securities are solely for the purpose of financing the business of that company.

4. Whether the issuance or sale by Public Service of the aforementioned securities have been expressly authorized by the State Commission of the State in which that company is organized and doing business.

5. Whether the accounting entries to be made in connection with any or all of such proposed transactions are appropriate under the standards and requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and all Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

6. Whether terms and conditions are appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers or are necessary to be imposed to insure compliance with the requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or any rules, regulations or orders promulgated thereunder.

7. Generally, whether all actions proposed to be taken comply with the requirements of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and rules, regulations or orders promulgated thereunder.

By the Commission.

TRINITY GOLDBAR MINING CO.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND DESIGNATING OFFICER TO TAKE TESTIMONY

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 28th day of December, A. D. 1942.

In the matter of proceeding under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended, to determine whether the registration of Trinity Goldbar Mining Company assessable common stock, 25¢ par value, should be suspended or withdrawn.

I

It appearing to the Commission:

That Trinity Goldbar Mining Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Nevada, is the issuer of Assessable Common Stock, 25¢ Par Value; and that said Trinity Goldbar Mining Company registered such security on the San Francisco Mining Exchange, a national securities exchange, by filing with the Exchange and with the Commission on or about November 23, 1935, an application on Form 10, pursuant to section 12 (b) and (c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and pursuant to Rule X-12B-1, as amended, promulgated by the Commission thereunder, which registration became effective December 23, 1935, and has remained in effect to and including the date hereof; and it further appearing to the Commission:

That Rule X-13A-1, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does require that an annual report for each issuer of a security registered on a national securities exchange shall be filed on the appropriate form prescribed therefor; and

That Rule X-13A-2, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does prescribe Form 10-K as the annual report form to be used for the annual reports of all corporations except those for which another form is specified, and that no other form was or is specified for use by the said Trinity Goldbar Mining Company; and

That said Rule X-13A-1 requires that said annual report be filed not more than 120 days after the close of each fiscal year or such other period as may be prescribed in the instruction book applicable to the particular form; that the Instruction Book for Form 10-K does not prescribe any period other than such 120 days; and that pursuant to said Rule X-13A-1 the annual report must be filed within such period unless the registrant files with the Commission a request for an extension of time to a specified date within six months after the close of the fiscal year; and

That said Trinity Goldbar Mining Company has a fiscal year ending December 31; that the annual report for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1941 was due to be filed not later than April 30, 1942; that registrant made no request for extension of time within which to file said report; that the time for filing was not extended by the Commission; that the annual report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1941, was not filed within the time prescribed for filing said report or at any later date; and

The Commission having reasonable cause to believe that:

The said Trinity Goldbar Mining Company has failed to comply with the provisions of section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules X-13A-1 and X-13A-2 promulgated thereunder, in that (1) it has failed to file its annual report for the year ended December 31, 1941 within the time prescribed for filing said report, and (2) it has failed to file such annual report at any later date; and

III

It being the opinion of the Commission that the hearing herein ordered to be held is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (2) of said Act, that a public hearing be held to determine whether Trinity Goldbar Mining Company has failed to comply with section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules, regulations and forms promulgated by the Commission thereunder, in the respects set forth above; and if so, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months or to withdraw the registration of the Assessable Common Stock, 25¢ Par Value, of said Trinity Goldbar Mining Company on said San Francisco Mining Exchange;

It is further ordered, Pursuant to the provisions of section 21 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that for the purpose of such hearing, John G. Clarkson, an officer of the Commission, is hereby designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law;

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony in this hearing begin on the 20th day of January 1943, at 10:00 a. m. Pacific War Time, at the Regional Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 625 Market Street, San Francisco, California, and continue thereafter at such time and place as the officer hereinbefore designated may determine.

By the Commission.
